A Government Scholarship will be awarded to enable a Ceylonese to be trained at the Imperial College of Science and Technology, London, with a view to his appointment to the post of Government Mineralogist.

2. It is proposed that the Scholar should enter for the Geology course at that College and obtain the Diploma of Associateship of the Royal College of Science in Geology, which would entitle him to the B.Sc. (Special) Degree of the London University, if he had matriculated at the University of London before joining the College. On the completion of this course the Scholar will undergo a course of advanced study at the College in certain special subjects which will probably include such subjects as Special Mineralogy, Economic Geology and Mining Geology. The Associateship course at the College lasts four years, but candidates may be admitted to the second or third year of the course direct if they have attained a sufficiently high standard in the subjects for the first or the second year at the College respectively. The subjects for the first year are Chemistry, Physics and Mathematics, and those for the second year Botany, Zoology and Geology.

3. The salary attached to the post of Government Mineralogist is Rs. 4,000 per annum rising by annual increments of Rs. 200 to Rs. 8,400 per annum.

4. A candidate to be eligible for the Scholarship—

- (a) Must be of Ceylonese parentage.
- (b) Must hold a Science degree of a University in the United Kingdom or equivalent qualifications.
- (c) Should not have completed his 25th year on October 1, 1936.
- (d) Must undergo a strict Medical examination by a Government Medical Officer as to physical fitness to pursue the course of training and to be employed on the duties likely to be assigned to him while in the employment of the Government.

5. Candidates should state which subjects they have passed in the examinations leading to their degree or equivalent qualifications.

6. The Scholarship will be granted on the following conditions:—

- (a) The Scholar should, on arrival in England, report himself to the Director of Colonial Scholars or to such other person as the Chief Secretary may direct, and should carry out all instructions which he may receive from time to time, through that person in regard to his work.
- (b) The Scholar should transmit quarterly to the Director of Colonial Scholars or to such other person as the Chief Secretary may direct, a certificate from the College showing that his conduct and progress have been satisfactory. He should also keep a concise diary of his work.
- (c) The Scholar should give a written undertaking that he will devote himself exclusively to the course of training laid down for him, that he will do whatever work it may involve, and that he will comply with whatever instructions he may receive in regard to his work.
- (d) The Scholar will forfeit the scholarship if, not being disabled by illness or prevented by any other causes which the Chief Secretary may consider sufficient, he fails to comply with the provisions herein set forth. The Scholarship may be terminated at any time if the Scholar fails in health or conduct or if he neglects his studies.
- (e) On the expiration of the Scholarship or in the event of the Scholarship being terminated owing to ill-health or for any other reason the Scholar should return to Ceylon as and when required by the Chief Secretary.
- (f) The grant of the Scholarship will not necessarily entitle the Scholar, on completion of his course, to be appointed to the post of Government Mineralogist. He will be required to give an undertaking that after the completion of his training in England, he will return to Ceylon, as and when required by the Chief Secretary, to whom he will report himself on his return to Ceylon, and if so required, will serve for a term of not less than seven years in any post under the Ceylon Government provided that nothing in this clause shall require the Scholar to accept a post carrying a salary less than that stated in paragraph 3 above. In the event of Government being unable to give employment to the Scholar within a period of six months after his return to the Island having duly completed his course of training the Scholar will be at liberty to take up any other appointment.

7. Subject to compliance with the above conditions, the Ceylon Government will pay—

- (a) All tuition, examination and other fees connected with the course of training (the fees of the Imperial College of Science and Technology amount to £62. 10s. per annum).
- (b) the cost of prescribed books, instruments and equipment (estimated at approximately £10 per annum).
- (c) the cost of passage at second class rates for proceeding to England (if the candidate is in Ceylon at the time of selection) to take up the course, and of the return passage to Ceylon on the termination of the full course or on prior termination of the Scholarship on account of ill-health or other cause.
- (d) an allowance of £150 per annum, payable in such instalments as the Director of Colonial Scholars may decide, to cover the living expenses of the Scholar while in residence in England (the Scholar will meet the breakage deposit from this allowance) half this allowance will be payable during the periods of voyage to and from the United Kingdom.
- (e) an outfit allowance of Rs. 750, if the candidate happens to be in Ceylon at the time of selection.

