THE CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES ORDINANCE,
No. 34 of 1921.

RULES made by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 37 of the Co-operative Societies Ordinance, No. 34 of 1921, and by Article 93 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931.

D. S. SENANAYAKE,
Minister for Agriculture and Lands.

Colombo, December 2, 1935.

RULES UNDER SECTION 37.

Registration.

1. Every application for the registration of a society shall be submitted to the Registrar.

2. With every such application there shall be forwarded two copies of the by-laws which the society proposes to adopt.

3. The Registrar shall issue a certificate of registration under his hand and seal in respect of every society registered by him, in the form set out in the schedule to these rules.

4. When the Registrar has approved of the proposed by-laws he shall register them and shall return one copy duly endorsed and signed to the society.

5. A copy of the Ordinance and a copy of the rules made thereunder in the language in which the books and accounts of the society are to be kept shall be sent free to every new society on registration.

Withdrawal.

6. In the case of any society of unlimited liability—

(a) a member who is not in debt to the society and is not surety for an unpaid debt may withdraw from the society after giving one month's notice to the Secretary;

(b) a member who ceases to be qualified under the by-laws shall be removed by the Committee;

(c) a member may be removed or expelled from the society in such way and for such cause only as may be prescribed in the by-laws;

(d) a member withdrawing, removed or expelled from the society shall be entitled to repayment without interest of any money paid by him or his predecessor in interest towards the purchase of shares, after the period prescribed in the by-laws.

7. In the case of any society of limited liability holding deposits or loans from non-members, no member withdrawing, removed or expelled shall be entitled to a repayment of any money paid by him towards the purchase of shares.

Number of members.

8. No primary society shall fix any limit to the number of its members.

Nominees.

9. (1) Every appointment of a nominee by any member of a registered society for the purposes of section 21 of the Ordinance shall be made in writing signed by the member in the presence of two attesting witnesses.

(2) No member of a society with share capital shall be entitled to appoint more than one nominee unless that member holds more than one share.

(3) In every case where more than one nominee is appointed by any member, the number of shares to be transferred or the exact proportion of the amount available that is to be transferred to each of those nominees shall be specified at the time of the appointment.

(4) Every appointment of a nominee shall be recorded in the Register of Members.

(5) For the purposes of a transfer to a nominee, the value of any share or interest shall be represented by the sum actually paid for that share or interest by the member holding it, unless the by-laws of the society otherwise provide.

Maximum holding.

(6) Where any money is paid to a nominee who is a minor, a receipt given either by the minor or by his guardian shall be a sufficient discharge to the society making the payment.

10. No member, other than a registered society, shall hold more than one-fifth of the share capital of a co-operative society whether its liability be limited or unlimited.

Division of profits.

11. (i) In societies with unlimited liability and with shares no dividend shall be paid until the Registrar is satisfied that the Reserve Fund is sufficient to cover the liabilities of the societies.

(ii) In societies with no share capital no part of the fund shall be divided amongst the members as dividend or otherwise. This rule shall not apply to Thrift Societies.

(iii) Without the sanction of the Registrar, no part of the funds of a society shall be divided as bonus or dividend or otherwise among the members until the entire expenditure incurred by the society during the year has been debited in the annual profit and loss account before the net profit was calculated.

(iv) No dividend shall be paid by any society while any claim due from the society to a depositor or lender remains unsatisfied.

(v) No society shall pay a dividend exceeding nine per cent. on share capital actually paid up.

(vi) The Registrar may by general or special order direct that a society shall not pay a dividend or shall pay dividends at a reduced rate so long as it receives loans or deposits from non-members other than a central bank.

Maximum liability.

12. Every primary credit society shall, from time to time, fix in a general meeting the maximum liability it may incur in loans or deposits from non-members.

The maximum so fixed shall be subject to the sanction of the Registrar, who may at any time reduce it. No society may receive any loans or deposit from a non-member which will make its liability to non-members exceed the limit sanctioned by the Registrar.

General Meetings.

13. (a) Every society shall from time to time hold General Meetings as provided in the by-laws for the disposal of necessary business including—

(i) the fixing of a maximum liability as required by rule 12;

(ii) the fixing of a maximum credit for each member;

(iii) the election of members of the committee;

(iv) the consideration of the annual balance sheet; and

(v) the consideration of the audit note and any inspection note by the Registrar or person authorized by him.

(b) Questions before the General Meeting shall be decided, unless otherwise specifically provided, by a majority of members present. Each member present shall have one vote and no more, irrespective of the number of shares held. In primary societies no proxies shall be allowed.

(c) The Registrar or any person authorized by him may at any time summon a special General Meeting of the society in such manner and at such time and place as he may direct. He may also direct what matters shall be discussed at the Meeting. Such Meeting shall have all the powers and be subject to the same rules as a Meeting called according to the by-laws of the society.

The Committee.

14. Members of the Committee shall be appointed and may be removed or suspended in General Meeting by a majority of the members present.

15. No member shall be qualified for election to the committee if—

(i) he is under 21 years of age; or

(ii) he holds any office of profit under the society or receives any honorarium; or

(iii) in the case of a credit society, he lends money on his own account.

16. A member of the Committee shall cease to hold office if—

- (i.) he ceases to be a shareholder ; or
- (ii.) he is declared insolvent ; or
- (iii.) he becomes of unsound mind ; or
- (iv.) he is convicted of any offence involving dishonesty or is imprisoned for three months ; or
- (v.) he accepts any office of profit under the society or receives any honorarium ; or
- (vi.) in the case of a credit society, he lends money on his own account.

17. The Committee shall exercise all the powers of the society except those reserved for the General Meeting, and subject to any regulations or restrictions duly laid down by the society in General Meeting or in the by-laws.

18. The duties of the Committee shall include the following :—

- (i.) to comply with the Ordinance and with the rules made thereunder, and the by-laws of the society,
- (ii.) to maintain true and accurate accounts,
- (iii.) to keep a true account of the assets and liabilities,
- (iv.) to keep a correct register of members,
- (v.) to lay before the Annual General Meeting a profit and loss account and a Balance Sheet, and
- (vi.) to assist the inspection of books by any person authorized to see them, and
- (vii.) in the case of a credit society, to watch that loans are applied to the approved purpose for which they were advanced.

19. A society shall make by-laws in respect of the following matters :—

- (i.) Name,
- (ii.) registered address,
- (iii.) objects for which the society was established,
- (iv.) purposes to which the funds may be applied,
- (v.) qualifications for membership, the terms of admission of members, and the mode of election,
- (vi.) nature and extent of the liability of members,
- (vii.) withdrawal and expulsion of members, and the payments, if any, to be made to such members,
- (viii.) transfer of the share or interest of members,
- (ix.) manner of raising funds, including the maximum rate of interest on deposits,
- (x.) General Meetings and the procedure and powers of such meetings,
- (xi.) appointment, suspension, and removal of members of the Committee and officers, and the powers and duties of the Committee and officers.

If the objects of the society include the creation of funds to be lent to the members, additional by-laws shall be made on the following matters :—

- (xii.) the occupation or residence of the members,
- (xiii.) the conditions on which loans may be made to members, including—
 - (a) the rate of interest,
 - (b) the maximum amount which may be lent to a member,
 - (c) extension of the term and renewal of loans,
 - (d) the purpose of loans,
 - (e) security for repayment.
- (xiv.) the consequences, if any, of default in payment of any sum due on account of shares or loans, disposal of the profits, and
- (xv.) the authorization of an officer to sign documents on behalf of the society.

20. (i.) Subject to the provisions of section 9 of the Ordinance and to rule 19 of these rules a society may from time to time make new by-laws for the conduct of its business, or may amend or cancel any by-law already made.

(ii.) Such additions, amendments or cancellations shall only be made by resolution at a General Meeting of the society ; in the case of societies with unlimited liability, the resolution must receive the assent of three-fourths of the members present in a meeting attended by not less than one-half of the members ; in the case of societies of limited liability the resolution must receive the votes (which may be in writing) of a clear majority of the total number of members of the society. If written votes are used, voting papers must be sent to all members and the written votes must be examined and counted at a General Meeting at which there is present a quorum in terms of the by-laws of the society.

(iii.) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (i.) and (ii.) of this rule any by-laws and any amendments which have received the previous approval of the Registrar may be adopted by a majority of two-thirds of the members present at a General Meeting of which due notice of the intention to discuss such model by-laws or amendments has been given.

(iv.) When any by-law is amended, along with any copy thereof the society shall send to the Registrar a statement signed by the officers of the society that the provisions of paragraphs (ii.) or (iii.) above have been complied with.

