The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to provide for the establishment of a Volunteer Naval Defence Force.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

|---|---|
| Short title. | 1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Naval Volunteer Ordinance, No. of 1936, and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall appoint by proclamation in the Gazette. |
| Governor may raise a naval force. | 2 It shall be lawful for the Governor to raise and maintain for the naval defence of the Island of Ceylon within its territorial waters a force of volunteers to be called the Ceylon Naval Volunteer Force. |
| Force to be maintained at public expense. | 3 The Force shall be raised and maintained at the expense of the Island of Ceylon out of moneys provided by the State Council. |
| Period of service. | 4 Every member of the Force shall be entered for a term of three years, and shall during such term be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, and at the expiration of every third year of the period of his service as a volunteer he shall be entitled to claim his discharge: Provided that if he is then in actual service his right to claim his discharge shall be suspended until the cessation of such service. |
| Force to consist of units. | 5 The Force shall consist of such units as the Governor may appoint from time to time by notification in the Gazette. |
| Constitution of Force. | 6 The Force shall consist of such numbers of officers and men as the Governor may from time to time decide. The officers of the Force shall receive either commissions or warrants from the Governor, and such commissions or warrants shall not be deemed to be vacated by the death or retirement from office of the Governor by whom the same were issued. |
| Governor may dispense with services. | 7 The Governor may at any time dispense with the services of any member of the Force. |
| Instruction. | 8 The Governor may cause any member of the Force to be instructed, trained and exercised on shore or on board any ship or vessel or partly on shore and partly on board any ship or vessel within the limits of the Island of Ceylon including therein its territorial waters: Provided that no member of the Force shall under this Ordinance be required to be in attendance for the purpose of instruction, training and exercise on more than twenty-eight days in any one year. |
| Organisation, conditions of service, &c. to be prescribed by regulations. | 9 The government, organisation, administration and training of, and the qualifications for entry into and conditions of service in the Force shall be prescribed by regulations made by the Governor. Such regulations may in particular provide for all or any of the following matters or things :— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the numerical establishments of units of the Force, and the grades, ranks and ratings therein; (b) the training and inspection of the Force, the formation of training camps, the establishment of depots or stations of the Force, and the holding of manœuvres and exercises for the Force; (c) the attendance of members of the Force for the purpose of instruction, training or exercise; (d) the seniority of officers of the Force, and the appointment to, promotion to and tenure of commissioned or warrant rank in the Force; (e) the advancement to or reversion from petty officer rating of men of the Force; (f) the conditions as to physical fitness and efficiency on which members of the Force may continue to serve in the Force after completing their first term of service; (g) the calling into actual service of the members of the Force; (h) the issue and care of arms, accoutrements, ammunition, supplies, clothing and equipment for members of the Force; (i) returns, books, forms and correspondence relating to the Force; |

- (j) the establishment and conduct of institutions for providing recreation and refreshment to members of the Force ;
- (k) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Ordinance.

10 Any person who wilfully obstructs any portion of the Force or any member thereof in the performance of any service or duty under this Ordinance or the regulations made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence. Obstructing the Force.

11 Any person who—

- (a) agrees with, or induces or attempts to induce any member of the Force to neglect or to act in conflict with his duty as a member of the Force, or
- (b) who is a party to, or aids or abets, or incites to the commission of, any act whereby any lawful order given to any member of the Force or any law or regulation with which it is the duty of any member of the Force to comply may be evaded or infringed, or
- (c) who supplies or is a party to supplying any member of the Force with intoxicating liquor when such member is on duty and prohibited by regulations or instructions from receiving or taking intoxicating liquor, shall be guilty of an offence.

Aiding or inducing member of Force to dereliction of duty.

12 Any member of the Force who fails without just cause (the proof whereof shall lie upon him) to attend at any time or place lawfully appointed by proper authority for instruction, training or exercise shall be guilty of an offence. Failure to attend training in Force.

13 Any member of the Force who, without proper authority and permission, gives, sells, pledges, lends, or otherwise disposes of any arms, ammunition, accoutrements, clothing, supplies or any other article entrusted to or held by him for the service of the Force shall be guilty of an offence, and, in addition to any other penalty which may be imposed under this Ordinance, he may be ordered by the court convicting him to make good the loss or deficiency caused by such gift, sale, pledge, loan or other disposition. Wrongful disposal of property.

14 Any person who on discharge from the Force fails or neglects to render up any arms, ammunition, accoutrements, clothing, supplies or other article supplied to him as a member of the Force on demand being made to him by the proper authority shall be guilty of an offence, and in addition to any other penalty which may be imposed under this Ordinance he may be ordered by the court convicting him to make good the loss or deficiency caused by such failure or neglect. Wrongful detention of property.

15 (1) Any person who is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance shall, on conviction after summary trial before a Police Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, and in default of payment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months. Penalties.

