- Saving of rights of the Crown. 5 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect or be deemed to affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs and Successors, or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other persons, except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from, or under them.

No. 1 of 1869.
No. 3 of 1871.

No. 18 of 1892.

Objects and Reasons.

1. The Gas Ordinance, No. 15 of 1926, added to the Gas Ordinance, 1869, a new section which enabled the Governor in Executive Council by Proclamation published in the Gazette to extend the provisions of the Gas Ordinance, 1869, and the Gas Meter Ordinance, 1871, to any area outside the limits of a Municipal town. The immediate object of this amendment was to enable the Colombo Gas and Water Co., Ltd., to supply gas to the Dehiwala-Mount Lavinia area which was at that time under the jurisdiction of the Sanitary Board of the Colombo District. The Gas Ordinance, No. 15 of 1926, became law on the 10th November, 1926, and on the 27th September, 1927, the Sanitary Board of the Colombo District entered into a contract with the Colombo Gas and Water Co., Ltd. for the supply of gas to the Dehiwala-Mount Lavinia area, on the footing that the requisite proclamation had been published in the Gazette enabling the Sanitary Board to enter into a contract for the supply of gas and the Gas Company to extend its operations outside the administrative limits of the Municipal town of Colombo.

As a matter of fact, by an oversight, no proclamation had been published before the date of the contract, but as the contract was effective from the 1st July, 1926, there was no legal authority to cover the operations of the Gas Company outside the Municipal town of Colombo during the period 1st July, 1926, to 9th November, 1926, as the earliest date on which a proclamation could have been published was the 10th November, 1926.

2. The purpose of Clause 2 of the Bill is to validate all acts done by the Company and by the Sanitary Board in connexion with the supply of gas to the Dehiwala-Mount Lavinia area during the period commencing on the 1st July, 1926, and ending on the 9th November, 1926.

3. The necessary proclamation under section 4A of the Gas Ordinance, 1869, was published in the Gazette of December 8, 1933. As contracts entered into between the Company and the Sanitary Board or the Urban District Council, which was the successor of that Sanitary Board, would have been valid and effectual in law if the necessary proclamation had been issued immediately after the Gas Ordinance, No. 15 of 1926, became law, Clause 3 of this Bill provides that contracts entered into by the Company for the supply of gas to the Dehiwala-Mount Lavinia area and acts done by the Company or by the Sanitary Board or by the Urban District Council in connexion with the supply of gas to that area shall to all intents and purposes be as valid and effectual as if they had been authorized by the issue of the necessary proclamation for the purpose. Clause 3 accordingly validates the acts and contracts referred to for the period commencing on the 10th November, 1926 (being the date on which the Gas Ordinance, No. 15 of 1926, came into operation) and ending on the 7th December, 1933 (being the day immediately preceding the date on which the requisite proclamation was issued under section 4A of the Gas Ordinance, 1869).

Minister for Local Administration.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to make provision for the publication and authentication of revised reprints of written law.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Statutory Reprints Ordinance, No. of 1936. Short title.

2 Whenever it is necessary to publish any reprint of any written law, the Governor may by order under his hand authorise— Governor may authorise revised reprints of written law.

(a) the inclusion or incorporation in that reprint of any addition made to that written law or of any alteration, amendment or modification made in that written law by any other written law enacted, promulgated or otherwise brought into operation or declared to be in force prior to the date of reprinting ;

(b) the omission from that reprint of any provision of that written law which has been repealed, rescinded, revoked, deleted or ordered to be omitted by any other written law enacted, promulgated or otherwise brought into operation or declared to be in force prior to the date of reprinting.

Authentication of revised reprints.

3 Every copy of any published reprint of any written law which has been revised for reprinting by authority of an order of the Governor under section 2 shall for all purposes be deemed to be authentic and a correct copy of written law in force in the Island on the date of such reprinting provided that such date is printed on each such copy and provided further that each such copy purports to be printed by the Government Printer by authority of an order of the Governor made under this Ordinance.

Savings.

4 Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to authorise the publication of a revised edition of the Legislative Enactments or to require an order of the Governor to authorise the publication by the Government Printer of a reprint of any written law in the form in which that written law was enacted, promulgated or otherwise brought into operation or declared to be in force.

Objects and Reasons.

Extensive amendments are made in Ordinances, regulations, rules and by-laws from time to time, but there is at present no general authority for the publication of revised reprints of legislation though power has been taken in individual Ordinances (like the Motor Car Ordinance, 1927) for the preparation and issue of statutory reprints of such Ordinances.