21. Every credit society shall maintain— Accounts.

- (i.) a cash book ;
- (ii.) a ledger account for each member ;
- (iii.) a loan ledger ;
- (iv.) a register of deposits ;
- (v.) a minute book ; and
- (vi.) such other books as may be prescribed by the Registrar.

22. Every Central Bank shall exhibit its annual Balance Sheet to any person desiring to see it during office hours. Every primary society shall permit inspection of its annual Balance Sheet by any person interested in its funds as member, depositor or creditor. Publicity.

23. The Committee of every society, or some officers of the society appointed for this purpose by the Committee shall prepare yearly in such form as may be prescribed by the Registrar— Annual returns.

- (i.) an account showing the income and expenditure for the year,
- (ii.) a profit and loss account, and
- (iii.) a Balance Sheet.

The account shall be made up to the 30th April for primary societies and to the 31st May for secondary societies, and a copy shall be sent to the Registrar within such time as he may direct.

24. (i.) Every registered society shall, when called upon to do so, make annually a contribution to a fund for audit. Audit fees.

(ii.) Until such time as a co-operative union has been constituted and registered for this purpose, such contributions shall be held by the Registrar and administered by him on behalf of the contributing societies.

(iii.) So long as the Registrar administers the fund on behalf of the contributing societies he shall report every year to Government the income derived from contributions, the expenditure he has sanctioned from the fund and the balance in his hands.

(iv.) As soon as a co-operative union is constituted and registered for the purpose this fund shall be credited to the union to be utilized in accordance with its stated objects and with its constitution.

(v.) Until a co-operative union is constituted for the purpose, the annual contribution shall be fixed by the Registrar, subject to a maximum of either ten per cent. on the annual profits or one per cent. of the working capital as disclosed in the Balance Sheet and subject also to a minimum of five rupees.

Copies of entries.

25. For the purposes of section 25 of the Ordinance, a copy of an entry in the book of a society may be certified by a certificate written at the foot of such copy, declaring that it is a true copy of such entry and that the book containing the entry is still in the custody of the society, such certificate being dated and signed by the Secretary of the society and one member of the Committee.

Register of members.

26. Every society shall maintain a register of members showing—

- (i.) the name, address, and occupation of each member and a statement of the shares, if any held by him ;
- (ii.) the date on which each member's name was entered in the register ;
- (iii.) the date on which any member ceased to be a member ;
- (iv.) the nominee, if any, appointed in accordance with rule 9.

Reserve Fund.

27. The reserve fund of a society may, unless the Registrar by special order direct it to be invested as provided in section 30 be utilized in the business of the society.

28. The reserve fund shall be indivisible and no member shall be entitled to claim any specified share in it.

Disputes.

29. (a) Any dispute concerning the business of a co-operative society between members or past members of the society or persons claiming through them, or between a member or past member or persons so claiming and the Committee or any officer shall be referred to the Registrar. Reference may be made by the Committee or by the society by resolution in General Meeting or by any party to the dispute, or if the dispute concerns a sum due from a member of the Committee to the society by any member of the society.

(b) The Registrar may either decide the dispute himself, or appoint an arbitrator, or refer the dispute to three arbitrators, of whom one shall be nominated by each of the parties and the third shall be nominated by the Registrar and shall act as Chairman.

(c) When a dispute is referred to three arbitrators, if any party to the dispute fails to nominate an arbitrator within 15 days, the Registrar may make the nomination instead. If an arbitrator nominated by one of the parties dies, or refuses or neglects to act, or by absence or otherwise, becomes incapable of acting, the Registrar shall call upon the party concerned to nominate a fresh arbitrator within 15 days, and if no arbitrator is nominated accordingly, he may nominate one himself ; and if the arbitrator who is incapacitated was nominated by the Registrar a fresh arbitrator shall be nominated in his place by the Registrar.

(d) No legal practitioner may be nominated as arbitrator by any party to a dispute.

(e) In all arbitration proceedings under this rule the Registrar or arbitrators shall have power to administer oaths, to require the attendance of the parties and witnesses and to require the production of all necessary books and documents by a summons delivered orally or sent by hand or by registered post, or through the nearest civil court having jurisdiction in the area in which the society operates, and shall further have power to order the expenses incurred in determining the dispute to be paid either out of the funds of the society or by such party or parties to the dispute as he or they may think fit.

(f) The Registrar or arbitrator shall hear the evidence of the parties and witnesses who attend, and upon that evidence and after consideration of any documentary evidence produced by either side a decision or award shall be given in accordance with justice, equity and good conscience and shall be reduced to writing, announced to the parties and filed in the office of the Registrar or in such subordinate office as he may direct.

(g) In the absence of any party duly summoned to attend, the dispute may be decided ex parte.

(h) When three arbitrators are appointed, the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

(i) Any party aggrieved by an award of an arbitrator may appeal to the Registrar in person or by agent within one month of the date of the award.

(j) Any decision or award of the Registrar shall in every case be final. No decision of an arbitrator shall be set aside by a court except on the ground of corruption or misconduct on the part of the arbitrator.

(k) A decision or award shall on application to any civil court having jurisdiction in the area in which the society operates be enforced in the same manner as a decree of such court.

(l) In proceedings before the Registrar or an arbitrator no party shall be represented by a legal practitioner.

Appeals.

30. An appeal under section 33 (2) of the Ordinance against an order of the Registrar directing that the registration of a society shall be cancelled shall lie to the Governor whose order shall be final.

31. Any person aggrieved by an order of a liquidator in the exercise of his powers under section 36 of the Ordinance may appeal to the Registrar whose order shall be final.

Unfit officers.

32. If in any society, in the opinion of the Registrar, any member of the Committee or other officer is unfit for the discharge of his duties, the society shall on the requirement of the Registrar dismiss him.

Non-members.

33. The Registrar shall have power to prohibit or restrict transactions of any society with non-members when it is proved to his satisfaction that such transactions are opposed to co-operative principles or involve an abuse of any of the privileges accorded to societies or involve an evasion of income tax or a breach of any rules or orders of Government.

Form of Certificate referred to in Rule 3.

I hereby certify that I have this day registered the _____ as a co-operative society with _____ liability under the above name and with its address at _____ in accordance with section 7 of the Co-operative Societies Ordinance, No. 34 of 1921.

Words importing persons include corporations.

Table C not to apply.

2. The regulations contained in Table C in the schedule annexed to the Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance 1861 shall not apply to the Company which shall be governed by the regulations contained in these Articles, but subject to repeal, addition or alteration by special resolution.

Company's shares not to be purchased, &c.

3. None of the funds of the Company shall be employed in the purchase of, or lent on the security of, shares of the Company.

SHARES.

Initial Capital.

4. The capital of the Company is Rs. 10,000 divided into 1,000 ordinary shares of Rs. 10 each.

5. Subject to the provisions of clauses 47 and 48 of these Articles the shares shall be under the control of the Directors, who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons, on such terms and conditions, and at such times, as the Directors think fit and with full power to give to any person the call of any shares either at par or at a premium, and for such time, and for such consideration as the Directors think fit. Allotment of shares.
6. The Company may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment of such calls. Shares may be issued subject to different conditions as to calls, &c.
7. If by the conditions of allotment of any share the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being shall be the registered holder of the share. Instalments on shares to be duly paid.
8. The joint-holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of such share. Liability of joint-holders of shares.
9. Save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not, except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, or as by statute required be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person. Trusts not recognized.
10. Shares may be registered in the name of any firm or of any limited company or other corporate body. Not more than four persons shall be registered as joint holders of any share. Who may be registered.

CERTIFICATES.

11. The certificates of title to shares and duplicates thereof when necessary shall be issued under the seal of the Company, and signed by two Directors and by the Secretary. Certificates.
12. Every member shall be entitled to one certificate for all the shares registered in his name, or if the Directors so approve to several certificates each for one or more of such shares. Every certificate of shares shall specify the number and denoting numbers of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount paid up thereon. Members' right to Certificates.
13. If any certificate be worn out or defaced, then upon production thereof to the Directors, they may order the same to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof, and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors and on such indemnity as the Directors deem adequate being given, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the registered holder of the shares to which such lost or destroyed certificate shall relate. As to issue of new certificate in place of one defaced, lost or destroyed.
14. The certificates of shares registered in the names of two or more persons shall be delivered to the person first named on the register. To which of joint-holders certificate to be issued.

CALLS.