The Irrigation Headman of each division shall reside within the limits of his division and shall not absent himself during the cultivation season or at other times when his services are required, without leave and without providing a substitute approved by the Government Agent or Supervising Officer.
5. Every Irrigation Headman shall prepare a register of irrigable fields in his division, showing the names of fields, names of their proprietors or lessees, extents, shares owned, and the “tattumaru” turn of cultivation of each co-owner. He shall also enter in his register the length of channel to be cleared and length of fence to be erected by the proprietors or lessees in proportion to the extents held. This register shall be revised annually and be open for inspection by the proprietors concerned. 14. The inspection of the amuna and water-course of each tract of field shall be made by the local Irrigation Headman as often as to him shall seem expedient, and if any minor repairs be found necessary, they shall be executed by the cultivator of the field in which such repairs shall be needed. But in the event of a serious accident happening to any amuna or water-course, and causing damage that requires immediate repair, the Irrigation Headman or Irrigation Headmen shall immediately by beat of tom-tom or otherwise, as shall appear to be most effectual, collect all the proprietors and cultivators of the fields of the tract or tracts dependent for irrigation on such amuna or water-course. All such proprietors and cultivators, and all parties interested in the cultivation of the land shall be in attendance on the spot either by day or by night as may be necessary and shall forthwith perform the needful work. As soon as practicable, the Irrigation Headman or Irrigation Headmen shall furnish a detailed report of the accident and of the work of repairs to the Supervising Officer. 23. The several fields of a tract must be sown either with the same kind of paddy or with such kind of paddy as will ripen at the same time.
24. If a proprietor or cultivator is unable personally to assist in cleaning the main water-course, and constructing the fence of a tract of fields, and watching the crop of such tract, he must furnish a substitute who shall perform his principal's share of the work.
25. Every fence protecting a paddy field shall be repaired and maintained in good order by the cultivator in charge. 38. If from any cause the source of supply of water to the tract of fields proves insufficient, after sowing has been completed, to bring the whole extent sown to maturity, the majority of the proprietors of the fields sown shall decide as to which part of the tract shall be abandoned. The remainder of the tract shall thereafter be divided among the proprietors in proportion to the extent sown by each of them. All disputes arising in this connection shall be referred to the President of the Village Tribunal from whose decision an appeal may be made to the Government Agent. He should also state in the notice the name of the land and the extent he wishes to irrigate, and give all other information regarding his land that may be required of him. If a proprietor after receiving such notification from the Irrigation Headman neglects to make the necessary application within a reasonable time, he shall become liable to forfeit his right to the use of the water.

10. The Directors may also with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company reduce the capital or subdivide or consolidate the shares of the Company.

SHARES.

11. The Company may issue the balance capital whenever the Directors shall think fit and may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid, and the time of payment of such calls.

12. If by the conditions of allotment of any share the whole or part of the amount thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the holder of the shares.

13. The shares, except when otherwise provided, shall be allotted at the discretion of and by the Directors, who may from time to time issue any unissued shares, and may add to such shares such an amount of premium as they consider proper. Provided that such unissued shares except when otherwise provided shall first be offered by the Directors to the Shareholders in proportion to the existing shares held by them, and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares to which the Shareholder is entitled, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the Shareholder to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the same shall be disposed of in such manner as the Directors may determine. Provided that the Directors may at their discretion allot such new shares or any portion of them to the vendor or vendors of lands, property, rights, or privileges being acquired by the Company in payment of the whole or any part of the purchase price of any such lands, property, rights, or privileges, or as remuneration for work done for or services rendered to the Company and that without offering the shares so allotted to the Shareholders.

14. In case of the increase of the capital of the Company by the creation of new shares, such new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions, and with such preferential, deferred, qualified, special, or other rights and privileges annexed thereto, as the General Meeting resolving on the creation thereof, or any other General Meeting of the Company, shall direct, and if no direction be given, as the Directors shall determine, and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to the dividends, and in the distribution of the assets of the Company, and with a special or without any right of voting, provided, however, that such new shares shall have no preferential rights over the 20,000 cumulative preference shares above referred to.

Provided that the Directors may, at their discretion, allot such new shares or any

15. Every person taking any share in the Company shall testify his acceptance thereof by writing under his hand in such form as the Company may from time to time direct.

19. In case of the death of any one or more of the joint-holders of any shares, the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognized by the Company as having any title to, or interest in, such shares.

20. The Company shall not be bound to recognize (even though having notice of) any contingent, future, partial, or equitable interest in the nature of a trust or otherwise in any share, or any other right in respect of any share, except any absolute right thereto in the person from time to time registered as the holder thereof, and except also the right of any person under Article 44 to become a Shareholder in respect of any share.

21. The joint-holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of such share.

23. If any certificate be worn out or defaced, then, upon production thereof to the Directors they may order the same to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof; and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors, and on such indemnity as the Directors deem adequate being given, a new certificate in lieu thereof may be given to the person entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate. A sum of fifty cents shall be payable for such new certificate.

CALLS.

24. The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the Shareholders in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times, provided that three months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of each call; and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made to the persons and at the time and place appointed by the Directors.

25. If any Shareholder fails to pay the amount of any call due by him on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, he shall be liable to pay interest on the same at the rate of nine per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment.

26. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing such call was passed.

27. The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

28. The Directors may at their discretion receive from any of the Shareholders willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the moneys uncalled upon their respective shares beyond the sums actually called up; and upon the moneys so paid in advance, or upon so much thereof as from time to time and at any time thereafter exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon, and due in respect of the shares in respect of which such advances have been made, the Board may pay or allow interest at such rate as the Shareholders paying such sums in advance and the Directors may agree upon, not exceeding, however, six per centum per annum.

TRANSFER OF SHARES.

29. A share may be transferred by a member or other person entitled to transfer to any member selected by the transferor; but save as aforesaid and save as provided by clause 34 or 36 hereof, no share shall be transferred to a person who is not a member so long as any member (or any person selected by the Directors as one whom it is desirable in the interests of the Company to admit to membership) is willing to purchase the same at the fair value.

30. Except where the transfer is made pursuant to clause 34 or 36 hereof, the person proposing to transfer any shares (hereinafter called the "proposing transferor") shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called a "transfer notice") to the Company that he desires to transfer the same. Such notice shall specify the sum he fixes as the fair value, and shall constitute the Company his agent for the sale of the shares to any member of the Company (or person selected as aforesaid) at the price so fixed, or, at the option of the purchaser, at the fair value to be fixed by the auditor in accordance with these Articles. A transfer notice may include several shares, and in such case shall operate as if it were a separate notice in respect of each. A transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the sanction of the Directors.

31. If the Company shall, within the space of twenty-eight days after being served with a transfer notice, find a member (or person selected as aforesaid) willing to purchase the share (hereinafter called "the purchasing member") and shall give notice thereof to the proposing transferor, he shall be bound, upon payment of the fair value, to transfer the share to the purchasing member.

32. In case any difference arises between the proposing transferor and the purchasing member as to the fair value of a share, the auditor shall, on the application of either party, certify in writing the sum which, in his opinion, is the fair value, and such sum shall be deemed to be the fair value, and in so certifying the Auditor shall be considered to be acting as an expert, and not as an arbitrator.

33. If in any case the proposing transferor, after having become bound as aforesaid, make default in transferring the share, the Company may receive the purchase-money and shall thereupon cause the name of the purchasing member to be entered in the register as the holder of the share, and shall hold the purchase-money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company for the purchase-money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing member, and after his name has been entered in the register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

34. If the Company shall not, within the space of twenty-eight days after being served with a transfer notice, find a member (or person selected as aforesaid) willing to purchase the shares and give notice in manner aforesaid, the proposing transferor shall at any time within three calendar months afterwards be at liberty, subject to clause 37 hereof, to sell and transfer the shares (or those not placed) to any person and at any price.

35. The Company in General Meeting may make and from time to time vary rules as to the mode in which any shares specified in any transfer notice shall be offered to the members, and as to their rights in regard to the purchase thereof, and in particular may give any member or class of members a preferential right to purchase the same. Until otherwise determined, every such share shall be offered to the members in such order as shall be determined by lots drawn in regard thereto, and the lots shall be drawn in such manner as the Directors think fit.

36. Any share may be transferred by a member to any child or other issue, father, mother, wife, or husband of member, and any share of a deceased member may be transferred by his executors or administrators to any child, or other issue, father, mother, widow, or widower of such deceased member (to whom such deceased member may have specifically bequeathed the same), and shares standing in the name of the trustees of the will of any deceased member may be transferred upon any change of trustees to the trustees for the time being of such will (and the restrictions in clause 29 hereof shall not apply to any transfer authorized by this clause).

37. The Directors may refuse to register any transfer of a share (a) where the Company has a lien on the share; or (b) where the Directors are not of opinion that it is desirable to admit the proposed transferee to membership. But paragraph (b) of this clause shall not apply where the proposed transferee is already a member nor to a transfer made pursuant to clause 36 hereof.

38. The Company shall keep a book or books, to be called "The Register of Transfers", in which shall be entered the particulars of every transfer or transmission of any share.

39. Every instrument of transfer must be left at the office of the Company to be registered accompanied by the certificate for the shares to be transferred and by such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor, and a fee of Two Rupees and Fifty Cents or such other sum as the Directors shall from time to time determine, must be paid to the Company for the registration of every such transfer; upon payment thereof the Directors, subject to the powers vested in them by Article 29, shall register the transferee as a Shareholder and retain the instrument of transfer.

40. The Directors may, by such means as they shall deem expedient, authorize the registration of transferees as Shareholders, without the necessity of any meeting of the Directors for that purpose.

