MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS.

(Discipline.)

The Ceylon Medical Council in dealing with disciplinary cases is guided by the same principles as the General Medical Council of Great Britain whose Warning Notices are appended below (29th section of the Medical Acts, 1858):—

“ If any registered medical practitioner shall be convicted in England or Ireland of any felony or misdemeanour, or in Scotland of any crime or offence, or shall after due inquiry be judged by the General Council to have been guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect, the General Council may, if they see fit, direct the Registrar to erase the name of such medical practitioner from the Register ”—

It must be clearly understood that the instances of professional misconduct which are given below do not constitute, and are not intended to constitute, a complete list of the offences which may be punished by erasure from the Register : and that by issuing this notice the Council are in no way precluded from considering and dealing with any form of professional misconduct (as, for example, immorality involving abuse of professional relationship) which may be brought before them, although it may not appear to come within the scope or precise wording of any of the categories herein set forth. Circumstances may and do arise from time to time in relation to which there may occur questions of professional conduct which do not come within any of these categories. In such instances, as in all others, the Council have to consider and decide upon the facts brought before them.

1.—Certificates, Notifications, Reports, &c.

Registered practitioners are in certain cases bound by law to give, or may be from time to time called upon or requested to give, certificates, notifications, reports, and other documents of a kindred character, signed by them in their professional capacity, for subsequent use either in Courts of Justice or for administrative purposes.

Such documents include, among others, certificates, notifications, reports, &c.—

- (a) Under the Statutes relating to births, deaths, or disposal of the dead ;
- (b) Under the Acts relating to Lunacy and Mental Deficiency and the Rules made thereunder ;
- (c) Under the Vaccination Acts and Orders made thereunder ;
- (d) Under the Factory Acts and the Regulations made thereunder ;
- (e) Under the Education Acts ;
- (f) Under the Public Health Acts and the Orders made thereunder ;
- (g) Under the Workmen's Compensation Acts ;
- (h) Under the Acts and the Orders relating to the notification of infectious diseases ;
- (i) Under the National Insurance Acts and the Regulations made thereunder ;
- (j) Under the Old Age Pensions Acts and the Regulations made thereunder ;
- (k) Under the Merchant Shipping Acts ;
- (l) In connection with sick benefit, insurance, and friendly societies ;
- (m) For procuring the issue of Foreign Office passports ;
- (n) For excusing attendance in Courts of Justice, in the public services, in public offices in ordinary employment ;
- (o) In connection with naval and military matters.

Any registered practitioner who shall be shown to have signed or given under his name and authority any such certificate, notification, report, or document of a kindred character, which is untrue, misleading, or improper, whether relating to the several matters above specified or otherwise, is liable to have his name erased from the Register.

2.—Unqualified Assistants and Covering.

The employment by any registered practitioner in connection with his professional practice of an assistant who is not duly qualified or registered, and the permitting of such unqualified person to attend, treat, or perform operations upon patients in respect of matters requiring professional discretion or skill is in the opinion of the Council in its nature fraudulent and dangerous to the public health ; and any registered practitioner who shall be shown to have so employed an unqualified assistant, is liable to have his name erased from the Register.

Any registered practitioner who by his presence, countenance, advice, assistance, or co-operation, knowingly enables an unqualified or unregistered person, whether described as an assistant or otherwise, to attend, treat, or perform any operation upon a patient in respect of any matter requiring professional discretion or skill, to issue or procure the issue of any certificate, notification, report, or other document of a kindred character (as more particularly specified in Division 1 hereof), or otherwise to engage in professional practice as if the said person were duly qualified and registered is liable on proof of the facts to have his name erased from the Register.

The foregoing do not apply so as to restrict the proper training and instruction of bona fide students, or the legitimate employment of dressers, midwives, dispensers, surgery attendants, and skilled mechanics, under the immediate personal supervision of a registered practitioner.

3.—Sale of Poisons.

The employment, for his own profit and under cover of his own qualifications, by any registered practitioner who keeps a medical hall, open shop, or other place in which scheduled poisons or preparations containing scheduled poisons are sold to the public, of assistants who are left in charge but are not legally qualified to sell scheduled poisons to the public, is in the opinion of the Council a practice professionally discreditable and fraught with danger to the public, and any registered practitioner who is proved to have so offended, will be liable to have his name erased from the Register.

4.—Association with Unqualified Persons.

Any registered practitioner who, either by administering anæsthetics or otherwise, assists an unqualified person to attend, treat, or perform an operation upon any other person, in respect of matters requiring professional discretion or skill, will be liable on proof of the facts to have his name erased from the Register.

5.—Advertising and Canvassing.

The practices of (a) advertising by a registered medical practitioner with a view to his own gain, particularly if depreciatory of other practitioners or of sanctioning such advertising, of (b) employing or sanctioning the employment of agents or canvassers for the purpose of procuring patients, and of (c) associating with or accepting employment under any association which practises canvassing or advertising for the purpose of procuring patients, are in the opinion of the Council contrary to the public interest and discreditable to the profession of medicine, and any registered medical practitioner resorting to any of such practices renders himself liable on proof of the facts to have his name erased from the Register.

Previous Notices issued by the Medical Council.

In view of the practice among some medical practitioners on the Ceylon Register of covering unregistered practitioners by meeting in consultation or assisting them, registered practitioners are hereby informed, by order of the Ceylon Medical Council, that if in future any case of malpractice of this kind be brought to the notice of the Council, such offending practitioner will be liable to have his name struck off the Register under section 36 (e) of Ordinance No. 26 of 1927 for infamous conduct in a professional respect.

