Clause 50.—Alter to read as follows:—

Salaries of teachers will be paid through the Post Office, and should be drawn not later than the second Saturday after the receipt of the pay sheet. As soon as the pay sheet is received, it should be perfected by all the payees and sent to the Postmaster through one of them. Only one member of the staff may absent himself from the school for this purpose.

Teachers who being absent are unable to sign the pay sheet on its receipt should call individually at the Post Office for payment.

Clause 51.—Delete.

Clause 52.—Alter to read as follows:—

The Head Teacher will be held personally responsible for any fraudulent signatures to pay sheets, and for any delay in presenting the pay sheet for payment or in handing over the salaries to his Assistants. He (or she) should also see that the amounts provided are in accordance with the qualifications of the staff.

Clause 53.—Alter to read as follows:—

The Head Teacher (or the Acting Head Teacher) should, by written instructions to the Postmaster, stop payment of the salary of any member of the staff who has been absent from school for more than two weeks (except on full pay), deduction for which has not already been made. Any overpayment resulting from the negligence of the Head Teacher to observe this instruction is liable to be surcharged against him (or her).

Clause 54.—Add the following as a new clause after Clause 54:—

Rent allowance is paid only on application which should be made through the Assistant Inspector of the District within one month of the date from which it is claimed, giving the necessary particulars as to whether quarters are provided, and if so, the accommodation available and by whom the quarters are occupied; whether the applicant is married, and if so, whether the wife or husband is employed in Government service and where. If it is not forwarded within one month, rent allowance will be paid only from the date of application.

Clause 56.—Alter subsistence, lodging, and transport allowances as follows:—

Subsistence Allowance.—Alter Rs. 5, Rs. 4, and Rs. 3.50 to Rs. 4, Rs. 3, and Rs. 2.50, respectively.

Lodging Allowance.—Alter Re. 1.50, Re. 1.50, and Re. 1 to Re. 1, Re. 1, and 75 cents, respectively.

Combined Rate.—Alter Rs. 2.50, Rs. 2, Re. 1.50, Re. 1, and 75 cents to Rs. 2, Re. 1.50, Re. 1.12½, 75 cents, and 60 cents, respectively.

Transport Allowance.—Alter 37½ cents and 20 cents to 30 cents and 15 cents per mile respectively.

Clause 61.—Alter to read as follows:—

The following is the proportion of the teaching staff to the average daily attendance:—

Schools which have an average attendance of not more than 180 pupils for the past school year will be allowed one teacher for every 25 units of average attendance, with a maximum staff of six teachers.

Where the average attendance is over 180, the allowance will be one teacher for every 30 units, with a maximum staff of ten teachers.

Fractions of over one-half the quota shall count for an additional teacher.

In Bilingual schools the number of full-time teachers qualified in English who are included in the above staff will be one teacher for every 30 units of average attendance of pupils learning English.

Clause 112.—Alter "English School Leaving Certificate class" to "Junior School Certificate class".

Add the following:—

Senior School Certificate class	Rs. c.
	7 50

Clause 119.—Alter to read as follows:—

All fees should be forwarded twice a month—the first instalment not later than the 15th and the balance not later than the end of the month. When remitting fees, a statement showing the amount of fees collected each day should be forwarded.

Clause 126.—Alter to read as follows:—

All free pupils in a school should be certified as such by the Divisional Inspector. When three members of the same family (brothers or sisters) are admitted into a school, the Head Teacher should apply to the Divisional Inspector for a Free Pupil's Certificate on behalf of the youngest member. The number of free pupils in an English or Bilingual school, excluding the third member of a family, should not exceed ten per cent. of the number on the roll. If at any time the number of scholarships exceeds ten per cent. owing to a fall in the attendance, no scholarships need be cancelled but no new scholarships should be awarded to exceed ten per cent. of the average number on the roll for the previous year or the actual number on the roll at that time, whichever is less. Free pupils will be selected from amongst those recommended as deserving by the Inspector at the annual inspection.

