The Bill has been framed on the lines of the corresponding English Statute, the Motor Car (International Circulation) Act, 1909, (9 Edw. 7, Chapter 37), and is introduced as an emergency measure in order to give effect primarily to the provisions of the International Convention relative to Motor traffic which was signed at Paris on the 24th April, 1926, and which comes into operation in the Island on the 14th August, 1932.

2. Power has been taken in the Bill to make regulations for the various matters dealt with in the Convention including the delivery and recognition of international certificates for motor vehicles and of international driving permits.
