BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

A PROCLAMATION.

R. E. STUBBS.

KNOW Ye that in pursuance of the powers vested in Us by section 21 (2) of the Tea (Control of Export) Ordinance, No. 11 of 1933, We, the Governor of Ceylon, do, with the advice of the Executive Committee of Agriculture and Lands, by this Proclamation declare that the Ceylon quota of export for the period of assessment commencing on the first day of April, 1937, shall be 207,506,160 pounds of made tea, the said quantity being deemed to represent 82½ per centum of the quantity of made tea exported from the Island in the year 1929. .

By His Excellency's command,

G. M. RENNIE,
Secretary to the Governor.

Colombo, December 17, 1936.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

L. D.—B 64/35 J 8/II
BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

A PROCLAMATION.

R. E. STUBBS.

WHEREAS by section 28 of the Courts Ordinance, 1889, as amended by section 2 of Ordinance No. 8 of 1924, it is amongst other things enacted that Criminal Sessions of the Supreme Court shall be holden by one of the Judges thereof, or by a Commissioner of Assize duly appointed under the provisions of the said Ordinance, for each of the Circuits into which the Island is divided for the hearing, trying, and determining all prosecutions which shall be commenced against any person for or in respect of any crime or offence or alleged crime or offence :

For the Western Circuit, four times at least in each year at Colombo and such other places in such Circuit as the Governor, after previous consultation with the Judges, shall appoint, such Sessions commencing at Colombo on January 10, on March 20, on July 10, and on October 10, in every year :

And whereas it appears to Us expedient to order that a Criminal Sessions of the Supreme Court shall be holden on the day hereinafter mentioned at Kalutara, a place included within the said Western Circuit :

Now, therefore, know Ye that We, the Governor, for sufficient reasons to Us appearing, and after previous consultation with the Judges of the Supreme Court, do order and appoint that a Criminal Sessions of the Supreme Court shall be holden at Kalutara in the said Western Circuit on or about Monday, January 11, 1937.

By His Excellency's command,

G. M. RENNIE,
Secretary to the Governor.

Colombo, December 19, 1936.

GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATIONS.

J 52/36

THE following regulations, syllabus, and form of application for the Ceylon Civil Service Examination to be held in July, 1937, are published for information.

By His Excellency's command,

Chief Secretary's Office,
Colombo, December 22, 1936.

M. M. WEDDERBURN,
Acting Chief Secretary.

CADETSHIPS IN THE CEYLON CIVIL SERVICE.

Open Competition of 1937.

1. An Open Competitive Examination for Cadetships in the Ceylon Civil Service will be held by the Civil Service Commissioners concurrently in London and Colombo in July, 1937. The actual dates will be notified later.
2. The number of vacancies will be notified later.
3. Candidates for this examination must be natural born male British subjects either of Ceylonese descent on both sides or of mixed European and Ceylonese descent. The Governor may, however, grant a candidate who is a natural born British subject, normally resident in Ceylon and whose family connections and interests are in Ceylon, permission to sit for the examination. Candidates successful in the competition may be called upon to satisfy the Secretary of State for the Colonies that they fulfil the above requirements as regards descent.
4. Candidates must have attained the age of 22 and must not have attained the age of 24 on August 1, 1937.
5. Candidates are required to obtain a written nomination from the Governor. Candidates who propose to attend for examination in London should take steps to provide themselves in advance with that written nomination by application to the Chief Secretary's Office, Colombo, and it should be forwarded by them to the Civil Service Commissioners with their forms of application.
6. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they are duly qualified in respect of health and character. They must be of sound constitution, possessed of good sight and physically qualified for service in tropical climates and they will be called upon to undergo a strict medical examination to test these points.
7. A married candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a Ceylon Cadetship without the special consent of the Governor.
8. Further information respecting the examination to be held in London should be obtained from the Civil Service Commissioners.

The following regulations are applicable to candidates who wish to present themselves for examination in Colombo.

9. The fee for examination will be—
 - (a) Rs. 100 for the competitive examination which should be paid to the Examination Fund (No. 2) account of the Director of Education in the Chartered Bank of India, &c. See note 5 of application form. The bank receipt should be attached to the application form.
 - (b) Rs. 10·50 for the medical examination. Candidates will be notified later the manner in which this fee is to be paid.
10. Nominations to candidates sitting in Colombo will be limited to those who have passed the Honours or Pass Degree Examination of the University of London or any other public examination which may be deemed to be of an equally high standard.
11. Candidates who possess the necessary qualifications and who propose to sit for the examination in Colombo will, on application to the Chief Secretary, be supplied with copies of the Regulations, Syllabus, and Application Form.
12. Nominations for the examination will be considered on the receipt of the forms of application which must be filled in by the applicants in their own handwriting and must reach the Chief Secretary's Office on or before Monday, February 15, 1937.
13. No allegation that an application form or a letter respecting such form has been lost or delayed in the post can be considered. Candidates who delay their applications until the last days will do so at their own risk.
14. Acknowledgments of application forms are sent and any candidate who has filled up and returned the printed application form but has not received an acknowledgment of it within a reasonable time should at once write to the Chief Secretary, Colombo. Failure to comply with this provision will deprive the candidate of any claim to consideration.
15. Candidates will be notified as soon as possible of the dates and place fixed for their visu voce test; the time table of the written part of the examination is likely to be sent early in July to the address given on the form of application and will contain instructions as to the time and place at which candidates are to attend.