15. The Directors may, from time to time subject to the terms on which any share may have been issued make such calls as they think fit upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively, and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, and each member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by instalments. Calls.
16. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing such call was passed. When call deemed to have been made.
17. Not less than fourteen days' notice of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment and to whom such call shall be paid. Notice of call.
18. If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made or the instalment shall be due shall pay interest for the same at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment or at such other rate as the Directors may determine. When interest on call or instalment payable.
19. If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at fixed times whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium every such amount or instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice had been given, and all the provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall relate to such amount or instalment accordingly. Amount payable at fixed times or by instalments payable as calls.
20. On the trial or hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member sued is entered in the register as the holder or one of the holders of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book and that notice of such call was duly given to the member sued in pursuance of these presents, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call, nor any other matters whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt. Evidence in action for call.
21. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for, and upon the money so paid in advance, or so much thereof, as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate not exceeding 6 per cent. per annum as the member paying such sum in advance, and the Directors agree upon. Money so paid in excess of the amount of calls shall not rank for dividends. The Directors may at any time repay the amount advanced upon giving to such member three months' notice in writing. Payment of calls in advance.

FORFEITURE AND LIEN.

22. If any member fail to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. If call or instalment not paid notice may be given.
23. The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days from the date of the notice) and a place or places on, and at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at, or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited. Form of Notice.
24. If the requisition of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, any shares, in respect of which such notice has been given, may, at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or instalments, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. If notice not complied with shares may be forfeited.

- Notice after forfeiture. 25. When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the resolution shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof shall forthwith be made in the register, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.
- Forfeited share to become property of Company. 26. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Directors may sell, re-allot, and otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit.
- Power to annual forfeiture. 27. The Directors may at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as they think fit.
- Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture. 28. Any member whose shares have been forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses, owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at twelve per cent. per annum and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof, without any deduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture, but shall not be under any obligation to do so.
- Effect of forfeiture. 29. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.
- Evidence of forfeiture. 30. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company, and that certain shares in the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares and such declaration, and the receipt of the Company for the consideration, if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares, and the person to whom the shares are sold shall be registered as the holder of such shares and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale, or disposition.
- Company's lien on shares. 31. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others), and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for his debts, liabilities, and engagements, solely or jointly with any other person to, or with the Company whether the period for the payment, fulfilment, or discharge thereof shall have actually arrived or not and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition, that Article 9 hereof is to have full effect. And such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares.
- As to enforcing lien by sale. 32. For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Directors may sell the share subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his executors or administrators or his committee curator bonis or other legal curators and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment, fulfilment or discharge of such debts, liabilities or engagements for seven days after such notice.
- Application of proceeds of sale. 33. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities, or engagements of such member and the residue (if any) paid to such member, his executors, administrators committee curator bonis or other representatives.
- Validity of sales under clauses 26 and 32. 34. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers hereinbefore given, the Directors may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the shares sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings nor to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.
- Directors may issue new certificates. 35. Where any shares under the powers in that behalf herein contained are sold by the Directors and the certificate thereof has not been delivered up to the Company by the former holder of the said shares, the Directors may issue a new certificate for such shares distinguishing it in such manner as they may think fit from the certificate not so delivered up.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION.

- Execution of transfer, &c. 36. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be signed both by the transferor and transferee, and shall contain the name and address both of the transferor and transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof. Each signature to such transfer shall be duly attested by the signature of one credible witness who shall add his address and occupation.
- Form of transfer. 37. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be in writing in the usual common form, or in the following form, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit :—

Transport and General Finance Company, Limited.

As witness our hands the ——— day of ———.

Witness to the signature of, &c.

- Directors may decline to register transfer. 38. The Directors without assigning any reason for such refusal, may decline to register any transfer of shares upon which the Company has alien and in the case of shares not fully paid up may refuse to register a transfer to a transferee of whom they do not approve.
- No transfer to infant, &c. 39. No transfer shall be made to an infant or person of unsound mind.
- Transfer to be left at office and evidence of title given. 40. Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the office for registration accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred, and such other evidence as the Directors may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares and upon payment of the proper fee the transferee shall (subject to the Directors' right to decline to register hereinbefore mentioned) be registered as a member in respect of such shares. The Directors may waive the production of any certificate upon evidence satisfactory to them of its loss or destruction.

41. All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall be returned to the person depositing the same. When transfers to be retained.
42. A fee not exceeding two Rupees and fifty cents may be charged for each transfer, and shall, if required by the Directors, be paid before the registration thereof. Fee on transfer.
43. The transfer books and register of members may be closed during such time as the Directors think fit, not exceeding in the whole twenty-one days in each year. When transfer books and register may be closed.
44. The executors or administrators of a deceased member (not being one of several joint-holders) shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member, and in case of the death of any one or more of the joint holders of any registered shares, the survivors shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in such shares but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person. Before recognizing any executor or administrator the Directors may require him to obtain a grant of probate or letters of administration, as the case may be, from some competent court in the Island of Ceylon, having effect in Colombo. Transmission of registered shares As to survivorship.
45. Any committee curator bonis guardian or other legal curator of a lunatic or infant member or any person becoming entitled to a transfer of shares in consequence of death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of any member upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article, or of his title as the Directors think sufficient, may, with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) be registered as a member in respect of such shares, or may, subject to the regulations as to transfer hereinbefore contained, transfer such shares. This Article is hereinafter referred to as "The Transmission Article." As to transfer of shares of lunatic, infant, deceased, or bankrupt members. (Transmission Article.)

INCREASE AND REDUCTION OF CAPITAL.

46. The Company in General Meeting may by Special Resolution from time to time increase the capital by the creation of new shares of such amount as may be deemed expedient. Power to increase capital.
47. The new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions, and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto as the resolution creating the same shall direct, and if no direction be given, as the Directors shall determine and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets of the Company and with a special or without any right of voting. On what condition new shares may be issued. As to preferences, &c.
48. The Company in General Meeting may, before the issue of any new shares, determine that the same, or any of them shall be offered in the first instance and either at par or at a premium to all the then members or any class thereof in proportion to the amount of the capital held by them, or make any other provisions as to the issue and allotment of the new shares, but in default of any such determination or so far as the same shall not extend, the new shares may be dealt with as if they formed part of the shares in the original ordinary capital. When to be offered to existing members.
49. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original Capital and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and instalments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien, and otherwise. How far new shares to rank with shares in Original Capital.
50. If owing to any inequality in the number of new shares to be issued, and the number of shares held by members entitled to have the offer of such new shares, any difficulty shall arise in the apportionment of such new shares or any of them amongst the members, such difficulty shall, in the absence of any direction in the resolution creating the shares or by the Company in General Meeting, be determined by the Directors. Inequality in number of new shares.
51. The Company may (subject to the provisions of the Ordinance) from time to time by Special Resolution cancel shares which at the date of the resolution in that behalf have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, reduce its capital by paying off capital or cancelling capital which has been lost or is unrepresented by available assets or reducing the liability on the shares or otherwise as may seem expedient and capital may be paid off upon the footing that it may be called up again or otherwise; and paid-up capital may be cancelled as aforesaid without reducing the nominal amount of the shares by the like amount to the intent that the unpaid and callable capital shall be increased by the like amount. Reduction of capital, &c.

SUBDIVISION AND CONSOLIDATION OF SHARES.

52. The Company may, by Special Resolution, subdivide or consolidate its shares or any of them. Power to subdivide and consolidate shares.
53. The Special Resolution whereby any share is subdivided may determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from such subdivision, one or more of such shares shall have some preference or special advantage as regards dividend, capital, voting or otherwise over or as compared with the others or other (subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the Ordinance). Subdivision into preferred and ordinary.

SURRENDER OF SHARES.

54. The Directors may accept from any member the surrender on such terms and conditions as shall be agreed of all or any of his shares provided that no part of the assets of the Company shall be employed in the purchase of the Company's shares. Surrender of shares.

MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS.

55. Whenever the capital by reason of the issue of preference shares or otherwise is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights and privileges attached to each class may be modified, commuted, affected, abrogated or dealt with by agreement between the Company and any person purporting to contract on behalf of that class provided such agreement is ratified in writing by the holders of at least three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of the class or is confirmed by an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of shares of that class and all the provisions hereinafter contained as to General Meetings, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every such Meeting, but so that the quorum thereof shall be members holding or representing by proxy one-fifth of the nominal amount of the issued shares of the class. This Article is not to derogate from any power the Company would have had if this clause were omitted. Power to modify rights.

BORROWING POWERS.

