PN 1228

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased, with the approval of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, to direct that the following amendment be incorporated in the Minutes on Pensions :—

Delete the existing sections 30, 31, 31A and 48 and substitute the following :—

29A. (i.) Sections 30, 31 and 31A of these Minutes are not applicable to persons entitled to compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1934, or to their dependants if such persons were newly appointed to the service of the Government of Ceylon on or after the date on which that Ordinance came into operation: Provided that a person with service prior to that date under the Government of Ceylon shall not be deemed to have been newly appointed for the purposes of this section if pension, retiring allowance or gratuity under these regulations, or benefits under a Provident Fund established by the Government of Ceylon, are payable in respect of such prior service.

(ii.) In the case of persons entitled to compensation under the said Ordinance, and not newly appointed as aforesaid, and the dependants of such persons, sections 30 and 31 of these Minutes are not applicable except as provided in section 30 (iv.).

30. (i.) Subject to the provisions and exceptions contained in the preceding section when a person employed in the public service of Ceylon, whether serving in a pensionable or in a non-pensionable office, is injured—

- (a) In the actual discharge of his duty ;
(b) Without his own default ; and

(c) By some injury specially attributable to the nature of his duty, it shall be competent for the Governor to grant to him in respect of such injury an annual allowance not exceeding the undermentioned portion of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, viz. :—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is slightly impaired, 5-60ths ;
Impaired, 10-60ths.
Materially impaired, 15-60ths.
Totally destroyed, 20-60ths.

(ii.) The award shall be so much less than the amount grantable under the scale given above as the Governor shall think reasonable in case—

- (a) The usual amount exceeds by not less than Rs. 1,000 a year the rate of retired allowance to which the length of the injured man's service would entitle him ; or
(b) The injured man has continued to serve for not less than one year after the injury in respect of which he retires ; or
(c) The injured man is 50 years of age or upwards at the date of injury ; or
(d) The injury is not the sole cause of retirement, i.e., retirement is caused partly by age or infirmity.

(iii.) The above award shall be in addition to the pension or the retiring allowance, or gratuity, to which the injured man would be qualified by length of service: Provided that no award shall, together with such pension, or retiring allowance exceed 50/60ths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury: Provided further that if the officer continues in service after the injury, and the grant of an ordinary pension or retiring allowance is consequently postponed until final retirement, or if an officer once retired with an injury allowance is re-employed, the limitation shall be 50/60ths of his salary at date of final retirement or at date of injury whichever is greater.

(iv.) In the case of a pensionable officer, who not having completed ten years' gross service, is entitled only to a gratuity he may, if he wish it, be awarded in lieu of such gratuity, an annual allowance of so many 720ths as the months he has actually served, together with the number of 60ths that may be awarded as above on account of his injuries. An annual allowance on account of service as provided in this sub-section may be granted to an officer in a pensionable office who is entitled to compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Ordinance, No. 19 of 1934, in addition to such compensation.

31. (i.) Subject to the provisions and exceptions contained in section 29A above, when an officer is killed on duty or dies as a direct result of injuries received while on duty, or of illness the contraction of which was specifically attributable to the nature of his duties, the Governor may at his discretion propose to the State Council an award to the widow and children, which ordinarily may be on the following scale :—

Pension to widow not to exceed 10-60ths of the husband's salary and emoluments, or Rs. 150 a year, whichever is greater ; and Gratuity to children, not exceeding Rs. 15, multiplied by the total number of their years, starting from the ages at the time of their father's death and ending with fifteen years, the total gratuity not to be less than Rs. 150 or more than Rs. 750.

In the case of motherless children the award may be of twice the usual rate.

(ii.) If the deceased does not leave a widow, and if his mother or other near relative was wholly dependent upon him for her support, the award which might have been made to a widow may be made to the mother or other such dependent relative.

Pensions granted under this clause shall cease on the re-marriage of the widow, but may be restored on re-widowhood if the Governor shall so order.

