DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

No. 20 of 1927.

An Ordinance to amend the Motor Car Ordinance, 1927, and to make provision for the application of the amended law to special cases.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Motor Car Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1936.

Amendment of section 39 of Ordinance No. 20 of 1927.

2 Section 39 of the Motor Car Ordinance, 1927, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) in sub-section (1) thereof—

(a) by the substitution for the words "Any court" of the words "Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), any court"; and

(b) by the substitution in paragraph (a) for all the words from "for such time" to "stated period", of the words "for a stated period which shall not exceed two years, or cancel the certificate";

(2) by the repeal of sub-section (3) thereof and the substitution of the following new sub-section for that sub-section :—

"(3) (a) Where the certificate of competence of any person convicted of any offence punishable under section 57 or of any offence in connection with the driving of a motor car punishable under section 272 or section 328 of the Ceylon Penal Code contains at the time of such conviction endorsements made after the first day of October, 1936, in respect of not less than two and not more than four previous convictions of any of those offences, the court shall either cancel the certificate or suspend the certificate for a stated period which shall be not less than six months nor more than two years; and where the certificate contains at the time of such conviction endorsements made after the date hereinbefore specified in respect of five previous convictions of any of the offences aforesaid, the court shall cancel the certificate.

(b) Where the certificate of competence of any person convicted of any offence in connection with the driving of a motor car punishable under section 298 or section 329 of the Ceylon Penal Code contains at the time of such conviction endorsements made after the first day of October, 1936, in respect of two previous convictions of any of those offences, the court shall cancel the certificate."

(3) in sub-section (5) thereof, by the addition of the following words at the end of that sub-section :—

"A person whose certificate of competence has been cancelled by order of a court shall be disqualified for obtaining another certificate until that court has made order under sub-section (7) authorising him to apply to the registrar for a certificate."

(4) by the addition at the end thereof of the following new sub-section, which shall have effect as sub-section (7) of that section :—

"(7) (a) The court which has made order cancelling the certificate of competence of any person may, on the application of that person made at any time after the expiry of a period of two years reckoned from the date of cancellation and after such inquiry as the court may consider necessary, authorise him to apply to the registrar for another certificate of competence in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(b) The court shall notify the registrar and the Police of the receipt of any such application and shall afford the registrar and the Police an opportunity of being heard and of making representations against the grant of the application and of adducing evidence in respect of the representations so made. Notice on the Police may for the purposes of this sub-section be served on the senior police officer attached to the court which issues such notice.

(c) The court shall on the consideration of any such application have regard to all the circumstances of the case and in particular to the character and conduct of the applicant subsequent to the date of the order of cancellation of the certificate of competence.

(d) Any such application may, if refused, be renewed at any time after the expiry of a period of two years reckoned from the date of refusal, and further applications may in like manner be made to the court at successive intervals of not less than two years reckoned from the date of the last refusal. All the other provisions of this sub-section relating to the first application made by any person thereunder after the cancellation of his certificate of competence shall apply equally to any other application made by him after the refusal of the first application."

3 (1) Where on the date of the commencement of this Ordinance any order of suspension of a certificate of competence is in force and is not due to expire until after the completion of a period of two years reckoned from that date, that order of suspension shall be deemed to expire at the end of a period of two years reckoned from that date.

Provision for special cases.

(2) Where on the date of the commencement of this Ordinance a declaration made prior to that date under section 39 (1) (a) of the principal Ordinance is in force disqualifying a person for obtaining another certificate of competence for a period ending on a date later than two years after the date of the commencement of this Ordinance, such disqualification shall terminate on the expiry of a period of two years reckoned from the date of the commencement of this Ordinance; and the order cancelling the certificate of competence of the person so disqualified shall be deemed to have been made on the date of the commencement of this Ordinance.

(3) Where on the date of the commencement of this Ordinance a declaration made prior to that date under section 39 (1) (a) of the principal Ordinance is in force disqualifying a person for obtaining another certificate of competence for a period ending on a date earlier than two years after the date of the commencement of this Ordinance, that person shall be entitled on the expiry of that period of disqualification to apply to the court under section 39 (7) of the principal Ordinance as amended by this Ordinance notwithstanding the fact that a period of two years has not elapsed since the date of the order of the cancellation of his certificate of competence.

