  - (2) to legalise the long-established practice of allowing officers to furnish security by monthly instalments deducted from their salaries (Clauses 2 (2) and 4) ; and
  - (3) to prescribe in the case of shroffs an additional method of giving security and to provide that security should be given by a shroff not only for the due discharge of his own duties but also for the performance by his subordinates of the duties entrusted to them (Clause 3).
