Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to make provision for the relief of the coconut industry and for the marketing and exportation of the products of the coconut palm. The world-wide decline in the prices of copra, coconut oil and other coconut products has made it imperative that action should be taken immediately for the rescue of the industry from its present hazardous position, and this Bill accordingly seeks to give legislative effect to a variety of measures calculated to alleviate and improve the depressed condition of the market in coconut products.

2. The essential feature of the Bill is the establishment of a Coconut Board with wide administrative and advisory powers. This Board, which will be representative of all interests, will be empowered to make extensive investigations into all aspects of the coconut industry and to take steps for the systematic organisation of the trade in coconut products. The Board will be authorised to undertake propaganda both within and outside the Island and either alone or in collaboration with similar institutions in other coconut producing countries.

3. At a conference held in April, 1934, the Low-Country Products Association and other representative bodies advocated the establishment of a Sales Room and the introduction of a system for the control of the export of copra by the issue of export licences. The institution of a Sales Room will stimulate competition between buyers and will help producers and the general public readily to ascertain the best prices offered for the various classes and grades of coconut products. The establishment, supervision and administration of the Sales Room have been entrusted to the Board, but the Board will in all matters of policy and enterprise be subject to the general control of the Executive Committee. Copra is the key product of the industry and the prices of other coconut products depend on the fluctuations in the price of copra. It is therefore intended that the Sales Room will, in the first instance, be used for the auction of copra only though power has been taken to make the Sales Room the central market for all coconut products if such an extension of its activities is later found to be necessary.

4. Clauses 16 and 18 which provide for the export of copra and coconut oil on export licences issued by the Board do not take effect immediately the Bill becomes law, but can later be enforced by order of the Governor notified in the Gazette. Voluntary and bona fide support of the Sales Room coupled with an increase in the prices realised on the sale of coconut products at its auctions may possibly make it unnecessary later to give these clauses legislative effect; but power has been taken for the introduction of a system of control through export licences issued by the Board, in order effectively to defeat any possible attempt to adhere to the existing system of trading in coconut products despite the establishment of an organised central Sales Room.

5. Regulations will be made for the collection of authentic statistics relating to the coconut industry (Clause 29). All auctioneers, brokers, shippers, dealers and millers will be registered by the Board (Clauses 7 and 9); but it has not been considered necessary to introduce provision for the registration of proprietors of coconut estates. No auctioneer will be entitled to conduct a sale in the Sales Room unless he has been registered by the Board (Clause 8).

6. All regulations will be made by the Executive Committee and no regulation will have the force of law until it has been approved by the State Council and ratified by the Governor.

7. The cess referred to in Clause 23 will be used to defray the expenses of the Board and particularly to enable the Board to carry on propaganda with a view to increasing the demand for Ceylon coconut products in the markets of the world. It is not intended that all the activities of the Board should be financed from the cess alone. Provision has accordingly been made for the Board to receive, disburse and administer such monies as the State Council may vote or provide in aid of an industry which is the mainstay of the indigenous population of the Island.

PERI SUNDARAM,

Minister for Labour, Industry and Commerce.

Colombo, October 23, 1934.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

M. L. A.—B 1109

An Ordinance to provide for the extension of the term of office of the Councillors of the Colombo Municipal Council.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Colombo Municipal Council (Extension of Office) Ordinance, No. of 1934.

Short title.

2 Notwithstanding anything contained in the Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1910, and notwithstanding any act done or notice published under that Ordinance prior to the 7th day of November, 1934—

Extension of term of office of Councillors in office on November 6, 1934.

- (1) no nomination paper for the triennial general election of Councillors of the Colombo Municipal Council shall be delivered or received at the Municipal Office on the 7th day of November, 1934;
- (2) no general election of Councillors of the Colombo Municipal Council shall be held during the year 1934;
- (3) the Councillors of the Colombo Municipal Council who, whether nominated or elected, are in office on the 6th day of November, 1934, shall not go out of office on the 31st day of December, 1934, but the term of office of such Councillors shall be extended to and shall expire on a day in the year 1935 to be appointed by the Governor by proclamation in the Gazette.

Application of Ordinance No. 6 of 1910 unaffected by extension of term of office of Councillors.

3 The Councillors whose term of office is extended by this Ordinance shall continue to be subject to the provisions of the Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1910, and to administer the affairs of the Municipality of Colombo in accordance with those provisions; and any vacancy in their number may be filled in the manner provided by that Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to extend the term of office of the Councillors of the Colombo Municipal Council pending the passage through the State Council of the Bill to provide a new Constitution for the Municipal Council of Colombo.

2. Assuming that the new Constitution Bill will become law in the course of the next session of the State Council, it will yet not be possible to hold an election under that law until after the preparation of the new lists of voters and of persons eligible for election as Councillors.

3. Under the Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1910, a general election should be held in the month of December, 1934; but it will be necessary for another general election to be held in the year 1935 for the purpose of introducing the new Constitution provided for in the Colombo Municipal Council (Constitution) Bill.

4. The purpose of this Bill is to extend the term of the Councillors now in office to a date in the year 1935 which will be appointed by the Governor by proclamation in the Gazette and so to avoid the necessity for two general elections in consecutive years.
