DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

M. L. A.—B. 1139

No. 19 of 1915.

An Ordinance to amend the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance, No. 19 of 1915.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Housing and Town Improvement Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1934.

Amendment of section 13 (1) of Ordinance No. 19 of 1915.

2 Sub-section (1) of section 13 of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance, No. 19 of 1915, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), is hereby amended—

- (1) by the omission of the word "or" occurring at the end of paragraph (d);
- (2) by re-lettering paragraph (e) as paragraph (f); and
- (3) by the insertion of the following as paragraph (e) between paragraph (d) and re-lettered paragraph (f):—

"(e) fail to remove or pull down any building or alteration to any building erected or made for a temporary purpose under a permit issued by the Chairman, within the time specified in such permit; or".

New section 16A.

3 The following section is hereby inserted immediately after section 16 of the principal Ordinance, and shall have effect as section 16A of Chapter I. of that Ordinance:—

Power of Chairman to permit erection of buildings, &c., for temporary purposes.

"16A (1) Anything in this Ordinance or any other written law to the contrary notwithstanding, it shall be lawful for the Chairman in his discretion to grant to any person, on his depositing as security such sum of money as the Chairman may direct, a permit in writing to erect any building or make any alteration in any building, which may otherwise conflict or cause any building to conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance, on condition that such building or alteration shall be erected or made for a temporary purpose only and shall be removed or pulled down by the holder of the permit within such time not exceeding one year from the date of the permit as may be specified therein:

Provided that the Chairman may, if he thinks fit, grant such a permit without any deposit of security.

(2) If the holder of a permit granted under sub-section (1) shall remove or pull down the building or alteration referred to in that permit within the time specified therein, any sum of money deposited by him as security shall be returned to him.

(3) If the holder of a permit shall fail to remove or pull down the building or alteration referred to in that permit within the time specified therein, the Chairman may, without prejudice to the remedy provided by section 13, himself remove or pull down the building or alteration, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be deducted from any sum of money deposited by the holder of the permit as security and the balance, if any, returned to him.

(4) (a) Where no sum has been deposited as security, the expenses incurred by the Chairman under sub-section (3) shall be paid by the holder of the permit and may be recovered in the same manner and by the same process as a rate.

(b) Where the expenses incurred by the Chairman under sub-section (3) exceed the sum deposited as security, the amount of the excess shall be paid by the holder of the permit and may be recovered in the same manner and by the same process as a rate."

Objects and Reasons.

1. A local authority has at present no statutory power to permit the erection of temporary buildings for such purposes as weddings, alms-givings, &c., and to enforce their demolition when they have served the purpose for which they were put up. The object of this Bill is to amend the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance, No. 19 of 1915, so as to place temporary buildings of this nature on a statutory basis by prescribing the procedure for their erection and demolition.

2. Clause 3 of this Bill inserts in the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance, No. 19 of 1915, a new section the effect of which is to give the Chairman of a local authority the power to grant a permit for the erection of a temporary building, including a structure which may under that Ordinance be termed "an alteration" to a building, even though it may not conform to the existing law regulating the erection of permanent buildings. The procedure proposed is that the Chairman should be empowered to take a deposit in cash of an amount to be fixed by him and to issue a permit subject to the condition that the building is to be demolished by the person who erects it within a period to be specified in the permit, not exceeding one year. Provision is made for the refund of the deposit where this condition is complied with. If this condition is not complied with, the Chairman has the power to demolish the building, and the expenses incurred in the demolition are to be paid by the person who erected the building. Where a deposit has been made, those expenses are to be deducted from the deposit and the balance, if any, returned to the person who put up the building. Where there has been no deposit, or where those expenses exceed the amount of the deposit, the expenses or the amount of the excess, as the case may be, will be paid by the person who erected the building, and, on his failure to pay, can be recovered in the manner provided in the principal Ordinance for the recovery of a rate.

3. The purpose of clause 2 of the Bill is to supplement the scheme set out in clause 3 by adding to section 13 of the principal Ordinance a provision making the failure to demolish a temporary building within the time prescribed in the permit an offence. The effect of the proposed amendment of section 13 will be that the exercise by the Chairman of his right to demolish a building will not affect the liability of a defaulter to prosecution for the offence created by clause 3, or the power of a Magistrate when convicting a person of that offence to make a mandatory order for the demolition of the building.

Minister for Local Administration.