Note.—Information as to the salary and conditions of service on which these appointments will be made can be obtained on application to the Chief Secretary.

APPLICATION FORM.

For the use of candidates seeking admission to the Competitive Examination to be held in Colombo in July, 1937, for appointment to Cadetships in the Ceylon Civil Service.

Note 1.—This form is only for the use of Ceylonese candidates desiring to be examined at Colombo; a separate form is issued for candidates who desire to be examined in London.

Note 2.—This form is to be filled up and returned to the Chief Secretary, Colombo, in time for delivery on or before February 15, 1937. No application form received after that date will be accepted.

A candidate who fills up and returns this application form and does not receive an acknowledgment of it within a reasonable time should inform the Chief Secretary.

Note 3.—Candidates should, by consulting the regulations, make certain that they are eligible to compete and that their selection of subjects conforms with the regulations. No scrutiny of the information which is given on this sheet is made by the Chief Secretary or the Civil Service Commissioners before the examination.

Note 4.—Should any of the particulars furnished by candidates be found to be false within their knowledge they will, if appointed, be liable to be dismissed; and, if otherwise entitled to superannuation allowance they will forfeit all claim thereto. The wilful suppression of any material fact will be similarly penalized.

Note 5.—The fee for the examination will be Rs. 100 which should be paid to the Examination Fund (No. 2) account of the Director of Education in the Chartered Bank of India, &c. A form for this purpose is annexed. The Bank receipt should be annexed to the application form. The full fee is returned to candidates who are not granted nominations to sit for the examination. Candidates who withdraw after receiving a nomination will in any circumstance forfeit a sum of Rs. 27.

Greek Literature (60), may be taken only by candidates who offer Greek Translation (57), Latin Literature (64) only by those who offer Latin Translation (61), and Buddhist Civilization (89) only by those who offer Pali Language (88).

In subjects 68 to 87 the history or literature paper associated with a language may be taken only by candidates who offer the language itself for examination.

A candidate who offers one or more of the subjects French History (68), German History (71), Spanish or Italian History (74), Russian History (77), may not offer either subject 7 (European History, Period 1 or Period 2) or subject 8 (European History, Period 3).

4. A candidate desiring to offer Experimental Psychology (22), or any of the subjects 37 to 48 must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of laboratory training in an institution of university rank. For Astronomy (36), Engineering (49), Geography (50), and the Physical Anthropology branch of Special Anthropology (52), other equivalent training will be required. There will be no laboratory test as part of the examination.

5. From the marks assigned to candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that no credit be allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

6. Moreover, if a candidate's handwriting is not easily legible a further deduction will, on that account, be made from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.*

Civil Service Commission,
October, 1936.

A syllabus defining in general terms the character of the examination in the various subjects of the revised scheme is also published in this Gazette.

SYLLABUS.

To come into force for the examination of 1937.

SECTION A.

1. Essay.—An essay to be written on one of several specified subjects.
2. English.—A paper of questions to test the understanding of English and the workmanlike use of words. An optional exercise in the writing of verse will be included.
3. Present Day.—Questions on contemporary subjects, social, economic, political, and scientific. A liberal choice of questions will be given.
4. Viva Voce.—The candidate will be interviewed by a Board who will have before them a record of his (or her) career. He will be asked questions on matters of general interest. The object of the interview is to enable the Board to assess his suitability for each of the Services for which he is entered, and in framing their assessment the Board will attach particular importance to his intelligence and alertness, his vigour and strength of character, and his potential qualities of leadership.

SECTION B.

HISTORY. Subjects 5-8.—Candidates should know something of the original authorities, and have such a knowledge of geography as is necessary to the proper understanding of the history.

When a fixed date is given for the beginning of the period, candidates will be expected to know in general outline how the initial position was reached; similarly, when a fixed date is given for the end of the period, candidates will be expected to have some knowledge of the subsequent development of movements which continued beyond the period.

5, 6. British History.—Period 1, to 1660; Period 2, 1660 to the present day. The subject will deal with the life of the people as a whole, political, economic, social, literary, artistic, scientific, with the main stress on the political and economic aspects. Candidates will be expected to know so much of European history as will make the external action of this country fully intelligible and will explain those movements at home which had their beginnings abroad, e.g., the Renaissance, the Reformation, and the reactions in this country of the French Revolution. Questions on Scottish history will be set, but such questions will be optional. In subject 6 the outstanding incidents and movements in the history of British possessions will be included.

