Interpretation.

2. The regulations contained in Schedule C to the Joint Stock Companies Ordinance of Ceylon, 1861, shall not apply to the Company.

3. The Company shall forthwith enter into an agreement with Lionel Edwards, Ltd., a private Limited Company, incorporated in Bengal, British India, to acquire and take over as a going concern all or any of the business carried on in Colombo, Ceylon, by the said Lionel Edwards, Ltd., a private Limited Company, incorporated in Bengal, British India in the terms of the draft, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been subscribed by Fred de Saram, a Proctor of the Supreme Court of Ceylon and a Notary Public, to be executed, with all convenient despatch after the incorporation of the Company, and the Directors shall carry the said agreement into effect, with full power nevertheless from time to time to agree to any modification of the terms of such agreement either before or after the execution thereof.

The basis on which the Company is established is that the Company shall acquire the property comprised in the said agreement on the terms therein set forth, subject to any modifications (if any) as aforesaid and that Lionel Edwards, John Albert Leighton, Reginald Herbert Tucker, John Bolton Hodgson, and Yeo Edwards, who are the Directors of the said Lionel Edwards, Ltd., incorporated in Bengal, British India are to be the first Directors of the Company and accordingly it shall be no objection to the said agreement that the said Lionel Edwards, John Albert Leighton, Reginald Herbert Tucker, John Bolton Hodgson, and Yeo Edwards as Promoters and Directors stand in a fiduciary position towards the Company and that the Directors do not in the circumstances constitute an independant Board and every member of the Company present and future is to be deemed to join the Company on this basis.

4. None of the funds of the Company shall be employed in the purchase of, or lent on the security of, shares of the Company.

SHARES.

5. The capital of the Company is Rs. 100,000 divided into 10,000 shares of Rs. 10 each.

6. The business of the Company shall be commenced as soon after the incorporation of the Company as the Directors shall think fit and notwithstanding that part only of the shares have been allotted.

7. The shares shall be under the control of the Directors who may, subject to the provisions of Articles 55 and 56 hereof, allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons on such terms and conditions and at such times, as they think fit, and with full power to give to any person the right to call for the allotment of any shares either at par or at a premium, for such time and for such consideration as the Directors may see fit.

8. The Company may at any time pay a commission to any person for subscribing or agreeing to subscribe (whether absolutely or conditionally) for any shares in the Company or procuring or agreeing to procure subscription (whether absolute or conditional) for any shares in the Company, but so that, if the commission shall be paid or payable out of capital, the statutory conditions and requirements shall be observed and complied with, and the commission shall not exceed 10 per cent. on the shares in each case subscribed or to be subscribed.

9. The Company may pay a reasonable sum for brokerage and make any allotment on the terms that the person to whom such allotment is made shall have the right to call for further shares at such time or times and at such price or prices (not being less than par) as may be thought fit.

10. The Company may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment of such calls.

11. If by the conditions of allotment of any shares the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being shall be the registered holder of the share.

12. The joint-holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of such shares.

13. Save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not, except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction, or as by statute required, be bound to recognize any benami equitable fiduciary or other limited claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person.

14. Shares may not be registered in the name of any firm. Not more than four persons shall be registered as joint-holders of any share.

CERTIFICATES.

15. The certificates of title to shares, and duplicates thereon, when necessary, shall be issued under the Seal of the Company, and signed by one Director.

16. Every member shall be entitled to one certificate for all the shares registered in his name, or to several certificates each for one or more of such shares. Every certificate of shares shall specify the number and denoting numbers of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount paid-up thereon.

17. If any certificate be worn out or defaced, then, upon production thereof to the Directors, they may order the same to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof, and if any certificate be lost or destroyed then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors and on such indemnity as the Directors deem adequate being given, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the registered holder of the shares to which such lost or destroyed certificate shall relate.

18. For every certificate issued under the last preceding Article there shall be paid to the Company the sum of Rupees Two, or such smaller sum as the Directors may determine.

19. The certificate of shares registered in the names of two or more persons shall be delivered to the person first named on the register.

26. If any member fail to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

27. The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days from the date of the notice) and a place or places on and at which such call or instament and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time, and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

28. If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter before payment of calls or instalments, interest and expenses due in respect thereof be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

29. When any share shall have been forfeited, notice of the resolution shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.

30. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Directors may sell, re-allot, and otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit.

31. The Directors may, at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, reallotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture thereof upon conditions as they think fit.

32. Any member whose shares have been forfeited shall notwithstading be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon, from the time of forfeiture until payment at 12 per cent. per annum and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof, without any deduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture.

33. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.

34. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company and that certain shares in the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares, and such declaration, and the receipt of the Company for the consideration, if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares : and the person to whom the shares are sold shall be registered as the holder of such shares and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition.

35. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for his debts, liabilities and engagements, solely or jointly with any other person to or with the Company, whether the period for the payment, fulfilment, or discharge thereof shall have actually arrived or not, and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that Article 12 thereof is to have full effect. And such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares.

36. For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Directors may sell the share subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived, and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his executors or administrators, or his committee curator bonis or other legal curator, manager or guardian as the case may be and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment, fulfilment or discharge of such debts, liabilities or engagements for seven days after such notice.

37. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) paid to such member, his executors, administrators, committee, curator, manager, guardian or other representatives as the case may be.

38. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers hereinbefore given, the Directors may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the shares sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings nor to the application of the purchase money and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

39. Where any shares under the powers in that behalf herein contained are sold by the Directors and the certificate thereof has not been delivered up to the Company by the former holder of the said shares, the Directors may cause to be issued a new certificate for such shares distinguishing it in such manner as they may think fit from the certificate not so delivered up.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION.

40. The Directors may in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason refuse to register any transfer of a share whether the proposed transferee is a member of the Company or not.

41. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be signed both by the transferor and transferoe and shall contain the name and address both of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof. Each signature to such transfer shall be duly attested by the signature of one credible witness who shall add his address.

42. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be in writing in the usual common form, or in the following form, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit.

I, A B of _____ in consideration of the sum of Rs. _____ paid to me by C D of ____

As witness our hands the ——— day of ———— 19——.

Witness to the signature ——— of, &c.

43. No transfer shall be made to an infant or person of unsound mind.

44. Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the office for registration accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred, and such other evidence as the Directors may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares, and upon payment of the proper fee the transferee shall (subject to the Directors' right to decline to register hereinbefore mentioned) be registered as a member in respect of such shares. The Directors may waive the production of any certificate upon evidence satisfactory to them of its loss or destruction.

'45. All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall be returned to the person depositing the same.

46. A fee not exceeding Rupees two may be charged for each transfer, and shall, if required by the Directors, be paid before the registration thereof.

47. The transfer books and register of members may be closed during such time as the Directors think fit, not exceeding in the whole thirty days in each year.

48. The executors or administrators of a deceased member (not being one of several jointholders) shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member, and in case of the death of any one or more of the joint-holders of any registered shares, the survivors shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in such shares, but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint-holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person. Before recognizing any executor or administrator the Directors may require him to obtain a Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration or other legal representation as the case may be from some competent Court. Provided nevertheless that in any case where the Board in their absolute discretion think fit it shall be lawful for the Directors to dispense with the production of Probate or Letters of Administration or such other legal representation upon such terms as to indemnity or otherwise as the Directors in their absolute discretion may consider necessary.

