REGULATIONS.

Assessment of Standard Production.

1. In these regulations—

“mature area” means that area of an estate or small holding which is planted with fully mature rubber plants;

“immature area” means that area of an estate or small holding which is planted with rubber plants which are not fully mature.

2. The age at which a rubber plant shall be deemed to be fully mature shall be eight years reckoned from the date on which that rubber plant was first planted in any estate or small holding: provided that the age of a rubber plant which has been transplanted from a nursery to an estate or small holding, or from one part of an estate or small holding to another part of the same estate or small holding, or from one estate or small holding to another estate or small holding, shall be reckoned from the date on which it was so transplanted.

3. Where rubber plants are interplanted with other cultivation, two hundred rubber plants shall be taken as the equivalent of, and capable of producing as much rubber as one acre of an area on which rubber plants of an equivalent age are the only cultivation.

4. For the purpose of ascertaining the standard production of a registered estate or small holding, the mature and the immature areas of that estate or small holding shall be separately assessed.

5. The standard production of an estate or small holding for the period of twelve months beginning on the first day of January, 1934, shall be the sum of—

- (a) the amount of dry rubber which, in the opinion of the Controller, can be produced from the mature areas of that estate or small holding for that period, and
- (b) the amount of the allowance in respect of the immature areas, if any, of that estate or small holding determined for that period in the manner hereinafter provided.

6. The amount referred to in paragraph (a) of regulation 5 shall be determined by the Controller by any one of the following methods, hereinafter called method A, method B, and method C, respectively:—

Method A—by taking as the basis of assessment the total amount of dry rubber produced by an estate or small holding in the most productive year of that estate or small holding during the period 1929–1933, such amount being ascertained from the figures furnished to the Controller by the proprietor of that estate or small holding for that period.

Method B—by an assessment based on the district average specified in the second column of the Schedule to these regulations for the planting district in which the estate or small holding is situate.

Method C—by inspection and special assessment of the mature areas of that estate or small holding.

7. For the purpose of enabling the Controller to use method A in the determination of the amount referred to in paragraph (a) of regulation 5 in the case of a small holding, the proprietor of a small holding may furnish to the Controller on or before the fifteenth day of June, 1934, a special return in the Form S hereinafter set out showing the total amount of dry rubber produced by that small holding in each of the years 1929 to 1933.

8. If no return in Form S is received from the registered proprietor of any small holding on or before the date mentioned in regulation 7, the amount referred to in paragraph (a) of regulation 5 shall be determined by the Controller by method B or method C.

9. Method A shall not be used by the Controller unless he is satisfied that the production figures for the years, 1929 to 1933, furnished by the registered proprietor of an estate or small holding are accurate and reliable.

10. Method C shall be used by the Controller if an application for the inspection and special assessment of an estate or small holding by that method is received by him from the proprietor of that estate or small holding on or before June 15, 1934, together with a remittance for the fee prescribed in regulation 12.

11. If the Controller decides to use method C in a case where no application has been made under regulation 10 by the proprietor of a registered estate or small holding no fee shall be chargeable for the inspection and special assessment of that estate or small holding.

12. The fees payable for the inspection and special assessment of an estate or small holding shall be determined in accordance with the rates set out hereunder:

(1) Small holding	..	Rs. 5.
(2) Estate
10 to 25 acres in extent	..	Rs. 10.
26 to 50	..	Rs. 15.
51 to 100	..	Rs. 30.
101 to 300	..	Rs. 50.
301 to 500	..	Rs. 75.
501 to 750	..	Rs. 100.
751 to 1,000	..	Rs. 125.
1,001 acres in extent and over	..	Rs. 150.

13. For the purpose of determining the allowance to be granted in respect of the immature areas of an estate or small holding, each immature area shall be dealt with by sections according to the age of the rubber plants planted thereon and all areas of the same age shall be regarded as one immature section.

14. The allowance for any year of control in respect of an immature section of an estate or small holding which is situated in any planting district mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto shall be determined in accordance with the scale set out in the third column of that Schedule for that planting district: provided that the amount so determined in respect of an immature section shall in each case be appropriate to the age and proportionate to the acreage of that immature section.