7, 8. European History.—Period 1, from 400 to 1494; Period 2, from 1494 to 1763; Period 3, from 1763 to the present day. The political, economic, social, literary, artistic, scientific aspects will all be included. The history of the United States of America, of India, and of the Far East will be included in so far as it influences European fortunes to an important degree.

9, 10. Private Law.—Part 1, the law of real and personal property (including the law of succession). Part 2, contracts and torts. This subject is confined to English law.

11. Jurisprudence.—Theories as to the nature of law, including the theory of sovereignty. The sources of law and its development, with particular reference to English and Roman law. The character and classification of rights and duties (legal and equitable). The analysis of the leading conceptions employed in law.

12. Constitutional Law.—The constitutional law of the United Kingdom, including the relations between the United Kingdom and other parts of the British Empire.

* It is notified for general information that the number of marks deducted for bad handwriting may be considerable.

13. Roman Law.—Roman private law and its history studied in connexion with the Institutes of Gaius and Justinian, including the history of the legislative and judicial processes. Passages will be set for translation and comment, but credit will not be given merely for capacity to translate the texts.

14. International Law.—Public international law.

15, 16, 17. Metaphysics.—Paper 1, a general problem paper. Paper 2, questions on the period from Descartes to Kant, both included. Paper 3, questions on ancient philosophy and post-Kantian philosophy; this paper will be arranged in such a way that a candidate can, if he wishes, confine himself to Plato and Aristotle among the ancient philosophers or to post-Kantian philosophy.

18, 19. Moral Philosophy.—Paper 1, a general problem paper. Paper 2, a paper on ancient and modern philosophy arranged in such a way that a candidate can, if he wishes, confine himself to either.

20. Logic.—The subject will be interpreted in a wide sense. Epistemology in its bearing on logical problems will be included, together with formal logic and scientific method. Questions may be set on mathematical logic, i.e., on the logic of mathematics, symbolic logic, and the logic of probability; and also on the history of logic. A considerable choice of questions will be given.

21. Psychology.—Questions on the history of the subject may be included.

22. Experimental Psychology.—A candidate who desires to offer this subject must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of laboratory training in an institution of university rank.

23. Political Theory.—Candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of political theory and its history, including the theory of the state in its relation to kindred studies such as ethics, economics, and political history. A knowledge of the original authorities will be expected. A wide choice of questions will be given so that full credit can be obtained by candidates who confine themselves to the period beginning with the French Revolution.

24. Political Organization.—This will include constitutional forms (representative government, federalism, &c.) and public administration, central and local. The history of institutions is not included, but candidates will be expected to know the earlier stages from which existing institutions have developed.

25. International Relations.—The subject includes the study of the relations both between governments and between peoples, and of the principles underlying their development; in particular, the study, in connexion with twentieth-century history, of the machinery and processes of international co-operation, including the organization and activities of the League of Nations and other international bodies. A knowledge of the original authorities will be expected.

26. General Economics.—Economic theory in general. Candidates will be expected to illustrate theory by facts and to analyse problems by the help of theory. The history of economic thought will be included.

27. Industry and Trade.—The organization of industry and trade; the economic theories and practical problems involved.

28. Money, Banking, and Exchange.—Systems of currency, banking, foreign exchanges; the theories and problems involved.

29. Public Finance.—The subject will deal with matters connected with the raising and spending of revenue and loans by Governments (central and local).

30. Social Economics.—The economic aspect of matters affecting labour and social welfare, including social structure and legislation, with special reference to Great Britain.

31. Economic History.—Questions will be set on the economic history of England up to 1700; but the main stress will be on the economic development of Great Britain since 1700. So much knowledge of developments in the other parts of the Empire British, in the Continent of Europe and in the United States of America will be expected as is necessary to the full understanding of British economic history. A wide choice of questions will be given so that full credit can be obtained by candidates who confine themselves to the period since 1700.

32. Economic Statistics.—Elementary methods of handling numerical data. Tabulation. Frequency distributions, averages, deviations. Graphic methods, applied to groups and to time series. Simple interpolation. Index-numbers.

Some knowledge of the nature of the statistical data available from British sources and the principal statistical publications of the League of Nations, in relation to prices, wages, incomes, trade, transport, production, consumption, population, births, deaths, marriages, migration, and of the methods usually applied to analysis of such data.

Elements of the mathematical theory of statistics, with special reference to economic and sociological problems. The mathematical treatment of frequency groups and of time series. The more elementary parts of the method of correlation. Sampling, and measurement of the precision of its results. Such formulas as Pareto's for income and the logarithmic curve. Application of statistical methods to the analysis of elasticity of demand and other theoretical economic concepts.