49. Any committee or manager or guardian of a lunatic or infant member or any person becoming entitled to or to transfer shares in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or insolvency of any member upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article, or of his title as the Directors think sufficient, may with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) be registered as a member in respect of such shares or may, subject to the resolutions as to transfer hereinbefore contained, transfer such shares. This Article is hereinafter referred to as "The Transmission Article".

50. Subject to the provisions of Article 53 hereof the holder or holders for the time being of three-fourths of the issued capital may at any time serve the Company with a requisition to enforce the transfer of any particular shares not held by the requisitionists. The Company shall forthwith give to the holder of such shares notice in writing of the requisition (with a copy of this Article subjoined) and unless within fourteen days afterwards the holder shall give to the Company notice in writing agreeing to transfer his shares as aforesaid and at the price to be ascertained as provided by Article 51 hereof he shall be deemed at the expiration of that period to have actually given such notice and to have specified therein the value of such shares for the purpose of transfer ascertained in accordance with Article 51 hereof and the sale shall be carried into effect at the Company's office on a day appointed by the party or parties making such requisionists or to any nominee or nominees of such requisionist or requisionists or to any nominee or nominees of such article any person entitled under the Transmission Article to transfer shall be deemed the holder of such shares share.

51. When the Directors have agreed to permit the transfer of any share or shares and in case any difference arising between the proposing transferor and the proposing transferee as to the purchase price of such share or shares the Auditors shall on the application of either party certify in writing the sum which in their opinion is the fair value of such share or shares and such sum shall be deemed to be the purchase price thereof and both the proposing transferor and the proposing transferee shall be bound by such certificate. In so certifying the Auditors shall be deemed to be acting as experts and not as Arbitrators and accordingly neither the provisions of the Arbitration Ordinance 15 of 1866 or of the Civil Procedure Code 2 of 1889 nor any modification thereof shall apply.

SHARE WARRANTS.

52. The Company with respect to fully paid-up shares may issue warrants (hereinafter called Share Warrants) stating that the bearer is entitled to the shares therein specified and may provide by coupons or otherwise for the payment of future dividends on the shares included in such warrants.

53. The Directors may determine, and from time to time vary, the conditions upon which Share Warrants shall be issued and in particular upon which a new Share Warrant or coupon will be issued in the place of one worn out, defaced, lost, or destroyed, upon which the bearer of a Share Warrant shall be entitled to attend and vote at General Meeting, and upon which a Share Warrant may be surrendered and the name of the holder entered in the register in respect of the shares therein specified. Subject to such conditions and these presents the bearer of a Share Warrant shall be subject to the conditions for the time being in force whether made before or after the issue of such warrant.

INCREASE AND REDUCTION OF CAPITAL.

54. The Company may from time to time by Extraordinary Resolution increase the capital by the creation of new shares of such amount as may be deemed expedient.

55. The new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions, and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto, as the resolution creating the same shall direct, and, if not direction be given, as the Directors shall determine, and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets of the Company and with a special or without any right of voting.

56. The Company in General Meeting may, subject to the provisions of Article 44 hereof before the issue of any new shares, determine that the same, or any of them, shall be offered in the first instance and either at par or at a premium to all the then members or any class thereof in proportion to the amount of the capital held by them, or make other provisions as to the issue and allotment of the new shares, but in default of any such determination, or so far as the same shall not extend, the new shares may be dealt with as if they formed part of the shares in the Original Ordinary Capital.

57. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the Original Ordinary Capital, and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and instalments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien and otherwise.

58. If owing to any inequality in the number of new shares to be issued, and the number of shares held by members entitled to have the offer of such new shares any difficulty shall arise in the apportionment of such new shares or any of them amongst the members, such difficulty shall in the absence of any direction in the resolution creating the shares or by the Company in General Meeting be determined by the Directors.

59. The Company may from time to time by Special Resolution cancel shares, which at the date of the Resolution in that behalf, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person or reduce its capital by paying off capital or cancelling capital which has been lost or is unrepresented by available assets or reducing the liability on the shares or otherwise as may seem expedient, and capital may be paid off upon the footing that it may be called up again or otherwise, and paid up capital may be cancelled as aforesaid without reducing the nominal amount of the shares by the like amount to the limit that the unpaid and callable capital shall be increased by the like amount.

SUB-DIVISION AND CONSOLIDATION OF SHARES.

60. The Company may by Special Resolution sub-divide or by Ordinary Resolution consolidate its shares or any of them.

61. The Special Resolution whereby any share is sub-divided may determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division, one or more of such shares shall have some preference or special advantage as regards dividend, capital, voting or otherwise over or as compared with the others or other.

SURRENDER OF SHARES.

62. The Directors may accept the surrender of any shares by way of compromise of any question as to the holder being properly registered in respect thereof.

MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS.

63. Whenever the capital by reason of the issue of preference shares or otherwise, is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights and privileges attached to each class may be modified, commuted, affected, abrogated or dealt with by agreement between the Company and any person purporting to contract on behalf of that class, provided such agreement is (A) ratified in writing by the holders of at least three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of the class or is (B) confirmed by an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of shares of that class and all the provisions hereinafter contained as to General Meeting shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every such meeting, but so that the quorum thereof shall be members holding or representing by Proxy one-fifth of the nominal amount of the issued shares of the class. This Article is not to derogate from any power of modification which the Company would have had if this Article were omitted.

BORROWING POWERS.

64. Subject to and with the consent of the Company in General Meeting the Directors may from time to time at their discretion raise or borrow and may themselves lend and secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company.

65. The Directors may raise or secure the payment or repayment of such sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit, and in particular by the creation of any mortgage or charge on the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property present or future or uncalled capital of the Company or by the issue of debentures or debenture-stock of the Company charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital for the time being.

66. Debenture, debenture-stocks and other securities may be made assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.

67. Any debentures, debenture-stocks, bonds or other secutities may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise and with any special previleges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares attending and voting at General Meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors and otherwise.

68. The Directors shall cause a proper Register to be kept of all mortgages and charges specifically affecting the property of the Company and shall also duly keep a copy of every instrument creating any mortgage or charge by the Company at the office.

69. The Company shall permit any member to inspect such Register of Mortgages or any copy of any instrument creating any mortgage or charge by the Company kept by the Company under the provisions of the preceding Article.

70. Every Register of holders of debentures of the Company may be closed for any periods not exceeding in the whole thirty days in any year. Subject as aforesaid every such Register shall be open to the inspection of the registered holder of any such debentures and of any member : but the Company may in General Meeting impose any reasonable restrictions so that at least two hours in each day when such Register is open are appointed for inspection.

71. Every holder of any debenture of the Company shall be entitled to require a copy of the Register of Holders of Debentures of the Company or of any Trust Deed for securing any issue of debentures on payment of 50 cents for every one hundred words or fractional part thereof required to be copied and the Company shall on any such application and payment of the requisite costs as aforesaid issue to any such applicant a copy of any Register of Holders of Debentures or of any Trust Deed for securing any issue of Debentures.