31A. In a case falling under section 30 or section 31 of this Minute where a non-pensionable officer or daily-paid employee is injured or killed the Governor may, in lieu of the other benefits provided in these Minutes, award compensation in accordance with the rates and principles set out in the schedule and table hereto sub-joined provided that it shall appear to the Governor that the grant of such compensation in lieu of other benefits is in the interests of the beneficiary or beneficiaries concerned : Provided that in the case of the persons mentioned in subsection (ii.) of section 29A—

- (a) this section shall apply to pensionable officers, and
- (b) the compensation payable under this section shall be the amount (if any) by which the sum which would otherwise be so payable exceeds the compensation payable under the said Ordinance, and
- (c) if there is no such excess no compensation shall be payable under this section.

The plaint of every breach of these rules shall be authorized by a Supervising Officer.
4. The Irrigation Headman of each division shall reside within the limits of his division and shall not absent himself during the cultivation season or at other times when his services are required, without leave and without providing a substitute approved by the Government Agent or Supervising Officer.
5. Every Irrigation Headman shall prepare a register of irrigable fields in his division, showing the names of fields, names of their proprietors or lessees, extents, shares owned and, wherever possible, the tattumaru turn of cultivation of each co-owner. He shall also enter in this register the length of channel to be cleared and length of fence to be erected by the proprietors or lessees in proportion to the extent held. This register shall be revised annually and be open for inspection by the proprietors concerned. For the purpose of the preparation of the register every proprietor of a field shall give notice to the Irrigation Headman of the division of any changes of ownership of such field.
6. (a) The date for the commencement of operations for cultivation at each season shall be fixed at a meeting of the proprietors duly convened for the purpose by the Irrigation Headman of each division, at least a fortnight in advance.
(b) Questions relating to the last date for the clearing of channels and water-courses, for sowing and fencing of fields and the kind of paddy to be sown at each season shall also be determined at such meeting.
7. Unless otherwise ordered by the Government Agent, the Irrigation Headman of each division shall preside at such meetings and record full minutes thereof which he shall preserve.

Cultivators guilty of neglect or default in respect of their cultivation without sufficient reason shall be guilty of an offence.
11. The necessary repairs to channels, water-courses, elas, drains, amunas, &c., shall be carried out by the joint labour of all proprietors simultaneously on notice given by the Irrigation Headman, and in proportion to the extent which each person holds or cultivates.

13. As soon as a range of fields is fully prepared for sowing the proprietors shall on being noticed to do so by the Irrigation Headman sow their portions within one week from the date of such notice, unless the weather or the peculiar position of his field renders it impossible for any proprietor to sow within the prescribed time.
14. The inspection of the amuna and water-course of each tract of field shall be made by the local Irrigation Headman as often as to him shall seem expedient, and if any minor repairs be found necessary, they shall be executed by the cultivator of the field in which such repairs shall be needed. But in the event of a serious accident happening to any amuna or water-course, and causing damage that requires immediate repair, the Irrigation Headman or Irrigation Headmen shall immediately by beat of tom-tom or otherwise, as shall appear to be most effectual, collect all the proprietors and cultivators of the fields of the tract or tracts dependent for irrigation on such amuna or water-course. All such proprietors and cultivators, and all parties interested in the cultivation of the land shall be in attendance on the spot either by day or by night as may be necessary and shall forthwith perform the needful work. As soon as practicable, the Irrigation Headman or Irrigation Headmen shall furnish a detailed report of the accident and of the work of repairs to the Supervising Officer. 23. The several fields of a tract must be sown either with the same kind of paddy or with such kinds of paddy as will ripen at the same time.
24. If a proprietor or cultivator is unable personally to assist in clearing the main water-course, and constructing the fence of a tract of fields, and watching the crop of such tract he must furnish a substitute who shall perform his principal's share of the work.
25. Every fence protecting a paddy field shall be repaired and maintained in good order by the cultivator in charge. The fence of a tract shall not be removed until the latest crop within the enclosure shall have been thrashed, provided that such crop shall have been sown in conformity with rule 23 of these rules.