33. Lower Pure Mathematics.—Geometry of two and three dimensions, synthetic and analytical; a specialized knowledge of particular curves and surfaces will not be required. Descriptive geometry. The method of vectors.

Algebra and trigonometry, including series, complex numbers, the numerical solution of equations.

Infinitesimal calculus of real variables, including development in series, partial differentiation, multiple integrals ordinary differential equations, with applications to geometry.

No great skill will be expected in solving complicated problems of an elementary character. The questions will involve the use of drawing instruments.

34. Lower Applied Mathematics.—Statics, hydrostatics, dynamics, elementary theory of electricity and magnetism, including the induction of currents. The questions will be of an elementary character, but will not be confined to two dimensions; they will involve the use of the calculus. Candidates are free to use differential equations, but a knowledge thereof will not be necessary to answer the questions. Attention will be paid to problems which arise naturally and to general principles; artificial problems will be avoided. The questions will involve the use of drawing instruments.

35. Higher Mathematics.—

(1) Geometry, including differential geometry and tensor calculus.

(2) Analysis, including the elements of the theory of functions of real and complex variables.

(3) The calculus of observations, including probability, and the solution of differential and finite difference equations.

(4) Mechanics, including the elementary mechanics of fluids, but excluding elastic solids, the whole being treated from a physical standpoint.

(5) The classical theory of electricity and physical optics.

(6) Thermodynamics. The elements of the quantum theory and the theory of relativity.

Two question papers will be set. In each of them all sections of the syllabus will be represented and in each paper the same number of questions will be set on each section. There will be no restriction on the candidate's choice of questions; he can, however, obtain full credit by confining himself to any two of the sections.

36. Astronomy.—General and spherical astronomy, and the elements of astrophysics, including instruments and observatory practice.

A candidate who desires to offer this subject must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of at least 20 hours' practical training in an observatory.

NATURAL SCIENCE. Subjects 37-48.—The standard of the higher division of a science will be that which is required in the main subject for an honours degree at the universities. The standard for the lower division of a science will be that required in a subject subsidiary to the main subject whether required at the final degree examination or at a preceding examination.

A candidate who desires to offer a science must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of laboratory training in that science in an institution of university rank; the period of training required is one academic year, whether the candidate offers the higher division of the science or the lower division or both divisions.

43. Lower Geology. } Mineralogy will be included in each division.

44. Higher Geology. }

49. Engineering.—Strength of materials; theory of structures; mechanism and dynamics of machines; heat and thermodynamics; hydraulics, including hydraulic machines; electrical technology.

Candidates will be expected to be familiar with graphical methods and to have some skill in drawing.

A candidate who desires to offer Engineering must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of training for at least one academic year in an institution of university rank.

50. Geography.—Geography as understood in the universities, not excluding topics which concern geography jointly with other subjects such as economics, history, physics, botany and geology. There will be a practical test which will necessitate a knowledge of cartographical methods and notations, and for this test drawing instruments may be required.

A candidate who desires to offer this subject must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of training for at least one academic year in an institution of university rank.

51. General Anthropology.—The study of human cultures, notably in their simpler forms, and the analyses of such cultures into their component aspects: social organization, economics including technology, education, political systems, law, magico-religious ideas and practices, games and recreation, knowledge, language, art; the analysis should include the common elements in human institutions, customs, and beliefs, and the specific variations characteristic of individual cultures. The application of anthropological knowledge to practical affairs: in administration and economic co-operation; in missionary and educational work. The candidate will be expected to have some comparative knowledge of anthropological methods and of anthropological theories, including for example the concepts of evolution, diffusion, function, and the influence of environment.

52. Special Anthropology.—Candidates will choose between Social Anthropology and Physical Anthropology.

Social Anthropology.—The social organization of human societies, with special reference to primitive societies at various stages of development and the effect of the modern conditions of world-wide contact of races and the spread of cultural ideas upon such organization. The constitution of domestic groups, wider kinship units, local communities and tribal systems. Political organization, including problems of leadership, tribal councils, rank; the working of law and the administration of justice. Economic organization of primary pursuits and industries; types of distribution, exchange, consumption and land tenure. Educational methods, native and introduced, including the influence of the family; professional and technical instruction, initiation, age-grades, apprenticeship in occupational groups. Early forms of magico-religious beliefs and ritual in their sociological aspect: ancestor-worship, totemism, conceptions of the soul, eschatology, beliefs in mana, magic, and witchcraft. Tradition, oral or written, in its influence upon the collective behaviour of the group. Apart from a general knowledge of the literature candidates will be expected to have an acquaintance, first hand or from written sources, with at least one ethnographic area.