72. Holders of debentures shall have the same right to receive and inspect the Balance Sheets of the Company and the Reports of the Auditors and other reports as are possessed by members of the Company.

73. If any uncalled capital of the Company be included in or charged by any mortgage or other security, the Directors may, by instalment under the Company's Seal, authorize the person in whose favour such mortgage or security is executed, or any other person in trust for him, to make calls on the members in respect of such uncalled capital, and the provisions hereinbefore contained in regard to calls shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to calls made under such authority, and such authority may be made exercisable, either conditionally or unconditionally, and either presently or contingently and either to the exclusion of the Directors' power or otherwise, and shall be assignable if expressed so to be.

RESERVE AND DEPRECIATION FUNDS.

74. The Directors may from time to time set apart any and such portion of the profits of the Company as they think fit, as a Reserve Fund applicable at their discretion for the liquidation of any debentures, debts or other liabilities of the Company, for equalization of dividends or for any other purposes of the Company, with full power to employ the assets constituting the Reserve Fund in the business of the Company and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets.

75. The Directors may from time to time set apart any and such portion of the profits of the Company as they think fit, as a Depreciation Fund applicable at their discretion for rebuilding, restoring, replacing or altering any part of the buildings, work, plant, machinery, or other property of the Company destroyed or damaged by fire, flood, storm, tempest, accident, riot, wear and tear, or other means, and for repairing, altering, and keeping in good condition the property of the Company, or for extending and enlarging the buildings machinery and property of the Company, with full power to employ the assets constituting such Depreciation Fund in the business of the Company and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets.

76. All moneys carried to the Reserve Fund and Depreciation Fund respectively shall nevertheless remain and be profits of the Company applicable, subject to due provision being made for actual loss or depreciation for the payment of dividends and such moneys and all the other moneys of the Company not immediately required for the purposes of the Company may be invested by the Directors in or upon such investments of securities as they may select or may be used as working capital or may be kept at any Bank on deposit or otherwise as the Directors may from time to time think proper.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

77. The Statutory General Meeting of the Company shall be held at such time not being more than six months from the date at which the Company shall be entitled to commence business and at such place as the Directors may determine.

78. Until otherwise determined by the Directors, General Meetings shall be held once at least in the year and in every subsequent year at such times and places in Ceylon or in India or in the United Kingdom as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no times or places are so prescribed, at such times and places as may be determined by the Directors.

79. The General Meetings referred to in the last preceding Article shall be called Ordinary General Meetings all other meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

80. The Directors may, whenever they think fit and they shall on the requisition of the holders of not less than one-tenth of the issued capital of the Company upon which all calls or other sums then due have been paid, forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, and in the case of such requisition the following provisions shall have effect :---

- (1) The requisition must state the objects of the meeting and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the office and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists.
- (2) If the Directors of the Company do not proceed to convene a meeting within twentyone days from the date of the requisition being so deposited the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the meeting, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of the deposit.
- (3) If at any such meeting a resolution requiring confirmation at another meeting be passed the Directors shall forthwith convene a further Extraordinary General Meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution and, if thought fit, of confirming it as a Special Resolution, and if the Directors do not convene the meeting within seven days from the date of the passing of the first resolution, the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the meeting.
- (4) A meeting convened under this Article by the requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are to be convened by the Directors, but shall be held at the Company's Registered Office.

81. Seven clear days' notice to the members specifying the place, day, and hour of meeting and in case of special business the general nature of such business shall be given either by advertisement or by notice sent by post or otherwise served as hereinafter provided and with the consent in writing of all the members a meeting may be convened by a shorter notice and in any manner they think fit.

82. Where it is proposed to pass a Special Resolution, the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the second meeting contingently on the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first meeting.

83. The accidental omission to give any such notice to any of the members shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting.

84. The business of an Ordinary General Meeting shall be to receive and consider the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet, and the reports of the Auditors, to elect Directors, Auditors and other Officers in the place of those retiring by rotation, or otherwise, to declare dividends and to transact any other business which under these presents ought to be transacted at an Ordinary Meeting. All other business transacted at an Ordinary General Meeting and all business transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be deemed special.

85. Two members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum for a General Meeting for all purposes.

86. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the quorum requisite shall be present at the commencement of the business.

87. The Chairman of the Directors shall be entitled to take the Chair at every General Meeting, or if there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, the members present shall choose another Director as Chairman, and if no Director be present or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, then the members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

88. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum be not present, the meeting if convened upon such requisition as aforesaid shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum be not present, those members who are present not being less than two shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

89. Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands and in the case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall both on a show of hands and at the poll, have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a member.

90. At any General Meeting unless a poll is demanded in the case of a Special or Extraordinary Resolution by at least three persons entitled to vote or in any other case by the Chairman or by at least three members or by a member or members holding or representing by proxy or entitled to vote in respect of at least one-tenth part of the capital represented at the meeting, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

91. If a poll be demanded as aforesaid it shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting directs and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll may be withdrawn.

92. The Chairman of a General Meeting may with the consent of the meeting adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

93. Any poll duly demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting and without adjournment. No poll shall be taken on the question of an adjournment of the meeting and without adjournment.

94. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

VOTES OF MEMBERS.

95. On a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote and upon a poll every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share held by him.

96. Where a Company registered under the provisions of the Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance of Ceylon is a member of the Company a person duly appointed to represent such Company at a meeting of the Company shall not be deemed to be a proxy and the production at the meeting of a copy of such resolution duly signed by one Director of such Company and by the Managing Agents (if any) and certified by him or them as being a true copy of the resolution, shall on production at the meeting be accepted by the Company as sufficient evidence of the validity of his appointment.

97. Any person entitled under the Transmission Article to transfer any shares may vote at any General Meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he were the registered holder of such shares, provided that forty-eight hours at least before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which he proposes to vote he shall satisfy the Directors of his right to transfer such shares, or the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof. If any member be a lunatic, idiot, or non compos mentis, he may vote whether by a show of hands or at a poll, by his Committee, curator bonis of other legal curator, manager, or guardian as the case may be and such last mentioned persons may give their votes by proxy.

98. Where there are joint registered holders of any share any one of such persons may vote at any meeting either personally or by proxy in respect of such share as if he were solely entitled thereto; and if more than one of such joint-holders be present at any meeting either personally or by proxy that one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the register in respect of such share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose name any share stands shall for the purposes of this Article be deemed joint-holders thereof.

99. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

100. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney, or if such appointer is a corporation, under its common seal or the hands of its attorney. A proxy who is appointed for a specified meeting only shall be called a special proxy. Any other proxy shall be called a general proxy. No person shall be appointed a special proxy who is not a member of the Company and qualified to vote.

101. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed shall be deposited at the office not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote, but no instrument appointing a special proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution. 104. No member shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any question either personally or by proxy or as proxy for another member at any General Meeting or upon a poll or be reckoned in a quorum whilst any call or other sum shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of any of the shares of such member; and no member shall be entitled to be present or to vote in respect of any share that he has acquired by transfer at any meeting unless he has been the registered holder of the share in respect of which he claims to vote for at least three months previously to the time fixed for holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote or if such meeting be an adjourned meeting to the time originally fixed for holding the same, but this regulation shall not affect shares acquired under a testamentary disposition or by succession to an intestate estate or under a bankruptcy or insolvency or liquidation.

105. Any resolution passed by the Directors notice whereof shall be given to the members in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be given and which shall within two months after it shall have been so passed be ratified and confirmed in writing by members entitled at a poll to three-fifths of the votes, shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution of a General Meeting, but this Article shall not apply to a resolution for winding up the Company, nor to a resolution passed in respect of any matter which by the statutes or these presents ought to be dealt with by Special or Extraordinary Resolution.

DIRECTORS.

106. The number of Directors shall not be less than two nor more than seven.

107. The First Directors of the Company shall be (1) Lionel Edwards, (2) John Albert Leighton, (3) Reginald Herbert Tucker, (4) John Bolton Hodgson, and (5) Yeo Edwards of whom the said Lionel Edwards, and John Albert Leighton subject to the provisions of Article 113 (a), (b), (c), (e), and (f) shall hold office for life. Provided however that in the case of the said Reginald Herbert Tucker, John Bolton Hodgson, and Yeo Edwards, Article 113 (d) shall not apply and they could not be removed from office by reason of the absence from meetings of the Directors for a period of three calendar months.

Notwithstanding anything in these Articles contained during the time the whole of the First Directors are absent from Colombo the First Directors and any one or more of them shall have the power to issue from time to time a notice in writing to the Directors in Colombo limiting the powers of the Directors in Colombo and upon any such notice being given the powers of the Directors in Colombo shall be limited to the extent provided for in such notice. Provided that the limitation of the powers of the Directors in Colombo under the provisions of this Article shall not invalidate any prior act of the Directors in Colombo which would have been valid if such notice had not been issued.

108. Until otherwise determined by the Company in General Meeting a Director shall not require any qualification.

109. The Directors shall be entitled to exercise their powers as Directors only when and whilst they are respectively in Ceylon or British India.

110. The Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any qualified person as an addition to the Board, but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed as above. But any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following Ordinary General Meeting of the Company and shall then be eligible for re-election.

111. The Directors shall be paid out of the funds of the Company by way of remuneration for their services such sum as the Company may from time to time determine. The Directors may allow and pay to any Director, including a Managing Director who for the time being is resident out of the place at which any meeting of the Directors may be held and who shall come to that place for the purpose of attending such meeting, such sum as the Directors may consider fair compensation for his expenses and loss of time in connection with his attending at the meeting in addition to his remuneration as above specified.

112. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but so that if the number falls below the minimum above fixed the Directors shall not, except for the purpose of filling vacancies, act so long as the number is below the minimum.

- - (a) If he become bankrupt or insolvent or suspend payment or compound with his creditors. (b) If he has a set of (1 + 1) is the set of (1 + 1) of (1 + 1).
  - (b) If he be found lunatic or become of unsound mind.
  - (c) If he cease to hold the required amount of shares (if any) to qualify him for office on do not acquire the same within two months after election of appointment.
  - (d) If (not being a Director appointed for life) he be absent from the meetings of the Directors during a period of three calendar months without special leave of absence from the Directors and be removed from office by a resolution of the Directors. Provided nevertheless that this paragraph shall not be applicable to a Director who shall have appointed an alternate Director under the provisions of Articles 140 and 141 hereinafter contained.
  - (e) If he commit any offence punishable under the Ceylon Penal Code and being under the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code non-bailable.
  - (f) If by notice in writing to the Company he resigns his office.
  - (g) If (not being a Managing Director or a Director appointed for life) he be requested either by cable or in writing by the Directors appointed for life for the time being to resign. Any cable purporting to be despatched by the Directors appointed for life shall be sufficient for the purposes of this paragraph.

114. A Director shall not be disqualified by reason of his holding any other office or place of profit under the Company in conjunction with his office of Director, except that of Auditor, and may be appointed thereto upon such terms as to remuneration, tenure of office and otherwise as the Directors may approve.

115. A Director of this Company may be or become a Director of any company promoted by this Company or in which it may be interested as a vendor, Shareholder, or otherwise, and no such Director shall be accountable for any benefits received as Director or member of such company.

116. No Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either as a vendor, purchaser, or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be concerned or interested be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so concerned or interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established, but it is declared that the nature of his interest must be disclosed by him at the meeting of the Directors at which the contract or arrangement is determined on if his interest then exist or in any other case at the first meeting of the Directors after the acquisition of his interest. A general notice that a Director is a member of any specified firm or company and is to be regarded as interested in any subsequent transaction with such firm or company shall as regards any such transaction be sufficient disclosure under this Article and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give any special notice relating to any particular transaction with such firm or company.

ROTATION OF DIRECTORS.

117. At the First Ordinary General Meeting held in each year one of the Directors shall retire from office, provided nevertheless that a Managing Director or a Director appointed for life shall not retire by rotation under this Article.

118. At every Ordinary General Meeting at which a Director retires by rotation the Director who has been longest in office shall retire. As between two or more Directors who have been in office an equal length of time the Director to retire shall in default of agreement between them be determined by lot. The length of time a Director has been in office shall be computed from his last election or appointment when he has previously vacated office. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

119. The Company at any Ordinary General Meeting at which any Director retires in manner aforesaid shall fill up the vacant office by electing another person to be a Director and without notice in that behalf may fill up any other vacancies.

120. If at any Ordinary General Meeting at which an election of Directors ought to take place the places of the retiring Directors are not filled up, the retiring Directors, or such of them as have not had their places filled up, shall, if willing, continue in office until the first Ordinary General Meeting in the next year and so on from year to year until their places are filled up, unless it shall be determined at such meeting on due notice to reduce the number of Directors.

121. The Company in General Meeting may from time to time increase or reduce the number of Directors and determine that the Directors shall hold a specified number of shares in the capital of the Company to qualify them for their office.

122. The Company may by Extraordinary Resolution remove any Director other than the Managing Director or a Director appointed for life before the expiration of his period of office, and appoint another qualified person in his stead, but the person so appointed shall hold office during such time only as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.

123. Any casual vacancy occurring among the Directors may be filled up by the Directors, but any person so chosen shall retain his office so long only as the vacating Director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

124. No person not being a retiring Director shall, unless recommended by the Directors for election, be eligible for election to the office of Director at any General Meeting, unless he has been the holder of the necessary qualification shares for at least six months and unless he or some other member intending to propose him, has not less than fourteen days nor more than two months before the meeting left at the office a notice in writing duly signed signifying his candidature for the office or the intention of such member to propose him.

125. The Company shall keep at its office a Register containing the names and addresses and occupations of its Directors.

MANAGING DIRECTORS.

126. The Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to be Managing Director or Managing Directors of the Company either for a fixed term or without any limitation as to the period for which he or they is or are to hold such office and may from time to time remove or dismiss him or them from office and appoint another or others in his or their place or places.

