Statement of Object and Reasons.

In the year 1918 Sir Alexander Wood Renton C.J. observed that "the question of costs in partition proceedings deserves the serious and early attention of the legislature." In the same case Sir Thomas de Sampayo said : "In my opinion this matter of costs in partition cases is wholly discreditable to the administration of justice and I entirely associate myself with the observations of the Chief Justice as to the necessity of speedy legislation to remedy this intolerable evil."

All attempts to remedy this state of things have failed owing to the ambition of legislators to produce the perfect Ordinance. In the meantime the public continue to be scandalised by unconscionable bills of costs presented by unscrupulous proctors.

The amendments proposed in this Bill seek to bring about uniformity in all courts and to keep the size of bills of costs within reasonable limits.

Advantage has been taken of the opportunity for introducing some minor amendments which judges and practitioners alike have long felt the need for.
