THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ORDINANCE,
No. 11 of 1920.

BY-LAWS made by the Kurunegala Urban District Council under sections 164 and 168 (1) (a) of the Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920, and approved by the Local Government Board and confirmed by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 164 of the Ordinance and by Article 93 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931.

S. W. R. D. BANDARANAIKE,
Minister for Local Administration.

Colombo, November 26, 1936.

BY-LAWS REFERRED TO.

Meetings: Notice, Agenda, Quorum, &c.

1. (a) There shall be twelve General Meetings of the Council in every year for the transaction of business.

(b) The general meetings of the Council shall be held at the Council's meeting room at least once every month on such day and at such hour as the Council may from time to time resolve, or as soon after that hour as may seem expedient to the Chairman.

(c) A special meeting may be held at the place aforesaid on such date and at such hour as the Chairman shall for each such meeting specially appoint.

(d) Notice of every such meeting and of the business to be transacted at it shall be served on each Councillor at least three days—exclusive of Sundays and Government holidays—before the meeting.

(e) No business shall be brought before or transacted at any meeting, general or special, other than the business specified in the notice of the meeting, without the permission of the Council.

(f) No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of at least seven Councillors is present.

(g) If at any meeting there is not a sufficient number of Councillors present to form a quorum, the Chairman shall adjourn the meeting to such date not more than fifteen days after the date of the meeting so adjourned as he thinks fit, and the business which would have been brought before the meeting so adjourned, if there had been a quorum present, shall be brought before, and disposed of, at such adjourned meeting.

Adjournment of Meetings.

2. (a) The Chairman of any meeting, general or special at which a quorum of the Council is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time; but no business shall be transacted without the permission of the Council at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which such adjournment took place.

(b) Notice of an adjourned meeting shall be served on members at least twenty-four hours before the time fixed for such meeting unless the original meeting decides to hold the adjourned sitting within twenty-four hours.

Presence of Strangers.

3. Strangers, including the Press, may be present at meetings in the places set apart for them, but must withdraw when called upon to do so by the Chairman, when in the opinion of the majority of the members of the Council present at the meeting, expressed by resolution, such exclusion is deemed advisable in the public interest.

Order of Business.

4. The business of the Council shall be transacted in the following order:—

- (a) Confirmation of the minutes of the last preceding meeting.
- (b) Memorials, petitions, complaints, and communications addressed to the Council shall be laid before the Council.
- (c) Questions of which due notice has been given.
- (d) Motions of which due notice has been given.
- (e) Any other matter set down in the notice of the meeting in the order in which such matters are set out or in such order as the Council may for special reasons adopt.
- (f) Monthly statements of receipts and disbursements, progress reports of works, and such other documents as are required by the Council, shall be submitted to the Council.

Order of Precedence.

5. For all purposes connected with the Council, the precedence and seniority of Councillors shall be regulated as follows:—

After the Chairman shall rank the Vice-Chairman and then the Councillors in order of the priority of their nomination or election and in the case of former Councillors re-elected or renominated, of the priority of their continuous membership of Council (such continuous membership being deemed to be unimpaired during the absence of a nominated member for whom a temporary successor has been nominated).

Minutes.

6. The minutes of each meeting shall be circulated. At the next or some subsequent meeting the question shall be put that the minutes be taken as read and confirmed. In the absence of objection or correction, the minutes as recorded shall be confirmed.

Memorials, Petitions, &c.

7. (a) A member presenting a petition or memorial to the Council may state concisely the purpose of the petition or memorial.

(b) No member shall present any petition or memorial or other communication which is not respectful in tone throughout.

(c) It shall be competent for any member to move that such petition or memorial be read. In making such motion he shall state concisely his reasons for wishing to have it read.

(d) No debate shall be permitted on such motion, nor shall any other member speak upon or in relation to such petition or memorial, except to second the motion formally.

(e) Such motion being seconded, the question shall be put whether the petition or memorial shall be read.

Questions.

8. (a) Questions relating to the affairs of the Council may be put to the Chairman.

(b) At least seven clear days' notice—exclusive of Sundays and Government holidays—shall be given of such questions.

(c) A written reply shall be read by the Chairman to each question.

(d) No member shall address the Council upon any question, nor shall the terms of any question contain any argument or expression of opinion or statement of fact, except in so far as may be necessary to explain such question.

(e) Any member may put a supplementary question for the purpose of further elucidating any matter of fact regarding which an answer has been given.