41. In no case shall the Directors be bound to inquire into the validity, legal effect, or genuineness of any instrument of transfer produced by a person claiming a transfer of any share in accordance with these Articles; and whether they abstain from so inquiring, or do so inquire and are misled, the transferor shall have no claim whatsoever upon the Company in respect of the share, except for the dividends previously declared in respect thereof, but only if at all, upon the transferee.

42. The Register of Transfers may be closed at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that it should not be closed for more than twenty-one days in any year.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

43. The executors, or administrators, or the heirs of a deceased sole Shareholder shall be the only person recognized by the Company, as having any title to the shares of such Shareholder.

44. Any guardian of any infant Shareholder, or any committee of a lunatic Shareholder, or any person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, of liquidation of any Shareholder, or in any other way than by transfer, shall, upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article, or of his title, as the Directors think sufficient, may with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) be registered as a Shareholder in respect of such share, or may, subject to the regulations as to transfers hereinbefore contained, transfer such shares.

45. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

46. The Directors may accept, in the name and for the benefit of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed a surrender of the shares of Shareholders who may be desirous of retiring from the Company, provided such acceptance is properly legalized.

47. If any Shareholder fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remain unpaid, serve a notice on such Shareholder requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

The notice shall name a day (not being less than one month from the date of the notice) on, and a place or places at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter before payment of calls or instalments, with interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

48. Any Shareholder whose shares have been so declared forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, premia, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at nine per centum per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

49. Every share surrendered or so declared forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

50. The surrender or forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in, and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

51. A certificate in writing under the hands of one of the Directors and of the Secretary or Secretaries that a share has been duly surrendered, or forfeited, stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture, and such certificate and the receipts of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company, and thereupon such purchaser shall be deemed the holder of such share, discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase; and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

52. The Directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money by way of redemption money for the deficit as they shall think fit, not being less than nine per centum per annum on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share bona fide sold or re-allotted or otherwise disposed of under Article 49 hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

53. The Company shall have a first charge or paramount lien upon all the shares of any holder or joint-holders for all moneys for the time being due to the Company by such holder or by all or any of such joint-holders, respectively, either in respect of such shares or of other shares held by such holder or joint-holder or in respect of any other debt, liability, or engagement whatsoever and whether due from any such holder individually or jointly with others, including all calls which the Directors shall have resolved to make, although the times appointed for the payment thereof shall not have arrived; and where any share is held by more persons than one, the Company shall be entitled to the said charge or lien in respect of any money due to the Company from any of such persons. And the Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge or lien.

54. Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere, abroad, sixty days' notice shall be allowed him.

55. The nett proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) paid to such Shareholder or his representatives.

56. A certificate in writing under the hands of one of the Directors and of the Secretary that the power of sale given by Article 54 has arisen and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

57. Upon any such sale two of the Directors, may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such share.

PREFERENCE SHARES.

58. Any shares from time to time to be issued or created may from time to time be issued with any such right or preference, whether in respect of dividend or repayment of capital, or both, or any such other special privilege or advantage over any shares previously issued or then about to be issued (other than shares issued with a preference), or at such a premium, or with such deferred rights as compared with any shares previously issued or then about to be issued, or subject to any such conditions or provisions, and with any such right or without any right of voting, and generally on such terms as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine, provided that no such shares shall have any preference over the 20,000 cumulative preference shares above referred to.

59. If at any time by the issue of preference shares or otherwise the capital is divided into shares of different classes, then the holders of any class of shares may by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders, consent, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith, or having any priority thereto, or to the abandonment of any preference or priority, or of any accrued dividend or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the class of shares; and such resolution shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class, provided that this Article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent in any case in which, but for this Article, the object of the resolution could have been effected without it.

60. Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding clause shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, provided that no member not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that at any such meeting a poll may be demanded in writing by any members personally present and entitled to vote at such meeting.

BORROWING POWERS.

61. The Directors shall have power from time to time at their discretion to borrow or raise from the Directors or other persons any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, provided that the money so borrowed or raised and owing at any one time shall not, without the sanction of a General Meeting, exceed Rupees One hundred thousand (Rs. 100,000).

62. With the sanction of a General Meeting, the Board shall be entitled to borrow such further sum or sums and at such rate of interest as such meeting shall determine. A certificate under the hands of one Director and the Secretary, or of two Directors, to the effect that in taking any loan the Directors are not exceeding their borrowing powers, shall be sufficient and binding on the Company and all concerned, and shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors.

63. For the purpose of securing the repayment of any such money so borrowed or raised, or for any other purpose, the Directors may grant, create, execute, and issue any mortgages, cash credits, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company, charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, lands, property, rights, and assets of the Company both present and future, including uncalled capital or unpaid calls, or may make, accept, or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange.