56. The Directors may from time to time at their discretion raise or borrow and may themselves lend and secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company. Provided that the Directors shall not without the sanction of a General Meeting of the Company so Power to borrow.

borrow any sum of money which will make the amount borrowed for the Company and then outstanding exceed the sum of Rupees three hundred thousand (Rs. 300,000). Nevertheless no lender or other person dealing with the Company shall be concerned to see or inquire whether this limit is observed.

Conditions on which money may be borrowed.

57. The Directors may raise or secure the repayment of such sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit and in particular by the creation of any mortgage or charge on the undertaking of the whole or any part of the property present or future or uncalled capital of the company or by the issue of bonds perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock of the Company charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company both present and future including its uncalled capital for the time being.

Securities may be assignable free from equities.

58. Debentures, debenture-stock bonds, and other securities may be made assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.

Issue at discount, &c., or with special privileges.

59. Any debentures, debenture-stock, bonds or other securities may be issued at a discount, premium, or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, attending and voting at General Meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors and otherwise.

Register of Mortgages to be kept.

60. The Directors shall cause a proper register to be kept in accordance with the Ordinance of all mortgages and charges specifically affecting the property of the Company, and shall duly comply with the requirements of the Ordinance in regard to the registration of mortgages and charges therein specified and otherwise shall also duly comply with the requirements of the Ordinance as to the inspection of the said register as therein specified.

Register of holders of Debentures.

61. Every register of holders of debentures of the Company may be closed for any periods not exceeding in the whole twenty-one days in any year. Subject as aforesaid every such register shall be open to the inspection of the registered holder of any such debentures and of any member; but the Company may in General Meeting impose any reasonable restrictions so that at least two hours in each day, when such register is open, are appointed for inspection.

Right of holders of debentures to Balance Sheet.

62. Holders of preference shares and debentures shall have the same right to receive and inspect the Balance Sheets of the Company and the Reports of the Auditors and other reports as is possessed by the holders of ordinary shares in the Company.

Mortgage of uncalled capital.

63. If any uncalled capital of the Company is included in or charged by any mortgage or other security, the Directors may, by instrument under the Company's seal, authorize the person in whose favour such mortgage or security is executed, or any other person in trust for him to make calls on the members in respect of such uncalled capital, and the provisions hereinbefore contained in regard to calls shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to calls made under such authority, and such authority may be made exercisable either conditionally or unconditionally, and either presently or contingently and either to the exclusion of the Directors' power or otherwise and shall be assignable if expressed so to be.

RESERVE AND DEPRECIATION FUNDS.

Reserve Fund.

64. The Directors may from time to time before recommending any dividend set part any and such portion of the profits of the Company as they think fit, as a Reserve Fund to meet contingencies and for the liquidation of any debentures debts and other liabilities of the Company, for equalization of dividends or for repairing, improving, and maintaining any of the property of the Company and for such other purposes of the Company as the Directors in their absolute discretion think fit conducive to the interests of the Company; and may invest the several sums so set aside upon such investments (other than shares of the Company) as they think fit and from time to time deal with and vary such investments and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company and may divide the Reserve Fund into such special funds as they think fit with full power to employ the Reserve Fund or any parts thereof in the business of the Company and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets of the Company.

Depreciation Fund.

65. The Directors may, from time to time, before recommending any dividend, set apart any portion of the profits of the Company, as they shall think fit, as a Depreciation Fund applicable at the discretion of the Directors for providing against any depreciation in the investments of the Company or for re-building, restoring, replacing, or for altering any part of the buildings, works, plant, machinery, or other property of the Company destroyed or damaged by fire, floods, storm, tempest, accident, riot, wear and tear, or other means, and for repairing, altering, and keeping in good condition the property of the Company or for extending and enlarging the buildings, machinery, and property of the Company with full power to employ the assets constituting such depreciation fund in the business of the Company and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets of the Company.

Investment of Money.

66. All moneys carried to the Reserve Fund and Depreciation Fund respectively shall nevertheless remain and be profits of the Company applicable subject to due provision being made for actual loss or depreciation for the payment of dividends and such moneys and all other moneys of the Company not immediately required for the purposes of the Company may be invested by the Directors, in or upon such investments or securities as they may select or may be used as working capital or may be kept at any Bank on deposit or otherwise as the Directors may from time to time think proper.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

When General Meetings to be held.

67. The First General Meeting of the Company shall be held at such time (subject to the provisions of the Ordinance) and at such place as the Directors may determine. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and place as the Directors may determine.

Distinction between ordinary and extraordinary meetings.

68. The General Meetings referred to in the last preceding clause shall be called Ordinary Meetings; all other meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary Meetings.

When extraordinary meeting to be called.

69. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, and they shall, on the requisition of the holders of not less than one-tenth of the issued capital of the Company upon which all calls or other sums then due have been paid, forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, and in the case of such requisition the following provisions shall have effect—

Requisition.

- (1) The requisition must state the objects of the meeting and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the office and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists.
- (2) If the Directors of the Company do not proceed to convene a meeting within twenty-one days from the date of the requisition being so deposited, the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the meeting, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of the deposit.

- (3) If at any such meeting a resolution requiring confirmation at another meeting is passed the Directors shall forthwith convene a further Extraordinary General Meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution, and if thought fit, of confirming it as a special resolution, and if the Directors do not convene the meeting within seven days from the date of the passing of the first resolution, the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the meeting.
- (4) Any meeting convened under this clause by the requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by Directors but shall be held at the Office.
- (5) Requisitionists by joint-holders of shares must be signed by all such holders.

70. Seven clear days' notice to the members specifying the place, day, and hour of meeting and in case of special business the general nature of such business shall be given either by advertisement or by notice sent by post or otherwise served as hereinafter provided and with the consent in writing of all the members a meeting may be convened by a shorter notice and in any manner they think fit. Notice of Meeting.

71. Where it is proposed to pass a special resolution, the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the second meeting contingently on the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first meeting. Two meetings convened by one notice.

72. The accidental omission to give any such notice to any of the members shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting. As to omission to give notice.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS.

73. The business of an Ordinary Meeting other than the first meeting shall be to receive and consider the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet, and the Reports of the Directors and of the Auditors, to elect Directors, Auditors, and other officers in the place of those retiring by rotation, or otherwise, to declare dividends and to transact any other business which under these presents ought to be transacted at an Ordinary Meeting. All other business transacted at an Ordinary Meeting and all business transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting shall be deemed special. Business of Ordinary Meeting

74. Two members holding ordinary shares present in person or represented shall be a quorum for a General Meeting. Quorum.

75. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the quorum requisite shall be present at the commencement of the business. Quorum to be present when business commenced.

76. The Chairman of the Directors shall be entitled to take the Chair at every General Meeting, or if there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting or is unwilling to act the members present shall choose another Director as Chairman, and if no Director be present or if all the Directors present decline to take the Chair, then the members present shall choose one of their number being a member entitled to vote to be Chairman. Chairman of General Meeting.

77. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened upon such requisition as aforesaid shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present those members who are present shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called. When if quorum not present meeting to be dissolved and when to be adjourned.

78. Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands. How questions to be decided at meetings.

79. At any General Meeting unless a poll is demanded by the Chairman or by at least five members or by a member or members holding or representing by proxy or entitled to vote in respect of at least one-tenth part of the issued capital represented at the meeting, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried by a particular majority or carried or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. What is to be evidence of the passing of a resolution where poll not demanded.

80. If a poll is demanded as aforesaid it shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting directs and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll may be withdrawn. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote the Chairman shall determine the same and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive. Poll.

81. The Chairman of a General Meeting may with the consent of the meeting adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place. Power to adjourn General Meeting.

82. Any poll duly demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting and without adjournment. In what cases poll taken without adjournment.

83. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. Business may proceed notwithstanding demand of poll.

VOTES OF MEMBERS.

84. On a show of hands every member holding ordinary shares present in person or by attorney shall have one vote and upon a poll every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every ordinary share held by him. Where a corporation is the registered holder of shares of the Company, it may, by resolution of its Directors, appoint any of its officials or any person to act as its representative at any meeting of this Company and a copy of such resolution duly signed by two Directors and certified as being a true copy shall on production at the meeting be accepted as sufficient evidence and the person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the Company which he represents as if he were an individual shareholder of this Company. Votes of members and corporations.

85. Any person entitled under the transmission Article to a transfer of any shares may vote at any General Meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he were the registered holder of such shares, provided that forty-eight hours at least before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which he proposes to vote he shall satisfy the Directors of his right to a transfer of such shares, or the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof. If any member be a lunatic, idiot, or non compos mentis he may vote whether by show of hands or at a poll by his committee curator bonis or other legal curator and such last mentioned persons may give their votes by proxy. Votes in respect of shares of insane deceased and insolvent members.

