An Ordinance to amend The Stamp Ordinance, 1909.

R. E. STUBBS.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Stamp Amendment Ordinance, No. 18 of 1934. Short title.

2 Chapter IX. of the Stamp Ordinance, 1909, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance") is renumbered Chapter X. and sections 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89 and 90 thereof are renumbered 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90 and 91 respectively. Renumbering Chapter IX. and sections 84 to 90 of the principal Ordinance.

3 The following is inserted between Chapter VIII. and renumbered Chapter X. as new Chapter IX. :— Insertion of new Chapter IX. in the principal Ordinance.

CHAPTER IX.

Composition for certain Stamp Duties.

84 (1) Where any person issuing policies of insurance against accident shall in the opinion of the Commissioner of Stamps so carry on the business of such insurance as to render it impracticable or inexpedient to require that the duty specified in Part I. of Schedule B be charged and paid upon any of such policies, the Commissioner of Stamps may enter into an agreement with that person for the delivery of half-yearly accounts of all sums received in respect of premiums on the said last mentioned policies of insurance against accident.

(2) The agreement shall be in such form and shall contain such terms and conditions as the Commissioner of Stamps may think proper, and the person with whom the agreement is entered into shall observe the following rules :

- (a) Every account shall be made in such form and contain such particulars as the Commissioner of Stamps shall require.
- (b) Every account shall be a full and true account of all unstamped policies of insurance against accident issued during the half-year ending on the half-yearly day next preceding the delivery thereof, and of all sums of money received for or in respect of such policies so issued during that half-year, and of all sums of money received and not already accounted for in respect of any other unstamped policies of insurance against accident issued at any time before the commencement of that half-year.
- (c) Accounts shall be delivered to the Commissioner of Stamps within twenty-one days after the first day of January and the first day of July.
- (d) The duty shall be paid upon the delivery of the account.

(3) After an agreement has been entered into between the Commissioner of Stamps and any person and during the period for which the agreement is in force, no policy of insurance against accident issued by that person and provided for in the agreement shall be chargeable with any duty, but in lieu of and by way of composition for that duty there shall be charged on the aggregate amount of all sums received in respect of premiums on such policies of insurance against accident a duty at the rate of five rupees per centum as a stamp duty.

(4) In the case of wilful neglect to deliver such an account as is hereby required or to pay the duty in conformity with this section, the person shall be further liable to pay as penalty a sum equal to ten rupees per centum upon the amount of duty payable, and a like penalty for every month after the first month during which the neglect continues.

(5) The duty and penalty required to be paid under this section may be recovered as if they were required to be paid under Chapter IV.

An Ordinance to declare the consent of the State Council to the levy in Ceylon of the dues fixed in respect of certain lighthouses and a buoy placed on or near the coasts of the Bahamas and the Leeward Islands.

R. E. STUBBS.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by section 670 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is provided that where any lighthouse, buoy or beacon has been erected or placed on or near the coasts of any British possession by or with the consent of the legislature of that possession His Majesty may by Order in Council fix such dues (in that Act referred to as colonial light dues) to be paid in respect of that lighthouse, buoy or beacon by the owner or master of every ship which passes the same and derives benefit therefrom as His Majesty may deem reasonable and may by like Order increase, diminish or repeal such dues, and those dues shall from the time mentioned in the Order be leviable throughout His Majesty's dominions and further that colonial light dues shall not be levied in any British possession unless the legislature of that possession has by address to the Crown or by Act or Ordinance duly passed signified its opinion that the dues ought to be levied :

And whereas the lighthouses and buoy specified in the First Schedule hereto have been erected or placed on or near the coasts of the Bahamas and the Leeward Islands by or with the consent of the legislatures of those Possessions :

And whereas His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers in that behalf vested in Him by the said section and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, has been pleased to fix the dues to be paid in respect of the lighthouses and buoy specified in the first part of the said Schedule by the owner or master of every ship at one penny per ton of her register tonnage for every occasion after the first day of April, 1932, on which such ship passes and derives benefit from any of the said lighthouses or the said buoy :

And whereas His Majesty has been further pleased to fix the dues to be paid in respect of the lighthouse specified in the second part of the said Schedule by the owner or master of every ship at a half-penny per ton of her register tonnage for every occasion after the first day of April, 1932, on which such ship passes and derives benefit from the said lighthouse :

Be it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Bahamas and Leeward Islands Light Dues Ordinance, No. 24 of 1934.