Provided that the Chairman may disallow any supplementary question if, in his opinion, it infringes the rules as to the subject matter of questions, and in that case the question shall not appear on the record of the minutes of the Council.

Motions.

9. (a) Every notice of motion shall be in writing signed by the member of the Council giving the notice. Unless such notice has been in the hands of the Secretary seven clear days—exclusive of Sundays and Government holidays—before the meeting of Council, the motion may not be included in the agenda.

(b) All notices of motions shall be dated and numbered as received, and shall be entered by the Secretary upon the agenda in the order in which they are received.

(c) Before any notice of motion is placed on the agenda paper, it shall be submitted to the Chairman, who, if he be of opinion that it is out of order, shall order that such motion shall not be included in the agenda and shall cause the giver of the notice to be so informed.

(d) Every motion of which notice is given shall be relevant to some question affecting the administration of the Council's affairs.

(e) No motion to rescind any resolution which has been passed within the preceding six months, nor any motion to the same effect as any motion which has been negatived within the preceding six months, shall be deemed to be in order, unless notice thereof shall have been given and specified in the agenda, and the notice shall bear, in addition to the member who proposes the motion, the signatures of seven other members; and when such motion has been disposed of, it shall not be competent for any member to propose any similar motion within the period of six months next following.

(f) No motion shall be deemed to have been submitted for debate until it shall have been proposed and seconded.

(g) Any member may formally second a motion or amendment, without prejudice to his right to speak at a later period of the debate.

(h) Before any motion of which previous notice has not been given, is moved in Council, it shall be reduced to writing signed by the mover and handed to the Secretary.

(i) When a motion has been moved and seconded and the debate thereon concluded, the question thereupon shall be put to the vote by the Chairman.

Withdrawal of Motion or Amendment.

10. A member who has moved a motion or amendment may withdraw the same by leave of the Council, which shall be signified without debate, and it shall not be competent for any member to speak upon it after the mover has asked for permission for its withdrawal, unless such permission shall have been refused.

Reintroduction of Motion.

11. A motion which has been withdrawn may be moved again at any subsequent meeting; but no motion shall be proposed which is the same in substance as any motion which within the period of six months referred to in rule 9 (e) shall have been resolved in the affirmative or negative.

Amendments.

12. (a) Every amendment shall be in writing and handed to the Secretary by the member proposing it.

(b) Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion during the discussion of which it is moved.

(c) Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

(d) No amendment shall be discussed or put to the Council until it shall have been seconded.

(e) A member who has seconded an amendment in a formal manner shall be permitted afterwards to speak upon it.

(f) Whenever an amendment to any motion under discussion has been moved and seconded, no second or subsequent amendment shall be moved until the first amendment shall have been disposed of. If an amendment be carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion, and shall become the question upon which any further amendment may be moved.

Debate ceases when Question fully put.

13. No member may speak to any question after the same has been fully put by the Chairman. A question is fully put when the voting has been taken thereon.

Voting and Recording of Votes.

14. (a) The question shall be put by the Chairman, and the votes may be taken by a show of hands or by a secret ballot as the Council decides, and the result shall be declared by the Chairman; but in any case where the votes are taken otherwise than by secret ballot, any member may call for a division, and in that event the votes shall be taken by the Secretary asking each member separately, according to the order of precedence, how he desires to vote, and recording the votes accordingly.

(b) On any question being put, whether in Council or in Committee of the whole Council, every member present shall record his vote, either for the ayes or the noes.

Casting Vote of Chairman.

(c) The Chairman shall have an original vote in common with other members whether in Council or Committee of the whole Council, and also a casting vote if upon any question the votes are equal.

Members dissenting.

15. It shall be competent for any Councillor, who is in a minority, to record the reasons for his dissent from the opinion of the majority, and such written dissent, if sent to the Secretary within one week of the meeting in question, shall be entered by the Secretary at the end of his minutes of the proceedings.

Order of the Day.

16. The "Order of the Day" shall include all business, arranged according to rule No. 4. Unless otherwise resolved the business shall be taken in the order printed.

Preservation of Order.

17. (a) It shall be the duty of the Chairman to preserve order, and his decision on all disputed points of order shall be final.

(b) Any member of the Council deviating from the rules may be immediately called to order by the Chairman of his own motion or on any other member of the Council raising a point of order.

Decision of Questions of Order.