Joint-holders.

86. Where there are joint registered holders of any share, anyone of such persons may vote at any meeting either personally or by proxy in respect of such share as if he were solely entitled thereto and if more than one of such joint-holders be present at any meeting, personally or by proxy, that one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the register in respect of such share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose name any share stands shall for the purposes of this Article be deemed joint-holders thereof.

Proxies permitted.

87. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy or in the case of a Company by a representative duly authorized as aforesaid.

Instrument appointing proxy to be in writing. Proxies may be general or special.

88. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney, or if such appointor is a Corporation under its common seal or the hand of its attorney. A proxy who is appointed for a specified meeting only shall be called a special proxy. Any other proxy shall be called a general proxy. No person shall be appointed a special proxy who is not a member of the Company and qualified to vote. Holders of share warrants shall not be entitled to vote by proxy in respect of the shares included in such warrant unless otherwise expressed in such warrants.

Instrument appointing a proxy to be deposited at the office.

89. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed shall be deposited at the office not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote, but no instrument appointing a special proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution. Should the power of attorney above referred to have been registered in the Company's books it need not be again deposited.

When vote by proxy valid though authority revoked.

90. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal, or revocation of the instrument or transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given, provided no intimation in writing of the death, insanity, revocation, or transfer shall have been received at the office before the meeting: Provided nevertheless that the Chairman of any meeting shall be entitled to require such evidence as he may in his discretion think fit of the due execution of an instrument of proxy and that the same has not been revoked.

Form of instrument appointing a special proxy.

91. Every instrument appointing a special proxy shall, as nearly as circumstances will admit, be in the form or to the effect following, and shall be retained by the Company.

Transport and General Finance Company, Limited.

I, _____ of _____ being a member of Transport and General Finance Company, Limited, hereby appoint _____, of _____ (or failing him _____ of _____, or failing him _____ of _____) as my proxy to vote for me, and on my behalf at the (Ordinary or Extraordinary as the case may be), General Meeting of the Company to be held on the _____ day of _____ and at any adjournment thereof.

As witness my hand this _____ day of _____.

Signed by the said _____ in the presence of _____ Restrictions on voting.

92. No member shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any question either personally or by proxy or as proxy for another member at any General Meeting or upon a poll or be reckoned in a quorum whilst any call or other sum shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of any of the shares of such member; and no member shall be entitled to be present or to vote in respect of any share that he has acquired by transfer at any meeting unless he has been the registered holder of the share in respect of which he claims to vote for at least three months previously to the time fixed for holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote or if such meeting be an adjourned meeting to the time originally fixed for holding the same, but this regulation shall not affect shares acquired under a testamentary disposition or by succession to an intestate estate or by virtue of a bankruptcy, insolvency, or liquidation.

Resolution in writing of Directors in certain cases to be equivalent to resolution of general meeting.

93. Any resolution passed by the Directors, notice whereof shall be given to the members in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be given and which shall within one month after it shall have been so passed be ratified and confirmed in writing by members entitled at a poll to three-fifths of the votes shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution of a General Meeting but this article shall not apply to a resolution for winding up the Company or to a resolution passed in respect of any matter which by the ordinance or these presents ought to be dealt with by special or extraordinary resolution.

DIRECTORS.

Number of Directors.

94. Until otherwise determined by a General Meeting the number of the Directors shall not be less than two nor more than three.

First Directors.

95. The persons hereinafter named shall be first Directors, that is to say, Clement Johnston Black and Enoch Albert Badman, both of Colombo.

Power of Directors to add to their number.

96. The Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any qualified person as a Director as an addition to the Board but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed as above. But any Directors so appointed shall hold office only until the next following Ordinary General Meeting of the Company and shall then be eligible for re-election.

Remuneration of Directors.

97. As a remuneration for their services the Directors shall be entitled to appropriate a sum not exceeding Rupees Two Thousand annually to be divided between them in such manner as they think fit but the Company in General Meeting may at any time alter the amount of such remuneration for the future and such remuneration shall not be considered any remuneration for special or extra services hereinafter referred to, nor any remuneration to the Managing Director of the Company.

Directors may act notwithstanding vacancy.

98. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body; but so that if the number falls below the minimum above fixed the Directors shall not except for the purpose of filling vacancies, act so long as the number is below the minimum.

When office of Directors is vacated.

99. The office of a Director shall ipso facto be vacated:—

- (a) If he becomes bankrupt or insolvent or suspends payment or compounds with his creditors.
- (b) If he is found lunatic or becomes of unsound mind.
- (c) If he is absent from the meetings of the Directors during a period of six calendar months without special leave of absence from the Directors and he is removed from office by a resolution of the Board.

- (d) If he commits any offence punishable under the Ceylon Penal Code and being under the provisions of the Ceylon Criminal Procedure Code non-bailable.
- (e) If by notice in writing to the Company he resigns his office.
- (f) If he is requested in writing by all his co-Directors to resign or is removed from office by an extraordinary resolution of the Company.

100. A Director shall not be disqualified by reason of his holding any other office or place of profit under the Company in conjunction with his office of Director, except that of Auditors and may be appointed thereto upon such terms as to remuneration, tenure of office or otherwise as the Directors may approve.

Directors holding office of profit under the Company.

101. The Directors shall not be disqualified from contracting with the Company either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company with any Company or partnership of or in which any Director shall be a member or otherwise interested be avoided nor shall any Director so contracting or being such member or so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established, but the nature of their or his interest must be disclosed by them or him at the meeting of the Directors, at which the contract or arrangement is determined on, if the interest then exists, or in any other case at the first meeting of Directors after the acquisition of the interest: Provided nevertheless that no Directors shall vote as a Director in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is so interested as aforesaid and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted, but he shall be entitled to be present at the meeting during the transaction of the business in relation to which he is precluded from voting and shall be reckoned for the purpose of ascertaining whether there be a quorum of Directors present. This provision shall not apply to any contract by or on behalf of the Company to give to the Directors or any of them any security for advances or by way of indemnity against any loss which they or any of them may suffer by reason of becoming or being sureties of the Company. A general notice that any Director is a member of any specified firm or company and is to be regarded as interested in any subsequent transaction with such firm or company shall as regards any such transaction be sufficient disclosure under this Article and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give any special notice relating to any particular transaction with such firm or company.

Directors may contract with the Company.

102. A Director of this Company may be, or become a Director of any Company promoted by this Company or in which it may be interested as a vendor, shareholder, or otherwise, and no such Director shall be accountable for any benefits received as Director or member of such Company.

When Director of this Company appointed Director of a subsidiary Company.

ROTATION OF DIRECTORS.

103. At the first Ordinary Meeting to be held in each year one of the Directors shall retire from office.

Rotation and retirement of Directors.

104. At every ordinary meeting at which a Director retires by rotation the Director who has been longest in office shall retire. As between two or more who have been in office an equal length of time the Director to retire shall in default of agreement between them be determined by lot. The length of time a Director has been in office shall be computed from his last election or appointment when he has previously vacated office. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election and shall act as Director throughout the meeting at which he retires.

When Directors to retire.

105. The Company at any ordinary meeting at which any Director retires in manner aforesaid shall fill up the vacated office by electing the retiring Director or any other person to be a Director and without notice in that behalf may fill up any other vacancies.

Meeting to fill up vacancies.

106. If at any ordinary meeting at which an election of Directors ought to take place the places of the retiring Directors are not filled up, the retiring Directors or such of them as have not had their places filled up, shall if willing continue in office until the first Ordinary Meeting in the next year and so on from year to year until their places are filled up, unless it shall be determined at such meeting on due notice to reduce the number of Directors.

Retiring Directors to remain in office till successors appointed.

107. The Company in General Meeting may from time to time increase or reduce the number of Directors, and may also determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number is to go out of office.

Power for general meeting to increase or reduce number of Directors.

108. The Company may by extraordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, and appoint another qualified person in his stead, but the person so appointed shall hold office during such time only as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.

Power to remove Director by extraordinary resolution.

109. Any casual vacancy occurring among the Directors may be filled up by the Directors, but any person so chosen shall retain his office so long only as the vacating Director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

Directors may fill up casual vacancies.

110. No person not being a retiring Director shall, unless recommended by the Directors for election, be eligible for election to the office of Director at any General Meeting, unless he or some other member intending to propose him, has not less than fourteen days or more than two months before the meeting left at the office a notice in writing duly signed signifying his candidature for the office or the intention of such member to propose him.

When candidate for office of Director must give notice.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS.

