thereof, or the said investments, or any part thereof, for the purpose of paying off the mortgage debts due thereon respectively.

4 Nothing in this Ordinance shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs, and Successors.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The late Frederick Dias Abeysinghe Mudaliyar and his wife Johanna de Saram by their Last Will and Testament gave, devised and bequeathed to the Lord Bishop of Colombo and his successors as such Bishop all their movable and immovable property in trust, to use the income, issues, rents and profits thereof for the endowment and maintenance of an Orphanage for boys, to be called "The Frederick Dias Abeysinghe Orphanage", on the terms and conditions in the said Will set out. The Orphanage was duly established and still continues.

The Will provided that should the Trustee so desire, all or any of the lands subject to the trust, which are under the value of Rs. 500, ascertained by competent appraisal, may be sold and converted into money and funded as in the said Will provided, but the Will also provided that, save as aforesaid, the immovable property subject to the trust should for ever remain unsold, the issues, rents and profits thereof being devoted to the maintenance of the said Orphanage.

Forty-six immovable properties are now subject to the trust and they are scattered over three districts, namely the Districts of Galle, Matara and Hambantota. They vary in extent from 60 acres to a few perches.

Apart from the difficulty of finding suitable tenants His Lordship has found it inconvenient and expensive to supervise these properties and collect the rents.

In view of the provisions of the Will, this Ordinance is presented for passing in order to give the necessary power to the Lord Bishop and his successors to sell and dispose of any property subject to the trust, and apply the proceeds in the purchase of movable or immovable property to be held in trust on the same conditions as the property sold.

Colombo, June 24, 1936.