127. A Managing Director shall not, while he continues to hold that office, be subject to retirement by rotation, and he shall not be taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of Directors, but he shall, subject to the provisions of any contract between him and the Company he subject to the same provisions as to resignation and removal as the other Directors of the Company and if he cease to hold the office of Director from any cause he shall ipso facto and immediately cease to be a Managing Director.

128. The remuneration of a Managing Director shall from time to time be fixed by the Directors and may be by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or by any or all of those modes.

129. The Directors may from time to time entrust to and confer upon a Managing Director for the time being such of the powers exercisable under these presents by the Directors as they may think fit and may confer such powers for such time and to be exercised for such objects and purposes, and upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they think expedient, and they may confer such powers either collaterally with or to the exclusion of and in substitution for all or any of the powers of the Directors in that behalf, and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter, or vary all or any of such powers.

130. The said Lionel Edwards shall be the first Managing Director of the Company. The terms on which the said Lionel Edwards is to hold the office of Managing Director shall be embodied in a separate agreement in the terms of the draft copy whereof has for the purposes of identification been subscribed by Fred de Saram, a Proctor of the Supreme Court of Ceylon, and a Notary Public to be executed with all convenient despatch after the incorporation of the Company, and the Directors shall carry the said agreement into effect with full liberty nevertheless to agree to any modification of the terms of such agreement, either before or after the execution thereof.

General Power of Company vested in Directors.

131. The Directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings, as they think fit, and may determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Until otherwise determined two Directors shall be a quorum.

A Director may at any time convene a meeting of the Directors at such place as may be 132. named in the notice convening the meeting. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of the Directors to a Director who is not for the time being resident in the place at which such meeting is to be held. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes and in case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

The Directors may elect a Chairman of their meetings and determine the period for which 133 he is to hold office but if no such Chairman be elected or if at any meeting of the Directors the Chairman be not present at the time appointed for holding the same, the Directors present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman of their meeting.

A meeting of the Directors for the time being at which a quorum is present shall be 134. competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers, and discretions by or under the Articles of the Company for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Directors generally.

The Directors may from time to time delegate any of their powers to Committees con-135. sisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit. Any Committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may from time to time be imposed upon it by the Directors.

136. The meetings and proceedings of any such Committee, consisting of two or more members, shall be governed by the provisions herein contained for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Directors so far as the same are applicable thereto, and are not superseded by any regulations made by the Directors Under the last preceding Article.

137. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or by a Committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of such Directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

138. A resolution in writing signed or initialled by any two of the life Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly called and constituted.

139. If any Director being willing shall be called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in going or residing away from Colombo for any of the purposes of the Company or in giving special attention to the business of the Company as a member of a Committee of Directors the Company may remunerate the Director so doing either by a fixed sum or by a percentage of profits or otherwise as may be determined by the Directors, and such remuneration may be either in addition to or in substitution for his or their share in the remuneration above provided for the Directors.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS.

140. A Director appointed for life who is absent from or who is about to leave Ceylon may appoint any member of the Company or any other person to be an alternate Director during his absence from Ceylon and such appointment shall have effect and such appointee while he holds office shall be entitled to notice of meetings of the Directors and to attend and vote thereat accordingly and generally to exercise all the rights and functions of such absent Director subject to any limitations or restrictions in the instrument appointing him, but he shall not require any qualification and he shall ipso facto vacate office if and when he receives notice in writing from his appointer to resign and if and when his appointer returns to Ceylon or vacates office as a Director and any appointment and removal under this clause shall be affected by an instrument in writing under the hand of the appointer. Such alternate Director may be one of the other Directors of the Company in which case he shall be entitled to vote in both capacities.

An alternate Director shall in the absence of a direction to the contrary in the instrument 141. appointing him be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at General Meetings of the Company on behalf of his appointer and generally to represent his appointer in the same manner as if he had been appointed a general proxy under the provisions of these Articles.

MINUTES.

- 142. The Directors shall cause minutes to be duly entered in books provided for the purpose :---(a) Of all appointments of officers.
  - (b) Of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Directors and of any Committee of Directors.
    - Of all orders made by the Directors and Committees of Directors.
  - (d) Of all resolutions and proceedings of General Meetings and of meetings of the Directors and Committees.

And any such minutes of any meeting of the Directors or of any Committee or of the Company, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of such meeting or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be receivable as prima facie evidence of the matters stated in such minutes.

POWERS OF DIRECTORS.

143. The control of the Company and of the business of the Company shall be vested in the Directors who, in addition to the powers and authorities by these presents or otherwise expressly conferred upon them, may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company and are not hereby or by statute law expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting expressly including the exercise of all powers vested in this Company by virtue of its holding the office of Managing Agents, Secretaries, or Agents of any other company, firm, or person but subject nevertheless to the provisions of any statute law and of these presents and to any regulations from time to time made by the Extraordinary Resolution of the Company, provided that no regulation so made shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such regulations had not been made.

The Common Seal of the Company shall not be used or affixed to any Deed or Certificate of share or other instrument, except in the presence of two or more of the Directors of the Company or one Director and the Secretary who shall attest the sealing thereof. Such attestation on the part of the Secretary, in the event of a firm being the Secretary being signified by a partner or duly authorized Manager, Attorney, or Agent of the firm signing the firm name or the firm name per procuration or signing for and on behalf of the said firm as such Secretary. The sealing shall not be attested by one person in the dual capacity of Director and Secretary or representative of the Secretary. Secretary.

145. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred by Article 143, and the other powers conferred by these presents, it is hereby expressly declared that the Directors shall have the following powers, that is to say, power :---