(2) Any member of the Force who is convicted of an offence under section 13 of this Ordinance may, in addition to or in lieu of any other penalty, be committed to detention at any depot, training camp or station of the Force, for the purpose of undergoing instruction, training or exercise during such detention ; and any member of the Force who, having been committed to detention under this sub-section escapes therefrom or fails to return thereto or fails properly to carry out the instruction, training or exercise given under such detention, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month : Provided that in the committal of an offender to detention under this sub-section the period of detention shall not necessarily be continuous, nor shall it exceed in any one sentence of commitment, a total number of days' detention in excess of twice the total number of days on which such member has unlawfully failed to attend the instruction, training or exercise.

16 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.

“ actual service ” has the same meaning as in the Royal Naval Reserve Volunteer Act, 1859, of the Imperial Parliament as incorporated in the Naval Forces Act, 1903, of the Imperial Parliament ;

22 Vic., c. 40.
3 Ed. VII. c. 6.

“ Force ” means the Ceylon Naval Volunteer Force raised under this Ordinance.

17 The Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve Ordinance, No. 15 of 1934, is hereby repealed. Repeal.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to repeal the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve Ordinance, No. 15 of 1934, and to substitute therefor a measure which has been drawn on the lines of a model supplied by the Secretary of State. As this model was received after the introduction of the original Ceylon Bill in the State Council, it was decided that the Bill should be proceeded with and not withdrawn particularly as it reproduced the material provisions of an Ordinance enacted by the Legislature of Kenya.

2. In his comments on the Ceylon Ordinance of 1934, the Secretary of State has pointed out that the position in regard to the Kenya Ordinance had to be regularised by an ex post facto Order in Council because he was advised that the creation in a colony of a Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve before the prior establishment therein of a Naval Volunteer Force may be considered to be repugnant to the provisions of section 2 of the Colonial Naval Defence Act, 1931, (21 Geo. V., ch. 9) which provides that when the Legislature of a Colony has made provision for raising a Force for the naval defence of the Colony within its territorial waters, that Legislature, with the approval of His Majesty in Council, can further provide that the members of that Force may, subject to stipulated conditions, form part of the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve.

3. The Secretary of State therefore suggests the repeal of the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve Ordinance, No. 15 of 1934, and the enactment in its place of a measure based on the model supplied by the Colonial Office in order to secure uniformity in the form of colonial legislation and in order to avoid a possible conflict with the provisions of the Imperial Statute.

4. This Bill accordingly reproduces those provisions of the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve Ordinance, No. 15 of 1934, which relate to the establishment of a Defence Force and omits all reference to the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve. When, after the enactment of this measure, the necessary approval of His Majesty in Council has been received, steps will be taken to introduce in the State Council a second Bill for the purpose of enabling members of the Ceylon Naval Defence Force to be enlisted as a local unit of the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve.

An Ordinance to empower the Lord Bishop of Colombo as Trustee of " The Frederick Dias Abeysinghe Orphanage ", to sell the immovable property held by him as such Trustee.

WHEREAS Frederick Dias Abeysinghe Mudaliyar and Johanna de Saram (consorts) late of Galle deceased by their Last Will and Testament dated the third day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven and attested by Edwin Roland Anthonisz of Galle, Notary Public, which was duly proved and admitted to Probate in Testamentary Proceedings No. 3008 of the District Court of Galle, bequeathed to the Right Reverend Father in God, Reginald Stephen, by Divine Permission, Lord Bishop of Colombo, and his successors in the said See for ever, the whole of their real and personal estate whatsoever, wheresoever and of what nature or kind soever In Trust to use the income, issues, rents and profits thereof for the endowment and maintenance of an Orphanage for boys, to be called " The Frederick Dias Abeysinghe Orphanage " to be conducted and maintained in the manner and subject to the conditions in the said Will set out, and directed, inter alia, that the immovable property found in their said estate (except as in the said Will excepted) should for ever remain unsold, the issues, rents and profits thereof being devoted to the maintenance of the said Orphanage.

And whereas presently the Right Reverend Mark is, by Divine Permission, the Lord Bishop of Colombo, in succession to the previous Lord Bishops of Colombo, and holds the said immovable properties, in trust as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said will.

And whereas the immovable properties subject to the said Trust, which are situated in the Districts of Galle, Matara and Hambantota in the Southern Province of this Island, are numerous and have become inconvenient and difficult to manage, and it is necessary and expedient to sell the same.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as “ The Frederick Dias Abeyasinghe Orphanage Ordinance, No. of 1936 ”.