2. The object of this Bill is to enable the Governor to authorise the inclusion and incorporation in a reprint of any written law of all amendments and alterations made in that law between the date of enactment and the date of reprinting. The purchase of a revised reprint of any Ordinance will therefore make it unnecessary to purchase a copy of the original Ordinance and a copy of each amending Ordinance thereafter enacted.

3. Provision has been made for the insertion of the date of printing on each copy of a revised reprint and for the authentication of each copy by a certificate to the effect that it has been printed by the Government Printer. This certificate is necessary in order to conform to the requirements of the Evidence (Colonial Statutes) Act, 1907 (7 Edw. VII. ch. 16).

No. 11 of 1908.

An Ordinance to amend the Ceylon Post Office Ordinance, 1908.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Ceylon Post Office (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1936.

Repeal of section
40 of Ordinance
No. 11 of 1908
and substitution
of a new section therefor.

2 Section 40 of the Ceylon Post Office Ordinance, 1908, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

Postal articles directed to banks, shipping
offices, &c.
deemed to be under control of Postmaster-General until delivered to addressees.

40. Every postal article addressed to any person at any bank, or at any premises licensed under the Excise Ordinance, No. 8 of 1912, or at any shipping office or public or private lodging house, and delivered to or received by the manager of such bank, or the licensee of such premises, or the person apparently in charge of such office or lodging house, or any one acting as agent or servant of such manager, licensee or person, shall be deemed to be under the control of the Postmaster-General until delivered to the person to whom the same is addressed.

3 Section 41 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended in sub-section (1) thereof as follows :—

(1) by the substitution for the words—

“ within one month after the receipt thereof by or on behalf of such licensee or other person as aforesaid ”,

of the words—

“ within two months after the receipt thereof by or on behalf of such manager, licensee or other person as aforesaid ” ;

and,

(2) by the substitution for the words—

“ the licensee or other person as aforesaid ”

of the words—

“ the manager, licensee, or other person as aforesaid ”.

4 Section 50 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) by the re-numbering thereof as section 50 (1) ; and

(2) by the addition thereto of the following sub-section :—

“ (2) Where an application is made under sub-section (1) for the recovery of any amount from any person who has neglected or refused to refund that amount, it shall be lawful for the Police Magistrate to order such person to pay, in addition to the amount specified in the application, a sum not exceeding twenty-five rupees as the costs of and incidental to such application ; and any sum so awarded as costs shall be recovered for the use of the post office as if it were a fine imposed under this Ordinance.”

Amendment of section 41 (1) of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 50 of the principal Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

Section 40 of the Ceylon Post Office Ordinance provides that letters addressed to persons at shipping offices, lodging-houses, &c. shall be deemed to be under the control of the Postmaster-General until they are delivered to the addressees. Letters are frequently addressed to the care of banks and it is considered desirable to amend the existing law so as to include banks in the category of care-parties referred to in section 40. The addition of a reference to banks in the opening words of the section has necessitated other consequential amendments in that section. It has accordingly been found simpler to adopt the method of repeal and re-enactment though care has been taken to preserve the phraseology of the existing section. The opportunity has been taken to delete the reference to “ The Licensing Ordinance, 1891 ” and to substitute in its place reference to the Excise Ordinance, No. 8 of 1912, which repealed the older Ordinance of 1891.

2. Section 41 of the principal Ordinance provides that a letter addressed to any person to the care of a shipping office, lodging-house, &c. must be returned to the nearest post office if it is not handed over to that person within one month of the date of delivery to the care-party. Shipping agents have made representations that the prescribed period of one month is too short as letters addressed to visitors to Ceylon to the care of such agents are frequently received several weeks before the visitors arrive. Clause 3 of the Bill accordingly extends the prescribed period to two months and effects in the existing section further amendments necessitated by the addition of a reference to banks in section 40.

3. Section 50 of the principal Ordinance enables the postal authorities to recover through the agency of a Police Court any amount paid on a postal or money order in excess of the amount actually due or to the wrong person. Application for the assistance of the Court is made only where repeated demands have failed to secure a refund of the money so overpaid or paid in error. An application under section 50 has to be made to the Police Court having jurisdiction over the place where the defaulter resides and has to be supported by an officer of the Post Office. There is no provision under the existing law whereby the Postal Department can be reimbursed for the expenses incurred in connection with the application for the assistance of the Court, including the travelling and other expenses of the officer who appears in Court on behalf of the Department. The purpose of Clause 4 is to enable a Police Magistrate to make order that the defaulter should pay a sum not exceeding twenty-five rupees as costs in a case where the Postal Department is compelled to seek the assistance of the Court for the recovery of any amount which the defaulter has unlawfully retained and failed to refund.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the General Loan and Incribed Stock Ordinance, No. 5 of 1921, and to make special provision in respect of an issue of Incribed Stock thereunder.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the General Loan and Incribed Stock Ordinance, No. of 1936.