The Ceylon Medical Council desires to bring to the notice of all practitioners the following decision on two points which were submitted to them for consideration :—

1. Whether a Surgeon, called in to operate on a patient by his family doctor, is entitled to regard the patient as his, from the date of the operation ?

1.—Decision of Council.

Council decided that the Surgeon who operates cannot claim the patient as his, and should not visit him without the knowledge and consent of the family Physician.

2. Where more than one qualified medical practitioner co-operate in an operation which happens to be unsuccessful, is the operator justified in excusing the failure of his operation to the patient or his relatives by placing the blame on his colleague?

2.—Decision of Council.

Council is of opinion that it is grossly unprofessional to do so and that such conduct is worthy of censure.

DENTAL PRACTITIONERS.

(Discipline.)

It is enacted by section 13 of the Dentists Act, 1878, as amended by section 8 of the Dentists Act, 1921, that—

Where a person registered in the Dentists Register has, either before or after he is registered, been convicted in His Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere of an offence which if committed in England would be a felony or misdemeanour, or been guilty of any infamous or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect, that person shall be liable to have his name erased from the Register.

The Board may, and on the application of any Medical Authority shall, cause an inquiry to be made into the case of a person alleged to be liable to have his name erased under this section, and if the Board on any such inquiry are satisfied that the name of that person ought to be erased from the Register, they shall forward a report to the General Medical Council setting out the facts proved at the inquiry and the finding of the Board.

The General Medical Council, after receiving any such report, and after hearing any observations which the person affected or the Medical Authority may desire to make with reference to the report, may make an order directing the Registrar to erase from the Register the name of the person affected.

Provided that the name of a person shall not be erased under this section on account of his adopting or refraining from adopting the practice of any particular theory of dentistry or dental surgery, or on account of a conviction for a political offence out of His Majesty's Dominions, or on account of a conviction for an offence which, though within the provisions of this section, does not, either from the trivial nature of the offence or from the circumstances in which it was committed, disqualify a person from practising dentistry.

Any name erased from the Register in pursuance of this section shall also be erased from the list of licentiates in dental surgery or dentistry of the Medical Authority of which such person is a licentiate.

I.—Unregistered Assistants and Covering.

Section 14 (2) of the Dentists Act, 1921, is as follows :—

For the purposes of this Act, the practice of dentistry shall be deemed to include the performance of any such operation and the giving of any such treatment, advice, or attendance as is usually performed or given by dentists, and any person who performs any operation or gives any treatment, advice, or attendance on or to any person as preparatory to or for the purpose of or in connection with the fitting, insertion, or fixing of artificial teeth shall be deemed to have practised dentistry within the meaning of this Act.

The practice of dentistry, except by persons registered in the Dentists Register or in the Medical Register is prohibited by the Dentists Act, 1921, and any person who contravenes this provision is liable to be summarily convicted and fined.

Accordingly, the employment by any registered dental practitioner in his professional practice of an assistant who is not registered either in the Dentists Register or in the Medical Register, if he is permitted to practise dentistry and in particular to do any of the things specified in the section quoted above, is contrary to law; and any registered dental practitioner who has so acted renders himself liable, on proof of the facts, to have his name erased from the Register.

Similarly, any registered dental practitioner who by his presence, countenance, advice, assistance, or co-operation has knowingly enabled an unregistered person, whether described as an assistant or otherwise, to practise dentistry to do any of the things specified in the section quoted above, renders himself liable, on proof of the facts, to have his name erased from the Register.

II.—Dangerous Drugs.

The contravention by a registered dental practitioner of the provisions of the Dangerous Drugs Acts and the Regulations made thereunder may be the subject of criminal proceedings, and any conviction resulting therefrom may be dealt with as such by the Board and General Medical Council respectively under the powers given them by section 13 of the Dentists Act, 1878, as amended by section 8 of the Dentists Act, 1921. But any contravention of the Acts or the Regulations, involving an abuse of the privileges conferred thereunder upon registered dental practitioners, whether such contravention has been the subject of criminal proceedings or not, will, if proved to the satisfaction of the Board and the Council, render a registered dental practitioner liable to have his name erased from the Dentists Register.

III.—Advertising and Canvassing.

The practices by a registered dental practitioner—

(a) of advertising, whether directly or indirectly, for the purpose of obtaining patients or promoting his own professional advantage; or, for any such purpose, of procuring or sanctioning or acquiescing in the publication of notices commending or directing attention to the practitioner's professional skill, knowledge, services, or qualifications, of depreciating those of others; or of being associated with or employed by those who procure or sanction such advertising or publication; and

(b) of canvassing or employing any agent or canvasser for the purpose of obtaining patients; or of sanctioning, or of being associated with or employed by those who sanction, such employments as are in the opinion of the Board and of the General Medical Council contrary to the public interest and discreditable to the profession of dentistry; and any registered dental practitioner who resorts to any such practice renders himself liable, on proof of the facts, to have his name erased from the Dentists Register.

IV.—Use of Titles and Descriptions.

Use of Titles and Descriptions. A person registered under the principal Act—

(a) shall, by virtue of being so registered, be entitled to take and use the description of dentist or dental practitioner;

(b) shall not take or use, or affix to or use in connection with his premises, any title or description reasonably calculated to suggest that he possesses any professional status or qualification other than a professional status or qualification which he in fact possesses, and which is indicated by particulars entered in the Register in respect of him.

Any registered dental practitioner who may have infringed the provisions of this section renders himself liable, on proof of the facts, to have his name erased from the Register.