15. No allowance shall be granted in respect of any immature section comprised of rubber plants which are five years old or less than five years old.

16. The age of any rubber plant for the purpose of the application of any scale set out in the third column of the Schedule hereto shall be the age of that plant on the first day of June in any year of control.

17. The Governor may appoint a Board of Assessors consisting of three members for the purpose of assisting the Controller to assess the standard production of any estate or small holding which is wholly or partly planted with budded rubber plants.

18. Notwithstanding anything contained in regulations 1 to 16, the standard production of any estate or small holding, or any area of either, which is planted with budded rubber plants shall be specially assessed by the Controller with the assistance of the Board of Assessors.

19. The productivity of an area planted with budded rubber plants whether it be an entire estate or small holding or a part of either shall be assessed by method C only.

20. The fees payable for the assessment of the productivity of an area planted with budded rubber plants shall be double those prescribed in regulation 12 in respect of a small holding or an estate of the same extent as that area and shall be recovered from the proprietor of the estate or small holding to which that area belongs.

21. Where an estate or small holding is partly planted with budded rubber plants, the area planted with rubber plants other than budded rubber plants shall be separately assessed under regulations 1 to 16 for the purpose of determining the standard production of that estate or small holding.

22. The proprietor of an estate or small holding who does not desire the productivity of any area of that estate or small holding which is planted with budded rubber plants to be specially assessed as an area planted with budded rubber plants, may apply to the Controller that such area shall for the purposes of the determination of the standard production of that estate or small holding be treated as though it were planted with rubber plants other than budded rubber plants.

THE following Order of His Majesty the King in Council, applying the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1932 of the Imperial Parliament, in the case of Poland, is published for general information.

By His Excellency's command,

The Chief Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, May 22, 1934. Chief Secretary.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of February, 1934.

Present,

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Lord President.	Secretary Sir John Simon.
Master of the Horse.	Mr. Normand.
Lord Stanley.	Sir Frederic Maugham.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870, (a) to 1932, (b) it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that His Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of His Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was signed on the 11th day of January, 1932, between His Majesty and the President of the Republic of Poland for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India,

And the President of the Republic of Poland,

Desiring to make provision for the reciprocal extradition of criminals,

Have resolved to conclude a Treaty for that purpose, and to that end have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India:

for Great Britain and Northern Ireland,

The Right Honourable Sir William Forbes Erskine, G.C.M.G., M.V.O., His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Republic of Poland;

The President of the Republic of Poland:

29. Dealing in slaves in such manner as to constitute a crime or offence against the laws of both States.

Extradition is also to be granted for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes or offences, before, during or after the crime is committed: provided that such participation is punishable by the laws of both the High Contracting Parties (that is to say, in Poland, in accordance with the laws of at least one of the Provinces).

Article 4.

Each Party reserves the right to refuse or grant the surrender of its own subjects or citizens to the other Party.

Article 5.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial in the State applied to, for the crime or offence for which his extradition is demanded: provided that the discharge of the accused on the ground that the crime or offence was committed abroad shall constitute no hindrance to his subsequent extradition.

If the person claimed should be under examination or under punishment in the State applied to for any other crime or offence, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

Article 6.

Extradition shall not be granted if the accused has by lapse of time, in accordance with the laws of that part of the territories of the High Contracting Parties in which he is found, acquired exemption from prosecution or punishment with respect to the crime or offence for which his surrender is claimed.

Article 7.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the crime or offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he proves that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for a crime or offence of a political character.

Article 8.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in custody or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made for any other crime or offence, or on account of any other matters, than those for which the extradition shall have taken place, until he has been restored, or has had an opportunity of returning to the State by which he has been surrendered (whether he has made use of this opportunity or not) or else until having returned there he reappears in the country to which he has been previously surrendered.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes or offences committed after the extradition.

Article 9.