111. The Directors shall (as far as practicable) meet together for the despatch of business once a month, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings, as they think fit and two Directors shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

Meetings of Directors and quorum.

112. A Director may at any time convene a meeting of the Directors. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director who is not for the time being resident in Ceylon. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes but in case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

Directors may summon meeting. How questions to be decided.

113. The Directors may elect a Chairman of their meeting and determine for what period he shall hold office, and all meeting of Directors shall be presided over by the Chairman if one has been elected and is present; but if there be a vacancy in the office of Chairman or if at any meeting of Directors the Chairman be not present at the time appointed for holding the same, then and in that case the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting.

Chairman.

Powers of quorum.	114. A meeting of the Directors for the time being at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers, and discretions by or under the Articles of the Company for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Directors generally.
Power to appoint committees and to delegate.	115. The Directors may from time to time delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit and may from time to time revoke such delegation. Any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may from time to time be imposed upon it by the Directors.
Proceedings of Committee.	116. The meetings and proceedings of any such committee consisting of two or more members, shall be governed by the provisions herein contained for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Directors so far as the same are applicable thereto, and are not superseded by any regulations made by the Directors under the last preceding Article.
Place of Directors Meeting.	117. The Directors or any committee may meet at such place as they may determine, in the Island of Ceylon.
When acts of Directors or Committee valid notwithstanding defective appointment, &c.	118. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or by a committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of such Directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.
Resolution without Board Meeting valid.	119. A resolution in writing signed or initialled by all the Directors for the time being in Ceylon (not being less than two Directors) shall be as valid and as effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of Directors duly called and constituted.
Remuneration for extra Service.	120. If any Director being willing shall be called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in going or residing away from Colombo for any of the purposes of the Company or in giving special attention to the business of the Company as a member of a committee of Directors the Company may remunerate the Director so doing either by a fixed sum or by a percentage of profits or otherwise as may be determined by the Directors and such remuneration may be either in addition to or in substitution for his or their share in the remuneration above provided for the Directors.
	MINUTES.
Minutes to be kept.	121. The Directors shall cause minutes to be duly entered in books provided for the purpose— (a) Of all appointments of officers. (b) Of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Directors and of any committee of Directors. (c) Of all orders made by the Directors and committees of Directors. (d) Of all resolutions and proceedings of General Meeting and of meetings of the Directors and Committees.
	And any such minutes of any meeting of the Directors or of any Committee or of the Company if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of such meeting or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be receivable as prima facie evidence of the matters stated in such minutes.
	POWERS OF DIRECTORS.
General power of Company vested in Directors.	122. The control of the Company and of the business of the Company shall be vested in the Directors who in addition to the powers and authorities by these presents or otherwise expressly conferred upon them may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company and are not hereby or by statute law expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting but subject nevertheless to the provisions of any statute law and of these presents and to any regulations from time to time made by the Company in General Meeting provided that no regulation so made shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.
Specific powers given to Directors.	123. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred by the last preceding Article and other powers conferred by these presents it is hereby expressly declared that the Directors shall have the following powers, that is to say, power—
To pay preliminary expenses.	(1) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Company.
To acquire and dispose of property and rights.	(2) To purchase or otherwise acquire for the Company any property, rights, or privileges which the Company is authorized to acquire at such price and generally on such terms and conditions as they think fit and to sell, let, exchange, or otherwise dispose of absolutely or conditionally any part of the property, privileges, and undertaking of the Company upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration as they may think fit.
To pay for property in debentures, &c.	(3) At their discretion to pay for any property, rights, privileges acquired by or services rendered to the Company either wholly or partially in cash or in share, bonds, debentures or other securities of the Company and any such shares may be issued either as fully paid up or with such amount credited as paid up thereon as may be agreed upon; and any such debentures, bonds, or other securities may be either specifically charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company and its uncalled capital or not so charged.
To appoint officers, &c.	(4) To appoint and in their discretion to remove or suspend such agents, managers, secretaries, officers, clerks, and servants for permanent, temporary, or special service as they may from time to time think fit, and to determine their powers and duties and fix their salaries or emoluments and to require security in such instances and to such amount as they think fit.
To appoint Trustees.	(5) To appoint any person or persons (whether incorporated or not) to accept and hold in trust for the Company any property, belonging to the Company or in which it is interested or for any other purposes and to execute and do all such deeds, documents, and things as may be requisite in relation to any such trust and to provide for the remuneration of such trustee or trustees.
To bring and defend actions.	(6) To institute, conduct, defend, compound, or abandon any legal proceedings by or against the Company or its officers or otherwise concerning the affairs of the Company and also to compound, allow time for payment or satisfaction of any debts due and of any claims or demands by or against the Company.
To act in matters of bankrupts and insolvents.	(7) To act on behalf of the Company in any matters relating to bankrupts and insolvents.

- | | |
|--|--|
| (8) To refer any claims or demands by or against the Company to arbitration and observe and perform the awards. | To refer to Arbitration. |
| (9) To execute in the name and on behalf of the Company in favour of any Director or other person who may incur or be about to incur any personal liability for the benefit of the Company such mortgages of the Company's property (present and future) as they think fit and any such mortgage may contain a power of sale and such other powers, covenants, and provisions as may be agreed. | To give security by way of indemnity. |
| (10) To give any person employed by the Company a commission on the profits of any particular business or transaction or a share in the general profits of the Company and such commission or share of profits shall be treated as part of the working expenses of the Company. | To give percentages. |
| (11) From time to time to make, vary, and repeal by-laws for the regulation of the business of the Company, its officers, and servants. | To make by-laws. |
| (12) To enter into all such negotiations and contracts and rescind and vary all such contracts and execute and do all such acts, deeds, and things in the name and on behalf of the Company as they may consider expedient for or in relation to any of the matters aforesaid or otherwise for the purpose of the Company. | To make contracts, &c. |
| (13) To establish maintain support and subscribe to any charitable or public object and any institution, society, and club which may be for the benefit of the Company or its employees or may be connected with any town or place where the Company carries on business; to give pensions gratuities and charitable aid to any person or persons who have served the Company or to the wives, children, or dependents of such person or persons that may appear to the Directors, just and proper, whether any such person, his widow, children, or dependents have or have not a legal claim upon the Company. | To establish and support charitable objects. |
| (14) Before recommending any dividend to set aside portion of the profits of the Company to form a fund to provide for such pensions, gratuities or compensation, or to create any Provident or Benefit Fund in such or any other manner as to the Directors may seem fit. | To set aside profits for Provident Fund. |
| (15) To make and alter rules and regulations concerning the time, manner of payment of the contributions of the employees and the Company respectively to any such fund and the accrual, employment, suspension, and forfeiture of the benefits of the said fund and the application and disposal thereof and otherwise in relation to the working and management of the said fund as the Directors shall from time to time think fit. | To make and alter rules. |
| (16) To delegate all or any of the powers hereby conferred upon them to Agents as they may from time to time think fit. | To delegate powers to Managing Agents. |

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS.

124. Any Director may at any time appoint any other director or any other person to act as alternate for him and may at any time cancel such appointment. A Director or such other person appointed alternate for a Director shall be entitled to perform all the functions of his appointor (including the function of the Chairman of the Board). A Director appointed as alternate Director shall have an extra vote at all Meetings for each Director whom he represents in addition to his own vote as a Director.

Alternate Director.

Any alternate Director shall ipso facto cease to be an alternate Director if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a Director.

All appointments and removals of alternate Directors shall be effected by writing under the hand of the Director making or revoking such appointment left at the office.

125. The Directors shall have power to purchase or otherwise acquire on behalf of the Company any property or rights which the Company may purchase or acquire and generally on such terms and conditions as may be thought fit and to pay for the same either wholly or partially in cash or in shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company and any such shares may be issued either as fully paid up or with such amount credited as paid up thereon as may be agreed upon and any such bonds, debentures, or other securities may be either specially charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company and its uncalled capital or not so charged, to sell or otherwise dispose of, deal with, or abandon the whole or any part or parts of the Company's present or future property or rights upon such terms and conditions as may be thought fit, and to enter into any arrangement with any Company firm, or person carrying on business similar to that of this Company for mutual concession or for any joint working or combination or for any restriction upon competition or for any pooling of business or profits that may seem desirable and to carry the same into effect and generally may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting and are not hereby or by statute law expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting.

DIVIDENDS.