30. Threshing of paddy shall not be delayed without sufficient reason longer than one month from the date of removal of the crop to the threshing-floor. Notice shall be given to the Irrigation Headman before every such threshing is commenced.

35. All labour which has to be performed in accordance with the above rules by proprietors or cultivators shall be performed in proportion to the extent of land owned or cultivated. Non-cultivation of the fields shall not relieve any proprietor from this liability unless he is specially exempted by the Government Agent or Supervising Officer.
36. The Irrigation Headman shall have power to direct in accordance with any resolution passed by the majority of proprietors at a meeting convened for the purpose and approved by the Government Agent the opening up of new channels and making new amunas, ridges, banks, drains, nawat, or kattakanda outlets for superfluous water, and pitaparas where necessary.
37. Should a case occur in which, before sowing has commenced, it is found that the supply of water to the tract of fields is insufficient to irrigate the whole extent of the tract, the majority of the proprietors intending to sow for that season shall decide on the extent and the portion of the tract to be cultivated and such portion shall be divided among such proprietors in proportion to their shares of the tract.
38. If from any cause the source of supply of water to the tract of fields proves insufficient, after sowing has been completed, to bring the whole extent sown to maturity, the majority of the proprietors of the fields sown shall decide as to which part of the tract shall be abandoned. The remainder of the tract shall thereafter be divided among the proprietors in proportion to the extent sown by each of them. All disputes arising in this connection shall be referred to the President of the Village Tribunal whose decision shall be final.
39. For the prevention of the paddy blight and destruction of paddy flies, all fields shall be subjected to the usual process of Bokugema, or to such other processes as are decided upon by the majority of proprietors.
40. Whenever practicable, a width of at least 10 feet of ground round the paddy field and also the banks of channels irrigating land shall be kept clear of jungle.

44. The "inniyara" between two lands shall be made by the joint labour of the owners or cultivators, and the "maninniyaras" or "paths" by the joint labour of the owners or cultivators who are benefited by such "maninniyaras" or paths according to the extent held by each.
45. The branch channels from the main channel shall be made and repaired by the joint labour of those proprietors or cultivators through whose lands such channels pass in proportion to the extent owned or cultivated by each of them.
46. No person shall divert water to asweddumize new land without the consent of the owners of the existing fields or of the Government Agent.
47. Where an area of land has been taken up for the purpose of asweddumization, and work has been commenced on one-tenth of that land, the proprietors or cultivators of the rest of the land shall open up channels as required by rule 41. If owing to their default the lands on which the work of asweddumization has been commenced are prevented from being irrigated, the necessary channels shall be opened by the Irrigation Headman acting on the orders of the Government Agent, or Supervising Officer and the cost of such work shall be recoverable in terms of Section 23 of the Ordinance; provided that the asweddumization scheme has been passed by a majority of proprietors interested.
48. The fencing of new asweddums shall be directed by the Irrigation Headman in proportion to the extent cleared for cultivation.
49. A "wetahire" shall, where necessary, be made for buffaloes employed in ploughing, by the joint labour of the cattle-owning proprietors in proportion to the number of buffaloes owned by each of them.

57. No owner of a paddy field situated in a range shall after reaping drive in cattle to his field until all the fields in the range have been reaped and their crops removed.

58. After cultivation has once commenced no cattle shall be admitted to the tract of fields, except for the necessary purposes of cultivation, until all the fields in the tract have been reaped and their crops removed.

60. Fowls, ducks, geese, and pigs damaging paddy may be shot and in such case the carcass shall be delivered to the owner.

61. MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS.

(Discipline.)

