DRAFT ORDINANCES.MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Notaries Ordinance, 1907.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Notaries Ordinance, No. of 1933.

Insertion of new section 10A in the principal Ordinance.

2 The following new section 10A is inserted between section 10 and section 11 of the Notaries Ordinance, 1907 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance") :—

Number of offices permitted.

10A No notary shall have more than two offices unless permitted by the Registrar-General for special reasons to have a third office which shall be placed in charge of a partner or an assistant who is a notary.

Amendment of section 20 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 20 (1) (c) of the principal Ordinance is amended by the addition at the end, of the words "has been convicted three times or oftener for a violation disregard or neglect to observe the provisions of rule No. 24 in section 29 ; or "

Insertion of new section 20A in the principal Ordinance.

4 The following new section 20A is inserted between section 20 and section 21 of the principal Ordinance :—

Resignation of office.

20A (1) If a notary applies to the Registrar-General in writing to resign from and to cease to act in the office of notary, the Registrar-General shall forthwith forward the application to the Governor who may accept such resignation as from the date desired by the notary.

(2) When a notary has resigned under this section he shall be entitled to retain his warrant which shall nevertheless be deemed to be cancelled for the purposes of sections 21, 22, 23 and 24.

(3) Notwithstanding such resignation a notary shall continue to remain subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and all rules and regulations contained therein or made thereunder in respect of all things done or omitted by him in the exercise of his functions as notary prior to the resignation.

Amendment of section 26 of the principal Ordinance.

5 Section 26 (1) of the principal Ordinance is amended (a) by substituting in line 3 for the words "and office" the words "the office", and (b) by inserting in line 4 between the word "practise" and the word "shall" the words "and such particulars concerning the security he has given as he is required to report under section 15".

Amendment of section 29 of the principal Ordinance.

6 Section 29 of the principal Ordinance is amended as follows :—

(a) Rule (14) by the addition at the end, of the words :

"And in the case of a mark he shall besides require such person to affix to the deed or instrument the impression of his left thumb and shall write over such impression at the time and in the manner aforesaid the words 'This is the left thumb impression of A. B.' (here insert the name of the person whose thumb impression it is)."

(b) Rule (19) (f) by the deletion of the words "and the name of the person by whom the stamps were supplied."

(c) Rule (29) by the deletion thereof ; and

(d) At the end, but immediately before the first proviso, by insertion of the words :

"Provided that where any notary shall act in violation of or shall disregard or neglect to observe the provisions of rule No. 24 the Registrar-General may by a written notice served on him personally or sent by registered post call upon such notary to comply with the requirements of the said rule within such further time as he may specify for such purpose, and any notary who fails to comply with the terms of such notice shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees."

7 Section 35 (2) of the principal Ordinance is amended by the deletion in lines 1 and 2, of the words "who are advocates or proctors of the Supreme Court".

Amendment of section 35 of the principal Ordinance.

8 Schedule II Form E of the principal Ordinance is amended by the deletion in lines 30 and 31 of the words "and that the stamps were supplied by ————."

Amendment of Schedule II of the principal Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

1. This Bill makes certain amendments in The Notaries Ordinance, 1907.

2. Clause 2 limits the number of offices that a notary may have. This provision is designed to prevent notaries from having a larger number of offices than they are able to control adequately.

3. Clause 3 provides definitely for the number of offences under section 29, rule 24, which should constitute repeated breaches or an aggravated breach of the rule.

Section 20 (1) (c) as it stands is inadequate to check slackness and dishonesty on the part of notaries. It is considered that the amendment suggested would be effective in checking such slackness and dishonesty as the offence is specified and the number of repetitions made definite and provides a method of dealing with the offender summarily.

4. Clause 4 provides for the resignation of office by a notary when he desires to cease to practise. There is at present no provision for this purpose in the Ordinance.

5. Clause 5 introduces an amendment which will require an annual declaration by a notary regarding the security given by him. The existing provision in section 15 does not sufficiently ensure that relevant information regarding the security is promptly brought to the notice of the District Judge.

6. Clause 6 provides principally (a) that a person signing documents with a mark should be made to affix to it his thumb impression as well, and (b) a more expeditious method than is at present available for dealing with notaries who do not forward their duplicates, &c., as required in section 29, rule 24.

7. Clause 7 extends to notaries who are not advocates or proctors the right of retaining documents which is a privilege that is essential if they are to practise in partnership with one another.

