An Ordinance to declare that the Waste Land Ordinance,
No. 8 of 1927, was repealed by the Land Settlement
Ordinance, 1931.

F. G. TYRRELL.

WHEREAS Ordinance No. 1 of 1897 was enacted for the purpose of making special provision for the speedy adjudication of claims to forest, chena, waste, and unoccupied lands :

And whereas in the Title of the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, it is stated that the purpose of that Ordinance is to amend Ordinance No. 1 of 1897 hereinbefore referred to :

And whereas by a Proclamation published in Government Gazette No. 7,889 of the 23rd October, 1931, the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, was brought into operation with effect from the said date :

And whereas section 33 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, provides for the repeal of " Ordinance No. 1 of 1897 " :

And whereas section 2 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, defines the word " Ordinance " as including " the Ordinance referred to and any Ordinance amending it " :

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, has been repealed by the provisions of section 33 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931 :

And whereas it is expedient to remove such doubts and to declare that the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, has been repealed with effect from the date on which the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, came into operation :

Be it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927, Declaration of Repeal Ordinance, No. 28 of 1933. Short title.

2 For removing doubts, it is hereby declared that the repeal of Ordinance No. 1 of 1897 effected by section 33 of the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, operates and has from the 23rd day of October, 1931, operated as a repeal of the Waste Land Ordinance, No. 8 of 1927. Declaration that Ordinance No. 8 of 1927 was repealed by Ordinance No. 20 of 1931.

Passed in Council the Thirty-first day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Thirty-three.

DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, with regard to arrest and imprisonment for debt.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Civil Procedure Code Amendment Ordinance, 1933".

Short title.

2 Section 298 of The Civil Procedure Code, 1889, is hereby repealed and the following section shall be substituted therefor :

Repeal of section 298.

298 (1) Except as otherwise provided in this Code no warrant shall be issued for the arrest or imprisonment of a judgment-debtor, in execution of a decree or order for the payment of money.

Abolition of arrest and imprisonment for debt.

(2) If after the issue of a writ of execution the Court is satisfied on an application being made to it supported by affidavit and viva voce examination (should the Judge consider such examination desirable) that the judgment-debtor

Exceptions.

(a) with intent to obstruct or delay the execution of the decree or order is about to abscond or quit the Island or with the like intent has disposed of or removed his property or any part thereof from the reach of the Fiscal or has fraudulently alienated his property or refuses or neglects to surrender his property to the Fiscal for seizure and sale ; or

(b) is about to leave the Island under circumstances affording reasonable probability that the judgment-creditor will thereby be obstructed or delayed in the execution of the decree or order ; or

(c) is a proctor and the decree or order is with regard to costs ordered to be paid by him on account of misconduct or is with regard to money he has been ordered to pay as an officer of the Court or is with regard to monies entrusted to or appropriated by him in his professional capacity ; or

(d) is or was a public servant, a servant employed in a Local Government Institution, an executor, an administrator, a guardian, a curator, a manager of the estate of a lunatic or leper, a trustee or other person acting in a fiduciary capacity and the decree or order is with regard to monies appropriated by him or which came into his possession or control in any one of the aforesaid capacities ;

the Court may issue a warrant for the arrest of the judgment-debtor.

(3) The Court may instead of issuing warrant as aforesaid issue a notice on the judgment-debtor calling upon him to appear before the Court on a day to be specified in the notice and to show cause why a warrant should not be issued for his arrest and imprisonment in jail.

Notice on judgment-debtor.

(4) At any time after decree or order has been entered, whether an order has been made by Court for the issue of a warrant of arrest or not, the judgment-debtor may apply to Court by petition supported by affidavit, for a notice on the judgment-creditor to show cause why an order should not be made that no warrant should be issued for the arrest of the judgment-debtor or if a warrant has been issued why it should not be recalled.

Application by judgment-debtor.

Notice on judgment-creditor.