The Ceylon Medical Council in dealing with disciplinary cases is guided by the same principles as the General Medical Council of Great Britain whose Warning Notices are appended below (29th section of the Medical Acts, 1858):—

"If any registered medical practitioner shall be convicted in England or Ireland of any felony or misdemeanour, or in Scotland of any crime or offence, or shall after due inquiry be judged by the General Council to have been guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect, the General Council may, if they see fit, direct the Registrar to erase the name of such medical practitioner from the Register"—

It must be clearly understood that the instances of professional misconduct which are given below do not constitute, and are not intended to constitute, a complete list of the offences which may be punished by erasure from the Register: and that by issuing this notice the Council are in no way precluded from considering and dealing with any form of professional misconduct (as, for example, immorality involving abuse of professional relationship) which may be brought before them, although it may not appear to come within the scope or precise wording of any of the categories herein set forth. Circumstances may and do arise from time to time in relation to which there may occur questions of professional conduct which do not come within any of these categories. In such instances, as in all others, the Council have to consider and decide upon the facts brought before them.

1.—Certificates, Notifications, Reports, &c.

Registered practitioners are in certain cases bound by law to give, or may be from time to time called upon or requested to give, certificates, notifications, reports, and other documents of a kindred character, signed by them in their professional capacity, for subsequent use either in Courts of Justice or for administrative purposes.

Such documents include, among others, certificates, notifications, reports, &c.—

- (a) Under the Statutes relating to births, deaths, or disposal of the dead ;
- (b) Under the Acts relating to Lunacy and Mental Deficiency and the Rules made thereunder ;
- (c) Under the Vaccination Acts and Orders made thereunder ;
- (d) Under the Factory Acts and the Regulations made thereunder ;
- (e) Under the Education Acts ;
- (f) Under the Public Health Acts and the Orders made thereunder ;
- (g) Under the Workmen's Compensation Acts ;
- (h) Under the Acts and the Orders relating to the notification of infectious diseases ;
- (i) Under the National Insurance Acts and the Regulations made thereunder ;
- (j) Under the Old Age Pensions Acts and the Regulations made thereunder ;
- (k) Under the Merchant Shipping Acts ;
- (l) In connection with sick benefit, insurance, and friendly societies ;
- (m) For procuring the issue of Foreign Office passports ;
- (n) For excusing attendance in Courts of Justice, in the public services, in public offices in ordinary employment ;
- (o) In connection with naval and military matters.

Any registered practitioner who shall be shown to have signed or given under his name and authority any such certificate, notification, report, or document of a kindred character, which is untrue, misleading, or improper, whether relating to the several matters above specified or otherwise, is liable to have his name erased from the Register.

2.—Unqualified Assistants and Covering.

The employment by any registered practitioner in connection with his professional practice of an assistant who is not duly qualified or registered, and the permitting of such unqualified person to attend, treat, or perform operations upon patients in respect of matters requiring professional discretion or skill is in the opinion of the Council in its nature fraudulent and dangerous to the public health ; and any registered practitioner who shall be shown to have so employed an unqualified assistant, is liable to have his name erased from the Register.

Any registered practitioner who by his presence, countenance, advice, assistance, or co-operation, knowingly enables an unqualified or unregistered person, whether described as an assistant or otherwise, to attend, treat, or perform any operation upon a patient in respect of any matter requiring professional discretion or skill, to issue or procure the issue of any certificate, notification, report, or other document of a kindred character (as more particularly specified in Division I hereof), or otherwise to engage in professional practice as if the said person were duly qualified and registered is liable on proof of the facts to have his name erased from the Register.

The foregoing do not apply so as to restrict the proper training and instruction of bona fide students, or the legitimate employment of dressers, midwives, dispensers, surgery attendants, and skilled mechanics, under the immediate personal supervision of a registered practitioner.

3.—Sale of Poisons.

The employment, for his own profit and under cover of his own qualifications, by any registered practitioner who keeps a medical hall, open shop, or other place in which scheduled poisons or preparations containing scheduled poisons are sold to the public, of assistants who are left in charge but are not legally qualified to sell scheduled poisons to the public, is in the opinion of the Council a practice professionally discreditable and fraught with danger to the public, and any registered practitioner who is proved to have so offended, will be liable to have his name erased from the Register.

