And the Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge or lien.
52. Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. 1. The regulations contained in schedule C of Ordinance No. 4 of 1861 except rules 66 to 86 inclusive shall not apply to the Company. The said rules 66 to 86 inclusive shall form part and parcel of the Articles of Association of the Company.

2. The capital of the Company shall be divided into 4,000 shares of Rs. 25 each. The shareholders shall have power by resolution passed at a meeting of the Shareholders convened for the purpose to authorize the Board of Directors to increase the capital.

SHARES.

3. Persons of either sex shall be entitled to be Shareholders.

4. Any person desirous of taking any share in the Company shall apply to the Secretary of the Company in writing in the form which shall be available in the registered office of the Company. The Board of Directors reserve the right to reject any such application. Every Shareholder shall be entitled on payment of One Rupee to a certificate of title to shares he holds, which shall be issued under the seal of the Company and signed in such manner as the Directors shall prescribe.

5. The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the Shareholders in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them and every member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the time and at the place appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable either in one sum or by two or more instalments. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing such call was passed. Seven days' notice at least of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment and to whom such call shall be paid.

FORFEITURE AND LIEN.

6. If any Shareholder fail to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

7. The notice shall state that on or before a further day specified in the said notice and at such place or places at which calls are usually made payable the amount due under rule 6 above shall be paid and that on failure to make such payment, the shares in respect of which call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

8. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls or instalments, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares, and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

9. Any shares so forfeited shall be deemed to the property of the Company and the Directors may sell, re-allot or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit, and either subject to or freed from the calls made prior to the forfeiture.

10. Any Shareholder whose shares have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum, and the Directors shall enforce the payment of such moneys or any part thereof if they think fit, but shall be under no obligation so to do.

13. For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit; but no sales shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived, and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such Shareholder, his executors or administrators, and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment, fulfilment, or discharge of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, for seven days after such notice.

15. The instrument of transfer of any shares shall be in the usual or common form, or in such other form as the Directors shall approve.

16. The Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares upon which the Company has a lien, and in the case of shares not fully paid up, may refuse to register a transfer without assigning any reason therefor.

17. The Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owners thereof and accordingly shall not be bound or affected by notice of any trust, charge, or other interest, legal or equitable, partial or absolute, by virtue whereof any person other than the registered holder shall be, or shall claim to be, interested in any share.

18. The executors or administrators or heirs of a deceased Shareholder shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his share.

19. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of any Shareholder, or in consequence of the marriage of any female Shareholder, or in any way other than by transfer, may be registered as a Shareholder upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Company.

20. Where any person entitled under the transmission clause to any partly paid shares shall fail for two months after being thereto required by the Directors in writing to procure himself or some other person to be registered as holder of the shares, the Directors may, at any time thereafter before compliance with the request, by resolution, forfeit such shares.

34. If there is no such chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present at the time of holding the same, the Shareholders present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman of such meeting.

35. The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

36. At any general meeting, unless a poll is demanded by at least five Shareholders, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

37. If a poll is demanded in manner aforesaid, the same shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in general meeting.

38. The accidental omission to give any such notice to any of the Shareholders or the non-receipt by any Shareholder of such notice, shall not invalidate any resolution passed at such meeting.

39. Every Shareholder shall have one vote for every share up to ten; he shall have an additional vote for every five shares beyond the first ten shares up to one hundred, and an additional vote for every ten shares held by him beyond the first hundred shares.