Subject to the provisions of Articles 19 and 20, the requisition for extradition shall be presented by the diplomatic agent of the High Contracting Party requiring the extradition to the Secretary of State or Minister for Foreign Affairs of the High Contracting Party applied to.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime or offence had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A sentence passed in contumaciam is not to be deemed a conviction, but a person so sentenced may be dealt with as an accused person.

Article 10.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

Article 11.

In urgent cases a criminal fugitive may be apprehended under a warrant issued by any police magistrate, justice of the peace, or other competent authority in either State, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings, as would, in the opinion of the authority issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime or offence had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the magistrate, justice of the peace, or other competent authority exercises jurisdiction. He shall, in accordance with this Article, be discharged if within the term of thirty days a requisition for extradition shall not have been made by the diplomatic agent of the other State in accordance with the stipulations of this Treaty.

Article 12.

Extradition shall take place only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, (a) either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime or offence had been committed in the territory of the same State, or (b) to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the courts of the State which makes the requisition, and that the crime or offence of which he has been convicted is one in respect of which extradition could, at the time of such conviction, have been granted by the State applied to.

No criminal shall be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his committal to prison to await the warrant for his surrender.

Article 13.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or the affirmations of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, or copies thereof, and certificates of, or judicial documents stating the fact of a conviction, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

1. A warrant, or copy thereof, must purport to be signed by a judge, magistrate, or officer of the other State, or purport to be certified under the hand of a judge, magistrate or officer of the other State to be a true copy thereof, as the case may require.
2. Depositions or affirmations, or the copies thereof, must purport to be certified, under the hand of a judge, magistrate, or officer of the other State, to be the original depositions or affirmations, or to be true copies thereof, as the case may require.
3. A certificate of, or judicial document stating the fact of a conviction must purport to be certified by a judge, magistrate, or officer of the other State.

In every case such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated, either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of the other State, or by any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by the law of the State to which the application for extradition is made.

Article 14.

If the extradition of an individual is claimed by one of the High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty and his extradition is also claimed by one or more other States, the State applied to shall in its absolute discretion determine to which State the extradition shall be granted.

Article 15.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper tribunal thereof, shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

Article 16.

All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, and any articles that may serve as a proof of the crime or offence shall be given up when the extradition takes place, in so far as this may be permitted by the law of the State granting the extradition.

Article 17.

Each of the High Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention, and the conveyance to its frontier, of the persons whom it may have consented to surrender in pursuance of the present Treaty.

Article 18.

The Government of the Republic of Poland, in virtue of Article 104 of the Treaty of Peace, signed at Versailles on the 28th June, 1919, and of Articles 2 and 6 of the Convention concluded between Poland and Danzig on the 9th November, 1920, reserves the right of subsequently declaring that the provisions of the present Treaty are applicable also to the territory of the Free City of Danzig.

Article 19.

His Britannic Majesty may accede to the present Treaty on behalf of any of His Dominions hereafter named—that is to say, the Dominion of Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia (including for this purpose Papua and Norfolk Island), the Dominion of New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, the Irish Free State, and Newfoundland—and India. Such accession shall be effected by a notice to that effect given by His Britannic Majesty's representative at Warsaw, which shall specify the authority to which the requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in the Dominion concerned, or India, as the case may be, shall be addressed. From the date when such notice comes into effect, which date shall be specified in the notice, the territory of the Dominion concerned or of India shall be deemed to be territory of His Britannic Majesty for the purposes of the present Treaty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of the above-mentioned Dominions or India, on behalf of which His Britannic Majesty has acceded, shall be made by the appropriate consular officer of the Republic of Poland.

Either High Contracting Party may terminate this Treaty separately in respect of any of the above-mentioned Dominions or India. Such termination shall be effected by a notice given in accordance with the provisions of Article 23.

Any notice given under the first paragraph of this Article in respect of one of His Britannic Majesty's Dominions may include any territory in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Britannic Majesty, and which is being administered by the Government of the Dominion concerned; such territory shall, if so included, be deemed to be territory of His Britannic Majesty for the purpose of the present Treaty. Any notice given under the third paragraph of this Article shall be applicable to such mandated territory.

