REGULATIONS.

1. No person having in his possession any article for sale shall enter the Customs premises at Galle for the purpose of trade, whether on those premises or on board any vessel lying in the harbour, unless he is the holder of a licence issued under these regulations.

2. The grant of any licence under these regulations shall be at the absolute discretion of the Collector of Customs, Galle, and every licence issued shall be under his hand.

3. Every person whose application for a licence is allowed by the Collector, shall before the licence is issued to him—

- (a) deposit a cash security of Rs. 10 in the office of the Collector, and
- (b) sign a bond declaring the deposit liable to forfeiture at the discretion of the Collector in the event of a breach of any of the conditions of the licence or of any of the rules or regulations of the Customs or of the Port.

4. Every licence under these regulations shall be subject to the following conditions:—

(1) The licensee shall not for any of the purposes of his trade—

- (a) enter or leave the Customs premises otherwise than through Jetty No. 1, or
- (b) enter the Customs premises before 6 A.M. or remain therein after 7 P.M. on any day.

(2) The licensee shall provide himself with a suitable book and enter therein a complete and reasonably descriptive list of the articles to be taken by him to the Customs premises for purposes of trade each day.

(3) The licensee shall not enter the Customs premises at any time unless the articles brought by him have first been produced for inspection before the officer on duty at the shore-end of Jetty No. 1, and the list in the licensee's book has been checked, initialled, and dated by that officer.

(4) In the event of any of the articles so taken in remaining unsold on his return, the licensee shall not remove them from the Customs premises until they have been inspected, and the list checked, marked, initialled, and dated, by the officer on duty at the same point on Jetty No. 1.

(5) The licensee shall not bring ashore from any vessel in the harbour, or remove from the Customs premises, any article not included in the list checked, and initialled by the officer at the time of the licensee's entry into the Customs premises.

(6) The book required by the foregoing conditions shall remain in the possession of the licensee at all times when he is engaged in his trade, and shall be produced for inspection whenever demanded by any Customs or Police Officer.

(7) The licensee shall not bring into the Customs premises for the purposes of trade—(a) any article on which export duty is payable, or (b) any synthetic or imitation stone or culture pearl.

5. (1) Every person contravening the foregoing regulation 1, or any of the conditions of a licence, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction with a fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction of a breach of any of the conditions of a licence the sentence may include the cancellation of the licence.

(3) It shall be lawful for the Collector in his discretion to declare the security deposited by any licensee to be forfeited in accordance with the terms of the aforesaid bond, either as an alternative to a prosecution for a breach of any of the conditions of the licence, or in addition to any fine imposed by a court on a prosecution duly entered therefor.

THE RUBBER CONTROL ORDINANCE, NO. 6 OF 1934.

BY-LAWS RELATING TO THE TAX ON VEHICLES AND ANIMALS.

1. The returns required to be furnished under section 179 of the Ordinance by an owner or other person whether resident within the Urban area or outside and liable or deemed to be liable to pay taxes in respect of animals or vehicles shall be made in the form supplied by the Council for that purpose and shall be filled up and returned by the person to whom such form is addressed.

2. (1) If any person, after having filled up and returned such return acquires, keeps, or uses any vehicle or animal, not mentioned in such return, he shall within one month of acquiring any such vehicle or animal, notify the Chairman in writing of the fact of such acquisition, keeping, or use, and further furnish true and correct information in respect of every such vehicle or animal so acquired, kept, or used.

(2) Whoever fails or neglects to notify the Chairman or to furnish information as required by the foregoing paragraph of this by-law shall be guilty of an offence punishable with a fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees.

3. Subject to the provisions of section 175 of the Ordinance every person who has furnished the return referred to in by-law 1 shall without further notice be liable, in respect of every vehicle or animal entered in such return, to pay the tax for the year for which such return is furnished and every person who has sent the written notice required by by-law 2 shall be liable to pay the tax on every vehicle or animal referred to in such notice for the year in which such vehicle or animal was acquired by him or otherwise came into his possession.