18. When the question of order has been stated, the member who raises it shall cease speaking, and no other member, except by leave of the Chairman, shall speak till the Chairman has decided the question, after which the member who was addressing the Council or Committee of the Council at the time the question was raised shall be entitled to proceed with his speech, if he conforms to the Chairman's ruling. If he does not conform, the Chairman may refuse to allow him to proceed with his speech.

Member not explaining or retracting.

19. Any member who fails to explain or to retract any objectionable words used by him, or to offer apologies for the use thereof to the satisfaction of the Council, may be censured or otherwise dealt with as the Council thinks fit.

Chairman speaking.

20. When the Chairman has expressed his desire to address the Council or Committee of the Council, any member then speaking shall immediately cease to speak.

Naming of Members.

21. (a) The Chairman may name any member immediately after the commission of the offence of disregarding the authority of the Chair, or of abusing the rules of the Council by persistently and wilfully obstructing the business of the Council, and the Chairman may forthwith put the question on a motion being made by any member or from the Chair (no amendment, adjournment, or debate being allowed) "that such member be suspended from the service of the Council".

(b) If any such motion be carried and any member be suspended under this rule, his suspension on the first occasion shall continue for one month, on the second occasion for two months, and on the third or subsequent occasion for three months.

(c) Not more than one member shall be named at the same time, unless several members present together have jointly disregarded the authority of the Chair.

(d) If any member or members acting jointly, who have been suspended under this rule from the service of the Council, shall refuse at any time during the period of suspension to obey the directions of the Chairman to withdraw from the precincts of the Council Chamber, the Chairman may direct such steps to be taken as are required to enforce his decision.

Irrelevance or Tedious Repetition.

22. The Chairman after having called the attention of the Council or Council in Committee to the conduct of a member who persists in irrelevance or tedious repetition, either of his own arguments or of the arguments used by other members in debate, may direct the member to discontinue his speech.

Disorderly Conduct.

23. (a) The Chairman may order members whose conduct is grossly disorderly to withdraw immediately from the Council Chamber during the remainder of the meeting, and may direct such steps to be taken as are required to enforce his order.

(b) If on any occasion the Chairman deems that his powers under this rule are inadequate he may name such member or members in pursuance of rule 21.

Duty to obey Order of Suspension or Withdrawal.

24. Members who are suspended under rule 21, or are directed to withdraw under rule 23, shall forthwith withdraw from the precincts of the Council Chamber.

Power to adjourn.

25. An adjournment of the discussion of any question may be moved by a Councillor at any time, and, if seconded, shall be forthwith put to the vote.

26. In the event of grave disorder arising at any meeting of the Council or Committee of the Council, the Chairman may, if he thinks it necessary to do so, adjourn the meeting without putting the question of adjournment to the house, or suspend the meeting for a time to be named by him.

Rules for Members speaking.

27. In speaking to any proposition under consideration of the Council or a Committee of the whole Council, the following rules shall be strictly observed:—

- (a) Every member shall address his observations to the Chairman.
- (b) No member, while he is speaking, shall be interrupted unless he is out of order.
- (c) When one member has finished his observations, any other member wishing to address the Council may speak.
- (d) A member shall not read his speech, but he may read extracts from written or printed papers in support of his argument.
- (e) If two members desire to speak, or speak at the same time, the Chairman shall call on the member who first catches his eye.
- (f) Every member shall confine his observations to the subject under consideration.
- (g) No member shall impute improper motives to any other member.
- (h) All remarks of a personal nature shall be avoided.
- (i) A member may speak to the question before the Council or any amendment proposed thereto.
- (j) No member shall speak more than once on any proposition before the Council, except in explanation or to order, or when the Council is in Committee, or as is provided by rule 12 (e).
- (k) By the indulgence of the Council, a member may explain matters of a personal nature, although there be no question before the Council, but such matters may not be debated, and he must confine himself strictly to the vindication of his own conduct.

- (l) The mover of any resolution or motion may reply after all the members present have had an opportunity of addressing the Council and before the question is put, but he shall strictly confine himself to answering previous speakers, and shall not introduce any new matter into the debate. The right of reply shall not extend to the mover of an amendment.

Committee of Council.

28. The Council may at any time resolve themselves into a committee of the whole Council, and, on their resuming, the result of their deliberations shall be dealt with by the Council.