(5) Where the parties appear in Court on the notices issued under sub-sections (3) and (4) the Court shall consider the question whether a warrant should be issued for the arrest and imprisonment of the judgment-debtor and if a warrant has been issued whether it should be recalled and make such order as the justice of the case requires. In making such order the Court shall take into consideration the matters mentioned in sections 300, 301 and 311.

Procedure on notice and order.

(6) Under the warrant so issued the judgment-debtor may be arrested at any hour, day or place subject to the provisions of section 365 and shall, as soon as practicable, be brought before the Court.

Procedure of arrest.

Proviso 1.	Provided, firstly, that for the purpose of making an arrest under this section no dwelling house shall be entered into between 6 P.M. and 6 A.M.
Proviso 2.	Provided, secondly, where the judgment-debtor pays the amount of the decree or order in execution of which he was arrested and the costs of the arrest to the officer arresting him, such officer shall at once release him.
Amendment of Section 299.	3 Paragraph 2 of section 299 of the said Ordinance is hereby amended by interpolating the words "or at any time thereafter" between the words "in its discretion in making such decree" and the words "to order such defendant to be taken".
Repeal of Section 318.	4 Section 318 of the said Code is hereby repealed and the following shall be substituted therefor :
Limit of imprisonment.	"318 No person shall be imprisoned in execution of a decree for a longer period than six weeks if the amount or balance due on such decree or order is not more than Rupees three hundred and for a longer period than six months if the amount or balance due is more than Rupees three hundred."
Repeal of Section 365.	5 Section 365 of the said Code is hereby repealed and the following shall be substituted therefor :
When process may not be served or executed.	"365 Process in civil cases, whether at the suit of the Crown or individuals, shall not be served or executed between 6 P.M. and 6 A.M. nor on a Sunday or public holiday, nor on minister of religion while performing his functions in any place of worship, nor upon any individual of any congregation during the performance of public worship at any such place."
Repeal of Section 366.	6 Section 366 of the said Code is hereby repealed and the following section shall be substituted therefor :
Entry into building when executing a warrant.	"366 The outer door of a dwelling house or building shall not be broken open in execution of a warrant for the arrest of the person of the judgment-debtor unless such dwelling house or building is in the occupancy of the judgment-debtor and he refuses or in any way prevents access thereto but if the judgment-debtor shall have escaped or he shall have been rescued after having been duly arrested the outer door of a dwelling house or building belonging to or in the occupancy of any person whomsoever shall be broken open. If the officer authorized to make the arrest has duly gained access to any dwelling house or building, he may break open the door of any room in which he has reason to believe the judgment-debtor is to be found."
Repeal of Section 367.	7 Section 367 of the said Code is hereby repealed and the following section shall be substituted therefor :
Seizure of movable property.	"367 If the person executing any process under this Ordinance, directing or authorizing seizure of movable property or seeking to execute a writ by the seizure of movable property has obtained entrance into a house or building, he may unfasten or open the door of any room in which he has reason to believe any such property to be but he shall not break open the outer door of any house or building without the authority of the Court which issued the writ or the Court within whose jurisdiction the property to be seized is lying."
Repeal of Section 834.	8 Section 834 of the said Code is hereby repealed and the following section shall be substituted therefor :
Privilege from arrest : (1) Judges.  (2) Parties, pleaders, witnesses, &c.	"834 (1) No Judge, Magistrate or other Judicial officer shall be liable to arrest under civil process while going to, presiding in, or returning from his Court.  (2) Where any matter is pending before any tribunal having jurisdiction therein, or believing in good faith it has jurisdiction, the parties thereto, their pleaders, recognized agents and their witnesses acting in obedience to a summons, shall be exempt from arrest under civil process other than process issued for contempt of Court, while going to or attending such tribunal for such purpose and while returning from such tribunal to their home or place of residence.
(3) Members of Councils or Local Government Bodies.	(3) No person shall be liable to arrest or imprisonment under civil process if he is a member of the State Council or of any similar Council or of any Local Government Body during the continuance of a meeting of such Council or Body or during the continuance of the meeting of any committee of such Council or Body and of which committee he is a member. He shall also be not liable to arrest while going to such meetings and while returning therefrom to the home or place of residence.