Physical Anthropology, with which are included prehistoric archæology and technology. Candidates will be expected to have such knowledge as may be acquired by laboratory and museum work, consisting mainly in the handling and study of specimens and exhibits. The subject will be treated with special, but not exclusive, reference to peoples of rude culture, including prehistoric civilizations.

A candidate who desires to offer Physical Anthropology must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of training in an institution of university rank.

53. Old and Middle English.—Candidates should be prepared to show a first-hand knowledge of some of the following works:—the principal anonymous monuments of Old English verse, the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle; the Ancrene Wisse, the Owl and the Nightingale, Havelock, Sir Gawain and the Green Knight; and of some part of the work or works of Cynewulf, Ælfric, Layamon, Langland, Gower, Chaucer. Questions will be set relative to these works and authors, and to other matters of literary history in the period.

Questions on the history of the language will be included, but will not be compulsory.

54, 55. English Literature.—Period 1, 1350 to 1700; Period 2, from 1660. Candidates should be prepared to show a first-hand knowledge of some of the works of the following authors and of their place in the history of their country:—

PERIOD 1.

Chaucer	Spenser	Jonson	Milton
Malory	Shakespeare	Donne	Bunyan
Marlowe	Bacon

PERIOD 2.

Dryden	Fielding	Byron	Thackeray
Congreve	Johnson	Jane Austen	Dickens
Defoe	Burke	Wordsworth	Tennyson
Swift	Goldsmith	Coleridge	Browning
Addison	Burns	Shelley	Matthew Arnold
Pope	Scott	Keats

Questions on other writers will not be excluded, but, on the whole, the questions will be directed to the best-known authors and their best-known works. Candidates should know so much of the history as is necessary to understand the literature in its relation to other activities of the nation.

Questions will be set on the history of the language, but will not be compulsory.

56. Welsh Civilization.—A general knowledge of the political, social and literary history of Wales from 1100 A.D. to the present day. Candidates will also be required to show a special knowledge of the literature of the period 1350 to 1650, and of the history of the period 1700 to the present day. Candidates will be required to write some of their answers in Welsh.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES AND CIVILIZATIONS.—Subjects 57–89.—Greek Literature (60) may be taken only by candidates who offer Greek Translation (57), Latin Literature (64) only by those who offer Latin Translation (61), and Buddhist Civilization (89) only by those who offer Pali Language (88). In subjects 68–87 the history or literature paper associated with a language may be taken only by candidates who offer the language itself for examination.

A candidate who offers one or more of the subjects French History (68), German History (71), Spanish or Italian History (74), Russian History (77), may not offer either subject 7 (European History, Period 1 or Period 2) or subject 8 (European History, Period 3).

In history candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of the original authorities. They must also have such a knowledge of geography as is necessary to the proper understanding of the history. In literature candidates will be expected to have a first-hand knowledge of the authors. Passages of literature may be set for comment on matters of social, literary, and historical interest. In French, German, Spanish, Italian, Russian, questions on philology and the older forms of the languages will be set, but will not be compulsory. The papers in both history and literature will deal with the life of the people as a whole, literary, political, social, economic, artistic, scientific.

58. Greek Composition.—The paper will be so arranged that candidates may confine themselves to prose composition or to verse composition, or, if they prefer, may take some prose and some verse.

59. Greek History.—The main stress will be on the period 510 B.C. to 323 B.C.; but candidates will be given an opportunity of showing knowledge of the period before 510 B.C.

62. Latin Composition.—As for Greek.

63. Roman History.—The outlines of the history and development down to 180 A.D. should be known; but the main stress will be laid on the period 133 B.C. to 117 A.D.

65, 66. Classical Archæology.—Paper 1, Greek and Roman sculpture and architecture. Paper 2, Greek coins down to 322 B.C., Roman coins down to 98 A.D.; Greek vases; Greek and Roman painting. A considerable choice of questions will be given in each paper.