4. Any person who has furnished the return required by by-law 1 or the written notice required by by-law 2 may by written notice given to the Chairman claim to be exempted from the liability to pay any tax in respect of a vehicle or an animal which has been in his possession for less than 30 days in any year and is entered in or referred to in such return or notice.

5. The annual tax prescribed under the provisions of section 175 of the Ordinance shall be paid on or before the thirty-first day of March in every year in respect of all vehicles, other than those exempted by the Ordinance, and in respect of every horse, pony, or mule kept or used within the administrative limits of the Nawalapitiya Urban District Council.

6. The annual tax aforesaid shall be paid by the persons liable to pay the same at the Office of the Nawalapitiya Urban District Council whether the same shall have been demanded or not; and any person failing or neglecting to pay such tax after it shall have become due from him shall be guilty of an offence punishable with a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

7. On payment of the annual tax the Chairman shall issue or cause to be issued in respect of every vehicle for which such tax is paid a metal plate with distinguishing letters for the several kinds of vehicles as specified in the schedule hereto and with figures denoting the year for which the plate is issued and the corresponding number in the register of vehicles. Such plate shall be fixed on a conspicuous part of the vehicle in respect of which the plate was issued. Provided that when any plate becomes indistinct or defaced by use or otherwise, the owner shall return it to the Chairman and shall be entitled, on making a payment of 25 cents to receive a fresh plate; and provided further that the Chairman may, on his being satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that any plate has been lost or stolen, issue a fresh plate on the application of the owner and on payment by him of 50 cents.

8. Where the plate prescribed by these by-laws has not been duly affixed to any vehicle kept or used within the administrative limits of the Nawalapitiya Urban District Council the owner or person in charge of that vehicle shall be guilty of an offence punishable with a fine not exceeding fifteen rupees.

THE INDIAN LABOUR ORDINANCE, No. 27 OF 1927.

Notification No. 151.

NOTICE is hereby given under section 10 (1) of the Indian Labour Ordinance, No. 27 of 1927, that the minimum rates of wages approved by the Governor and set forth in the schedule to this Department's Notification No. 150 of October 12, 1934, will take effect from November 16, 1934.

2. The notice of all persons concerned is drawn to the fact that the said rates of wages have been fixed on the following understanding:—

- (1) That on all estates to which the rates are applicable clean unblended rice of good quality will be issued to each working Indian estate labourer at a rate not exceeding Rs. 4.80 per bushel.

The issue of rice will be at a rate per month not less than seven-eighths of a bushel for a man, six-eighths of a bushel for a woman, and five-eighths of a bushel for a child; provided a sufficient sum shall have been earned within the month to cover its cost.

- (2) That on all estates to which the rates are applicable clean unblended rice of good quality will also be issued free of cost at the rate of one-eighth of a bushel per month to each working man and that rice will also be issued at a similar rate to each widow employed who has one or more non-working children; provided that instead of the free issue of rice herein referred to employers may, with the consent of the Controller of Labour previously obtained and unless and until such consent be withdrawn provide one good and unstinted meal of rice and curry daily to each and every Indian child under ten years of age resident on their estates and related to the Indian labourers employed thereon.

W. E. HOBDAY,
Controller of Labour.

THE CEYLON PERFUMERIES, LIMITED.*ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE CEYLON PERFUMERIES, LIMITED.

1. (a) The regulations contained in the Table marked "C" in the schedule to the Companies' Ordinance, No. 4 of 1861 (herein called Table "C"), shall apply to the Company and be deemed incorporated herein, except so far as they are expressly or by implication modified or excluded or declared not to apply; and in the construction of these presents words importing the masculine gender only shall include the feminine gender, and words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and vice versa, and words including persons shall include corporations.

(b) The Company may by special resolutions passed at Extraordinary General Meeting, for which three months' notice at least must have been given in writing, alter and make provisions instead of or in addition to any of the regulations of the Company, whether contained and comprised in the Articles or not.