Repeal of section 37A of Ordinance No. 5 of 1921 and substitution of a new section therefor.

2 Section 37A of the General Loan and Incribed Stock Ordinance, No. 5 of 1921, is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

Exemption of debentures and inscribed stock from taxes, duties and levies in certain cases.

37A. Where any loan charged on the public revenue of Ceylon has been issued prior to the ninth day of February, 1932, in the form of debentures or inscribed stock, any new debentures or inscribed stock issued or to be issued in conversion of or for the purpose of redeeming any such debentures or inscribed stock, together with the interest on such new debentures or inscribed stock, may, by resolution passed by the State Council and ratified by the Governor, be exempted with effect from a date specified in such resolution from all taxes, duties and levies payable or recoverable under any written law for the time being in force ; and it shall be lawful to specify in any such resolution any date prior to the date on which that resolution is passed.

Every such resolution shall, when ratified by the Governor, be published in the Gazette ; and the debentures or inscribed stock expressed by that resolution to be exempted from all taxes, duties and levies payable or recoverable under any written law for the time being in force shall, together with the interest on such debentures or inscribed stock, be exempt from all such taxes, duties and levies with effect from the date specified in the resolution.

Exemption of 3 per cent. Incribed Stock 1959/1964, from taxes, &c.

3 Notwithstanding anything in any written law to the contrary, Ceylon Government 3 per cent. Incribed Stock, 1959/1964, whether issued in conversion of any part of the Ceylon Government 6 per cent. Incribed Stock, 1936/1951, or for cash, shall, together with the interest on such aforementioned 3 per cent. Stock be exempt with effect from the date of the issue thereof from all taxes, duties or levies payable or recoverable under any written law for the time being in force in this Island.

Objects and Reasons.

The General Loan and Incribed Stock Amendment Ordinance, No. 29 of 1935, added to the principal Ordinance, No. 5 of 1921, a new section (37A) which empowers the State Council, by resolution, to attach to any new debentures or inscribed stock issued in conversion of any earlier debentures or inscribed stock, the privileges, exemptions and immunities to which holders of such earlier debentures or inscribed stock are entitled under any written law. Such privileges, exemptions and immunities cannot, however, be attached to debentures or inscribed stock issued for cash even though the cash is to be used for the purpose of redeeming earlier debentures or inscribed stock in respect of which such privileges, exemptions and immunities can be claimed.

2. Clause 2 of this Bill repeals section 37A and substitutes a new section which empowers the State Council by resolution to exempt from all taxes, duties and levies payable or recoverable under any law in force in the Island any new debentures or inscribed stock issued in conversion of or for the purpose of redeeming any earlier debentures or inscribed stock which, under the existing law, are already exempt from such taxes, duties and levies. Section 37A in its present form enables the privileges, exemptions and immunities referred to in that section to be attached to debentures or stock issued to persons not ordinarily resident in the Island. The new section which is to be substituted for section 37A is designed to give the benefit of exemption from payment of taxes, duties and levies to all holders of the new debentures or stock, irrespective of residence.

3. It was decided last year that advantage should be taken of the favourable condition of the money market to negotiate a new 3 per cent. loan in conversion of the 6 per cent. Ceylon Government Inscribed Stock, 1936/1951. As it was not possible to convert the entirety of the 6 per cent. stock, it became necessary to raise a part of the new loan by the issue of 3 per cent. stock for cash.

4. The State Council passed on the 11th of October, 1935, a resolution under section 37A' of the General Loan and Inscribed Stock Ordinance, No. 5 of 1921, as amended by Ordinance No. 25 of 1935, that the exemption from income tax of interest on Government loans prescribed by section 8 of the Income Tax Ordinance, No. 2 of 1932, shall attach to non-resident holders of the stock which will be issued in part conversion of the 6 per cent. loan 1936/51 on or after 1st July, 1936. Doubts have arisen whether the resolution in question has the full intended legal effect, and clause 3 is inserted in this Bill to remove all possible doubts.

Financial Secretary.