Consent of legislature to the collection in Ceylon of dues fixed in respect of lighthouses and buoy in the First Schedule.

2 The opinion of the legislature is hereby signified that on all ships, other than ships belonging to His Majesty or to the Government of Ceylon, which before arriving or touching at any port or place in this Island have passed and derived benefit from any of the lighthouses or the buoy enumerated in the First Schedule, there shall be levied the light dues fixed by His Majesty by Order in Council dated the 17th day of December, 1931, and set out in the Second Schedule, or such other charges as may hereafter be fixed in like manner, and that the dues shall be levied in accordance with the provisions of any Order of His Majesty in Council for the time being in force in that behalf.

An Ordinance to amend the Income Tax Ordinance, 1932.

R. E. STUBBS.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Income Tax Amendment Ordinance, No. 27 of 1934.

Amendment of section 4 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section four of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) By the repeal of sub-section (4) and by the substitution of the following sub-section therefor :—

“ (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the Commissioner or any officer of the Income Tax Department authorised by the Commissioner in that behalf may communicate any matter which comes to his knowledge—

(a) to the Commissioner of Stamps, or

(b) to the Income Tax Authority of any part of His Majesty's Dominions or of any place under His Majesty's protection or suzerainty to such an extent as the Commissioner may deem necessary to enable the correct relief to be given from income tax in that part or place in respect of the payment of income tax in Ceylon ” ;

(2) By the addition thereto of the following sub-section as sub-section (5) :—

“ (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the Commissioner may permit the Auditor-General or any officer of the Department of the Auditor-General duly authorised by him in that behalf to have such access to any records or documents as may be necessary for the performance of his official duties. The Auditor-General or any officer authorised by him under this sub-section shall be deemed to be a person employed in carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance for the purpose of sub-section (2).”

3 Sub-section (2) of section 6 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 6 of the principal Ordinance.

(1) In paragraph (a) (i), by the substitution for the word "others" of the following words—

"others, except the value of any holiday warrant, passage, or other form of free conveyance granted by an employer to an employee, or any allowance for the purchase of any such conveyance in so far as it is expended for such purpose ;"
and,

(2) In paragraph (b)—

(a) by the substitution of the words "land and improvements or for such place of residence" for the words "land and improvements" where those words occur for the second time in that paragraph ; and

(b) by the substitution of the words "value is being determined" for the words "value is being decided" where those words occur at the end of the second sentence in that paragraph.

4 Sub-section (1) of section seven of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 7 of the principal Ordinance.

(1) by the repeal of paragraphs (c) and (d) thereof and by the substitution of the following paragraphs therefor :—

"(c) the income of any institution or trust of a public character established solely for charitable purposes ;

(d) the income of any religious body or institution whether established under any instrument in writing or not ;" and

(2) in paragraph (k), by the substitution of the words "retiring gratuity (other than a sum received in commutation of pension)" for the word "retiring" in that paragraph.

5 Section nine of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 9 of the principal Ordinance.

(1) In sub-section (1), by the substitution of the words and figures "sub-sections (2) and (3)," for the word and figure "sub-section (2)," ;

(2) in paragraph (ii) of the proviso to paragraph (b) of sub-section (1), by the substitution of the words "plant, machinery or fixtures were" for the words "plant and machinery was" ; and,

(3) by the addition of the following sub-section as sub-section (3) thereof :—

"(3) Income arising from interest shall be the full amount of interest falling due whether paid or not, without any deductions for outgoings or expenses. Where, however, any person proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that any interest is unpaid, the Commissioner may direct that payment of the tax charged in respect thereof be deferred for such time as he may deem necessary, and where it is proved that any interest cannot be recovered, any assessment which includes such interest shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 75, be reduced by the amount of interest included which has been shown to be irrecoverable."

6 Paragraph (c) of section ten of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following paragraph is substituted therefor :—

Amendment of section 10 of the principal Ordinance.

"(c) any expenditure of a capital nature or any loss of capital ;".

