Objects and Reasons.

This Ordinance is introduced with a view to give effect to the following resolutions adopted by the State Council:

- (a) This Council claims the exclusive control of the Public Purse as an inalienable constitutional right of the people of Ceylon and demands the immediate repeal of Articles 22, 61, 87 (1) and (4), and 91 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931, as contravening that right.
- (b) This Council claims the exclusive right of legislation for the peace, order and good government of the Island as a vested constitutional right of the people of Ceylon and declare that the inclusion of the proviso to Article 72 in the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931, is unconstitutional.
- (c) This Council demands the withdrawal of the requirement under Article 87 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931, of the Governor's sanction for the discussion of such matters affecting public officers as are referred to therein as an unwarranted interference with the rights of the legislature.
- (d) This Council condemns the division of the subjects and functions of Government into two classes in respect of one only of which the State Council is charged with the administration and demands the amendment of the constitution so that all subjects and functions of Government may be placed within the administration of the State Council.
- (e) This Council declares that the addition of the subjects in the Royal Instructions of April 22, 1931, in respect of which the Governor's assent may be refused to legislation, except in so far as may be necessary to render discrimination against communities or religions impossible, is unnecessary and retrograde and that the same should be repealed. That provision for requiring the previous consent of the Governor or the Secretary of State for any class of legislation is objectionable in principle calculated to subvert the authority of the legislature and should be withdrawn.
- (f) This Council declares that the enhanced powers granted to the Governor under the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931, such as the power to enact laws himself and to suspend laws passed by the Council are in derogation of the rights of the legislature and reactionary in character and ought to be repealed.

The method adopted is to repeal or amend the several Articles of the Order in Council which are contrary to the aforesaid resolutions and the Articles of the Order in Council are dealt with seriatim.

Section 2 provides for the repeal of Article 6 of the Order in Council whereby provision is made for the appointment of three Officers of State and most of the following sections provide for consequential amendments.

Section 11 provides for the repeal of Articles 22 and 23. Repeal of Article 23 is consequential on the repeal of Article 22.

Sections 18, 19, 20 and 22 provide for alteration in the schedules attached to the Order in Council defining the subjects under each Ministry and provide for nine instead of seven Ministers.

Section 24 deals with the election of Chairman of Committees.

A new method is suggested whereby the Chairman and Acting Chairman must be elected by the whole Council.

Sections 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33 provide for the election of a Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Board.

Section 36 alters the quorum for a meeting of the Board of Ministers to five members.

Section 42 repeals Article 61 of the Order in Council.

By section 44 the proviso to Article 72 is repealed.

Section 45 defines and limits the classes of bills to which the Governor shall not assent.

Section 46 amends Article 77.

Sections 47, 48 and 49 repeal Articles 78, 80 and 81 whereby the Governor has the power (1) to postpone the operation of any law for a period; and (2) to require that any Bill shall obtain a two-third majority. Repeal of Article 81 is consequential on the repeal of Articles 78 and 80.

Section 50 repeals Article 87 (1), (2) and (4). Repeal of Article 87 (2) was not asked for in the resolutions adopted by the State Council, but it is considered that the State Council should be charged with the duty of fully controlling the financial provision for the public services.

Section 51 amends Article 89 by providing for the appointment of a Public Services Commission consisting of a member of the Public Service to be nominated by the Governor and two other persons to be nominated by the Governor on the recommendation of the Board of Ministers.

Section 52 repeals Article 91 under which the salaries of the Governor and the Officers of State are fixed.

Section 54 seeks to rearrange the functions that will be distributed among the nine Committees.

It will be noted that the Ordinance deals with a few matters not covered by the resolutions referred to earlier but that their inclusion in an amending Ordinance are necessary will be seen on a perusal of the Ordinance.