126. Subject to the right of members entitled to shares (if any) with preferential or special rights attached thereto the profits of the Company which it shall from time to time be determined to divide in respect of any year or other period shall be applied in payment of a dividend on the ordinary shares of the Company but so that a partly paid up share shall only entitle the holder with respect thereto to such a proportion of the distribution upon a fully paid up share as the amount paid thereon bears to the nominal amount of such share and so that where capital is paid up in advance of calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest, such capital shall not while carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits.

How profits shall be divisible.

127. The Company in General Meeting may declare a dividend to be paid to the members according to their rights and interest in the profits and may fix the time for payment.

Declaration of dividends.

128. No larger dividend shall be declared than is recommended by the Directors, but the Company in General Meeting may declare a smaller dividend.

Restriction on amount of dividend.

129. No dividend shall be payable except out of the profits of the Company, and no dividend shall carry interest as against the Company.

Dividend out of profits only and not to carry interest.

130. The declaration of the Directors as to the amount of the net profits of the Company shall be conclusive.

What to be deemed net profits.

- Interim dividends. 131. The Directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as in their judgment the position of the Company justifies.
- Debts may be deducted. 132. The Directors may retain any dividends on which the Company has a lien and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.
- Dividend and call together. 133. Any General Meeting declaring a dividend may make a call on the members for such amount as the meeting fixes but so that the call on each member shall not exceed the dividend payable to him and so that the call be made payable at the same time as the dividend and the dividend may if so arranged between the Company and the member be set off against the call. The making of a call, under this article shall be deemed ordinary business of an Ordinary Meeting which declares a dividend.
- Dividend in specie. 134. Any General Meeting declaring a dividend may resolve that such dividend be paid wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company, or paid up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of any other Company, or in any one or more of such ways.
- Capitalization of Reserves. 135. Any General Meeting may resolve that any moneys, investments, or other assets forming part of the undivided profits of the Company standing to the credit of the Reserve Fund or in the hands of the Company and available for dividend (or representing premiums received on the issue of shares and standing to the credit of the share premium account) be capitalized and distributed amongst such of the shareholders as would be entitled to receive the same if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on the footing that they become entitled thereto as capital and that all or any part of such capitalized fund be applied on behalf of such shareholders in paying up in full any unissued shares of the Company which shall be distributed accordingly in or towards payment of the uncalled liability on any issued shares, and that such distribution or payment shall be accepted by such shareholders in full satisfaction of their interest in the said capitalized sum.
- Fractional Certificates. 136. For the purpose of giving effect to any resolution under the two last preceding articles the Directors may settle any difficulty which may arise in regard to the distributions as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates and may fix the value for distribution of any specific assets and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such cash or specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalized fund as may seem expedient to the Directors. Where requisite a proper contract shall be entered into and the Directors may appoint any person to sign such contract on behalf of the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalized fund, and such appointment shall be effective.
- Effectuated transfer. 137. A transfer of shares shall not pass the right to any dividend declared thereon before the registration of the transfer.
- Retention in certain cases. 138. The Directors may retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the transmission article entitled to become a member or which any person under that article is entitled to transfer until such person shall become a member in respect thereof or shall duly transfer the same.
- Dividend to Joint-holders. 139. Any one of several persons who are registered as the joint-holders of any share may give effectual receipts for all dividends and payments on account of dividends in respect of such share.
- Payment by post. 140. Unless otherwise directed any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the member entitled, or in the case of joint-holders to the registered address of that one whose name stands first on the register in respect of the joint holding and every cheque or warrant so sent shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.
- Unclaimed dividends. 141. All dividends unclaimed for one year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed and all dividends unclaimed for three years after having been declared may be forfeited by the Directors for the benefit of the Company, but the Directors may annul the forfeiture whenever they think proper.

THE SEAL.

- Seal. 142. The seal of the Company shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of two or more of the Directors or of one Director and the Secretary or Secretaries who shall attest the sealing thereof; such attestation on the part of the Secretaries in the event of a firm or registered Company being the Secretaries being signified by a partner or duly authorized manager, director, secretary, attorney, or agent of the said firm or company signing for and on behalf of the said firm or company as such Secretaries.

BOOKS AND DOCUMENTS.

- Books of accounts to be kept. 143. The Directors shall cause true accounts to be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place and of the assets, credits, and liabilities of the Company.
- Where to be kept. 144. The books of account shall be kept at the office or at such other place or places as the Directors think fit.
- Inspection by members. 145. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the account books and documents of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of the members and no member shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorized by the Directors or by a resolution of the Company in General Meeting.

ACCOUNTS AND BALANCE SHEETS.

- Annual account and balance sheet. 146. (1) At each Ordinary Meeting the Directors shall lay before the Company a balance sheet containing a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company made up to a date not more than ten months before the meeting from the time when the last preceding account and balance sheet were made up or in the case of the first account and balance sheet from the incorporation of the Company. Every such balance sheet shall be certified and signed by the Directors or any two of them in accordance with the terms of the Ordinance in that behalf.
- (2) The Auditor's report (to be prepared in accordance with the provisions of clause 152 of the Articles) shall be attached to the balance sheet or there shall be inserted at the foot thereof a reference to the report, and the report shall be read before the Company in General Meeting and shall be open to inspection by any Shareholder.
- Copies to be sent to members and deposited at the Registered office. 147. A copy of such balance sheet together with the reports of the Auditors shall at least seven days previously to the meeting, be sent to the registered address of every member of the Company and a copy shall also be deposited at the registered office of the Company for the inspection of members of the Company during a period of at least seven days before the meeting.

148. After the balance sheet has been laid before the Company at the General Meeting a copy thereof signed and certified by the Directors or any two or more of them shall be filed with the register at the same time as the copy of the Annual List of Members and Summary prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Ordinance in this behalf.

Copies of Balance Sheets to be filed.

AUDIT.

149. Once in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained by one or more Auditor or Auditors.

Accounts to be audited annually.

150. The Company at the first Ordinary Meeting in each year shall appoint an Auditor or Auditors to hold office until the first Ordinary Meeting in the following year and the following provision shall have effect, that is to say :—

Audit provisions.

(1) A Director or officer of the Company shall not be capable of being appointed Auditor of the Company.

(2) The first Auditors of the Company may be appointed by the Directors before the first Ordinary Meeting and if so appointed shall hold office until such meeting unless previously removed by a resolution of the Shareholders in General Meeting in which case the Shareholders at that meeting may appoint Auditors.

(3) The Directors may fill any casual vacancy in the office of Auditor, but while any such vacancy continues the surviving or continuing Auditor or Auditors (if any) may act

151. The remuneration of the Auditors shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting, except that the remuneration of any Auditors appointed before the first Ordinary Meeting or to fill any casual vacancy may be fixed by the Directors.

Remuneration of Auditors.

152. (1) Every Auditor of the Company shall have a right of access at all times to the books and accounts and vouchers of the Company and shall be entitled to require from the Directors and officers of the Company such information and explanations as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of the Auditors.

Rights and duties of Auditors.

(2) The Auditors shall make a report to the Shareholders on every balance sheet laid before the Company in General Meeting during their tenure of office and the report shall state :—

(a) Whether or not they have obtained all the information and explanations they have required ; and

(b) Whether in their opinion the balance sheet referred to in the report is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Company's affairs according to the best of their information and the explanations given to them and as shown by the books of the Company.

153. Every account of the Directors when audited and approved by a General Meeting shall be conclusive except as regards any error discovered therein within three months next after the approval thereof. Whenever any such error is discovered within that period the account shall forthwith be corrected and thenceforth shall be conclusive.

When accounts to be deemed finally settled.

NOTICES.

154. A notice may be served by the Company upon any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid envelope or wrapper addressed to such member at his registered place of address.

How notice to be served on members.

155. Each holder of registered shares shall from time to time notify in writing to the Company some place in the Island of Ceylon to be registered as his address and such registered place of address shall for all purposes be deemed his place of residence.

Members resident abroad.

156. As regards any member who has not notified in writing to the Company some place in the Island of Ceylon to be registered as his address, a notice posted up in the registered office shall be deemed to be well served on him at the expiration of twenty-four hours from the time when it is so posted up.

Notices where no address.

157. Any notice required to be given by the Company to the members or any of them and not expressly provided for by these presents shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement.

When notice may be given by advertisement.

158. Any notice required to be or which may be given by advertisement shall be advertised once in the Ceylon Government Gazette.

How to be advertised.

159. All notices shall with respect to any registered shares to which persons are jointly entitled be given to whichever of such persons is named first in the register, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such shares.

Notice to joint-holders.