7 Section eleven of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 11 of the principal Ordinance.

(1) in sub-section (5), by the substitution of the words "shall be reduced" for the words "shall, on application being made by him to the Commissioner within twelve months after the end of that year of assessment, be reduced" ; and,

(2) by the addition at the end thereof of the following sub-section as sub-section (11) :—

"(11) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 75, a claim made under this section to an adjustment of any assessment by reference to the profits or income for any period other than the year preceding the year of assessment shall be entertained if it is made within the period of twelve months next succeeding that year of assessment. A claim so made shall be regarded as an appeal for the purposes of Chapter XI."

Amendment of section 13 of the principal Ordinance.

8 Section thirteen of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended in paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) thereof—

(1) by the substitution of the words "interest not allowable under section 9 (1) (e), annuity, ground rent, or royalty:" for the words "interest, annuity, ground rent, or royalty not allowable under section 9 (1) (e):"; and,

(2) by the addition, at the end of the proviso, of the following paragraph as paragraph (iv) :—

"(iv) where for any period of assessment any of the said sums has not been and will not be paid, no deduction shall be allowed ;"

Amendment of section 15 of the principal Ordinance.

9 Section fifteen of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) by the substitution for all the words from the word "Where" to the word "taxable:" of the following words :—

"Where the assessable income for any year of assessment of an individual resident in Ceylon does not exceed two thousand four hundred rupees, such income shall not be taxable :

Provided that, where an individual is resident in Ceylon for only a part of a year of assessment, his income shall be taxable if it exceeds a sum which bears the same proportion to two thousand four hundred rupees as the number of days during which he is so resident bears to the number of days in that year of assessment :"; and,

(2) by the substitution of the words "Provided further" for the word "Provided" in the proviso of that section.

Amendment of section 16 of the principal Ordinance.

10 Paragraph (e) of sub-section (1) of section sixteen of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words "who lived with and was" for the words "living with him and".

Amendment of section 18 of the principal Ordinance.

11 Sub-section (1) of section eighteen of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following sub-section is substituted therefor :—

"(1) Where the assessable income for any year of assessment of an individual not resident in Ceylon consists solely of earned income within the meaning of section 16 and does not exceed one thousand rupees, such income shall not be taxable."

Amendment of section 20 of the principal Ordinance.

12 Section twenty of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) In sub-section (1), by the repeal of the proviso thereof and by the substitution therefor of the following proviso :—

"Provided that where an individual is chargeable as a resident for a part only of any year of assessment, the said sums of Rs. 6,000 and Rs. 30,000 shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of days during which he is so chargeable bears to the number of days in that year of assessment." ;

(2) in sub-section (5), by the addition at the end of that sub-section of the following proviso :—

"Provided that where an individual is chargeable as a non-resident for a part only of any year of assessment, the said sum of Rs. 50,000 shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of days during which he is so chargeable bears to the number of days in that year of assessment." ;

(3) by re-numbering sub-sections (8) and (9) as sub-sections (9) and (10) respectively ; and,

(4) by the insertion between sub-section (7) and re-numbered sub-section (9) of the following sub-section as new sub-section (8) :—

"(8) Where for any year of assessment the taxable income of an individual exceeds, in consequence of the inclusion in his statutory income of a sum received in commutation of pension, the sum to which it would amount if no such commutation were included, the excess shall be chargeable, notwithstanding anything contained in any other sub-section, at the rate ascertained by dividing the tax payable by him for the preceding year of assessment by the amount of his assessable income for such preceding year :

Provided that where any such individual was resident in such preceding year of assessment and no tax was payable by him for that year of assessment, the said excess shall not be chargeable :

Provided further that where any such individual was non-resident in such preceding year of assessment, the rate at which the said excess is chargeable shall be determined by the Commissioner."