4.—Association with Unqualified Persons.

Any registered practitioner who, either by administering anæsthetics or otherwise, assists an unqualified person to attend, treat, or perform an operation upon any other person, in respect of matters requiring professional discretion or skill, will be liable on proof of the facts to have his name erased from the Register.

5.—Advertising and Canvassing.

The practices of (a) advertising by a registered medical practitioner with a view to his own gain, particularly if depreciatory of other practitioners or of sanctioning such advertising, of (b) employing or sanctioning the employment of agents or canvassers for the purpose of procuring patients, and of (c) associating with or accepting employment under any association which practises canvassing or advertising for the purpose of procuring patients, are in the opinion of the Council contrary to the public interest and discreditable to the profession of medicine, and any registered medical practitioner resorting to any of such practices renders himself liable on proof of the facts to have his name erased from the Register.

Previous Notices issued by the Medical Council.

In view of the practice among some medical practitioners on the Ceylon Register of covering unregistered practitioners by meeting in consultation or assisting them, registered practitioners are hereby informed, by order of the Ceylon Medical Council, that if in future any case of malpractice of this kind be brought to the notice of the Council, such offending practitioner will be liable to have his name struck off the Register under section 36 (e) of Ordinance No. 26 of 1927 for infamous conduct in a professional respect.

The Ceylon Medical Council desires to bring to the notice of all practitioners the following decision on two points which were submitted to them for consideration :—

1. Whether a Surgeon, called in to operate on a patient by his family doctor, is entitled to regard the patient as his, from the date of the operation ?

1.—Decision of Council.

Council decided that the Surgeon who operates cannot claim the patient as his, and should not visit him without the knowledge and consent of the family Physician.

2. Where more than one qualified medical practitioner co-operate in an operation which happens to be unsuccessful, is the operator justified in excusing the failure of his operation to the patient or his relatives by placing the blame on his colleague ?

2.—Decision of Council.

Council is of opinion that it is grossly unprofessional to do so and that such conduct is worthy of censure.

DENTAL PRACTITIONERS.

(Discipline.)

It is enacted by section 13 of the Dentists Act, 1878, as amended by section 8 of the Dentists Act, 1921, that—

Where a person registered in the Dentists Register has, either before or after he is registered, been convicted in His Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere of an offence which if committed in England would be a felony or misdemeanour, or been guilty of any infamous or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect, that person shall be liable to have his name erased from the Register.

The Board may, and on the application of any Medical Authority shall, cause an inquiry to be made into the case of a person alleged to be liable to have his name erased under this section, and if the Board on any such inquiry are satisfied that the name of that person ought to be erased from the Register, they shall forward a report to the General Medical Council setting out the facts proved at the inquiry and the finding of the Board.

The General Medical Council, after receiving any such report, and after hearing any observations which the person affected or the Medical Authority may desire to make with reference to the report, may make an order directing the Registrar to erase from the Register the name of the person affected.

Provided that the name of a person shall not be erased under this section on account of his adopting or refraining from adopting the practice of any particular theory of dentistry or dental surgery, or on account of a conviction for a political offence out of His Majesty's Dominions, or on account of a conviction for an offence which, though within the provisions of this section, does not, either from the trivial nature of the offence or from the circumstances in which it was committed, disqualify a person from practising dentistry.

Any name erased from the Register in pursuance of this section shall also be erased from the list of licentiates in dental surgery or dentistry of the Medical Authority of which such person is a licentiate.

I.—Unregistered Assistants and Covering.

Section 14 (2) of the Dentists Act, 1921, is as follows :—

For the purposes of this Act, the practice of dentistry shall be deemed to include the performance of any such operation and the giving of any such treatment, advice, or attendance as is usually performed or given by dentists, and any person who performs any operation or gives any treatment, advice, or attendance on or to any person as preparatory to or for the purpose of or in connection with the fitting, insertion, or fixing of artificial teeth shall be deemed to have practised dentistry within the meaning of this Act.