64. Any such securities may be issued either at par or at a premium or discount, and may from time to time be cancelled, discharged, varied, or exchanged as the Directors may think fit, and may contain special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares or otherwise.

65. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

66. The First General Meeting shall be held at such time not being more than twelve months after the incorporation of the Company and at such place as the Directors may determine.

67. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year, at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no time or place is so prescribed then at such place and at such time as soon after the first day in each year as may be determined by the Directors.

68. The General Meetings mentioned in the last preceding clause shall be called Ordinary General Meetings; all other Meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

69. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, and the Directors shall do so upon a requisition made in writing by not less than one-eighth of the number of Shareholders of the Company for the time being, or by any Shareholder or Shareholders holding in the aggregate one-eighth part of the shares of the Company for the time being subscribed for.

70. Any requisition so made shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called, shall be addressed to the Directors, and shall be sent to the registered office of the Company.

Upon the receipt of such requisition, the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within seven days from the delivery of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such place and such time as the Shareholders convening the meeting may themselves fix.

71. Any Shareholder may, on giving not less than five days' previous notice of any resolution, submit the same to a meeting.

72. Such notice shall be given by leaving a copy of the resolution at the registered office of the Company.

73. Seven days' notice at least of every General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, and by whomsoever convened, specifying the place, date, hour of meeting, and the objects and business of the meeting, shall be given by notice sent by post or otherwise served as hereinafter provided but so that a General Meeting may, with the consent in writing of all the Shareholders for the time being, be convened on a shorter notice than seven days or without written notice: notice of an adjourned meeting shall not be requisite in any case. Where it is proposed to pass a special resolution the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the 2nd meeting contingently upon the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the 1st meeting.

74. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to or the non-receipt of such notice by any of the Shareholders shall not invalidate any resolution passed at such meeting.

75. Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent, without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat, to receive and discuss any report and any accounts presented thereto by the Directors, and to pass resolutions in approval or disapproval thereof, and to declare dividends, and to elect Directors and Auditors in place of those retiring by rotation, and to fix the remuneration of the Auditors; and shall also, be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatsoever of which special mention shall have been given in the notice or notices upon which the meeting was convened.

76. With the exceptions mentioned in the foregoing Articles as to the business which may be transacted at Ordinary General Meetings without notice, no General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be competent to enter upon, discuss, or transact any business which has not been specially mentioned in the notice or notices upon which it was convened except resolutions submitted under Article 71.

77. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting, except the declaration of a dividend recommended by a report of the Directors, or election of a Chairman, unless there shall be present or represented at the commencement of the business three or more Shareholders entitled to vote.

78. If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of Shareholders shall not be present at the meeting, the meeting is convened by or upon the requisition of Shareholders shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, those Shareholders who are present shall be a quorum, and may transact the business for which the meeting was called

79. The Chairman (if any) of the Directors shall be entitled to take the Chair, at every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary; or if there be no Chairman, or if at any meeting, he shall not be present at the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall refuse to take the Chair, the Shareholders shall choose another Director as Chairman; and if no Directors be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the Chair, then the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

80. No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting, except the election of a Chairman, whilst the Chair is vacant.

81. The Chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place unless due notice thereof shall be given.

VOTING AT MEETING.

82. At any meeting every resolution shall be decided by a show of hands and in case there shall be an equality of votes the Chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a shareholder; and unless a poll be immediately demanded by some Shareholder present and entitled to vote, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The power of demanding a poll conferred by this clause may be exercised by the proxy or attorney of any Shareholder duly appointed in that behalf.

83. If at any meeting, a poll be demanded by some Shareholder present, his proxy or attorney at the meeting and entitled to vote, the meeting shall, if necessary, be adjourned, and the poll shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the Chairman shall direct, and in such case every Shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided; and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting at which such poll shall have been demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder or proxy or attorney, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such meeting.

84. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

85. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of the meeting or on any question of adjournment.

86. On a show of hands every Shareholder present in person shall have one vote: Where a Shareholder is present by an attorney who is not a Shareholder such attorney shall be entitled to vote for such Shareholder on a show of hands. In case of a poll every Shareholder shall have one vote for every share held by him.

87. The parent or guardian or curator of an infant Shareholder, the committee or other legal guardian or curator of any lunatic Shareholder, the husband of any female Shareholder not entitled to her shares as separate estate, and the executor or administrator of any deceased Shareholder, or any one of such persons as aforesaid, if more than one, shall not be entitled to vote in the place of such infant, lunatic, female, or deceased Shareholder, unless such person shall have been registered as a Shareholder.

88. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy or by attorney.