Clause 133.—Alter “Department of Agriculture” to “Education Department”.

Clauses 138 and 139.—Delete, and substitute the following three clauses :—

1. Teachers should not forward requisitions for stationery or printed forms. Sufficient supplies of the former will be sent annually by the Head Office, and of the latter by the respective Divisional Offices.

Stationery is meant solely for official use and must be used as economically as possible.

2. Inventory certificates must be returned promptly. Disciplinary action will be taken against teachers who repeatedly delay the return of inventory certificates.

3. Requisitions for books and maps for school use should be made out in duplicate on the proper printed forms and submitted on the day of the annual inspection to the Assistant Inspector who will carefully scrutinize the requisitions and approve such items as he considers actually necessary. He will then forward the requisition to the Head Office through the Divisional Inspector. Requisitions made in any other way will not be entertained. Teachers must under no circumstances forward requisitions direct to the Head Office at any time.

Clause 149 (e).—Alter “Divisional Agricultural Officer” to “Divisional Inspector”.

Forms.—Delete all forms, and where they are referred to in the body of the Code refer to them as “the prescribed form”.

- (b) Transporting one bag of sealed bottles of arrack from the Jaffna Customs Railway Siding to the Arrack Warehouse situated within the Customs premises, and for returning one empty gunny from the Warehouse to the Railway Goods Shed, Jaffna.

3. All tenders must be in duplicate and sealed under one cover, and must be addressed to the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, Jaffna.

4. Tenders must either be handed in personally or be sent through the post.

5. Tenders must be marked "Tenders for the Transporting of Arrack" in the left hand top corner of the envelope, and must reach the Office of the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, Jaffna, not later than 12 noon on Tuesday, December 13, 1932.

6. Tenders must be made on forms which will be supplied on application at the Assistant Commissioner's Office, Jaffna, and no tender will be considered unless it is on the recognized form. Alterations must be initialled. Any tender containing alterations which are not initialled, will be liable to be treated as informal and rejected.

7. A deposit of Rs. 25 will be required to be made at the General Treasury, or at any Kachcheri. The receipt in respect of such deposit will be required to be produced at the Office of the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, Jaffna, before any form of tender is issued. If any person whose tender has been accepted, declines to enter into the contract and bond, or fails to furnish approved security within ten days of receiving notice in writing from the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, Jaffna, or his duly authorized representative that his tender has been so accepted, such deposit will be forfeited, and the defaulter will render himself liable to be included in the list of defaulting contractors precluded from having any concern in a Government contract. All other deposits will be returned after the contract has been signed.

8. Every tender must be accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, whose addresses must be given, engaging to become sureties for the due fulfilment of the contract. An address in Jaffna town for delivery of letters or notices to the tenderer must be inscribed on the tender.

9. The successful tenderer or tenderers hereinafter called the contractor or contractors will be required to execute a bond or bonds for the sum of Rs. 100 by hypothecation of approved titled deeds with two sureties each for a sum equal to that hypothecated by the tenderer or to deposit with the Hon. the Financial Secretary or the Government Agent, Jaffna, in the name of the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, Jaffna, a sum of Rs. 50 in cash and to sign a bond binding himself to observe the terms of the contract.

10. All letters and notices left at the address given as per condition 8 above will be taken to have been served on the tenderer or contractor himself.

11. The work of transporting should be done the very day notice is given of the existence of work.

11A. The contractor shall be liable for damages that may be caused to the casks or bags or to their contents or to both whilst in transit.

12. Payment for services rendered will be made weekly or fortnightly.

13. The contract will cease on a day's notice being given to the contractor in writing.

14. Failure on the part of the contractor to observe the terms will make him liable to fines leviable by the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, Jaffna, against whose orders appeal may be made to the Excise Commissioner. Such fines may be recovered from moneys due to the contractor for work done.

15. Any further information can be had at the Office of the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, Jaffna.

