“ money ” shall mean coins of all kinds whether or not current in Ceylon or elsewhere, and currency notes, and shall include money orders, postal orders, and postage or other revenue stamps, exchange bills, bank post bills, bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, and all orders and authorities for the payment of money, whether negotiable or not, bonds, coupons, and securities for money whether negotiable or not ;

3. Foreign parcels may be sent to the countries and places specified in the Post Office Guide: Provided that the Postmaster-General may refuse to accept for transmission by Foreign Parcel Post any postal article or articles the transmission of which by parcel post is in his opinion an abuse of the privilege intended to be enjoyed by the public, or may direct that any article already accepted for transmission be returned to the sender.
4. (1) Prepayment of postage on foreign parcels shall be compulsory, and the postage shall be paid by means of postage stamps affixed to the parcel by the sender or his messenger.
(2) The postage shall be at the Foreign Parcel Post rates specified in the Post Office Guide.
5. Every parcel shall be presented at the counter of a Post Office, and shall be accompanied by a Customs declaration in such form and with such particulars as are specified in the Post Office Guide.

CASH ON DELIVERY AND VALUE-PAYABLE PARCELS.

General.

13. Any postal article may be transmitted by the parcel post as a Value-payable or Cash on Delivery article to such countries and subject to such limits placed on the amounts to be remitted to the senders of articles, and to such other conditions in connection with the systems, as may be notified from time to time in accordance with the agreements made with those countries.

14. All Value-payable or Cash on Delivery articles shall be subject (a) to the general rules, rates of postage, fees, and conditions which apply to other postal articles transmitted to the country to which they are addressed, (b) to the special provisions of the following rules, and (c) to such other fresh provisions as may be specified in the Post Office Guide in accordance with the agreements made with the countries to which the system applies.

15. The sender of a Value-payable or Cash on Delivery parcel may insure it under the rules relating to insurance.

Note.—The value declared for insurance need not correspond with the amount specified by the sender for remittance to himself. Thus, in the case of a watch returned after repairs per value-payable post to its owner, the amount to be remitted to the sender of the watch would be only the cost of repairs, while the sum insured would represent the value of the watch itself.

16. If the addressee refuses or omits to take delivery of a Value-payable or Cash on Delivery parcel, it may be returned to the sender.

17. In the case of a Value-payable or Cash on Delivery parcel being returned to the sender in Ceylon he shall, before it is delivered to him, sign a receipt therefor.

20. Until the amount to be remitted to the sender and any other charges due have been paid, no Value-payable or Cash on Delivery parcel shall be allowed to be opened for examination by the addressee.

21. Parcels on which the amount to be remitted to the sender has to be collected shall, in the matter of insurance and compensation and in other respects than those specified in these rules, be treated like other parcels.

22. After collection the amount to be remitted to the sender shall in no circumstances be refunded to the addressee.

23. (1) The sender of a Cash on Delivery or Value-payable parcel may by written application addressed to the Postmaster of the office of posting request that the parcel be delivered to the addressee free of all charges, or that the sum originally specified for remittance to himself be altered.

(2) A Postmaster may comply with such a request in regard to parcels received for delivery in Ceylon if the authority is sent through the office of exchange concerned, and is communicated to him by the Colombo Parcels Office of Exchange.

24. The Government shall not be deemed to have incurred any liability in respect of the sum specified for remittance to the sender of a Cash on Delivery article, until the recovery of that sum from the addressee.

where the parcel or article exceeds 21 but does not exceed 22 lb. in weight—Re. 1. 17.

(iii.) Where a parcel is not claimed by the first addressee and a second addressee is mentioned by the sender, such parcel shall be forwarded to, and the additional postage and other charges recovered from, the second addressee.

(iv.) No parcel which has been redirected and on which charges are due may be again redirected unless the charges already incurred have been paid.

(ii.) No parcel shall be accepted at any Post Office for insurance if it is so small or so covered with writing or sealing wax on the address side, or is made up in such a manner, as to render it impracticable to affix to the parcel the prescribed official labels of the Post Office.

38. Every foreign parcel intended for insurance shall be presented at the counter of the Post Office with such Customs declaration and other written information as may be specified in the Post Office Guide.

39. Advice of Delivery.—The sender of an insured parcel can obtain an acknowledgment of delivery on payment of a fee at the rate prescribed in rule 7.

40. Responsibility of Post Office for Parcels posted in Ceylon and Insured.—(1) In the event of any loss or damage occurring within the Postal Administration of Ceylon to any parcel, or to the contents of any parcel, posted in Ceylon, and where provision for insurance has been made, insured to its destination, compensation not exceeding the amount for which the parcel has been insured may be paid to the sender; and the postage prepaid, exclusive of the insurance fee, may be refunded.

(2) The sender of a parcel may waive his claim in favour of the addressee.

(3) Where such loss or damage occurs outside the Postal Administration of Ceylon, the compensation shall not exceed the amount of the liability admitted by the Administration in which the loss or damage occurs.

(5) No such compensation shall be payable in any of the following cases, namely—

- (a) Where the loss or damage has been caused by the fault or negligence of the sender, or arises from the nature of the article;
- (b) Where the parcel has been fraudulently insured for a sum above the real value of the contents, or there has been any other fraud on the part of the sender or the addressee;

- (f) Where there is no visible damage to the cover or seals;
- (g) Where the loss or damage is due to causes beyond control (e.g., tempest, ship-wreck, earthquake, war, &c.);
- (h) Where the insured article contained anything the transmission of which by the foreign parcel post is prohibited;
- (i) Where the insured article cannot be traced in consequence of the destruction of the relative documents through causes beyond control.

41. Redirection.—(1) When an insured foreign parcel is redirected or returned from Ceylon to any other country a fresh insurance fee shall be payable for each such transmission.