8. Clause 8 makes an amendment which supplements that occurring in clause 6 (b). They delete certain words which are no longer of any use because the system of sale of stamps by vendors no longer exists.

PERI SUNDARAM,

Minister for Labour, Industry and Commerce.

Colombo, August 2, 1933.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Tolls Ordinance, 1896.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Tolls (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1933.

Short title.

2 Section 13 of The Tolls Ordinance, 1896 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance") is amended by the insertion of the words "telegraph or telephone line belonging to Government" between the word "any" and the word "road" in line 18.

Amendment of section 13 of the principal Ordinance.

3 The following new section 25B is inserted between section 25A and section 26 of the principal Ordinance :—

Insertion of new section 25B in the principal Ordinance.

25B It shall be lawful for the Governor by order published in the Gazette to declare that as from a date there specified any ferry in respect of which a toll is levied or established under or by virtue of this Ordinance shall for all purposes be deemed to be a ferry constructed,

Transfer of ferries to village committee control.

9 of 1924.

regulated or protected under the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924; and from such date the provisions of this Ordinance shall not affect such ferry but its maintenance, regulation and protection, the imposition of tolls in respect thereof and all other matters concerning it shall be governed by the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

Objects and Reasons.

Clause 2 of this Bill exempts from tolls those engaged in the repair of Government telegraph and telephone lines on the conditions affecting those engaged on the construction and repair of roads, bridges, &c.

2. Clause 3 authorizes the transfer of ferries to the control of the inhabitants of the subdivision in which the ferry is situated. The right to impose the toll in respect of the ferry and the responsibility for the ferry's maintenance, regulation and protection will after the transfer be governed by the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

MOHD. MACAN MARKAR,

Minister for Communications and Works.

Colombo, August 8, 1933.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend The Ceylon Savings Bank Ordinance, 1859.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Ceylon Savings Bank (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1933.

Amendment of section 23 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 23 of the Ceylon Savings Bank Ordinance 1859 is amended by the insertion of the following words between the word " Governor " and the word " and " in line 7, viz. :—

" or in the debentures of the Ceylon State Mortgage Bank ".

Objects and Reasons.

The purpose of this Bill is to authorize the investment of moneys deposited in the Ceylon Savings Bank in debentures issued by the Ceylon State Mortgage Bank.

Financial Secretary.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to enable women to be admitted to the Legal Profession and to be appointed as Commissioners for Oaths.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Sex Disqualification Removal (Legal Profession) Ordinance, No. of 1933.

Women entitled to become advocates, proctors, &c.

2 A woman shall not be disqualified by reason only of her sex—

(a) from being admitted and enrolled, or from practising, as an advocate or as a proctor; or,

(b) from being authorised to practise as a notary by a warrant issued under the provisions of the Notaries Ordinance, 1907, or from practising or functioning as a notary under the provisions of that Ordinance or of any other written law; or,

(c) from being appointed, or from functioning, as a Commissioner for Oaths under the provisions of the Oaths Ordinance, 1895.

Objects and Reasons.

1. The object of this Bill is to enable women to be admitted to the Legal Profession and to practise as Advocates, Proctors or Notaries.

2. As Proctors are eligible for appointment as Commissioners for Oaths under section 13 of the Oaths Ordinance, 1895, provision has been made in paragraph (c) of Clause 2 of the Bill enabling women to be appointed as Commissioners for Oaths.

August 1, 1933.

E. ST. J. JACKSON,
Attorney-General.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

AL. 28/33

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 1 of 1844.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Definition of Short title.
Boundaries Ordinance No. of 1933.

2 Section 12 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1844 is repealed. Repeal of section 12.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

Where the title to any land is founded on a grant from the Crown, where the owner of any land either has attached to his deed an authenticated survey thereof or has received a certificate to the effect that the Crown has no claim over it, section 12 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1844 permits the person possessed of the land to mark its boundaries and then call upon the Surveyor-General to inspect them and to issue a certificate regarding the boundaries being sufficiently marked and as to the period during which they will continue sufficiently clear. For his services in this connection the Surveyor-General is entitled to certain payments prescribed in the section in question.

The Surveyor-General reports that there has been so far as his records show, only one application under section 12, and that it would cause considerable embarrassment to his Department if the right under the section were availed of frequently.

3 This Bill therefore repeals section 12.

Minister for Agriculture and Lands.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

AL. 241/31

An Ordinance relating to the appointment of Curators for the purpose of grants and leases of Crown land.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Crown Grants Short title.
(Curatorship of Minors) Ordinance, No. of 1933.