(c) The Company may proceed to carry out the objects for which it is established, and to employ and apply its capitals soon after the Registration of the Company as the Directors in their discretions shall think fit; and if the whole of the shares shall not have been subscribed, applied for, or allotted, as soon as in the judgment of the Directors, a sufficient number of shares shall have been subscribed or applied for.

(d) Mr. J. B. M. Pereira shall be entitled to receive as a bonus 10 per cent. of the subscribed capital of the Company by way of shares in consideration of the expenses incurred and services rendered by him, and in consideration of the floatation by him as promoter of the Company.

2. Regulation 24 of the Table "C" is expressly excluded and the following regulation substituted therefor, namely:—

24. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held at least one in every year at such time and places as may be determined by the Directors.

3. A quorum at any General or Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company shall consist of not less than five Shareholders personally present, and Regulation 32 of Table "C" is modified accordingly.

4. Regulation 35 of the Table "C" is expressly excluded from these Articles.

5. After Regulation 36 there shall be added the following regulation:—

36A. Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first instance by show of hands, and in case of equality of votes the Chairman shall both on a show of hands and a poll have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder.

6. Regulations 39 and 42 are expressly excluded and the following regulations substituted therefor, namely:—

39A. On a show of hands every Shareholder present in person shall have one vote. On a poll every Shareholder shall have one vote for each share of which he is the Shareholder.

B. No Shareholder shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of the shares in the Company have been paid.

7. Regulations 45 and 46 of the Table "C" are expressly excluded and the following regulations substituted therefor:—

45A. Until otherwise determined by a General Meeting only holders of 100 or more shares shall be entitled to be appointed as Directors of the Company.

B. The number of Directors shall not be less than three nor more than five, but this regulation shall be construed as being directory only and the continuing Directors or Director may act notwithstanding any number of vacancies.

C. The first Directors of the Company shall be Joseph Boniface Michael Pereira, Joseph Gabriel Charles de Silva Wijeyeratne, and Miss Sheila May de Silva, all of Colombo, who shall remain in office till the Annual General Meeting. As remuneration for their services the Directors shall be entitled to appropriate such sum as shall be provided by the Company in General Meeting.

D. A Director may with the consent of his Co-Directors be absent from the Meetings of Directors for such period or periods as the remaining Directors shall think fit.

E. If any Director shall be called upon to perform any extra services, the Directors may arrange with such Directors for such special remuneration for any services either by way of salary, commission, or payment of a lump sum of money, as they shall think fit.

F. The Directors shall have the right in their own discretion to refuse the application for shares of any person, body of persons, firm, company, or corporation without assigning reasons for so doing.

8. After Regulation 47 there shall be added the following regulations:—

47A. The Directors shall have from time to time to borrow or raise from the Directors or other persons, or banks any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, provided the money so borrowed or raised at any time shall not without the sanction of a General Meeting exceed 20 per cent. of the subscribed capital of the Company.

B. With the sanction of a General Meeting the Directors shall be entitled to borrow such further sum or sums and such rates of interest as such meeting shall determine. A certificate under the hand of one Director and the Secretary or of two Directors to the effect that in taking any loan, the Directors are not exceeding their borrowing powers shall be sufficient and binding on the Company and all concerned, and shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors.

C. For the purpose of securing the repayment of such money so borrowed or raised, the Directors may grant and execute any mortgage charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, lands, property rights, and assets of the Company or may make, accept or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange.

9. A quorum at any meeting of the Directors of the Company shall consist of not less than two Directors personally present and Regulation 56 of the Table "C" is modified accordingly.

We, the several person whose names and addresses are subscribed being Shareholders of the Memorandum of the Association, hereby agree to the Articles of Association.

(b) That he is not less than 19 years of age and not more than 25.

(c) That he is of good health and moral character. Applicants should attach to their applications :—

- (i.) Certificate of birth. Certificates of Baptism will be accepted, provided the baptism took place within four months of the date of birth; a certificate of baptism must be a copy of the entry in the Baptismal Register, and must be certified as such by the Incumbent of the Church in which the Register is kept.
- (ii.) His name in full and present address.
- (iii.) Father's name, profession and residence.
- (iv.) A certificate of character from the Head of the School or College at which the applicant was educated.
- (v.) A statement showing where he was educated, examinations passed, degrees taken, &c., and present occupation.
- (vi.) Particulars of property possessed by the applicant, showing the situation and nature of the land or property. It should be stated in the case of landed property whether it is ancestral or recently acquired.

