Objects and Reasons.

This Bill gives effect to the recommendations made by the Special Committee appointed in September, 1933, to report on the measures necessary to be taken for the protection of the indigenous fauna and flora of Ceylon. The report of the Committee, which was published as Sessional Paper No. XIX of 1934, comprehensively reviews the numerous recommendations made in the earlier report (Sessional Paper, No. XXXIII of 1930), of the Select Committee of the Legislative Council appointed to consider the draft of an Ordinance to amend the Game Protection Ordinance, 1909. As the Special Committee of 1933, has either approved or modified most of the recommendations of the Select Committee in addition to making further recommendations for the general amendment of the Game Protection Ordinance, 1909, it has been found simpler to repeal that Ordinance (except those provisions which relate to fish and fishing) and to consolidate in a single Bill all provisions considered necessary for the protection and preservation of the fauna and flora of the Island.

2. Part I of the Bill deals with the constitution and administration of National Reserves and Sanctuaries. The essential difference between a National Reserve and a Sanctuary is that only Crown land can be proclaimed as a National Reserve whereas land other than Crown land can be included within the limits of an area which is proclaimed as a Sanctuary. National Reserves are of three kinds: Strict Natural Reserves, National Parks, and Intermediate Zones. The nomenclature of these three types of National Reserve is derived from the text of the London Convention for the protection of African Fauna and Flora; but the essential features of Strict Natural Reserves, Intermediate Zones and Sanctuaries as set out in Clause 3 of the Bill are in accordance with the recommendations made by the local Special Committee in Sessional Paper, No. XIX of 1934.

3. In a Strict Natural Reserve, both fauna and flora will be absolutely protected and no person will be permitted to enter such a Reserve except upon official business or for the purposes of scientific research (Clause 4). Any member of the public will be entitled to enter a National Park on a permit but only for the purpose of studying or observing the fauna and flora in the Park. No hunting will be permitted either in a Strict Natural Reserve or in a National Park; but hunting will be allowed in an Intermediate Zone subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed by regulation. Provision has been made in Clause 3 (1) (d) to the effect that as a general rule no person shall hunt, shoot, kill or take a wild animal in a Sanctuary, but power will be taken to prescribe the circumstances and cases in which and the conditions and restrictions subject to which the hunting of wild animals may be permitted within a Sanctuary (Clause 8 (b)). As in the London Convention, it has been found necessary for drafting purposes to define "animal" so as to include a bird, fish or reptile and to take power for the extension of the provisions of Part I to any specified insect. Clause 6 enumerates the acts which are prohibited in Strict Natural Reserves and National Parks and inter alia, makes it an offence for any person to fire a gun or to do any other act which is likely to disturb the fauna within any such Reserve or Park. Clause 7 enumerates the acts which are regulated in Intermediate Zones and Sanctuaries.

4. All National Reserves and Sanctuaries will be under the general control of a Warden who will be assisted by a Deputy Warden and several official and honorary District Wardens (Clause 64). Clause 66 empowers the Governor to appoint an Advisory Committee of twelve persons with the Warden as Chairman for the purpose of making recommendations to the Executive Committee and of advising generally on all matters relating to the fauna and flora of the Island.

5. Part II of the Bill makes provision for the protection, in areas outside a National Reserve or a Sanctuary, of deer and fowl as defined in Clause 26 and of wild tuskers, wild elephants and wild buffaloes. The hunting or killing of deer or fowl during the close season is entirely prohibited. It is also an offence to kill a tusker and no licence would ordinarily be issued for such a purpose. The Warden is, however, authorised to issue licences for the capture of a tusker or the killing or taking of elephants or buffaloes at any time, and for the hunting or killing of deer and fowl at any time other than during the close season.

Persons permanently settled in "village areas", which will be notified in the Gazette by the Executive Committee of Agriculture and Lands, will be permitted to kill deer without a licence at any time other than during the close season for the purpose of providing food for themselves and their families (Clause 11 (2)). Similarly, persons residing or cultivating land in areas declared to be areas in which damage by wild animals to persons or property is apprehended may, without licence, hunt and kill tuskers, elephants, buffaloes or deer for the period during which the declaration is in force (Clause 12); and the owner or person in charge of any cultivated land may, without licence, shoot or kill a tusker, elephant, buffalo, deer or fowl found trespassing on such land (Clause 13). Clause 12 further authorises the Warden to issue a licence to any person to kill a tusker in a "declared area" and Clause 13 empowers the Warden to issue a licence to any person to kill a tusker which has trespassed or attempted to trespass on any cultivated land. These are the only cases in which a tusker may be killed under a licence.

6. Clause 14, which has been inserted on the recommendation of the Select Committee of the Legislative Council, authorises the destruction without licence of any wild buffalo which joins a herd of domestic buffaloes. Clause 16 declares affirmatively the law relating to the property in animals or birds which are taken or killed. Every tusker which is captured or killed will be the property of the Crown; but any elephant (other than a tusker) and any buffalo, deer or fowl captured or killed under licence will be the property of the licensee unless otherwise provided in the conditions attached to the licence. Clause 18 reproduces the material part of section 11 of the Game Protection Ordinance, 1909, and makes provision for the levy of a royalty by way of export duty on all elephants exported from the Island. The provisions of Part II are by Clause 27 declared to be inapplicable to tuskers and elephants seized or taken at elephant kraals held under the Elephant Kraal Regulation Ordinance, No. 1 of 1912, and to buffaloes seized or taken at a buffalo kraal held in accordance with regulations which will be made for the purpose.