2 Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written Purpose law, any Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent for which may, for the purpose of a grant or lease in favour of a minor curator of any land or interest in land belonging to the Crown and may be situated within his Province or District respectively, appoint appointed.
after such inquiry as he considers necessary any fit and proper person as the curator of the property of such minor.

3 The Government Agent or the Assistant Government Manner of Agent as the case may be shall make a record in writing of the appointment.
proceedings of any inquiry under section 2, and where an appointment is made under the said section he shall forward to the District Judge within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such minor resides a certificate in duplicate signed by him containing the following particulars, namely:—

- (a) the date on which the appointment is made;
- (b) the purpose of making the appointment;
- (c) the name and address of the minor;
- (d) the name and address of the person appointed curator;
- (e) the nature and details of the transaction.

Confirmation of appointment by District Judge.

4 The District Judge on receiving such certificate shall after any inquiry as he may consider necessary, endorse an order on the certificate either (a) confirming such appointment or (b) setting aside the appointment and appointing some other person curator.

Record of appointment.

5 One copy of the certificate so endorsed shall be retained by the District Judge and filed in his court, while the other shall be returned to the Government Agent or the Assistant Government Agent from whom it was received and filed in the record of proceedings relating to its issue.

Effect of appointment.

6 An appointment confirmed under section 4 shall be deemed to be valid as from the date on which it was first made by the Government Agent or the Assistant Government Agent as the case may be, and it shall for the purposes of the grant or lease in respect of which the appointment was made be as valid and effectual from the said date as if it had then been made in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XL of the Civil Procedure Code, 1889.

Appointment not liable to stamp duty.

7 No stamp duty shall be payable in respect of any appointment made under this Ordinance, anything in the Stamp Ordinance 1909 to the contrary notwithstanding.

Objects and Reasons.

When a grant or lease of Crown land is to be made to a minor, a curator has now to be first appointed in the manner provided in the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, so that he might on behalf of the minor legally undertake to perform the covenants and other duties attached to the grant or lease. The process of having a curator appointed under the Civil Procedure Code is liable to some delay, and is generally expensive especially where the minor resides in some remote locality.

2. This Bill therefore provides on the lines of section 25 of the Land Settlement Ordinance 1931, an expeditious and inexpensive way of getting a curator appointed for the special purpose of such a grant or lease.

D. S. SENANAYAKE,

Minister of Agriculture and Lands.

Colombo, August 16, 1933.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

AL. 87/31

An Ordinance to declare that the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, was repealed by the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931.

WHEREAS Ordinance No. 1 of 1897 was enacted for the purpose of making special provision for the speedy adjudication of claims to forest, chena, waste, and unoccupied lands:

And whereas in the Title of the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, it is stated that the purpose of that Ordinance is to amend Ordinance No. 1 of 1897 hereinbefore referred to:

And whereas by a Proclamation published in Government Gazette No. 7,889 of the 23rd October, 1931, the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, was brought into operation with effect from the said date:

And whereas section 33 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, provides for the repeal of "Ordinance No. 1 of 1897":

And whereas section 2 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, defines the word "Ordinance" as including "the Ordinance referred to and any Ordinance amending it":

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, has been repealed by the provisions of section 33 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931:

And whereas it is expedient to remove such doubts and to declare that the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, has been repealed with effect from the date on which the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, came into operation :

Be it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, Declaration of Repeal Ordinance, No. of 1933.

Short title.

2 For removing doubts, it is hereby declared that the repeal of Ordinance No. 1 of 1897 effected by section 33 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, operates and has from the 23rd day of October, 1931, operated as a repeal of the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927.

Declaration that Ordinance No. 8 of 1927 was repealed by Ordinance No. 20 of 1931.

Objects and Reasons.

1. Section 33 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, repeals Ordinance No. 1 of 1897.

2. By virtue of the provisions of section 2 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, would stand repealed if it was an Ordinance amending Ordinance No. 1 of 1897.

3. The Title of the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, explains that the Ordinance is designed to amend Ordinance No. 1 of 1897, but the Short Title makes no reference to any such intention, and doubts have arisen as to whether the provisions in the body of the Ordinance can be construed as an amendment of Ordinance No. 1 of 1897.

4. The object of this Bill is to remove such doubts and to declare that the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, has been repealed from the date on which the Land Settlement Ordinance came into operation, viz. : the 23rd October, 1931. It has been considered necessary to explain in a preamble the circumstances which necessitate the introduction of this Bill.