13 Section twenty-two of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 22 of the principal Ordinance.

- (1) By re-numbering sub-section (2) as sub-section (4) ;
- (2) in sub-section (1),—

(a) by substituting a full-stop for the colon immediately after the word “accordingly” at the end of the first paragraph thereof ; and,

(b) by substituting the words and figures—

“ (2) Where tax is assessed separately as a result of a notice under sub-section (1), ” for the words “ Provided that ” at the commencement of the proviso thereof ; and,

(3) by the insertion before re-numbered sub-section (4) of the following new sub-section as sub-section (3) :—

“ (3) Wherever one spouse is resident and the other is non-resident and notice under sub-section (1) is given by the resident spouse, the resident spouse may in such notice elect that the provisions of sub-section (2) be not applied, and in that event, the income from Ceylon of the non-resident spouse shall, notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (2), be deemed to be the income of the resident spouse and shall be assessed accordingly, and no allowance which may be claimed under section 16 (1) (c) and (d) shall be granted.”

14 Section twenty-three of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 23 of the principal Ordinance.

(1) In sub-section (1), by the repeal of the proviso thereof and by the substitution of the following proviso therefor :—

“ Provided that where any persons not exceeding ten in number are entitled as beneficiaries to any part or parts of such income, such part or parts may be deducted from the amount on which the receiver or trustee is assessable and may be treated for the purposes of this Ordinance as the income of the beneficiaries. Where there are more than ten such beneficiaries, the Commissioner may direct that the part or parts of the income to which they are entitled shall be treated for the purposes of this Ordinance either

(a) as the income of the receiver or trustee as the case may be, or

(b) as the income of the beneficiaries. ” ;

(2) by re-numbering sub-section (2) as sub-section (3) ; and,

(3) by inserting between sub-section (1) and re-numbered sub-section (3) the following sub-section as sub-section (2) :—

“ (2) Where the Commissioner directs in accordance with sub-section (1) that the part or parts of any income be treated for the purposes of this Ordinance as the income of a receiver or trustee, such receiver or trustee shall be entitled to deduct tax from any income that he distributes to the beneficiaries, and the provisions of section 43 shall apply, as far as may be, to all sums so distributed in the same way as they apply to dividends paid by a company. ”

15 Section thirty-three of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 33 of the principal Ordinance.

(1) by the repeal of sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) and by the substitution therefor of the following sub-sections respectively :—

“ (2) An individual who arrives in Ceylon and who is in Ceylon for a period or periods amounting in the aggregate to more than six months during the year commencing from the date of his arrival shall, if he is in Ceylon at the end of that year, be deemed resident throughout that year ; but if he is not in Ceylon at the end of that year, he shall be deemed resident from the date of his arrival to the date of his last departure during that year, and, subject to the provisions of the following sub-sections, non-resident from the date of such last departure to the end of that year.

(3) An individual who has been deemed resident throughout a period of twenty-four consecutive months or who would have been deemed to be so resident if this Ordinance had always been in force, shall be deemed to be resident until such time as he is continuously absent from Ceylon for an unbroken period of twelve months. When such person is so absent, he shall be deemed to be non-resident as from the date on which such absence commenced.

(4) Where an individual is deemed resident for any period in accordance with the provisions of any of the foregoing sub-sections, and at the end of such period is absent from Ceylon for less than three months, such period of absence shall for all the purposes of this section be treated as if it had been spent by him in Ceylon.” and,

(2) by the addition of the following new sub-section as sub-section (5) at the end thereof :—

“ (5) Where an individual dies during any year of assessment, and, in respect of the period from the commencement of such year to the date of his death, the Commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) that, although he is deemed to be resident under the foregoing sub-sections, he would, but for his death, have been deemed to be non-resident, or
- (b) that, although he is not deemed to be resident under the foregoing sub-sections, he would, but for his death, have been deemed to be resident, and
- (c) that there is chargeable for the said period a greater amount of tax than would have been so chargeable if he had lived, the Commissioner may direct that such deceased individual shall be deemed to have been resident or non-resident, as the case may be, for the purpose of granting such relief as the circumstances of the case may require.”

Amendment of section 36 of the principal Ordinance.

16 Sub-section (3) of section thirty-six of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition of the following words at the end thereof :—

“ Where import duty levied on an ad valorem basis under Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 has been paid in Ceylon on such goods or produce, the sum to be deducted as the cost of such goods or produce on arrival in Ceylon shall not, for the purpose of computing the profits arising in Ceylon, be greater than the value on which such import duty has been so paid.”

Amendment of section 38 of the principal Ordinance.