Objects and Reasons.

The principal objects of this Bill are :—

- (1) to amend those provisions of the Motor Car Ordinance, 1927, which relate to the suspension and cancellation of certificates of competence; and
- (2) to repeal the amendment effected by Ordinance No. 41 of 1935 in regard to the compulsory cancellation of the certificate of competence of a person convicted for the tenth time of certain specified offences.

2. Section 39 (1) (a) of the principal Ordinance empowers a court to suspend the certificate of a person convicted of an offence under that Ordinance or the Penal Code, but imposes no limit on the period of suspension. The same section empowers the court to order the cancellation of a certificate of competence and simultaneously with such order to prescribe a period during which the person convicted would be disqualified for obtaining another certificate. It is proposed by Clause 2 (1) of the Bill to effect a change in the law applicable to the suspension and cancellation of certificates of competence. In future, the duration of an order of suspension will be limited to two years and it will be unnecessary, upon the cancellation of a certificate of competence, to make an order disqualifying the person whose certificate is cancelled for obtaining another certificate for any stated period of time. An order of cancellation will ordinarily be permanent in effect; but every person whose certificate of competence is cancelled will be given an opportunity of applying to the court which made the order of cancellation for permission to apply once again for a new certificate under the Ordinance. (Clause 2 (4).) An application to the court cannot be made until after the expiry of a period of two years. Upon the consideration of any such application the court is required to enquire into the character and conduct of the applicant subsequent to the date of the cancellation and no order permitting the applicant to apply for a new certificate will be made except after notice to the registrar and the police who will be afforded an opportunity of making representations against the grant of the application. An application which is refused may be renewed after the expiry of a second period of two years and if refused again may be renewed from time to time at successive intervals of two years.

3. Clause 2 (2) of the Bill substitutes for sub-section (3) of section 39 a new sub-section which makes it compulsory for the court to make an order of suspension or cancellation in specified circumstances. Section 57 of the Motor Car Ordinance provides that a person who drives a motor car negligently or recklessly or while in a state of intoxication shall be guilty of an offence. Section 272 of the Penal Code enacts that a person who drives a vehicle on a public way in a manner so rash or negligent as to endanger human life or to be likely to cause hurt or injury to any other person is guilty of an offence and section 328 of that Code penalises a person who causes hurt to another by doing any act so rashly or negligently as to endanger human life or the personal safety of others. Where a person is convicted for the third, fourth or fifth time of any offence under section 57 of the Motor Car Ordinance or under section 272 or section 328 of the Penal Code in connexion with the driving of a motor car, the court will be compelled to make an order of suspension or an order of cancellation of the certificate of competence of the person convicted. An order of suspension, if made, will be for a minimum period of six months. Where a person is convicted for the sixth time of any such offence, the court will be compelled to cancel his certificate of competence.

4. Section 298 of the Penal Code provides that a person who causes the death of another by doing any rash or negligent act not amounting to culpable homicide is guilty of an offence and section 329 of that Code penalises a person who causes grievous hurt to another by doing an act so rashly or negligently as to endanger human life or the personal safety of others. Further provision is made in Clause 2 (2) of the Bill making it compulsory to cancel the certificate of competence of any person who is convicted for the third time of an offence under section 298 or section 329 of the Penal Code in connexion with the driving of a motor car.

5. As a court will not be empowered in the future to specify the period during which a person will be disqualified for obtaining a second certificate of competence on the cancellation of his certificate, it has been found necessary to provide that an order of cancellation will automatically operate as a disqualification for obtaining a second certificate of competence until the court has, by order made under the new sub-section (7), permitted the person whose certificate has been cancelled to apply to the registrar for the issue of a new certificate under the provisions of the Ordinance. (Clause 2 (3).)

6. Clause 3 of the Bill makes special provision in regard to the operation under the amended law of orders of suspension or disqualification made under the existing law.
