THE following telegrams received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies are published for general information:—

12th December, 1936.

Circular. Proclamation of His Majesty King George the Sixth was signed at Accession Council today. Immediately after the signature of the Proclamation His Majesty was pleased to make the following declaration. Begins.

Your Royal Highnesses, My Lords and Gentlemen; I meet you today in circumstances which are without parallel in the history of our country. Now that the duties of Sovereignty have fallen to me I declare to you my adherence to the strict principles of constitutional government and my resolve to work before all else for the welfare of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

With my wife as helpmeet by my side, I take up the heavy task which lies before me. In it I look for the support of all my peoples.

Furthermore, my first act on succeeding my brother will be to confer on him a Dukedom and he will henceforward be known as His Royal Highness the Duke of Windsor. Ends.

12th December, 1936.

Circular. The following messages have been addressed by His Majesty to—

(a) The Royal Navy begins.

On my Accession to the Throne I recall with pride that as my dear Father did before me I received my early training in the Royal Navy.

It has been my privilege to serve as a Naval Officer both in peace and in war; at Jutland the greatest sea battle of modern times I saw for myself in action the maintenance of those great traditions which are the inheritance of British Seamen.

It is my intention always to keep in closest touch with all ranks and ratings of the naval forces throughout the Empire and with all matters affecting them. I shall do so in the sure knowledge that they will be worthy of the implicit trust placed in them by their fellow countrymen and that in their hands the honour of the British Navies will be upheld.

GEORGE R.I.

Ends. (b) the Army begins.

On my Accession to the Throne I wish to assure all ranks of the Army that their welfare will be one of my chief concerns. It was a notable event in my life 4 years ago when my father appointed me a Major General in the Army and that association has only served to enhance my admiration for the courageous and efficient manner in which their duties however onerous they may prove are invariably undertaken.

The task that lies before me is fraught with difficulties but I know full well that the heavy burden of my responsibilities will be lightened by the faithful allegiance of all ranks of the military forces of the Crown throughout the Empire.

GEORGE R.I.

Ends. (c) the Royal Air Force begins.

On my Accession to the Throne, I hasten to assure the Air Forces at home and overseas that I Look forward to the maintenance of my close connection with them, which has been such a happy feature of my life ever since I became a junior officer in the Service in 1918, and served with the Independent Air Force in France.

As Air Chief Marshall, I have watched with keen appreciation the way in which the Service has proved more than equal to the many tasks which a rapid expansion has imposed upon it.

I know full well that the Air Forces of the Empire will maintain to the full the great traditions that they have already established, combining with highest efficiency and zeal a fine chivalry of service and a deep and steadfast loyalty.

GEORGE R.I.

Ends. (d) the Civil Service begins.

I desire on my Accession to the Throne, to express to all Grades of the Civil Service my appreciation of the ability and devotion with which they have always discharged their varied duties, whether at home or overseas:

The record of the British Civil Service is indeed unique and I recognise with satisfaction the great position which its members have won for themselves in the life of the Community. Its great traditions and those of the Dominions Services, of the Indian and Colonial Services, are well known to me, and I am sure I can depend on that spirit of steadfast devotion to duty which has at all times animated them.

Whatever difficulties may lie ahead, I know I can rely on their lasting loyalty.