89. No Shareholder shall be entitled to be present or to vote either personally or by proxy or attorney at any meeting unless all calls due from him on his shares have been paid, and no Shareholder, other than the trustee or assignee of a bankrupt or representative of a deceased Shareholder, shall be entitled to be present or to vote at any meeting held after the expiration of three months from the registration of the Company, in respect of any share which he has acquired by transfer, unless he has been registered as the holder of the share in respect of which he claims to vote at least three months previous to the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote.

90. No person shall be entitled to hold a proxy who is not a Shareholder in the Company, but this rule shall not apply to a power of attorney.

91. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be printed or written and shall be signed by the appointor (whether a Shareholder or his attorney) or if such appointor be a company or corporation, it shall be under the common seal of such company or corporation.

92. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.

The instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form:—

The Cargo Boat Despatch Company, Limited.

I, _____ of _____, appoint _____ of _____ (a Shareholder in the Company) as my proxy, to represent me and to vote for me and on my behalf at the Ordinary (or Extraordinary, as the case may be) General Meeting of the Company to be held on the _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____, and at any adjournment thereof, and at every poll which may be taken in consequence thereof.

As witness my hand this _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____.

93. No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) except at the meeting or poll at which such votes shall be tendered, and every vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) to which no objection shall be made at such meeting or poll shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such meeting or poll whatsoever.

94. No Shareholder shall be prevented from voting by reason of his being personally interested in the result of the voting.

DIRECTORS.

95. The number of Directors shall never be less than two or more than seven, but this Article shall be construed as being directory only, and the continuing Directors or Director may act notwithstanding any number of vacancies.

96. As remuneration for their services the Directors shall be entitled to appropriate a sum not exceeding Rupees Three thousand (Rs. 3,000) annually to be divided amongst them in such manner as they may determine, but the Company in General Meeting may at any time by ordinary resolution increase or by special resolution reduce the amount of such remuneration for the future, and such remuneration shall not be considered as including any remuneration for special or extra services hereinafter referred to nor any extra remuneration to the Managing Directors of the Company.

97. The said Harry Peter Cosmas and John Cosmas (who are herein referred to as "the Life Directors") shall, subject to the provisions of Articles 98 and 113, be entitled to hold office so long as they live, and Peter Wilberforce Robinson and Egon Bodtker (together with any other Directors) shall be the first Directors of the Company. The Ordinary Directors (which term shall mean the Directors for the time being of the Company other than the Life Directors and any alternate Director appointed by a Life Director) shall hold office until the first Ordinary General Meeting of the Company when they shall retire, but shall be eligible for re-election.

98. A Life Director shall be entitled to hold office and to the privileges of a Life Director as in these presents set out so long as he shall hold not less than 3,000 fully paid shares, whether ordinary or preference, in the capital of the Company. If at any time a Life Director shall hold less than 3,000 shares as aforesaid he shall thereupon be deemed to be elected to office as an Ordinary Director of the Company and shall be entitled to the same rights, and be subject to the same conditions, as are applicable to the other ordinary Directors of the Company.

99. A Life Director shall, subject to the provisions of Articles 98 and 113, have power to appoint any member of the Company or any other person to be an Alternate Director during his absence from Ceylon and such appointment shall have effect and such appointee while he holds office shall be entitled to Notice of Meetings of Directors and to attend and vote thereat accordingly and generally to exercise all the rights and functions of such absent Director, subject to any limitations or restrictions in the instrument appointing him, but he shall not require any qualifications, and he shall ipso facto vacate office if and when his appointor returns to Ceylon or vacates office as a Life Director. Any appointment under this Article shall be effected by an instrument in writing under the hand of the appointor and any appointment so effected can be cancelled by the appointor by an instrument in writing under his hand and such Alternate Director shall vacate office as soon as notice in writing of the execution of such instrument of cancellation shall be received at the office of the Company. Such Alternate Director may be one of the Ordinary Directors of the Company in which case he shall be entitled to vote in both capacities but one person holding the office of Ordinary Director and Alternate Director shall not be a quorum under Article 123.

An Alternate Director shall in the absence of a direction to the contrary in the instrument appointing him be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at General Meetings of the Company on behalf of his appointor and generally to represent his appointor in the same manner as if he had been appointed a general proxy under the provisions of these Articles.

100. One or more of the Directors may be appointed by the Directors to act as Secretary, Manager, or Managing Director or Managing Directors, and (or) Agent or Agents of the Company, Visiting Agent, or Superintendent, for such time and on such terms as the Directors may determine or may fix by agreement with the person or persons appointed to the office, and they may from time to time revoke such appointment and appoint another or other Secretary, Manager, Managing Director or Managing Directors, and (or) Agent or Agents of the Company, Visiting Agent, or Superintendent.

The Directors may confer on the Managing Director or Managing Directors all or any duties and powers that might be conferred on any Manager of the Company.