(2) Where a fresh insurance fee is due on an insured foreign parcel received in Ceylon by reason of its having been redirected or returned, such fee shall be recoverable on delivery from the addressee or the sender, as the case may be, as if it were postage due.

UNINSURED PARCELS.

42. Compulsory Insurance.—If an uninsured foreign parcel declared to contain coin or bullion or jewellery or found to contain any of these objects is received from a country with which insured parcels can be exchanged, the parcel may either be intercepted and returned to the sender or forwarded to destination and delivered to the addressee, subject to the payment of a fee of Re. 1. The receipt of this fee however shall not be deemed to impose any liability on the Government of Ceylon in respect of any such parcel.

43. Compensation for Loss or Damage of Uninsured Parcels.—(i.) The Postmaster-General may (not in consequence of any legal liability, but voluntarily and as an act of grace) pay to the sender, subject to the provisions of the following paragraphs of this rule, compensation for the loss or damage occurring in Ceylon of uninsured parcels sent by parcel post between Ceylon and such other countries as are specified in the Post Office Guide.

(ii.) The compensation so paid shall not exceed:

Rs. 5 for a parcel not exceeding 2 lb. in weight.

Rs. 13·50 for a parcel exceeding 2 lb. but not exceeding 11 lb. in weight.

(vi.) No compensation shall in any case be payable for injury or damage resulting from the loss of a parcel or any article contained therein or from any damage thereto.

(vii.) The Postmaster-General may in any case of loss or damage, if he thinks fit, replace the contents of a parcel instead of giving pecuniary compensation.

(viii.) Where compensation is given for the loss of a parcel or of any article contained therein, the Postmaster-General may in his discretion reserve to himself the right to retain and to dispose of the parcel or article in the event of its being recovered subsequently.

(ix.) In the case of a parcel lost or damaged in any foreign country or service, the Postmaster-General will, if compensation is payable under the rules of that service or country, endeavour to obtain compensation for the sender subject always to the provisions of this rule.

44. Claims for Compensation.—(i.) Every application for compensation under rule 43 shall be made direct to the Postmaster-General within a reasonable time; but in no case shall any application for compensation be entertained which is made more than twelve months after the date of posting of the parcel alleged to be lost or damaged.

(ii.) The receipt given to the sender at the time of the posting of the parcel alleged to be lost or damaged shall be produced when required.

(iii.) Where the application is made in respect of any damage to a parcel or of damage to or loss of any article contained therein, the parcel shall be retained by the addressee for inspection as nearly as possible in the state in which it was delivered, and importance will be attached to the point whether the addressee drew attention to any sign of injury borne by the parcel at the time of delivery and whether he opened the parcel, when it was possible for him to do so, in the presence of a responsible officer of the Post Office.

(iv.) In every case where complaint is made that the contents of a parcel have been abstracted, the empty package shall be produced in proof thereof.

45. Repeal.—The following are hereby repealed—

Perera seconded.—Carried in silence, all present standing.

4. The next item on the agenda was the following motion which stood in the name of Mr. S. H. Dahanayaka :—
“That this Council requests His Excellency the Governor to be graciously pleased to appoint a commission to hold a public inquiry to ascertain whether the death of a man named Girigoris by electrocution on June 11, 1934, at Nothariswatta, Richmond Hill road, Galle, was due to any negligence on the part of the Council's Electricity Department.”

The Chairman explained that as the matter was sub judice, and as he had already written to the Manager of Electrical Undertakings requesting that an inquiry be held, there should be no discussion on the motion.

Mr. S. H. Dahanayaka then formally moved the motion standing in his name. Mr. E. M. Karunaratna seconded.—Carried unanimously.

5. The following motion stood in the name of Mr. A. M. Saheed :—(1) That sealed tenders be called for to purchase the right to recover 4 per cent. commission from the purchaser and 5 per cent. commission from the owner of fish brought and sold at the fish auction shed for a period of one year from January 1, 1935, both inclusive subject to any conditions and terms that may be imposed in this connection. (2) That a Market Supervisor possessing the qualifications required for a clerk in this Council be appointed on a salary of Rs. 40 per month with the usual annual increments to fill in the vacancy created by the retirement of the Market Master who in addition to such duties shall relieve the Fish Auction Shed Clerk during the current year.”

Mr. A. C. Mohammedo objected to the motions being accepted on the ground that they were contrary to the resolution of Council contained in item 8 of the minutes of the meeting of May 26, 1934.

The Chairman ruled that the motions were in order on the ground that they formed an interim report of the Special Committee.

Mr. A. M. Saheed then moved the first motion standing in his name. Mr. E. A. Paulas seconded. Mr. A. C. Mohammedo spoke against the motion. Mr. S. H. Dahanayaka and Mr. E. M. Karunaratna supported the motion. Mr. J. E. Perera also spoke. The mover then replied. The Chairman moved as an amendment that the matter be referred to the Standing Committee on Finance and Assessment (with Mr. A. M. Saheed as co-opted member for further consideration and report as to what terms and conditions should be imposed on the renter. Mr. D. I. Durham seconded.—Carried.

"Improvements in methods of manufacturing products from the coconut in one chain of operations."

Abstract.—The dust from the husk is mixed with pulverized shell and a cementing agent and compressed to form fuel briquettes. The milk or emulsion obtained from the flesh of the coconut is converted into cream by the application of heat, a small amount of acid being added to hasten the coagulation. The coconut water is used for extracting the remaining sugars from the cream and thereby the sugar content of the coconut water is raised so that it may be used as a source of sugar or alcohol. Oil may be extracted from the cream after this has been concentrated to a solid mass and after extraction of the oil the residue is desiccated and yields a coconut flour.