160. Any notice sent by post shall be deemed to have been served on the day following that on which the envelope or wrapper containing the same is posted, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post office and a certificate in writing signed by any Director or other officer of the Company that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice was so addressed and posted shall be conclusive evidence thereof. Any notice given by advertisement shall be deemed to have been given on the day on which the advertisement shall first appear.

When notice by post deemed to be served.

161. Every person who by operation of law, transfer or other means whatsoever shall become entitled to any share shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which previously to his name and address being entered on the register shall be duly given to the person from whom he derives his title to such share.

Transferees, &c., bound by prior notice.

162. Any notice or document delivered or sent by post to or left at the registered address of any member in pursuance of these presents shall, notwithstanding such member be then deceased and whether or not the Company have notice of his decease, be deemed to have been duly served in respect of any registered shares whether held solely or jointly with other persons by such member, until some other person be registered in his stead as the holder or joint-holder thereof and such service shall for all purposes of these presents be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on his or her heirs, executors or administrators and all persons, if any, jointly interested with him or her in any such share.

Notice valid though member deceased.

163. The signature to any notice to be given by the Company may be written or printed.

How notice to be signed.

Service of process
in winding up.

164. In the event of a winding up of the Company every member of the Company who is not for the time being in the Island of Ceylon shall be bound, within eight weeks after the passing of an effective resolution to wind up the Company voluntarily or the making of an order for the winding up of the Company, to serve notice in writing on the Company appointing some householder residing in Colombo upon whom all summonses, notices, process, orders and judgments in relation to or under the winding up of the Company may be served and in default of such nomination the liquidator of the Company shall be at liberty on behalf of such member to appoint some such person, and service upon any such appointee whether appointed by the member or the liquidator shall be deemed to be good personal service on such member for all purposes, and were the liquidator makes any such appointment he shall with all convenient speed give notice thereof to such member by advertisement in some daily newspaper published in Colombo or by a registered letter sent through the post and addressed to such member at his address as mentioned in the register of members of the Company, and such notice shall be deemed to be served on the day following that on which the advertisement appears or the letter is posted. The provisions of this clause shall not prejudice the right of the liquidator of the Company to serve any notice or other document in any other manner prescribed by the regulations of the Company

SECRECY CLAUSES.

Secrecy clause.

165. Every Director, manager, auditor, trustee, member of a committee, officer, servant, agent, accountant, or other person employed in the business of the Company shall, if so required by the Directors before entering upon his duties, sign a declaration pledging himself to observe a strict secrecy respecting all transactions of the Company with its customers and the state of accounts with individuals and in matters relating thereto, and shall by such declaration pledge himself not to reveal any of the matters which may come to his knowledge in the discharge of his duties except when required so to do by the Directors or by any meeting or by a court of law or by the person to whom such matters relate and except so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions in these presents contained.

Member not
information.

166. No member or other person shall be entitled to enter upon the property of the Company or to inspect or examine the Company's premises or properties or the books or accounts of the Company without the permission of the Directors of the Company for the time being or to require discovery of or any information respecting any detail of the Company's trading or any matter which is or may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery of trade, or secret process or of any other matter whatsoever which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which, in the opinion of the Directors, it will be inexpedient in the interest of the members of the Company to communicate.

WINDING UP.

Distribution of assets.

167. If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution among the members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid-up capital such assets shall be distributed so that as nearly as may be the losses shall be borne by the members in proportion to the capital paid up or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up the assets available for distribution among the members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up the excess shall be distributed amongst the members in proportion to the capital at the commencement of the winding up paid up or which ought to have been paid up on the shares held by them respectively. But this clause is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of the shares issued upon special terms and conditions.

Shareholders may
of winding up, &c.

168. Any Shareholder, whether a director or not, and whether alone or jointly with any other Shareholder or Director, and any person not a Shareholder, may become the purchaser of the property of the Company or any part thereof in the event of a winding up or dissolution, or at any other time when a sale of the Company's property or effects or any part thereof shall be made by the Directors under the powers hereby or under the Ordinance conferred upon them.

Provisions to
up, &c.

169. If the Company shall be wound up whether voluntarily or otherwise the liquidator or liquidators may with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company divide among the contributories in specie any part of the assets of the Company, and may with the like sanction vest any part of the assets of the Company in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator or liquidators with the like sanction shall think fit and if thought expedient any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the members of the Company and in particular any class may be given preferential or special rights or may be excluded altogether or in part and the liquidator or liquidators shall be entitled to sell all or any of the assets of the Company in consideration of or in exchange for shares, ordinary, fully paid, part paid, or preference, in the purchasing Company but in case any division otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories shall be determined on or any sale made of any or all of the assets of the Company in exchange for shares in the purchasing company either ordinary, fully paid or part paid or preference, any contributory who would be prejudiced thereby, shall have a right to dissent as if such determination were a special resolution passed pursuant to the section 192 of the Companies Act of 1929 in England but for the purposes of an arbitration as in the sub-section 6 of the said sections 234 and 243 provided the provisions of the Ceylon Arbitration Ordinance, 1866, and of the Ceylon Ordinance, No. 2 of 1889, shall apply in place of the English and Scotch Acts referred to in the said sub-section 6 of section 234 of the aforewritten Companies Act and the said sections 234 and 243 save as herein excepted, shall be deemed to be part and parcel of these present Articles.

INDEMNITY.

Indemnity.

170. Every Director, Managing Director, Agent, Auditor, Manager, and other officer or servant of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company against, and it shall be the duty of the Director out of the funds of the Company to pay all costs, losses, and expenses which any such officer or servant may incur or become liable to by reason of any contract entered into, or act or thing done by him as such officer or servant or in any way in the discharge of his duties including travelling expenses and the amount for which such indemnity is provided shall immediately attach as a lien on the property of the Company and have priority as between the members over all other claims.

Individual responsibility of Directors.

171. No Director, or other officer of the Company shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or default ts of any other Director or officer or for joining in any receipt or other act for conformity or for any loss or expense happening to the Company through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by order of the Directors for or on behalf of the Company or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the moneys of the Company shall be invested or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or tortious act of any person with whom any moneys, securities, or effects shall be deposited or for any loss occasioned by any error of judgment or oversight on his part or for any other loss, damage, or misfortune whatsoever which shall happen in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto unless the same happen through his own dishonesty.

Urban District Council, Chilaw	44,530	2
Sanitary Board, Avissawella	1,418	75
Co-operative Societies	15,712	86
Government servants	7,252	66

GENERAL.

Local Authorities : Urban District Council, Chilaw.—The position with regard to the payment of the loan remains the same as in 1933-34 except for the payment of a sum of Rs. 10,965·02 as interest on the loan for the years 1932 and 1933. The amount due as instalments and interest in respect of the loan at the end of September 30, 1935, was Rs. 44,530·02.

The proposal to reappoint the Commissioner under section 17 of Ordinance No. 22 of 1916, has not been given effect to in view of certain proposals put forward by the Commissioners for the acceptance of the Council.

Co-operative Societies : The Jaffna White Burley Co-operative Sale Society, Ltd.—Seven loans amounting to Rs. 18,000 have been issued for financing this society in respect of the tobacco crop for 1933, 1934, and 1935, and of these five loans totalling Rs. 16,000 with interest were repayable before September 30, 1935, and the balance Rs. 2,000 is repayable during 1936. Towards these outstandings the society has paid a total amount of Rs. 5,241·41 of which Rs. 4,904·10 was taken in part payment of the first loan and the balance Rs. 337·31 in settlement of interest due thereon. The position at the end of September 30, 1935, was that a sum of Rs. 11,803·01 remained unpaid of which Rs. 11,095·90 represents principal and the balance Rs. 707·11 interest. The State Council has agreed to make good any loss not exceeding a sum of Rs. 20,000.

The Jaffna-Malayalam Tobacco Co-operative Sale Society.—Loans have been granted to this society for financing the tobacco crop for 1934 and 1935 to the extent of Rs. 290,000 and it is proposed to finance the scheme for 1936 as well. The Board of Ministers have agreed to make good any loss in the transaction.

Other Co-operative Societies.—On September 30, 1935, a sum of Rs. 4,006·96 representing instalment and interest on loans was outstanding in respect of seventy societies of which fifteen societies are in liquidation and consequently the settlement of the loans is overdue.

Government Servants.—The case of default in the payment of loan charges referred in last year's report has resulted in the property being bought over by the Commissioners. The value of it is fixed at Rs. 4,652·34 which represents the balance of the loan outstanding Rs. 3,880 and legal and other expenses Rs. 772·34.

During the course of the year under review another officer defaulted in the payment of loan charges and the Board's legal advisers were instructed to put the mortgage bond in suit.

By order of the Commissioners,