2 It shall be lawful for, and the power is hereby granted to, the said The Right Reverend Mark, Lord Bishop of Colombo, and his successors as such Bishop, as Trustee as aforesaid, at his absolute discretion, to sell all or any of the said immovable property subject to the said Trust created by the said will, and the buildings thereon respectively, if any, together or in parcels, by public auction or private contract, with power to make any special conditions as to title or evidence of title or otherwise, and with power to buy in the premises at any public sale, or to rescind, either on terms or gratuitously, any contract, or to resell without being answerable for any consequent loss, and to convey and assign the premises respectively so sold to the purchaser or purchasers thereof absolutely, freed and discharged of and from all and every the trusts, terms and conditions in the said Will contained concerning the same, and to apply the proceeds of such sale, or any part thereof, in the purchase of other suitable immovable property, or to invest such proceeds, or any part thereof, in the name, or under the legal control, of the said The Right Reverend Mark, Lord Bishop of Colombo, or of his successors as such Bishop, as Trustee as aforesaid, in any of the securities on which trustees are empowered by the law for the time being in force in this Island to invest trust money, with power for the said The Right Reverend Mark, Lord Bishop of Colombo, or for his successors as such Bishop, at his discretion, from time to time, and whenever and as often as it may be considered expedient, to sell any immovable property purchased as aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, in the same manner and on the same terms and subject to the same powers and conditions hereby granted, and to apply the proceeds or any part thereof as soon as may be convenient, in the purchase of other suitable immovable property, or to invest the proceeds, or any part thereof, in the manner hereby authorised, and to vary or transpose all or any of the said investments from time to time for or into any other or others of the nature hereby authorised. Provided that all such other immovable property purchased out of the proceeds of any such sale, and all such investments made out of the proceeds of any such sale, shall be held in trust by The Right Reverend Mark, Lord Bishop of Colombo, and by his successors as such Bishop, for the purposes and subject to the terms and conditions in the said Will declared and contained.

3 It shall be lawful for, and the power is hereby granted to, the said The Right Reverend Mark, Lord Bishop of Colombo, and to his successors as such Bishop, to manage, cultivate and carry on such immovable property that may be purchased as aforesaid, in such manner as the said The Right Reverend Mark, Lord Bishop of Colombo, or his successors as such Bishop, shall in their absolute discretion think fit, and, for that purpose, at any time and from time to time, to employ and pay superintendents, and other agents, agricultural or commercial, and to discharge or to discontinue such superintendents and other agents, to enter into any arrangement or agreement with any person or persons or corporation or company for the cultivation and upkeep of the same and for the curing, transmission and sale of the crops and produce thereof, and for the remuneration of such person or persons or company acting in that behalf, and, for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, to appropriate the income from such immovable property or investments or any part thereof, to raise money on the said immovable property purchased as aforesaid, or the said investments made as aforesaid, by mortgaging, or assigning by way of mortgage or pledge, the same or any part thereof to any person or persons or company, and, out of the rents, issues and profits of the said immovable property purchased as aforesaid, or of any part thereof, or the income from the said investments, or any part thereof, after payment of all necessary outgoings and expenses, to pay or reduce from time to time the mortgage debts due upon the same, and to mortgage and hypothecate such immovable property purchased as aforesaid or any part thereof, or the said investments, or any part thereof, for the purpose of paying off the mortgage debts due thereon respectively.

4 Nothing in this Ordinance shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs, and Successors.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The late Frederick Dias Abeysinghe Mudaliyar and his wife Johanna de Saram by their Last Will and Testament gave, devised and bequeathed to the Lord Bishop of Colombo and his successors as such Bishop all their movable and immovable property in trust, to use the income, issues, rents and profits thereof for the endowment and maintenance of an Orphanage for boys, to be called "The Frederick Dias Abeysinghe Orphanage", on the terms and conditions in the said Will set out. The Orphanage was duly established and still continues.

The Will provided that should the Trustee so desire, all or any of the lands subject to the trust, which are under the value of Rs. 500, ascertained by competent appraisal, may be sold and converted into money and funded as in the said Will provided, but the Will also provided that, save as aforesaid, the immovable property subject to the trust should for ever remain unsold, the issues, rents and profits thereof being devoted to the maintenance of the said Orphanage.

Forty-six immovable properties are now subject to the trust and they are scattered over three districts, namely the Districts of Galle, Matara and Hambantota. They vary in extent from 60 acres to a few perches.

Apart from the difficulty of finding suitable tenants His Lordship has found it inconvenient and expensive to supervise these properties and collect the rents.

In view of the provisions of the Will, this Ordinance is presented for passing in order to give the necessary power to the Lord Bishop and his successors to sell and dispose of any property subject to the trust, and apply the proceeds in the purchase of movable or immovable property to be held in trust on the same conditions as the property sold.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Registration of Documents Ordinance, No. 23 of 1927.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Registration of Documents Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1936.

Amendment of section 35 of Ordinance No. 23 of 1927.

2 Section 35 of the Registration of Documents Ordinance, No. 23 of 1927, is hereby amended in sub-section (1) thereof by the addition of the following proviso to that sub-section :—

"Provided that the Registrar-General may with like effect make such an order for the correction of any error or omission made in registering any such instrument if it is proved to his satisfaction by any person interested that by reason of the death or legal incapacity of any person or party whose written consent is required as aforesaid or for any other sufficient cause, such written consent cannot be obtained."

Objects and Reasons.

Under section 35 of the Registration of Documents Ordinance, No. 23 of 1927, any error or omission made in registering an instrument can be corrected only with the written consent of the parties in the case of a deed, of the executor in the case of a will, or of the person who presented it for registration in the case of any other instrument. The object of this amendment is to give the Registrar-General additional power to cause corrections to be made on the application of a party interested, where it is proved to his satisfaction that it is impossible to obtain the written consent of any person whose consent is required by reason of the death or legal incapacity of that person or for any other sufficient cause.