If any Director shall be called upon to perform any extra services, the Directors may arrange with such Director for such special remuneration for such services, either by way of salary, commission, or the payment of a lump sum of money, as they shall think fit.

ROTATION OF DIRECTORS.

101. At the first Ordinary General Meeting of the Company all the Ordinary Directors shall retire from office and at the first Ordinary General Meeting in every subsequent year one of the Ordinary Directors for the time being shall retire from office as provided in Article 102.

102. The Ordinary Directors to retire from office at the second Ordinary General Meeting shall, unless the Ordinary Directors otherwise arrange among themselves, be determined by ballot; in every subsequent year the Ordinary Directors to retire shall be those who have been longest in office.

103. In case any question shall arise as to which of the Ordinary Directors who have been the same time in office shall retire, the same shall be decided by the Directors by ballot.

104. Retiring Directors shall be eligible for re-election.

105. The Ordinary General Meeting at which Ordinary Directors retire or ought to retire by rotation, shall appoint successors to them, and in default thereof such successors may be appointed at a subsequent Ordinary General Meeting.

106. Any casual vacancy occurring in the number of Ordinary Directors or provisional Directors arising from death, resignation, or otherwise, may be filled up by the Life Directors, but any person appointed to fill such vacancy shall retain his office so long only as the vacating Director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

107. A General Meeting may from time to time with the consent of the Life Directors increase or reduce the number of Directors, and may also, determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number is to go out of office.

108. A Director may at any time give notice in writing of his intention to resign by delivering such notice to the Secretary or by leaving the same at the registered office of the Company, or by tendering his written resignation at a meeting of the Directors, and on the acceptance of his resignation by the Directors, but not before, his office shall become vacant.

110. The Company may, by a special resolution, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, and may, by an Ordinary resolution, appoint another person, in his stead. 129. The acts of the Board or of any committees appointed by the Board shall, notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board or committee, or defect in the appointment or qualification of any Director or of any member of the committee, be as valid as if no such vacancy or defect had existed, and as if such person had been duly appointed or qualified, provided the same be done before the discovery of the vacancy or defect.

134. No Shareholder or other person shall be entitled to enter the property of the Company or to inspect or examine the Company's premises or properties or the books of accounts of the Company without the permission of the Directors of the Company for the time being or to require discovery of or any information respecting any detail of the Company's trading or any matter which is or may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery of trade, or secret process or of any matters whatsoever which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which in the opinion of the Directors it will be inexpedient in the interests of the members of the Company to communicate.

135. At the Ordinary General Meeting in every year the Directors shall lay before the Company a statement of the income and expenditure of the Company for the previous financial year, and a balance sheet containing a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company, made up to the end of the same period.

136. The statement so made shall show, arranged under the most convenient heads, the amount of gross income, distinguishing the several sources from which it has been derived and the amount of gross expenditure, distinguishing the expense of the establishment, salaries, and other heads of expenditure. Every item of expenditure fairly chargeable against the year's income shall be brought into account, so that a just balance of profit and loss may be laid before the meeting, and in case where any item of expenditure which may in fairness be distributed over several years has been incurred in any one year the whole amount of such item shall be stated with the addition of the reasons why only a portion of such expenditure is charged against the income of the year.

137. The balance sheet shall contain a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company arranged under the heads appearing in the form annexed to the table referred to in Schedule C to "The Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861", or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

138. Every such statement shall be accompanied by a report as to the state and condition of the Company and as to the amount which the Directors recommend should be paid out of the profits by way of dividend or bonus to the Shareholders.

139. A printed copy of such balance sheet shall, at least seven days previous to such meeting, be delivered at, or posted to, the registered address of every Shareholder.

140. The accounts of the Company shall from time to time be examined, and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained, by one or more Auditor or Auditors.

AUDIT.

141. No person shall be eligible as an Auditor who is interested otherwise than as a Shareholder in any transaction of the Company, but it shall not be a necessary qualification for an Auditor that he be a Shareholder of the Company, and no Director or officer of the Company shall, during his continuance in office, be eligible as an Auditor.

142. The Directors shall appoint the first Auditor or Auditors of the Company and fix his or their remuneration. He or they shall hold office till the first General Meeting of the Company. All subsequent appointments shall, except as is hereinafter mentioned, be made at the Ordinary General Meeting of the Company, in each year by the Shareholders present thereat, and the Auditor or Auditors appointed at such meeting shall hold office only until the first Ordinary General Meeting after his or their appointment or until otherwise ordered by a General Meeting.

143. The remuneration of the Auditors other than the first shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting, and this remuneration may from time to time be varied by a General Meeting.