- (1) To take such steps as they think fit to carry into effect the agreement referred to in Article 130 hereof.
- (2) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the promotion, formation, establishment, and registration of the Company.
- (3) To purchase or otherwise acquire for the Company any property, rights, or privileges which the Company is authorized to acquire at such price and generally on such terms and conditions as they think fit, and to sell, let, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property, privileges, and undertaking of the Company upon such terms and conditions, and for such consideration as they may think fit.
- (4) At their discretion to pay for any property, rights, privileges acquired by or services rendered to the Company either wholly or partially in cash or in shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company. and any such shares may be issued either as fully paid-up or with such amount credited as paid-up thereon as may be agreed upon, and any such bonds, debentures, or other securities may be either specifically charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company and its uncalled capital or not so charged.
- (5) To secure the fulfilment of any contracts or engagements entered into by the Company by mortgage or charge of all or any of the property of the Company and its unpaid capital for the time being or in such other manner as they may think fit.
- (6) To appoint and at their discretion remove or suspend such Agents, Managers, Secretaries, Officers, Clerks, Assistants, and Servants for permanent, temporary, or special services as they may from time to time think fit and to determine their powers and duties and fix their salaries or emoluments and to require security in such instances and to such amount as they think fit.
- (7) To appoint any person or persons (whether incorporated or not) to accept and hold in trust for the Company any property belonging to the Company or in which the Company is interested or for any other purposes, and to execute and do all such deeds, documents, and things as may be requisite in relation to any such trust and to provide for the remuneration of such trustee or trustees.
- (8) To institute, conduct, defend, compound, or abandon any legal proceedings by or against the Company or its officers or otherwise concerning the affairs of the Company and also to compound and allow time for payment or satisfaction of any debts due and of any claims or demands by or against the Company.
- (9) To refer any claims or demands by or against the Company to arbitration and observe and perform the awards.
- (10) To make, draw, endorse, accept, negotiate, and give all cheques, bills of lading, drafts, orders, bills of exchange, Government of Ceylon and other promissory notes and other negotiable instruments required in the business of the Company and also to sign, make and give all receipts releases and other discharges for money payable to the Company and for the claims and demands of the Company.
- (11) To act on behalf of the Company in all matters relating to bankrupts and insolvents.
- (12) From time to time to provide for the management of the affairs of the Company either in different parts of Ceylon or elsewhere in such manner as they think fit, and in particular to establish branch offices and to appoint any persons to be the Attorneys or Agents of the Company or so far as the terms of appointment of this Company to the office of Managing Agents, Secretaries, or Agents of any other company, firm, or persons will permit, to be the Attorney or Agents of such other company, firm, or persons with such powers (including powers to sub-delegate) and upon such terms as may be thought fit.
- (13) To invest and deal with any of the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the purposes thereof upon such securities (not being shares in this Company) and in such manner as they may think fit, and from time to time to vary or realize such investments.
- (14) To execute in the name and on behalf of the Company in favour of any Directors or other person who may incur or be about to incur any personal liability for the benefit of the Company such mortgages of the Company's property (present and future) as they think fit and any such mortgage may contain a power of sale and such other powers, covenants, and provisions as shall be agreed on.
- (15) To give to any person employed by the Company a commission on the profits of any particular business or transaction or a share in the general profits of the Company.
- (16) From time to time to make, vary, and repeal bye-laws for the regulations of the business of the Company, its officers, and servants.
- (17) To enter into all such negotiations and contracts and rescind and vary all such contracts and execute and do all such acts, deeds, and things in the name and on behalf of the Company as they may consider expedient for or in relation to any of the matters aforesaid or otherwise for the purposes of the Company.
- (18) To establish, maintain, support, and subscribe to any charitable or public object, and any institution, society, or club, which may be for the benefit of the Company or its employees or may be connected with any town or place where the Company carries on business; to give pensions, gratuities, or charitable aid to any person or persons who have served the Company or to the wives, children, or dependents of such person or persons, that may appear to the Directors just or proper, whether any such person, his widow, children, or dependents have or have not a legal claim upon the Company.
- (19) Before recommending any dividends to set aside portions of the profits of the Company to form a fund to provide for such pensions, gratuities or compensation; or to create any Provident or Benefit Fund in such or any other manner as to the Directors may seem fit.

| To make andalter rules.                                   | (20) To make and alter rules and regulations concerning the time and manner of paymentof the contributions of the employees and the Company respectively to any suchfund and the accrual employment, suspension and forfeiture of the benefits of thesaid fund and the application and disposal thereof, and otherwise in relation anddisposal thereof and otherwise in relation to working and management of the saidfund as the Directors shall from time to time think fit.  |
| To delegate powers.   | (21) To delegate all or any of their powers to any Managing Director, Manager, Secretaryor other officer of the Company as they may from time to time see fit.  |
|   | LOCAL MANAGEMENT.   |
|   | 146. The following provisions shall have effect :   |
| Local Manageme  | ent. (1) The Directors may from time to time provide for the management of the affairs of theCompany outside Ceylon in such manner as they shall think fit and the provisionscontained in the next following paragraph shall be applicable without prejudice tothe general powers conferred by this paragraph.  |
| Local Board.  | (2) The Directors from time to time and at any time may establish any local boards oragencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company outside Ceylon or in anyspecified locality in Ceylon and may appoint any persons to be members of suchlocal board or any managers or agents and may fix their remuneration.  |
| Delegation.   | (3) The Directors from time to time and at any time may delegate to any person so appointed any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in the Directors and may authorize the members for the time being of any such local board or any of them to fill up any vacancies therein and to act notwithstanding vacancies and any such appointment or delegation may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit; and the Directors may at any time remove any person so appointed and may annul or vary any such delegation.   |
| Power of Attorne  | <ul> <li>(4) The Directors may at any time and from time to time by power of attorney under the Seal, appoint any persons to be the Attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these presents and for such periods and subject to such conditions as the Directors may from time to time think fit; and any such appointment may, if the Directors think fit, be made in favour of the members or any of the members of the local board established as aforesaid or in favour of any company or of the members, directors, nominees or managers of any company or firm or otherwise in favour of any fluctuating body of persons whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors and any such power-of-attorney may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with such attorneys as the Directors think fit.</li> </ul> |
| Sub-Delegation.   | (5) Any such delegates or attorneys as aforesaid may be authorized by the Directors to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in them.  |
| Local Laws.   | (6) The Directors may comply with the requirements of any local law which in theiropinion it shall in the interests of the Company be necessary or expedient to complywith.   |
|   | SEAL.   |
| Custody of Seal.  | 147. The Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal, and subject to the provisionshereinbefore contained as to the signature of certificates of title to shares the Seal shall never be usedexcept by the authority of the Directors or a Committee of the Directors previously given and subjectas aforesaid one Director at least shall sign every instrument to which the Seal is affixed; provided,nevertheless, that any instrument bearing the Seal of the Company and issued for valuable consider-ation shall be binding on the Company notwithstanding any irregularity touching the authority ofthe Directors to issue the same.  |
|   | ANNUAL RETURNS.   |
| Annual Returns.   | 148. The Company shall make the requisite annual returns in accordance with sections 19 and 20 of the Joint Stock Companies Ordinance 4 of 1861.  |
|   | DIVIDENDS.  |
| How profits shallbe divisible.                            | 149. Subject to the rights of members entitled to shares (if any) with preferential or special rights attached thereto the profits of the Company which it shall from time to time be determined to divide in respect of any year or other period, shall be applied in the payment of a dividend on the ordinary shares of the Company but so that a partly paid-up share shall only entitle the holder in respect thereto to such a proportion of the distribution upon a fully paid-up share as the amount paid thereon bears to the nominal amount of such share, and so that where capital is paid-up in advance of calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest, such capital shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits.  |
| Declaration of dividends.                                     | 150. The Company in General Meeting may declare a dividend to be paid to the members according to their rights and interest in the profits and may fix the time for payment.  |
| Restrictions on account of dividend.                          | 151. No larger dividend shall be declared than is recommended by the Directors but the Company in General Meeting may declare a smaller dividend.   |
| Dividend out ofprofits only and notto carry interest. | 152. No dividend shall be payable except out of the profits of the Company, and no dividend shall carry interest as against the Company.  |
| What to be deemed net profits.                                | 153. The declaration of the Directors as to amount of the net profits of the Company shal be conclusive.  |
| Interim dividends.  | 154. The Directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as in their judgment the position of the Company justifies.  |
| Debts may bededucted.                                     | 155. The Directors may retain any dividends on which the Company has a lien, and mayapply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of whichthe lien exists.  |

156. Any General Meeting declaring a dividend may make a call on the members of such amount as the meeting fixes but so that the call on each member shall not exceed the dividend payable to him and so that the call be made payable at the same time as the dividend and the dividend may if so arranged between the Company and the member be set off against the call. The making of a call under this Article shall be deemed ordinary business of an Ordinary General Meeting which declares a dividend.