It is considered necessary that candidates for these appointments should hold a degree of a University in the United Kingdom or equivalent qualification. The degree must include a course of study in Mathematics. A candidate with a Pass Bachelor of Science Degree of London in either Pure and Applied Mathematics and Physics, or Pure Mathematics, Chemistry and Physics, or Pure and Applied Mathematics and Chemistry, will be regarded as eligible.

Candidates will be required to appear before a selection board.

Selected candidates will be required :—

- (a) To pass a medical examination.
- (b) To enter into an agreement.
- (c) To take a practical course in Surveying, Levelling, &c., of about 12 months at Diyatalawa and elsewhere (during this period they will be paid at the rate of Rs. 1,800 per annum);
- (d) To take a post graduate course of an academic year at the University of Cambridge.

Candidates will receive free return passages to England. The University fees will be paid. An outfit allowance of Rs. 750 and an allowance of £225 per academic year to cover all other dues and expenses.

Candidates who are reported on favourably by the University authorities will, on their return to Ceylon on completion of their training, receive appointments as Assistant Superintendents of Surveys on three years' probation on a salary of Rs. 3,960—300—Rs. 4,560. On completion of the period of probation, if the officer's service has been satisfactory, he will be placed on the permanent and pensionable establishment of the Survey Department, as an Assistant Superintendent of Surveys, and will be eligible for further promotion.

Applications for these posts should be addressed to the Surveyor-General, Surveyor-General's Office, Colombo, from whom any further particulars may be obtained.

No application will be entertained after 2 P.M. on Friday, October 26, 1934.

Selected candidates will be required to commence their training at Diyatalawa in November.

(Dept. C),
Colombo, October 8, 1934.

G. K. THORNHILL,
Surveyor-General.

Junior Technical Assistant, Colombo Observatory.

A Junior Technical Assistant is required at the Colombo Observatory. His work will include the use of instruments of precision (meteorological, astronomical, electrical, and seismological), and statistical work in connection with the reduction, checking, and tabulation of meteorological and other observations. His hours will not be those of the clerical services, but will include a certain amount of work at night, and on Sundays and Public Holidays, for which no overtime is payable.

2. Salary Rs. 2,400 per annum, rising by annual increments of Rs. 120 to Rs. 3,840, and then, after an efficiency bar, from Rs. 3,960, by annual increments of Rs. 180 to Rs. 5,040. No rent allowance is payable. Leave, holiday warrants and other conditions of service will be as recommended in Sessional Paper VIII. of 1934.

3. Junior Technical Assistants of sufficient experience will be eligible for promotion to a senior post, provided they show the necessary reliability as well as technical knowledge.

4. Intending candidates should apply to the Surveyor-General, Surveyor-General's Office, with certificates testifying to their good moral character and general education, not later than 2 P.M. on Friday, October 26, 1934. Candidates should be in possession of an Honours or at least a good Pass degree in Mathematics or Physics, or an equivalent qualification.

5. Candidates should be not more than 25 years of age on October 1, 1934, and, in addition to possessing normal physical health, it is absolutely essential that their eyesight should be good enough for precise instrumental work. There is no objection to the use of spectacles.

6. The selection will be made by a Board, and the selected candidate will be on probation for the first two years. The post is pensionable, but the selected candidate will not acquire pension rights until confirmed after the period of probation.

G. K. THORNHILL,
Surveyor-General.

Surveyor-General's Office (Dept. C),
Colombo, October 8, 1934.

APPLICATIONS are invited for posts of Irrigation Sub-Inspector—salary Rs. 1,200 to Rs. 2,520 per annum by annual increments of Rs. 120, with efficiency bar before Rs. 1,980.