17 Section thirty-eight of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) by the substitution of the following words for the word “Ceylon :” where that word occurs immediately before the proviso thereof :—

“Ceylon within the meaning of section 5 :” ; and,

(2) by the substitution of the following words for all the words commencing with the word “Where” and ending with the word “advantage” in the last sentence thereof :—

“Where any such product is not sold in a wholesale market, or is not sold at all, the said person shall be deemed to derive profits from Ceylon within the meaning of section 5 and such profits shall be deemed to be not less than the profits which might have been obtained if such person had sold such product wholesale to the best advantage.”

Amendment of section 44 of the principal Ordinance.

18 Section forty-four of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) In sub-section (1),—

(a) by the substitution of the words “person or partnership” for the word “person” where that word occurs for the second time in that sub-section ;

(b) by the substitution of the words “or annuity,” for the words “annuity, or other annual payment,” in paragraph (b) of that sub-section ;

(c) by the substitution of the words “person, or from a partnership,” for the word “person” where it occurs for the third time in that sub-section ; and,

(d) by the substitution of the words “person or partnership” for the word “person” where that word occurs for the second and third times in paragraph (ii) of the proviso of that sub-section ;

(2) in sub-section (2), by the substitution of the words “person or partnership” for the word “person” where that word occurs for the second and third times in that sub-section ; and

(3) By the addition of the following sub-section as sub-section (5) thereof :—

“ (5) Where for any year of assessment the whole or part of the assessable income of any non-resident person, other than an individual who is entitled to relief under section 45 (2) and has claimed such relief, is composed of income from which tax has been deducted by virtue of this or the preceding section, and the unit rate for that year of assessment is either greater or less than the unit rate for the year preceding the year of assessment in which tax has been deducted, the difference between the tax which has been deducted and the tax which would have been deducted if the unit rate in force for that year of assessment had been the same as the unit rate in force for the year preceding the year of assessment in which tax has been deducted shall not be taken into account, and the income from which tax has been deducted shall be treated for all purposes of this Ordinance as if tax had been deducted therefrom at a rate based upon the unit rate for that year of assessment."

19 Section forty-five of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) In sub-section (2), by substituting the words—

"Provided that where any such individual is non-resident for a part only of a year of assessment, the relief shall be calculated by reference to the Ceylon income, total income, and Ceylon tax of that part of such year: and provided further"

for the word "Provided" in the proviso of that sub-section; and,

(2) in sub-section (4), by the substitution of the words "interest, annuity, ground rent, or royalty" for the word "interest" where it occurs in paragraph (a) and in head (i) of paragraph (b) of that sub-section.

20 Section forty-six of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) In sub-section (1), by the addition of the following proviso at the end thereof:—

"Provided that the total relief granted under this sub-section added to that granted under section 45 (1) shall not exceed one-half of the Ceylon tax after deducting therefrom any relief given under section 45 (2)."; and,

(2) in sub-section (2), by substituting the words "interest, annuity, ground rent or royalty," for the word "interest," in paragraph (b) thereof.

21 Section forty-seven of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor:—

"47. Where any provision of this Ordinance expressly relates to any particular source of profits or income mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 6, such provision shall not apply to the determination of any profits or income which is assessable and has been assessed as falling within any other source mentioned in that sub-section."

22 Section fifty-nine of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor:—

"59. Any act or thing required by or under this Ordinance to be done by any person shall, if such person is an incapacitated or non-resident person, be deemed to be required to be done by the trustee of such incapacitated person or by the agent of such non-resident person, as the case may be."

23 Sub-section (1) of section sixty-three of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the repeal of the proviso thereof.

24 Section sixty-nine of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) In sub-section (1), by the insertion of the words "the amount of" between the words "aggrieved by" and the words "an assessment"; and,

(2) by the repeal of sub-section (4) and by the substitution of the following sub-section therefor:—

"(4) Every appellant shall attend before the Commissioner at the time and place fixed for the hearing of the appeal. The appellant may attend the hearing of the appeal in person or by an authorized representative. The Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, from time to time adjourn the hearing of an appeal for such time and place as he may fix for the purpose. In any case in which an authorized representative attends on behalf of the appellant, the Commissioner may adjourn the hearing of the appeal and may, if he considers that the personal attendance of the appellant is necessary for the determination of the appeal, require that the appellant shall attend in person at the time and place fixed for the adjourned hearing of the appeal. If the appellant or his authorized representative fails to attend at the time and place fixed for the hearing or any adjourned hearing of the appeal, or if the appellant fails to attend in person when required so to attend by the Commissioner, the Commissioner may dismiss the appeal.