157. Any General Meeting declaring a dividend may resolve that such dividend be paid wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures, or debenture-stock of the Company, or paid-up shares, debentures, or debenture-stock of any other company, or in any one or more of such ways any General Meeting may resolve that any moneys, investments or other assets forming part of the undivided profits of the Company standing to the credit of the Reserve Fund or in the hands of the Company and available for dividend (or representing premiums received on the issue of shares and standing to the credit of the share premium account) be capitalized and distributed amongst the Shareholders in accordance with their rights on the footing that they become entitled thereto as capital and that all or any part of such capitalized fund be applied on behalf of the Shareholders in paying up in full any unissued shares of the Company and that such unissued shares so fully paid-up be distributed accordingly amongst the Shareholders in the proportion in which they are entitled to receive dividends and shall be accepted by them in full satisfaction of their interest in the said capitalized sum and the Directors shall give effect to any such resolution or resolutions and when any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution they may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates, and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalized fund as may seem expedient to the Directors. Where requisite a proper contract shall be duly executed and all due legal requisites, formalities, and provisions complied with. The Directors may appoint any person to sign

158. A transfer of shares shall not pass the right to any dividend declared thereon before Effect of transfer.

159. The Directors may retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the Transmission Article entitled to become a member or which any person under that Article is entitled to transfer until such person shall become a member in respect thereof or shall duly transfer the same.

160. Any one of the several persons who are registered as the joint-holders of any shares may give effectual receipts for all dividends and payments on account of dividends in respect of such share.

161. Unless otherwise directed any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the member entitled, or in the case of joint-holders to the registered address of that one whose name stands first on the register in respect of the joint-holding and every cheque or warrant so sent shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.

162. All dividends unclaimed for one year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed, and all dividends unclaimed for three years after having been declared may be forfeited by the Directors for the benefit of the Company.

BOOKS AND DOCUMENTS.

163. The Directors shall cause true accounts to be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place and of the assets, credits, and liabilities of the Company.

164. The books of account shall be kept at the registered office or at such other place or places as the Directors think fit.

165. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the account books and documents of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of the members, and no member shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorized by the Directors or by a resolution of the Company in General Meeting.

ACCOUNTS AND BALANCE SHEETS.

166. (1) At all Ordinary General Meetings the Directors shall lay before the Company a profit and loss account and a balance sheet containing a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company made up to a date not more than six months before the meeting from the time when the last preceding account and balance sheet were made up or in the case of the first account and balance sheet from the incorporation of the Company.

(2) The Auditors' report (to be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Article 172 hereof) shall be attached to the balance sheet or there shall be inserted at the foot thereof a reference to the report, and the report shall be read before the Company in General Meeting and shall be open to inspection by any Shareholder.

167. Every such balance sheet shall be accompanied by a report of the Directors as to the state and condition of the Company and as to the amount which they recommend to be paid out of the profits by way of dividend or bonus to the members and the amount (if any) which they propose to carry to the reserve or depreciation funds according to the provisions in that behalf hereinbefore contained and the account, report, and balance sheet shall be signed by two Directors, or if there be only one Director for the time being in Ceylon by such one Director. Whenever any such balance sheet is signed by one Director only there shall be subjoined thereto a statement signed by such one Director explaining the reason why it has not been signed by a second Director.

168. A printed copy of such account and balance sheet, together with the reports of the Auditors and Directors, shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company for the inspection of members of the Company during a period of at least three days before the meeting.

AUDIT.

170. The Company at the first Ordinary General Meeting in each year shall appoint an Auditor or Auditors to hold office until the first Ordinary General Meeting in the following year and the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say :--

- (1) If an appointment of Auditors is not made as aforesaid the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, Ceylon, may on the application of any member of the Company appoint an Auditor for the current year and fix the remuneration to be paid to him by the Company for his services.
- (2) The Director or officer of the Company or any person in the employ of such Director or officer shall not be capable of being appointed an Auditor of the Company.
- (3) A person other than a retiring Auditor shall not be capable of being appointed an Auditor at an Ordinary General Meeting, unless notice of an intention to nominate that person to the office of Auditor has been given by a Shareholder to the Company not less than fourteen days before the meeting and the Company shall send a copy of any such notice to the retiring Auditor and shall give notice thereof to the Shareholders either by advertisement or in any other mode allowed by the Articles not less than seven days before the meeting : Provided that if after notice of the intention to nomiante an Auditor has been so given an Ordinary Meeting is called for a date fourteen days or less after the notice has been given, the notice though not given within the time required by this provision shall be deemed to have been properly given for the purposes thereof and the notice to be sent or given by this provision, be sent or given at the same time as the notice of the Ordinary General Meeting.
- (4) The first Auditors of the Company may be appointed by the Directors before the Statutory Meeting and if so appointed shall hold office until the first Ordinary General Meeting, unless previously removed by a resolution of the Shareholders in General Meeting in which case the Shareholders at that meeting may appoint Auditors.
- (5) The Directors may fill any casual vacancy in the office of Auditor, but while any such vacancy continues the surviving or continuing Auditor or Auditors (if any)may act.

171. The remuneration of the Auditors shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting, except that the remuneration of any Auditors appointed before the Statutory Meeting or to fill any casual vacancy may be fixed by the Directors.

172. (1) Every Auditor of the Company shall have a right of access at all times to the books and accounts and vouchers of the Company and shall be entitled to require from the Directors and officers of the Company such information and explanation as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of the Auditors.

(2) The Auditors shall make a report to the Shareholders on every balance sheet laid before the Company in General Meeting during their tenure of office and the report shall state :---

- (a) whether or not they have obtained all the information and explanations they have required; and
- (b) whether in their opinion the balance sheet referred to in the report is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Company's affairs, according to the best of their information and the explanations given to them and as shown by the books of the Company.

173. Every account of the Directors when audited and approved by a General Meeting shall be conclusive except as regards any error discovered therein within three months next after the approval thereof. Whenever any such error is discovered within that period the account shall forthwith be corrected and thenceforth shall be conclusive.

Notices.

174. A notice may be served by the Company upon any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid envelope or wrapper addressed to such member at his registered place of address.

175. Each holder of registered shares shall from time to time notify in writing to the Company some place to be registered as his address and such registered place of address shall for all purposes be deemed his place of residence.

176. As regards any member who has not notified in writing to the Company some place in Ceylon to be registered as his address a notice posted up in the registered office shall be deemed to be well served on him at the expiration of twenty-four hours from the time when it is so posted up.

177. Any notice required to be given by the Company to the members or any of them and not expressly provided for by these presents shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement.

178. Any notice required to be or which may be given by advertisement shall be advertised once in one or more daily newspapers published in Colombo.

179. All notices shall with respect to any registered shares, to which persons are jointly entitled, be given to whichever of such persons is named first in the register, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such shares.