67. French Language.—Translation, free composition, set composition, conversation.
68. French History.—The outlines of the history prior to 1589 should be known; the period from 1589 to 1660 in somewhat more detail; but the main stress will be on the period from 1660 to the present day.
70. German Language.—As for French. For German composition candidates may use either German or English characters.
71. German History.—In history candidates should know in outline the history of the Medieval Empire, of the growth of the German cities, of the Reformation in Germany, and of the Thirty Years War; but the main stress will be on the period from the accession of Frederick the Great to the present day.
73. Spanish, Italian, Language.—As for French.
74. Spanish History.—The main stress will be on the periods from the Union of Castile and Aragon under Ferdinand and Isabella to the liberation of the Netherlands, and again from 1800 to the present day.
- Italian History*.—The main stress will be on the 15th century and the first half of the 16th century, and again on the period from 1789 to the present day. Sufficient should be known of the earlier period to understand the position of the Pope and the Emperor in Italy, and the rise of the towns.
76. Russian Language.—As for French.
77. Russian History.—Only the broadest outlines of the history prior to Peter the Great will be required; the period from the accession of Peter the Great to 1800 should be known in somewhat more detail; but the main stress will be on the period from 1800 to the present day.
79. Arabic Language.—Translation, free composition, set composition, conversation. The examination will be in the modern language.
- 80, 81. Arabic History, Arabic Literature.—The main stress in both history and literature will be on the period from the middle of the 6th century A.D. to the middle of the 13th century A.D.
82. Persian Language.—Translation, free composition, set composition, conversation. The examination will be in the modern language.
- 83, 84. Persian History, Persian Literature.—The main stress in both history and literature will be on the period 1000 r.d. to 1500 A.D. Candidates will be expected to have a general knowledge of the history of Persia before 1000 A.D. and from 1500 A.D. to the present time.
85. Sanskrit Language. (For the Indian and Ceylon Civil Services only)—Translation, prose composition, and questions on Vedic and Sanskrit grammar. Both Vedic and classical Sanskrit passages will be set for translation; composition will be required in classical Sanskrit alone.
- 86, 87. Indian History, Sanskrit Literature. (For the Indian and Ceylon Civil Services only)—The history of the civilization and thought of India and Sanskrit literature from the Vedic period to 1200 A.D.
88. Pali Language. (For the Ceylon Civil Service only)—Translation from Pali, prose composition in Pali, questions on Pali grammar.
89. Buddhist Civilization. (For the Ceylon Civil Service only)—Pali literature and the history of Buddhist civilization and the growth of ideas in Buddhism from the time of the Buddha to 1800 A.D. in India, Ceylon, Burma, and Siam.

DUTY ON TODDY DRAWN UNDER THE TREE TAX SYSTEM IN THE JAFFNA DISTRICT OF THE NORTHERN PROVINCE.

IT is hereby notified that on and after January 1, 1937, the tree tax licence in the Jaffna District will be issued in accordance with the resolution under section 21 of the Excise Ordinance, No. 8 of 1912, passed by the State Council on May 13, 1936, and set out hereunder.

Excise Notifications No. 220 published in the Gazette No. 7,854 of May 15, 1931, No. 268 published in Gazette No. 8,086 of October 26, 1934, and No. 272 published in Gazette No. 8,096 of December 21, 1934, are hereby rescinded with effect from January 1, 1937.

The Ministry of Home Affairs,
Colombo, December 1, 1936.

D. B. JAYATILAKA,
Minister for Home Affairs.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO.

This Council resolves under section 21 of the Excise Ordinance, No. 8 of 1912, that with effect from the 1st day of January, 1937, there shall be levied, on all toddy manufactured from palmyra and coconut trees in the Jaffna District under any licence issued for the purposes of the Tree Tax System, a duty calculated at the rates and in the manner set out hereunder; and such duty is hereby imposed, with effect from the date aforesaid, in lieu of any duty leviable on toddy by virtue of any resolution under that section heretofore passed by the Legislative Council or this Council, in respect of any local area of the Jaffna District.

Rates and Mode of Calculation of Duty.

1. The duty payable on each unit of toddy for any licensing period or part thereof, in the several local areas of the Jaffna District set out in column (1), shall be at the rates set out in the corresponding entry in column (2) :—

(1) Local Areas.	(2) Rate per unit of toddy drawn from a male palmyra tree.		a female palmyra tree.		a coconut tree.
	Rs.	c.	Rs.	c.	Rs.	c.

Subject to the following conditions ———— residing at ———— is hereby licensed to draw fermented or unfermented toddy from the trees mentioned in the schedule hereto, and to possess or sell such toddy from the date hereof (a) in respect of the palmyra trees mentioned in the said schedule, until the 31st day of December next following the date hereof, and (b) in respect of the coconut trees mentioned in the said schedule, until the 30th day of June next following the date hereof.

Conditions.

1. (1) In pursuance of this licence no tree shall be tapped, no toddy shall be drawn from any tree, and no pot shall be attached to any toddy-producing tree, until that tree has been marked by an Excise Officer or Headman.

(2) In any land where licensed trees are situated, no licensee shall place, or cause or permit any other person to place, on any tree not mentioned in the schedule hereto, any mark or marks resembling those made by an Excise Officer or Headman under the last preceding condition.

2. (1) The licensee may either tap the trees and draw the toddy himself, or may employ ———— of ———— as his tapper to tap the trees and draw the toddy for him.

(2) The licensee or the aforesaid tapper may by endorsement duly signed and dated on this licence employ a temporary substitute for that tapper.

Provided that no such endorsement shall be deemed to be valid, and no substitute shall be employed in pursuance thereof,

(a) after the fifteenth day from the date of the endorsement, or

(b) after the licensee is informed in writing by any officer of the Excise Department not below the grade of Inspector that the substitute is for any reason unsuitable for such employment.