Amendment of section 45 of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 46 of the principal Ordinance.

Substitution of new section for section 47 of the principal Ordinance.

Applicability of provisions relating to particular sources of profits or income.

Substitution of a new section for section 59 of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 63 of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 69 of the principal Ordinance.

Provided that if the appellant shall within a reasonable time after the dismissal of an appeal satisfy the Commissioner that he or his representative was prevented from due attendance at the hearing or at any adjourned hearing of such appeal by absence from Ceylon, sickness, or other unavoidable cause, the Commissioner may vacate the order of dismissal and fix a time and place for the hearing of the appeal."

Amendment of section 73 of the principal Ordinance.

25 Sub-section (8) of section seventy-three of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution for the words "or make such orders thereon as to the members present may appear fit" of the following words:—

"or may remit the case to the Commissioner with the opinion of the Board thereon. Where a case is so remitted by the Board, the Commissioner shall revise the assessment as the opinion of the Board may require"

Amendment of section 76 of the principal Ordinance.

26 Section seventy-six of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) by re-numbering sub-sections (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8) and (9) as sub-sections (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9) and (10) respectively;

(2) by the insertion between sub-section (2) and re-numbered sub-section (4) of the following sub-section as sub-section (3):—

"(3) Where the Commissioner is of opinion either that the tax or any part thereof held over under sub-section (2) is likely to become irrecoverable, or that the appellant is unreasonably delaying the prosecution of his appeal, he may cancel any order made under that sub-section and make such fresh order as the case may appear to him to require.";

(3) In re-numbered sub-section (4),—

(a) by the insertion of the words "or upon any order made by the Commissioner," between the word and figures "Chapter XI," and the word "any"; and,

(b) by the omission of the words "containing particulars of the assessment as determined and" in that sub-section;

(4) In re-numbered sub-section (6),—

(a) by the substitution of the words "not later than twenty-one days after" for the words "within twenty-one days of";

(b) by the substitution of the words "twelve equal monthly instalments" for the words "twelve equal instalments" where those words occur in that sub-section; and

(c) by the substitution of the following proviso for the proviso of that sub-section:—

"Provided that—

(a) where the notice of assessment is not issued in time to permit a deduction to be made in September, all amounts which, if the said notice had been issued in time, would have been deducted in any month prior to that in which the first deduction is made, shall be added to such first deduction and shall be recovered therewith; and,

(b) where the Commissioner is of opinion that the application of the method of payment provided for in this sub-section is likely to endanger the ultimate recovery of the tax or any part thereof, he may, notwithstanding such election, by notice in writing addressed to the said person, direct that the tax or any part thereof be paid on or before a date specified in such notice. Any tax not paid as required by such notice shall be deemed to be in default.";

(5) In re-numbered sub-section (8),—

(a) by the substitution of the words "whose remuneration" for the word "whom" where that word occurs for the first time in that sub-section; and,

(b) by the substitution of the figure "(6)" for the figure "(5)" and by the substitution of the figure "(7)" for the figure "(6)" wherever the latter figure occurs in that sub-section;

(6) In re-numbered sub-section (9), by the substitution of the figures “ (8) ”, “ (7) ” and “ (5) ” respectively for the figures “ (7) ”, “ (6) ” and “ (4) ”; and,

(7) In re-numbered sub-section (10),—

(a) by the substitution of the words “ from the remuneration of any person ” for the words “ from remuneration ”;

(b) by the substitution of the words and figure—“ sub-section (7), shall on request made by such person ”

for the words and figure—

“ sub-section (6) shall at the time of payment of such remuneration ”; and,

(c) by the substitution of the words “ issue to him ” for the words “ give to the employee ”.

27 Section seventy-seven of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the figures “ 76 (5) ” for the figures “ 76 (4) ”.