29. It shall be competent for any member at any stage of any discussion in a committee of the whole Council to move that the Council do resume. The question shall be put to the vote by the Chairman, and if the motion is carried, the Council will immediately resume from committee.

Special Committees.

30. (a) The Council may from time to time appoint from among their own number such special or standing committees, consisting of such number of Councillors as they think fit for the purpose of inquiring into and reporting upon any matters connected with the purposes of the Local Government Ordinance.

(b) No such committee shall take any proceedings after the close of the year during which it shall have been so appointed as aforesaid.

(c) The quorum for the meetings of every such committee shall be three, unless otherwise specially fixed.

(d) In the absence of the Chairman at a meeting of any Committee, the members present shall choose one of their own members to preside, and such member shall for that meeting have all the powers of the Chairman.

(e) When a committee shall have agreed to a report the same shall be signed by each of the members thereof and shall, together with the minutes of proceedings, be submitted to the Council.

(f) In the event of any division taking place in a committee, a record thereof shall be entered in the minutes together with the motion or resolution proposed, the name of the proposer, and the respective votes of the members present, and such minutes shall be submitted with the report of such committee.

31. The Press shall be excluded from all meetings of special and standing committees.

THE HOUSING AND TOWN IMPROVEMENT ORDINANCE, No. 19 OF 1915.

BY-LAWS made by the Ambalangoda Urban District Council, under the provisions of section 27 of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance, No. 19 of 1915, and approved by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said section and by Article 93 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931.

S. W. R. D. BANDARANAIKE,
Minister for Local Administration.

Colombo, November 26, 1936.

BY-LAWS.

I.—Definitions.

In these by-laws, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"warehouse" means any building used mainly for the storing of goods or wares by merchants or traders, but does not include a shop, boutique, or other place used mainly for the sale of goods or wares by retail ;

"workshop" means any building where any work of making, altering, ornamenting, finishing or repairing articles or goods is carried on by manual labour for the purposes of trade ;

"factory" means any workshop where mechanical power of any kind is used.

II.—Residential Areas.

The area within the administrative limits of this Council defined in Schedule I. hereto is hereby declared to be a "residential area".

III.—New Buildings in Residential Areas.

1. (1) From and after the date on which these by-laws come into force no new building shall be erected within a residential area, except with the written permission of the Chairman of this Council, for the purpose of being used as a factory, workshop, or warehouse or as a boutique or as tenements, or as stables, galas, or cattle pens.

(2) Such permission may be refused or withheld by the Chairman unless or until the following conditions are fulfilled, namely :—

(a) that the site selected for such building is not in close proximity to existing residential buildings ;

(b) that the site selected is not situated in such a prominent place as to make the erection of the building likely to mar the amenities of the residential area ;

(c) in the case of a workshop, that the business or industry for which it is to be used is not likely to create any kind of nuisance whatsoever ;

(d) in the case of a shop or boutique, that the site selected will serve an area really in need of such conveniences, and that the design of the building will harmonize with the surroundings.

2. It shall be lawful for the Chairman by notice in writing to direct that an air-space of not less than 7½ feet be provided between each side of any new building and the boundary on that side irrespective of the question whether there are windows in the wall on that side of the building.

IV.—Existing Building in Residential Areas.

1. Within a residential area, except with the written permission of the Chairman—

(1) no building used for residential purposes at the date on which these by-laws come into force, shall be used for any other purpose whatsoever ;

(2) no building used at that date for the purpose of any one of the following, namely, a workshop, warehouse, boutique, tenement, stable, gala, or cattle pen, shall be used for any other of the said purposes ; and

(3) no building shall be used for any of the purposes set out in the foregoing paragraph of this by-law, if at that date it was not in actual use for that purpose.

2. (1) Within a residential area no building used as a factory, workshop, or warehouse, at the date on which these by-laws come into force, shall be enlarged, extended, or added to except with the written permission of the Chairman.

(2) Such permission shall be refused by the Chairman—

(a) in any case in which the building is used for the purposes of any of the dangerous or offensive trades enumerated in Schedule II. hereto ; and

(b) in any case where the boundaries of the premises on which the building stands have not been registered in the books of the Council within six months of the date on which these by-laws come into force.

3. Within a residential area no building shall be used for the purposes of any of the dangerous or offensive trades enumerated in Schedule II. hereto, unless it can be shown to have been in use for such purposes on the date on which these by-laws come into force.

V.—Penalties.