3. (1) When the licensee himself taps the trees, this licence shall be kept on the person of the licensee at all times when he is engaged in tapping or in transporting, or in selling the toddy, or kept with the toddy while the toddy is in his possession or under his control.

(2) Where the licensee employs a tapper, the duplicate of this licence issued by the Superintendent of Excise for the use of the tapper, shall be kept on the person of the tapper at all times when he is engaged in tapping, or in transporting, or in selling the toddy or shall be kept with the toddy while the toddy is in his possession or under his control.

4. No toddy drawn under this licence shall be sold at any place whatsoever other than the place or garden specified in the schedule hereto.

5. No spirits shall be manufactured from the toddy drawn under this licence.

6. No toddy drawn under this licence shall be transported to any place other than the approved place of sale specified in the schedule hereto, except on a special permit for transport and possession.

7. No toddy drawn under this licence shall be sold or given to any other person who holds a licence to sell fermented toddy either under the tree tax or the tavern system, or to any tapper licensed to tap trees either under the tree tax system, or for the supply of toddy to a toddy tavern.

8. No toddy drawn under this licence shall be supplied to any toddy tavern, even though such supply be free of charge.

9. Neither the licensee nor the tapper shall possess any toddy other than toddy drawn under this licence; and the quantity of such toddy shall not exceed ———— gallons of coconut toddy and ———— gallons of palmyra toddy.

10. All toddy sold, or kept or exposed for sale under this licence, shall be of good quality, and be pure and unadulterated.

11. No person, (a) suffering from leprosy, or from any infectious or contagious disease, or (b) under the age of sixteen years, shall be permitted to possess, transport, or sell any toddy drawn under this licence.

12. No drunkenness, disorder, or gaming shall be permitted in any land where the licensed trees are situated or in the approved place of sale mentioned in the schedule hereunder.

13. No person, who is drunk, violent, quarrelsome, or disorderly, shall be permitted to enter or remain in any such land or approved place of sale, and no such person shall be served with any toddy.

14. The approved place of sale, and all vessels, measures, and other articles used for the storage or sale of liquor thereat shall be kept scrupulously clean. Every glass, measure, vessel, utensil, and receptacle used for serving the toddy to customers shall, immediately after its return by the customer, be washed with clean water.

15. Pecuniary dealings of any kind whatsoever between the licensee or his representative, agent or employee, and officers of the Excise Department or Headmen are absolutely prohibited.

16. This licence shall not be transferable.

17. This licence shall be liable to cancellation for any breach of the conditions either by the licensee or by the aforesaid tapper or by the tapper substituted under condition 2.

THE VILLAGE COMMUNITIES ORDINANCE,
No. 9 OF 1924.

RULES under section 29 (15) of the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924, made by the Village Committee of the Kelaniya subdivision of Siyane korale west in the Colombo District of the Western Province, and approved by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 30 of the Ordinance and by Article 93 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931.

S. W. R. D. BANDARANAIKE,

Minister for Local Administration.

Colombo, December 18, 1936.

RULES.

Conservancy and Scavenging.

1. The Chairman may, by a notice in writing served on the owner of any premises situated within an area for which a conservancy service has been established, require such owner to close any cesspit that may be situated on the premises and substitute for such cesspit a pail latrine of a size and type, and in such a position on the premises, as may be approved by the Chairman.

2. Every owner on whom a notice referred to in rule 1 has been served shall duly comply with the requirements of such notice within such time, in no case to be less than one month, as may be specified in such notice.

3. No person other than a conservancy labourer, employed by the Village Committee shall remove or otherwise dispose of the night soil from any premises on which a pail latrine, in accordance with these rules, has been built.

4. Every occupier of premises served by the conservancy service, other than an occupier who is exempted by the Village Committee on the ground of poverty, shall pay monthly to the Village Committee a conservancy fee at the rate specified in the schedule hereto.

5. Upon the establishment of a scavenging service for the whole or any specified part of the subdivision, every occupier of any premises situated within an area for which such service has been established, shall deposit or cause to be deposited all ashes, sweepings, and other refuse from his premises, in buckets or bins with suitable covers and of such shape and size as may be approved by the Chairman of the Village Committee.

6. The occupier of any premises referred to in rule 5, shall,—

(1) daily between such hours as the Chairman may from time to time notify by beat of tom-tom or otherwise, place or cause to be placed such buckets or bins by the edge of the road outside such premises but so as to cause no obstruction to traffic on the road; and

(2) remove or cause to be removed such buckets or bins, within half an hour of the emptying of such buckets or bins by the scavenging labourers of the Village Committee.

7. No person shall place any ashes, sweepings, or other refuse on any road except in such buckets or bins and at such hours as are referred to in rule 6.