Amendment of section 77 of the principal Ordinance.

28 Sub-section (2) of section seventy-nine of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :

Amendment of section 79 of the principal Ordinance.

(1) In paragraph (a), by the substitution of the words “ Fiscal, or Deputy-Fiscal,” for the word “ Fiscal,” and by the substitution of the words “ to cause the tax to be recovered ” for the words “ to recover the tax ”; and,

(2) in paragraph (b),—

(a) by the substitution of the words—

“ The said seizure shall be effected in such manner as the said officer shall deem most expedient in that behalf, and any property so seized ”

for the words—

“ any property seized under this section ” ;

(b) by the substitution of the words “ Fiscal, or Deputy Fiscal,” for the word “ Fiscal,”; and,

(c) by the substitution of the words “ said property ” for the word “ goods ”.

29 Sub-section (2) of section eighty of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words—

Amendment of section 80 of the principal Ordinance.

“ The Commissioner shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 75, consider ” for the words “ The Commissioner shall consider ” at the commencement of the second sentence of that sub-section.

30 Section eighty-two of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words “ such person ” for the words “ the defaulter ” wherever the latter words occur in that section.

DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

- No. 14 of 1890. An Ordinance to amend the Public Officers' Security Ordinance, 1890.
- BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—
- Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Public Officers' Security Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1934.
- Amendment of section 2 of Ordinance No. 14 of 1890. 2 Section 2 of the Public Officers' Security Ordinance, 1890, (hereinafter referred to as " the principal Ordinance "), is hereby amended in sub-section (1) thereof, as follows :—
- (1) by the substitution for the words " one or other " contained in that sub-section of the words " one or more " ; and
- (2) in paragraph (a) of that sub-section—
- (i.) by the omission of the words " in Executive Council " ; and
- (ii.) by the addition of the following words at the end thereof :—
- " or by personal bond and the making of periodical payments in accordance with the terms of such bond."
- Amendment of section 2A of the principal Ordinance. 3 Section 2A of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended in sub-section (1) thereof, as follows :—
- (1) by the substitution for all the words from " Provided " to " namely ", of the following :—
- " Any person in the employment of the Government of Ceylon as a shroff may be required to give security for the due discharge in the course of such employment of any duties to be performed by himself, his assistants, pay-clerks, other subordinates and messengers, and such person shall give such security as the Governor may in each case determine either in the manner provided in section 2 or in one or more of the following ways :—"
- (2) in paragraph (b) thereof, by the substitution for the word " Governor " of the words " Governor ; or " ;
- (3) by the addition of the following new paragraph as paragraph (c) at the end thereof :—
- " (c) By personal bond and, in respect of any duties to be performed by himself by the additional guarantee of any such public company accustomed as part of its regular business to guarantee the fidelity of any persons, as may be approved by the Governor."
- Amendment of section 3 of the principal Ordinance. 4 Section 3 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution for the words " Governor in Executive Council," of the words " Governor, the aggregate amount of the periodical payments made ".
- Amendment of section 5 of the principal Ordinance. 5 Section 5 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the omission of the words " in Executive Council ".
- Amendment of section 10 of the principal Ordinance. 6 Section 10 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended in sub-section (1) thereof by the omission of the words " in Executive Council ".
- Retrospective effect of Ordinance. 7 The principal Ordinance shall be deemed to have had effect heretofore as if the amendments made therein by this Ordinance had been made on the respective dates of enactment of the sections amended.

Objects and Reasons.

The objects of these amendments to the Public Officers' Security Ordinance, 1890, are—

- (1) to enable the security required of any public officer to be given, not as heretofore in one only of the ways prescribed in sections 2 and 2A of the Ordinance, but also in any combination of two or more of those ways wherever necessary (Clause 2 (1)) ;

(2) to legalise the long-established practice of allowing officers to furnish security by monthly instalments deducted from their salaries (Clauses 2 (2) and 4); and

(3) to prescribe in the case of shroffs an additional method of giving security and to provide that security should be given by a shroff not only for the due discharge of his own duties but also for the performance by his subordinates of the duties entrusted to them (Clause 3).

2. It is intended that these amendments should have retrospective effect (Clause 7).