Article 20.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any territory of His Britannic Majesty other than Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands, or Isle of Man, or the Dominions or India mentioned in Article 19, shall be made to the Governor, or chief authority, of such territory by the appropriate consular officer of the Republic of Poland.

Such requisition shall be dealt with by the competent authorities of such territory: provided, nevertheless, that if an order for the committal of the fugitive criminal to prison to await surrender shall be made, the said Governor or chief authority may, instead of issuing a warrant for the surrender of such fugitive, refer the matter to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom.

Article 21.

This Treaty shall apply in the same manner as if they were Possessions of His Britannic Majesty to the following British Protectorates, that is to say, the Bechuanaland Protectorate, Gambia Protectorate, Kenya Protectorate, Nigeria Protectorate, Northern Rhodesia, Northern Territories of the Gold Coast, Nyasaland, Sierra Leone Protectorate, Solomon Islands Protectorate, Somaliland Protectorate, Swaziland, Uganda Protectorate and Zanzibar, and to the following territories in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Britannic Majesty, that is to say, Camerouns under British mandate, Togoland under British mandate, and the Tanganyika Territory.

Article 22.

If after the signature of the present Treaty it is considered advisable to extend its provisions to any British Protectorates other than those mentioned in the preceding Article or to any British-protected State, or to any territory in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Britannic Majesty, other than those mandated territories mentioned in Articles 19 and 21, the stipulations of Articles 19 and 20 shall be deemed to apply to such Protectorates or States or mandated territories from the date and in the manner prescribed in the notes to be exchanged for the purpose of effecting such extension.

Article 23.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties by a notice not exceeding one year and not less than six months.

In the absence of an express provision to that effect, a notice given under the first paragraph of this Article shall not affect the operation of the Treaty as between the Republic of Poland and any territory in respect of which notice of accession has been given under Article 19.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Warsaw as soon as possible.

In faith whereof the above-named plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done in duplicate in English and Polish at Warsaw this 11th day of January, in the year 1932.

WILLIAM ERSKINE.
AUGUST ZALESKI.
STEFAN SIECZKOWSKI.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Warsaw on the 19th day of December, 1933:

And whereas His Majesty has ratified the said Treaty in respect of, and the said Treaty thereby extends to, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (including for that purpose the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man) and all British Colonies:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Him by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the 12th day of March, 1934, the said Acts shall apply in respect of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, and all British Colonies in the case of Poland under and in accordance with the said Treaty of the 11th January, 1932.

This Order may be cited as the "Poland (Extradition) Order in Council, 1934".

Ordinance No. 17 of 1869.

275/6 (SB)

IT is hereby notified that the Principal Collector of Customs has made the following regulation under section 26 of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 :—

No explosives nor Calcium Carbide shall be discharged from any importing vessel until the importer produces a permit obtained in that behalf from the Collector of Customs by proving to his satisfaction that adequate arrangements have been made for the landing, transport, and removal from the Customs premises, and for the storage of the explosives or Calcium Carbide in a licensed store. In the event of these arrangements not being considered satisfactory at any stage, the Collector of Customs may order the discharge of the explosives or Calcium Carbide to be stopped and such discharge shall forthwith be stopped.

The Master of a vessel shall be liable for any discharge of explosives or Calcium Carbide from his vessel in contravention of this rule.

A. N. STRONG,
Principal Collector of Customs.

Colombo, May 22, 1934.

The following directions are issued for the guidance of Agents of vessels :—

(1) In forwarding to the Principal Collector the notice required under Port Rule VI., Agents are advised to give the name of the importer or consignee, together with the address of the licensed premises to which the dangerous cargo will be removed, and to furnish evidence of the steps taken to ensure its removal by the day following discharge. Copies should, if possible, be attached of applications made to the Police for Escorts to the lighters which will bear the cargo, and, where so required by law, to the vehicles wherein it will be removed.

(2) Evidence such as the Agents' endorsement on a Bill of Entry, Bill of Sight, or application to remove, will in any case be required before discharge can be allowed.