(4) Nothing in this section shall enable a judgment-debtor claim exemption from arrest upon a warrant specially endorsed by the Court for immediate execution."

9 Section 836 of the said Code is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :

Repeal of Section 836.

" 836 No warrant shall be issued for the arrest and imprisonment of a judgment-debtor under civil process if he is suffering from any serious illness at the time and if at any time after a warrant has been issued the Court is satisfied that the judgment-debtor is seriously ill it may cancel and recall the warrant."

Illness of Judgment-
debtor.

10 Section 838 of the said Code is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :

Repeal of Section 838.

" 838 A judgment-debtor released under sections 834, 836 and 837 may be re-arrested but the period of imprisonment shall not exceed the maximum provided by this Code.

Re-arrest of judgment-
debtor.

11 This Ordinance shall not affect the validity of any order made prior to its coming into operation.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

1. The object of this Ordinance is to amend the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, so as to give relief to honest judgment-debtors, who from poverty and adverse circumstances are unable to pay their debts.

2. According to the existing procedure every judgment-debtor may be arrested and brought up as a matter of course and it is only after undergoing this humiliation that he is permitted to apply for his discharge.

3. The proposed amendments permit the court to notice the judgment-debtor before issuing a warrant for his arrest. The judgment-debtor too is allowed to make an application to court asking that no warrant be issued against him. This will prevent unscrupulous creditors from trying to incarcerate and humiliate honest debtors.

4. The immunity from arrest granted to judges, parties and their pleaders is extended to the recognized agents of parties as well as Members of the State Council and Local Government Bodies. The immunity granted to witnesses is made clearer. The interests of the public demand that Councillors should be protected.

5. Subject to certain exceptions the general rule has been laid down that a judgment-debtor cannot be arrested or imprisoned for debt. The law regarding dishonest debtors and persons appropriating monies entrusted to them in a fiduciary capacity is made more stringent.

6. Advantage has been taken to make certain minor amendments regarding procedure.

G. C. S. COREA,
Member of the State Council.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

AL 344/33

An Ordinance to amend " The Land Resumption Ordinance, 1887 "

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Land Resumption (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1933.

Short title.

2 Section 1 of The Land Resumption Ordinance, 1887, is amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 1 of the principal Ordinance.

(a) The section is renumbered as section 1 (1).

(b) For the words " in the English, Singhalese and Tamil languages to be published six times at least in the Government Gazette and in any two local newspapers and to be posted on such land " in lines 10, 11, 12 and 13, the words " to be published and to be posted on such land in the manner provided in sub-section (2) " are substituted.

(c) The following new sub-section (2) is added at the end :—

“(2) Every notice under sub-section (1) shall be published twice at least (a) in English, Sinhalese and Tamil in the Government Gazette, (b) in English in a local newspaper published in English, (c) in Sinhalese in a local newspaper published in Sinhalese and (d) in Tamil in a local newspaper published in Tamil; and every such notice shall also be posted in all three languages on the land to which it refers.”

Objects and Reasons.

1. Section 1 of The Land Resumption Ordinance, 1887, requires that as a preliminary to resuming possession of lands which have been alienated by the Crown and which have since been abandoned by the owners, a notice should be published at least six times in the English, Sinhalese and Tamil languages in the Gazette and in any two local newspapers.

2. This Bill provides (a) that the said notice should be published in a local English newspaper in English, in a local Sinhalese newspaper in Sinhalese and in a local Tamil newspaper in Tamil, and in all three languages in the Gazette, and (b) that the notice need appear only twice in each of the said publications.