The chief occupier of any building who contravenes any of the provisions of the foregoing by-laws or any owner or occupier who fails to comply with any written notice or directions given by the Chairman thereunder shall be guilty of an offence in respect of each day during which such contravention or noncompliance continues, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Rs. 25 for each such offence.

SCHEDULE I.

NOTIFICATION UNDER "THE PATENTS ORDINANCE, 1906."

THE following Specifications have been accepted :—

No. 2,868 of December 5, 1935.

George Roper Thompson, Ivan Vlasto and Thomas Clark.

Improvements in or relating to tea rolling apparatus.

Abstract.—The invention consists in providing for the predetermined raising and lowering during rotation of the rolling element by means of a geared electric motor.

In the electrical unit is incorporated an overload release, and also means to automatically restart the motor after a predetermined interval.

There are three claims and three sheets of drawings.

No. 2,890 of April 15, 1936 (Date applied for under Section 48 of the Ordinance : May 7, 1932).

Ernst Bruno Nier, Ida Ella Adolph, Richard Woldemar Nier, Martha Helene Pross, and Johannes Curt Nier, trading in partnership as Hermann Nier.

Improvements in or relating to Hurricane Lanterns.

Abstract.—The invention consists in reducing the volume of the air space in the lantern thereby enabling the smaller lamp to be produced at a cheaper cost.

This is attained by decreasing the height of the lamp bringing the top closer to the flame. The top of the lamp is then heated to a higher temperature and a better draught is obtained within the lamp.

There are two claims and one sheet of drawings.

No. 2,919 of October 1, 1936.

Isaac David.

An improved two-way adapter with self-acting valves to fit Syringe for Medical and Surgical and Veterinary purposes.

Abstract.—The apparatus consists of a T-shaped glass tube. One end of the top of the T has a grooved end into which a syringe or other piece of apparatus can be inserted. The other end and the stem of the T contains a valve and to these ends a flexible tube may be attached.

There are four claims and one sheet of drawings.

Sale of Toddy Rents, 1936-37—Mullaittivu District.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Assistant Government Agent, Mullaittivu, will receive sealed tenders for the purchase subject to Toddy Rent Sale Conditions published in Government Gazette No. 8,214 of April 24, 1936, and General Conditions applicable to all Excise Licences published in Government Gazette No. 8,118 of May 3, 1935, as amended by Excise Notification No. 283 published in Government Gazette No. 8,214 of April 24, 1936, of the exclusive privilege of selling fermented toddy by retail in the under-mentioned taverns.

2. Every tender shall be made on blank tender forms which can be obtained at the Kachcheries at Mullaittivu, Jaffna. Mannar, Anuradhapura, Trincomalee, and Colombo ; the General Treasury, Colombo ; the Excise Head Office, Colombo ; the Excise Assistant Commissioner's Office, Jaffna ; and the Excise Superintendent's Office, Trincomalee.

3. The date and time of closing of tenders and the place at which the tenders will be received appear shown against each tavern.

4. A separate tender should be sent for each tavern and no person is permitted to send in more than one tender for any one tavern.

5. No tender will be considered unless the person making such tender is present in person. Tenders may be sent in by post or delivered at the Mullaittivu Kachcheri, but the envelopes must be sealed and marked on the left hand top corner with the name and number of the tavern in respect of which the tender is made.

6. Each tenderer should enclose a Treasury or Kachcheri receipt for a sum of Rs. 50 for fulfilment of the sale conditions. All such deposits should be in the name of the Assistant Government Agent, Mullaittivu, and will be liable to forfeiture if the successful tenderer fails to sign the conditions immediately he is declared the purchaser.

7. The Assistant Government Agent reserves to himself the right of rejecting any tender, or bid without assigning any reasons therefor. Any tender which contains an unauthenticated alteration will be rejected.

8. The Assistant Government Agent reserves to himself the right of rejecting any or all tenders and putting up the rents immediately to public auction if satisfactory tenders are not received.

9. Every person tendering is advised to produce at the time of sale a certificate from the Chief Headman of his division that he is a person eligible to be a purchaser.

10. The successful tenderer or bidder on being declared the purchaser shall immediately pay to the Assistant Government Agent, Mullaittivu, a sum equivalent to two months' rent as security deposit and sign the conditions of sale, and shall sign the contract furnishing the necessary stamps therefor.

11. The conditions of sale and any other required information may be obtained at the Mullaittivu Kachcheri.