144. Retiring Auditors shall be eligible for re-election.

145. If any vacancy that may occur in the office of Auditor, is not supplied at the Ordinary General Meeting, or if any casual vacancy shall occur in the office of Auditor, the Directors shall fill up the vacancy by the appointment of a person or persons who shall hold office until the next Ordinary General Meeting after his or their appointment.

146. Every Auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the balance sheet intended to be laid before the next Ordinary General Meeting, after his appointment, and it shall be his duty to examine the same with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and to report thereon to the meeting, generally, or specially, as he may think fit.

147. The Auditor or Auditors for the time being shall have a list delivered to him or them of all books kept by the Company, and he or they shall at all reasonable hours in the daytime have access to all accounts, books, and documents whatsoever of the Company for the purpose of audit.

148. The Directors may, with the sanction of the Company in General Meeting, from time to time, declare a dividend to be paid, and (or) pay a bonus to the Shareholders in proportion to the amount paid on their shares, but no dividend or bonus shall be payable except out of nett profits.

149. The Directors may, if they think fit, determine on and declare an interim dividend to be paid, or pay a bonus to the Shareholders, provided the Directors are satisfied that the nett profits of the Company will be sufficient to justify such interim dividend or bonus.

150. The Directors may, before recommending any dividend or bonus, set aside out of the profits of the Company such a sum as they think proper as a reserve fund and may invest the same in such securities as they may select, or place the same on fixed deposit in any bank or banks, and may from time to time deal with and vary such investment and apply such reserve fund or such portion thereof as they think fit, to meet contingencies or for special dividends or for equalizing dividends, or for working the business of the Company, or for repairing or maintaining or extending the buildings and premises of the Company, or for the repair or renewal or extension of the property or plant of the Company or any part thereof, or for any other purposes connected with the interest of the Company that they may from time to time deem expedient without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets.

151. Any General Meeting may direct payment of any dividend or bonus declared at such meeting or of any interim dividends or bonuses which may subsequently be declared by the Directors, wholly or in part by means of drafts or cheques on London, or by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures, or debenture-stock of the Company or of any other company, or in any other form of specie, or in any one or more of such ways and the Directors shall give effect to such direction and when any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution they may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets, or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Shareholder upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend or bonus as may seem expedient to the Directors.

152. No unpaid dividend or bonus shall ever bear interest against the Company.

153. No Shareholder shall be entitled to receive payment of any dividend or bonus in respect of his share or shares whilst any moneys may be due or owing from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company in respect of such share or shares, or otherwise howsoever.

154. The Directors may deduct from the dividend or bonus payable to any Shareholder all such sums of money as may be due from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company, and notwithstanding the fact that such sums or any of them are not payable until after the date when such dividend or bonus is payable.

155. Notice of any dividend that has been declared, or of any bonus to be paid, shall be given to each Shareholder entitled thereto, and any dividend or bonus unclaimed by any Shareholder for three years after notice thereof is given may be forfeited by the Directors for the benefit of the Company, and, if the Directors think fit, may be applied in augmentation of the Reserve Fund.

156. Every dividend or bonus payable in respect of any share held by a firm may be paid to, and an effectual receipt given by any partner of such firm or agent duly authorized to sign the name of the firm.

157. Every dividend or bonus payable in respect of any share held by several persons jointly other than a firm may be paid to, and an effectual receipt given by, any one of such persons.

159. Every Shareholder shall give an address in Ceylon which shall be deemed to be his place of abode, and shall be registered as such in the books of the Company.

160. A notice may be served by the Company upon any Shareholder, either personally or by being sent through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such Shareholder at his registered address or place of abode, and any notice so served shall be deemed to be well served notwithstanding that the Shareholder to whom such notice is addressed be dead, unless his executors, or administrators shall have given to the Directors, or to the Agent or Secretary or Agents or Secretaries of the Company, their own or some other address in Ceylon to which notices may be sent.

161. All notices directed to be given to Shareholders shall, with respect to any share to which persons are jointly entitled, other than a firm, be given to which ever of such persons is named first in the Register of Shareholders, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such shares.

162. Any notice, if served by post shall be deemed to have been served on the day on which the letter containing the same would in ordinary course of post have been delivered at its address, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into a post office or post box, and the entry in the Company's books of the leaving or sending by post of any notice at or to such address shall be sufficient evidence thereof, and no further evidence shall be necessary.

163. Any Shareholder who fails to give and register an address in Ceylon as provided in Article 159, shall not be entitled to be given any notices.

All notices required to be given by advertisement shall be published in the Ceylon Government Gazette.

EVIDENCE.

164. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought or instituted by the Company against any Shareholder or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was, when the claim arose, on the Register of Shareholders of the Company as a holder of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made, and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company; and it shall not be necessary to prove the registration of the Company, nor the appointment of the Directors who made any call, nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other matter whatsoever, but the proof aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.