The practice of dentistry, except by persons registered in the Dentists Register or in the Medical Register is prohibited by the Dentists Act, 1921, and any person who contravenes this provision is liable to be summarily convicted and fined.

Accordingly, the employment by any registered dental practitioner in his professional practice of an assistant who is not registered either in the Dentists Register or in the Medical Register, if he is permitted to practise dentistry and in particular to do any of the things specified in the section quoted above, is contrary to law ; and any registered dental practitioner who has so acted renders himself liable, on proof of the facts, to have his name erased from the Register.

Similarly, any registered dental practitioner who by his presence, counterance, advice, assistance, or co-operation has knowingly enabled an unregistered person, whether described as an assistant or otherwise, to practise dentistry to do any of the things specified in the section quoted above, renders himself liable, on proof of the facts, to have his name erased from the Register.

II.—Dangerous Drugs.

The contravention by a registered dental practitioner of the provisions of the Dangerous Drugs Acts and the Regulations made thereunder may be the subject of criminal proceedings, and any conviction resulting therefrom may be dealt with as such by the Board and General Medical Council respectively under the powers given them by section 13 of the Dentists Act, 1878, as amended by section 8 of the Dentists Act, 1921. But any contravention of the Acts or the Regulations, involving an abuse of the privileges conferred thereunder upon registered dental practitioners, whether such contravention has been the subject of criminal proceedings or not, will, if proved to the satisfaction of the Board and the Council, render a registered dental practitioner liable to have his name erased from the Dentists Register.

III.—Advertising and Canvassing.

The practices by a registered dental practitioner—

(a) of advertising, whether directly or indirectly, for the purpose of obtaining patients or promoting his own professional advantage ; or, for any such purpose, of procuring or sanctioning or acquiescing in the publication of notices commending or directing attention to the practitioner's professional skill, knowledge, services, or qualifications, of depreciating those of others ; or of being associated with or employed by those who procure or sanction such advertising or publication ; and

(b) of canvassing or employing any agent or canvasser for the purpose of obtaining patients ; or of sanctioning, or of being associated with or employed by those who sanction, such employments as are in the opinion of the Board and of the General Medical Council contrary to the public interest and discreditable to the profession of dentistry ; and any registered dental practitioner who resorts to any such practice renders himself liable, on proof of the facts, to have his name erased from the Dentists Register.

IV.—Use of Titles and Descriptions.

Use of Titles and Descriptions. A person registered under the principal Act—

(a) shall, by virtue of being so registered, be entitled to take and use the description of dentist or dental practitioner ;

(b) shall not take or use, or affix to or use in connection with his premises, any title or description reasonably calculated to suggest that he possesses any professional status or qualification other than a professional status or qualification which he in fact possesses, and which is indicated by particulars entered in the Register in respect of him.

Any registered dental practitioner who may have infringed the provisions of this section renders himself liable, on proof of the facts, to have his name erased from the Register.

5A. Pursuant to notice Mr. De Silva moved—

“ That in view of the great hardships caused to the bus drivers who ply their buses between Kadugannawa-Kandy, Gampola-Kandy, Galaha-Kandy, and Murutalawa-Kandy, and to the travelling public by constant interference and prosecution by Police regarding the halting places assigned to these buses near the Market Stand, that this Council is of opinion that they should be allowed to keep 4 buses either in the halting places or in the bus stand and in the case of halting places buses should be allowed to halt for 15 minutes at a time for loading and unloading passengers and goods.”

Mr. Marikar seconded.

After some discussion the mover amended the motion as follows with the consent of the seconder :—

“ That the bus owners who are plying their buses between Kadugannawa-Kandy, Gampola-Kandy, Galaha-Kandy, and Murutalawa-Kandy, and who are paying rent for the use of the Railway Approach road Stand be allowed to halt 4 buses at the Market Street Stand for 15 minutes at a time ”.