8. Every occupier of any premises served by the scavenging service, other than an occupier who is exempted by the Village Committee on the ground of poverty, shall pay monthly to the Village Committee a scavenging fee at the rate specified in the schedule hereto.

9. The conservancy fee referred to in rule 4 and the scavenging fee referred to in rule 8 shall be paid to the Chairman of the Village Committee on or before the 10th day of the month immediately following the month in respect of which they are due; provided that when the occupier has given written notice in advance to the Chairman that the premises will not be occupied during the whole of any specified month, and such occupier subsequently satisfies the Chairman that such premises were in fact not occupied during the month, no conservancy or scavenging fee shall be payable in respect of such month.

THE MOTOR CAR ORDINANCE, 1927.

REGULATIONS for the urban area comprised within the administrative limits of the Urban District Council of Matale, made by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by sections 53, 58, and 70 of the Motor Car Ordinance, 1927, and by Article 93 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931.

S. W. R. D. BANDARANAIKE,
Minister for Local Administration.

Colombo, December 17, 1936.

1. In these regulations—

“ Council ” means the Urban District Council of Matale ;

“ Chairman ” means the Chairman of the Council ;

“ public stand ” means any space within the administrative limits of the Council, which is defined and reserved for the parking of motor cabs or omnibuses or lorries by a notice signed by the Chairman and exhibited at the spot.

2. The Chairman may issue permits authorizing motor cabs or omnibuses or lorries to use a public stand, and may charge a fee in accordance with the scale specified in the schedule hereto, in respect of each motor cab or omnibus which uses a public stand.

3. No vehicle other than a motor cab, omnibus, or lorry shall enter or be parked in a public stand.

4. No motor cab, omnibus, or lorry shall be parked in any public place other than a public stand : provided, however, that any motor cab or lorry, whilst engaged on a bona fide hire, may be parked for a reasonable period in any public place other than a public stand.

5. Where a public stand or any portion of a public stand is reserved for the use of motor cabs or of omnibuses or of lorries, no motor car not belonging to the class for which that stand or part of that stand is reserved shall enter it or be parked in it.

6. No motor cab or omnibus or lorry shall enter or remain in a public stand unless its driver is in possession of a valid permit in respect of it issued under these regulations.

7. No motor cab, omnibus, or lorry shall enter or leave a public stand except by the respective passages provided for entrance and exit.

8. Throughout the period during which a motor cab or omnibus or lorry is parked in any public stand, the driver or a person capable of driving the motor cab, omnibus, or lorry shall remain in charge thereof at the public stand.

9. The driver of any motor cab, omnibus, or lorry occupying a public stand shall, when required to do so by a Police Officer or by a person authorized for the purpose by the Chairman, produce the permit issued in respect of such motor cab, omnibus, or lorry.

10. Every driver or other person in charge of any motor cab, omnibus, or lorry in any public stand shall conduct himself in an orderly manner.

11. No motor cab, omnibus, or lorry shall be parked in a public stand in such a way as to obstruct any other motor car entering or leaving such stand.

12. Every motor car used on that portion of Esplanade road which lies between the junction of that road with Trincomalee street and the junction of that road with King street shall proceed in the direction of King street only, and, when not in motion, shall be halted facing that direction only, and as near as possible to the left or near side of that road.

13. Every motor car used on that portion of King street which lies between the junction of that street with Esplanade road and the southern junction of that street with Trincomalee street, shall proceed in the direction of the aforesaid southern junction only, and, when not in motion, shall be halted facing that direction only, and as near as possible to the left or near side of that street.

14. No person shall use any omnibus on that portion of King street which lies between the junction of that street with Esplanade road, and the northern junction of that street with Trincomalee street, except for the purpose of entering or leaving a garage to which such portion of King street is the only access.

15. No person shall use any omnibus on that portion of Esplanade road which lies between the junction of that road with King street and the junction of that road with Trincomalee street, except for the purpose of entering or leaving a garage to which such portion of Esplanade road is the only access.

16. The regulations published in Gazette No. 7,885 of October 2, 1931, are hereby rescinded.

3. Applications should be made on the prescribed form, obtainable at the office of the Controller of Labour and should be sent to the Controller to reach him on or before 12 noon on Friday, January 15, 1937.

4. Applications from candidates already in Government Service should be forwarded through the Heads of their Departments.

5. Any person appointed from outside the public service will be governed by the conditions for new entrants prescribed in Sessional Paper VIII. of 1934.

6. Any attempt to interview the Controller or a member of his staff or any member of the Executive Committee of Labour, Industry and Commerce directly or indirectly by or on behalf of any candidate will render that candidate liable to be disqualified.

7. The applications of candidates who applied for this post when previously advertised will be reconsidered if they so desire. (Fresh applications need not be submitted.)

W. E. HOBDAY,
Controller of Labour.