180. Any notice sent by post shall be deemed to have been served on the day following that on which the envelope or wrapper containing the same is posted, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post office and a certificate signed by any Director or other officer of the Company that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice was so addressed and posted shall be conclusive evidence thereof. Any notice given by advertisement shall be deemed to have been given on the day on which the advertisement shall first appear.

181. Every person who by operation of law, transfer or other means whatsoever shall become entitled to any share shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which previously to his name and address being entered on the register shall be duly given to the person from whom he derives his title to such share.

183. The signature to any notice to be given by the Company may be written or printed.

184. In the event of a winding-up of the Company every member of the Company who is not for the time being in Ceylon shall be bound within twelve weeks after the passing of an effective resolution to wind up the Company voluntarily or the making of an order for the winding-up of the Company to serve notice in writing on the Company appointing some householder residing in Ceylon upon whom all summonses, notices, process, orders, and judgments in relation to or under the windingup of the Company may be served, and in default of such nomination the Liquidator of the Company shall be at liberty on behalf of such member to appoint some such person, and service upon any such appointee whether appointed by the member or the Liquidator makes any such appointment he shall with all convenient speed give notice thereof to such member by advertisement in some Ceylon daily newspaper or by a registered letter sent through the post and addressed to such member at his address as mentioned in the register of members of the Company, and such notice shall be deemed to be served on the day following that on which the advertisement appears or letter is posted. The provisions of this Article shall not prejudice the right of the liquidator of the Company to serve any notice or other document in any other manner prescribed by the regulations of the Company.

SECRECY.

185. Every Director, Manager, Secretary, Auditor, Trustee, member of a committee, officer, servant, agent, accountant, or other person employed in the business of the Company shall if so required by the Directors before entering upon his duties, sign a declaration pledging himself to observe a strict secrecy respecting all transactions of the Company with the customers and the state of accounts with individuals and in matters relating thereto, and shall by such declaration pledge himself not to reveal any of the matters which may come to his knowledge in the discharge of his duties except when required so to do by the Directors or by any meeting or by a court of law and except so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions in these presents contained.

186. No Shareholder or other person shall be entitled to enter the property of the Company or to inspect or examine the Company's premises or properties or the books of accounts of the Company without the permission of the Secretary or of the Directors of the Company for the time being or to require discovery of or any information respecting any detail of the Company's trading or any matter which is or may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery of trade, or secret process or of any matters whatsoever which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which in the opinion of the Directors it will be inexpedient in the interests of the members of the Company to communicate.

WINDING-UP.

187. If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution among the members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid-up capital such assets shall be distributed so that as nearly as may be the losses shall be borne by the members in proportion to the capital paid-up or which ought to have been paid-up at the commencement of the winding-up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding-up the assets available for distribution among the members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid-up at the commencement of the winding-up the excess shall be distributed amongs the members in proportion to the capital at the commencement of the winding-up, paid-up or which ought to have been paid-up on the shares held by them respectively. But this Article is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions.

188. (1) If the Company shall be wound-up whether voluntarily or otherwise the Liquidators may with the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution divide among the contributories in specie or kind any part of the assets of the Company, and may with the like sanction vest any part of the assets of the Company in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories or any of them as the Liquidators with the like sanction shall think fit.

(2) If thought expedient any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories (except where unalterably fixed by the Memorandum of Association) and in particular any class may be given preferential or special rights or may be excluded altogether or in part, but in case any division otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories shall be determined on, any contributory who would be prejudiced thereby shall have a right to express his dissent therefrom in writing addressed to the Liquidator and left at the registered office of the Company within fourteen days after the confirmation of the Extraordinary Resolution. He may require the Liquidator either to abstain from carrying the Resolution into effect, or to purchase his interest at a price to be determined by agreement or by arbitration.

(3) In case any of the shares to be divided as aforesaid involve a liability to calls or otherwise any person entitled under such division to any of the said shares may within ten days after the passing of the Extraordinary Resolution by notice in writing direct the Liquidator to sell his proportion and pay him the net proceeds, and the Liquidator shall, if practicable, act accordingly.

INDEMNITY.

189. Every Director and other officer or servant of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company against, and it shall be the duty of the Directors, out of the funds of the Company, to pay all costs, losses and expenses which any such officer or servant may incur or become liable to by reason of any contract entered into, or act or thing done by him as such officer or servant or in any way in the discharge of his duties, including travelling expenses and the amount for which such indemnity is provided shall immediately attach as a lien on the property of the Company and have priority as between the members over all other claims.

Notification by the Government Agent of the Southern Province under Section 6 (1) of the Forest Ordinance, No. 16 of 1907.

IT is hereby notified for general information that His Excellency the Governor, by Proclamation dated November 12, 1935, published in Government Gazette No. 8,172 of November 15, 1935, which is reproduced below, declared that the area described in the schedule attached thereto shall be a reserved forest under section 5 of the Forest Ordinance, No. 16 of 1907 from and after the first day of January, 1936.

The following are the consequences which will ensue on the reservation of such forest :---

That any person who in that forest-

- (a) Trespasses, or pastures cattle, or permits cattle to trespass;
- (b) Causes any damage by negligence in felling any tree, or cutting or dragging any timber ;
- (c) Wilfully strips off the bark or leaves from, or otherwise damages, any tree;
- (d) In contravention of any rules made by the Governor in that behalf, hunts, shoots, fishes, poisons water, or sets traps or snares or guns, or constructs or uses ambushes, or uses any explosive substance—shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or when the damage resulting from his offence amounts to more than twenty-five rupees, to double the amount of such damage.

- That any person who-
- (a) Makes any fresh clearing in that forest; or
- (b) Sets fire to that forest, or in contravention of any rules made by the Governor kindles any fire, or leaves any fire burning in such manner as to endanger the forest or any part thereof;

or who, in that forest-

- (c) Kindles, keeps, or carries any fire except at such seasons and in such manner as a Forest Officer, specially empowered in this behalf may from time to time notify;
- (d) Fells, girdles, lops, taps, or burns any tree;
- (e) Quarries stone, burns lime or charcoal, or collects subjects to any manufacturing process or removes any forest produce;
- (f) Clears or breaks up any land for cultivation or any other purpose;
- (g) Damages, alters, or removes any wall, ditch, embankment, fence, hedge or railing-shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or to fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or to both, in addition to such compensation for damage done to the forest as the convicting court may direct to be paid. Such compensation when awarded shall be treated in all respects as a fine, shall be recoverable as such, and shall not exceed the amount of fine which such court has power to impose.

The Kachcheri, Galle, December 11, 1935. C. HARRISON-JONES, Government Agent.

A. L. 406/35 BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR. A PROCLAMATION.

R. E. STUBBS.

KNOW Ye that in pursuance of the powers vested in the Governor by section 5 of the Forest Ordinance, 1907, We, the Governor of Ceylon, do by this Proclamation declare that the land bounded by the limits set forth in the schedule hereto, which was declared the property of the Crown by orders under the Waste Lands Ordinance of 1897 to 1903 and the Land Settlement Ordinance, 1931, published in the Gazettes of December 8, 1899, October 7, 1932, and December 2, 1932, respectively, shall be a reserved forest from and after the 1st day of January, 1936.