(3) Where delivery to the consignee within the prescribed period is impracticable the Agents should themselves take steps to have the cargo cleared.

(4) Dangerous cargo left lying at the moorings beyond the prescribed period will be liable to forfeiture and disposal by the Customs Authorities.

(5) Quantities of not more than one hundredweight of explosives or Calcium Carbide, or more than five hundredweight of safety cartridges or safety fuse, are exempt from this rule.

The Council met this day at 3 P.M., pursuant to notice, dated April 4, 1934.

Present :—Mr. W. L. Murphy, B.A., C.C.S., Chairman ; Mr. N. H. M. Abdul Cader ; Mr. C. H. Z. Fernando ; Dr. E. A. Coorey ; Mr. N. R. Blande ; Mr. M. L. M. Reyal ; Dr. S. Muttiah ; Mr. T. C. Dyball ; Mr. F. Dadabhoy, J.P. ; Mr. A. E. Goonesinha, M.S.C. ; Mr. W. J. Price ; Mr. T. A. Owles ; Mr. D. Doig ; and Mr. R. W. E. Ruddock.

1. The Minutes of the General Meeting of March 7, 1934, having been previously printed and copies thereof having been sent to each Member of Council, were taken as read.

Resolved that the Minutes of the General Meeting of March 7, 1934, be confirmed.

1A. With the permission of Council, the Chairman moved that the Council records its sincere regret at the death of Dr. K. K. Jacob, Medical Officer, Infectious Diseases Hospital, and its sympathy with his relatives and directs that a copy of this resolution be sent to them. Mr. N. H. M. Abdul Cader seconded. Carried in silence, all present standing.

2. With the permission of Council, Mr. A. E. Goonesinha asked the following questions which the Chairman answered :—

(1) Q.—Has the Chairman authorized the Charity Commissioner to devote any of his time to dealing with individual cases of debt of members of the Government General Clerical Service ? A.—Yes. (In accordance with the resolution of the Relief of Distress Committee of March 15, 1933).

(2) Q.—How long has the Charity Commissioner been thus engaged ? A.—Since March 31, 1933.

(3) Q.—How many cases has he dealt with ? A.—102.

(4) Q.—What amount has he charged the debtors for the services rendered ? A.—A sum varying from cents 50 to Rs. 10.50 as working expenses. The total amount charged came to Rs. 488.25, which was credited in full to the Lady Lochore Fund and no financial benefit whatever accrued to Mr. Nathanielsz.

(5) Q.—Does the Charity Commissioner operate the Lady Lochore Loan Fund alone or with others ? A.—This fund was placed in the charge of the Rev. C. E. V. Nathanielsz sometime before his appointment as Charity Commissioner and it is still administered by him and by him alone.

(6) Q.—If so, what is this Fund and who are responsible for the working of it ? How much is there in this Fund to-day ? A.—A full statement of the fund and its objects will be found in the Charity Commissioner's Annual Administration Reports.

(7) Q.—Is this registered as a Trust ? A.—No.

(8) Q.—Does the Chairman consider it advisable for an officer of this Council to operate this Fund rather than transfer it to the Public Trustee ? A.—I see no objection to this Charitable Fund continuing to be administered by Mr. Nathanielsz unless the Council decides otherwise ; the question of transferring its control to the Public Trustee is a matter that rests with the donors.

3. Pursuant to notice, the Chairman moved—That the Council do resolve itself into a Committee of the whole Council to consider the following extracts from the proceedings of the Committees annexed to the Agenda. Mr. N. H. M. Abdul Cader seconded.—Carried.

Abstract.—In one simple form of the invention chambers arranged in ring formation and mounted for rotation round the axis of the ring, are closed by a casing during the stages of compression and expansion. This casing merges into volutes in two diametrically opposed zones to guide the principal currents out of the apparatus during the stages of displacement at constant pressure. The zones of compression and of expansion communicate with each other through connecting ducts secured to the casing. The vanes separating the chambers are hollow and the pressure exchange current is by-passed through them.