7. Part III makes provision for the protection of birds, beasts and reptiles in areas outside a National Reserve or a Sanctuary and has to be read with Schedules I and II of the Bill. Schedule I enumerates the birds, beasts and reptiles which are absolutely protected and which may not be killed at any time, while Schedule II enumerates the birds and beasts which are protected during the close season only. No beasts have, as a matter of fact, been included in Schedule II; but either Schedule can be added to or amended by regulation (Clause 32). Clause 35 prohibits the import without permit of any non-indigenous bird, beast or reptile. The certificate of the Director of the Colombo Museum that any bird, beast or reptile belongs to a species which is not indigenous to the Island is made conclusive as to the facts stated therein (Clause 35 (3)). Clause 38 prohibits the export without permit of any bird, beast or reptile or of any plumage, horns or skins.

8. Part IV makes provision for the protection of the flora of the Island and has to be read with Schedules III and IV of the Bill. Schedule III contains a list of protected plants including the Wesak Orchid and the Anuradhapura Orchid. Clause 40 makes it an offence for any person without a permit to remove, uproot, damage or destroy any protected plant which is growing in a public place as defined in Clause 46, or without a permit to destroy any such plant which is his own property. Clause 46 provides that the expression "plant" shall not include the flower of a plant. Schedule IV contains a list of "protected trees." No tree will be included in this Schedule unless it is growing in a public place as defined by Clause 46 and unless its protection is considered to be necessary or desirable for scientific or æsthetic purposes or on religious or historical grounds. The two trees included for the present in Schedule IV are Knox's Tree situated in the Trincomalee District and the Madara Tree situated in the Ratnapura District; but power has been taken to enable the Executive Committee to add to the list of protected trees.

9. Some of the most important provisions of the Bill appear in Part V under the head "Miscellaneous Provisions". Clause 47 provides for the licensing of Taxidermists. Clause 48 provides for the notification of "prohibited roads" and penalises the discharge of firearms on such roads. Clause 49 makes it an offence for any person to shoot at any bird or animal from any position in or on any moving or stationary vehicle of any kind, while Clause 50 prohibits the use of artificial lights for the purpose of enabling or facilitating the destruction of birds or animals at night whether by dazzling the vision of any such bird or animal or otherwise. Similar provision to that contained in Clauses 49 and 50 has recently been added to the Uganda Game Protection Ordinance of 1926. Clause 51 provides that no person shall between sunset and sunrise hunt, shoot, kill or take any animal, reptile, or bird on any Crown land outside a National Reserve, except in accordance with regulations. Clause 52 authorises the payment of rewards for the destruction of elephants which have caused damage to crops, plantations and other property.

10. Part VI contains further miscellaneous provisions of general application. All licences will be personal to the licensee (Clause 55) and will not be transferable. The general exemptions enumerated in Clause 58 will be applied to all acts which are declared to be offences in the Bill on the principle that no such act should be deemed to be an offence if it is done in defence of the life or property of any person.

11. The consolidation in this Bill of the law relating to the protection of fauna has necessitated the repeal of all provisions of the Game Protection Ordinance, 1909, except those which relate to the protection of fish and the regulation of fishing.

D. S. SENANAYAKE,
Minister for Agriculture and Lands.

Colombo, May 27, 1936.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Excise Ordinance,
No. 8 of 1912.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Excise Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1936.

Short title.

2 Section 18 of the Excise Ordinance, No. 8 of 1912, is hereby amended by the substitution, for the words "within any local area.", of the following :—

Amendment of section 18 of Ordinance No. 8 of 1912.

- "within any local area ; or
(4) of selling any foreign liquor by retail in a tavern within any local area under a tavern licence prescribed by rule made under section 31 or by direction of the Governor issued under section 24."

Objects and Reasons.

The sale of foreign liquor in taverns has hitherto been controlled by means of licences, and except in those cases where the Excise policy of the Government made a refusal necessary, such licences were generally issued to all suitable applicants. The question of altering this system was considered by a sub-committee appointed by the Executive Committee of Home Affairs to inquire into the Excise policy of the Government, and its recommendation on this point, adopted by the Executive Committee and set out in paragraph 4 (6) of Sessional Paper III of 1933, was that the right of selling foreign liquor by retail in taverns within a local area should be sold as a privilege, by auction or by tender, in the same manner as the privilege of selling country liquor by retail. This recommendation has been approved by the State Council and ratified by the Governor, and notice of the intention to introduce the new system with effect from October 1, 1936, was given to prospective licensees in 1934.

2. It is not possible to give effect to the recommendation of the Executive Committee under the existing law. The only provision of the Excise Ordinance which deals with the subject of exclusive privilege is section 18, but that section makes no mention of foreign liquor.

It is accordingly proposed in Clause 2 of this Bill to amend section 18 of the Excise Ordinance, No. 8 of 1912, so as to confer on the Governor the power to grant any person the exclusive privilege of selling foreign liquor by retail under a tavern licence in any specified area.

Minister for Home Affairs.