16. No tender will be considered unless all these conditions set forth above have been strictly fulfilled.

17. The Crown reserves to itself the right of rejecting without question any or all tenders and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

18. The contractor's obligation and rights under the contract will not be assignable or otherwise transferable without the consent and authority of the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, Jaffna, previously had and obtained in writing. The contractor will not be permitted to issue a power of attorney for carrying on work under this contract to any person whose name is on the list of Crown defaulting contractors or after the receipt from the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, Jaffna, of notice of objection in writing, to any other person to whom the Assistant Commissioner for reasons which appear to him sufficient objects. Any breach of this article of agreement will render the contract liable to cancellation without any compensation to the contractor.

19. No contract will be entered into with any person whose name is on the list of Crown defaulting contractors either individually or jointly with any other person.

20. Tenderers who had not previously held Government contracts must, when applying for tender forms, furnish the officer issuing the forms with a written statement giving their full names and permanent addresses and setting forth the district or districts in which they own landed property or have other interest. The extent of the landed property and the nature and extent of such other interests must also be stated.

Persons who have carried out Government contracts with Departments other than the Excise Department must state the name or names of such department or departments and the district or districts in which the service or services was or were rendered.

21. The contract will be entered into by the successful tenderer or tenderers with the Head of Department, acting for and on behalf of His Majesty the King and the designation of such officer will be deemed to mean and include the officer for the time being holding such office and his successors in office for the time being under the Government of Ceylon.

NOTIFICATIONS UNDER "THE PATENTS ORDINANCE, 1906."

THE following Specifications have been accepted:—

No. 2,550 of August 1, 1931.

Harry William Hammond.

An improved tea firing machine.

Abstract.—Means are provided for firing the tea, at a constant temperature and at a pressure greater than atmospheric. The hot air passes through a single row of trays only before it is discharged from the machine. An exhaust control valve at the top of the hood regulates the rate at which air passes out. Rotary seals for feeding and discharge are provided as well as means for controlling the speed of the endless band which carries the perforated trays. There are six claims and one sheet of drawings.

No. 2,617 of November 3, 1932.

Franco Bandini.

Improvements in and relating to the sterilization and cooking of tinned goods.

Abstract.—A process is described in which the contents of tins are sterilized or cooked after sealing the tins by making use of the heating effect of an electric current, e.g., terminals may be contacted at the top and bottom of the closed tin. Alternating or high frequency but not direct current may be used.

There are eight claims and no drawings.

NORMAN RAE,
Registrar of Patents.

THE following Specifications have been accepted:—

No. 2,574 of January 11, 1932.

John Robert Farbridge.

Improvements in Heating apparatus.

Abstract.—The applicant describes improvements in an apparatus of the form covered by his Patent No. 2,479 the main object being to secure higher economy in the ratio of heat imparted to the air, over fuel consumed. A smoke extraction chamber is provided in which a partial vacuum is maintained, for example by a fan. Consideration is given to preventing short circuiting of the furnace gases and to the areas, relative and total, of the apertures through which the furnace gases leave the heating flues. A device is described for the introduction of fuel without introducing excess of air.

There are eleven claims and nine sheets of drawings.

No. 2,610 of September 30, 1932.

The V. D. Anderson Company.

Feeding mechanism for presses.

Abstract.—The object is to force downwards a comparatively loose packed medium and in the lower portion to compact the material. A further object is to prevent rotation of the medium in the feed device. An open spiral to the lower end of which is welded a flange rotates in the upper portion and an adjustable vertical finger is provided to prevent sticking.

Below the flange is a space provided by a collar and into this projects a machine screw to prevent sticking or rotation of the medium. Below this is a spiral of smaller pitch and then another collar and machine screw and so on.

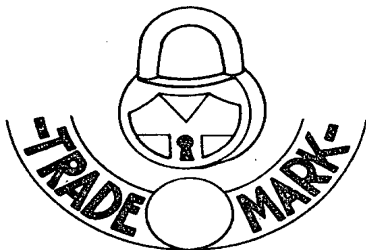

There are nine claims and two sheets of drawings.

NORMAN RAE,
Registrar of Patents.
