MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to provide for the recognition and re-sealing in Ceylon of Probates and Letters of Administration granted in any other part of His Majesty's dominions.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title and date of operation.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the British Courts Probates (Re-sealing) Ordinance, No. of 1936, and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall appoint by Proclamation in the Gazette.

Competent courts.

2 Where a person has died outside Ceylon leaving an estate in Ceylon, any District Court having jurisdiction over the place where—

- (a) the Ceylon estate or any part of the Ceylon estate of the deceased person is situate, or
- (b) the executor or administrator, or the attorney of the executor or administrator, of that part of the estate of the deceased person which is being administered outside Ceylon is resident, shall be a competent court for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Re-sealing in Ceylon of probates and letters of administration granted outside Ceylon.

3 Where a court of probate in any part of His Majesty's dominions or a British court in a foreign country has, either before or after the date on which this Ordinance comes into operation, granted probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of a deceased person, the probate or letters so granted may, on being produced to, and a copy thereof deposited with a competent court, be sealed with the seal of that court, and thereupon shall be of like force and effect, and have the same operation in Ceylon as if granted by that court.

Conditions to be fulfilled before sealing.

4 The court shall, before sealing a probate or letters of administration under this Ordinance be satisfied—

- (a) that testamentary duty has been paid in respect of so much, if any, of the estate as is liable to testamentary duty in Ceylon ; and
- (b) in the case of letters of administration, that security has been given in a sum sufficient in amount to cover the property, if any, in Ceylon to which the letters of administration relate ;

and may require such evidence, if any, as it thinks fit as to the domicile of the deceased person.

Security for payment of debts.

5 The court may also, if it thinks fit, on the application of any creditor, require, before sealing, that adequate security be given for the payment of debts due from the estate to creditors residing in Ceylon.

Duplicate or copy of probate or letters of administration.

6 For the purposes of this Ordinance, a duplicate of any probate or letters of administration sealed with the seal of the court granting the same, or a copy thereof certified as correct by or under the authority of the court granting the same, shall have the same effect as the original.

Certain duties and liabilities of an executor or administrator under the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, not affected.

7 The sealing of a probate or letters of administration under section 3 shall not affect the liability of an executor or administrator—

- (a) to file, within a time appointed by the court, an inventory of the deceased person's property and effects situated in Ceylon, with a valuation of the same as required by section 538 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1889 ;
- (b) to file, on or before the expiration of twelve months from the date of such sealing, a true account, as regards the deceased's property and effects situated in Ceylon, of his executorship or administration, as the case may be, verified on oath or affirmation, with all receipts and vouchers attached, as required by section 553 of the said Code ;
- (c) to be compelled to make a judicial settlement of his account as executor or administrator, with respect to the deceased's property situated in Ceylon, under the provisions of Chapter LV of the said Code.

8 For the purposes of all estates to which this Ordinance applies—

- (a) all reference in the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, to any court as being the court from which grant of probate or letters of administration issued shall be construed as references to the court by which the probate or letters of administration have been sealed under this Ordinance, and all references to the grant of probate or letters of administration or to an order absolute declaring a person entitled to such grant shall be construed as referring to the sealing of probate or letters of administration under this Ordinance; and
- (b) all references in the Stamp Ordinance, 1909, to the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be deemed to include a reference to the sealing of probate or letters of administration under this Ordinance, and all references to probate or letters of administration shall be deemed to include a reference to any probate or letters of administration or to any duplicate or certified copy thereof sealed under this Ordinance.

Construction of certain references in Civil Procedure Code and Stamp Ordinance relating to probate and letters of administration.

No. 22 of 1909.

9 (1) It shall be competent for the Judges of the Supreme Court, or any three of them, of whom the Chief Justice shall be one, to frame Rules of Court for regulating the procedure and practice, including fees and costs, of and incidental to an application for sealing a probate or letters of administration under this Ordinance.

Rules of Court.

(2) The matters for which rules may be framed under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be added to the list of matters for which rules may be framed, constituted and established under section 53 of the Courts Ordinance, 1889; and the provisions of that section of that Ordinance shall apply accordingly to any Rules of Court framed for the purposes of this Ordinance.

10 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—Interpretation.

“British court in a foreign country” means any British court having jurisdiction out of His Majesty’s dominions in pursuance of an Order of His Majesty in Council, whether made under any Act of the Imperial Parliament or otherwise;

“competent court” means a District Court designated as a competent court under section 2;

“court of probate” means any court or authority by whatever name designated, having jurisdiction in matters of probate;

“His Majesty’s dominions” includes any British protectorate or protected state and any territory in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Majesty;

“probate” and “letters of administration” include confirmation in Scotland, and any instrument having in any part of His Majesty’s dominions the same effect which under English law is given to probate and letters of administration respectively;

“testamentary duty” includes any duty payable on the value of the estate and effects for which probate or letters of administration is or are granted.

11 The British and Colonial Probate Ordinance, No. 7 of 1921, and the British and Colonial Probate Amendment Ordinance, No. 32 of 1935, are hereby repealed.

Repeals.

Objects and Reasons.

1. The object of this Bill is to repeal the British and Colonial Probate Ordinance, No. 7 of 1921, and to substitute in its place an Ordinance which has been drafted on the lines of a model furnished by the Secretary of State.

2. There are two points on which the existing law has been altered. In the first place, under Ordinance No. 7 of 1921, a “competent court” is defined as a court on which the Supreme Court has conferred sole testamentary jurisdiction on an application made under section 70 of the Courts Ordinance, 1889. Representations have been made to the effect that this preliminary application to the Supreme Court may well be dispensed with in order to avoid unnecessary expense. It has been pointed out that a probate or letters of administration granted by a Ceylon court can be re-sealed in England on an application made direct to any court entitled to exercise testamentary jurisdiction, whereas a probate or letters of administration granted in England cannot be re-sealed in Ceylon until the Supreme Court has authorized a District Court to entertain the application for re-sealing.

Clause 2 of the Bill accordingly defines a "competent court" to be a District Court having jurisdiction over the place where the Ceylon estate of the deceased or any part of that estate is situate, or where the executor or administrator of the deceased or the attorney of such executor or administrator resides. The person who desires to have a probate or letters of administration re-sealed in Ceylon will thus be entitled to make his application direct to the most convenient District Court. Secondly, the recognition in Ceylon of probates or letters of administration issued by British courts outside Ceylon has been based on a system of reciprocity. The Secretary of State points out that this is an undesirable if not unnecessary feature of the existing law, as the authority of a British possession, to enact legislation for the recognition and re-sealing in that possession of probates and letters of administration granted in the United Kingdom and in other parts of the British Empire is derived by the extension to that possession of the provisions of the Colonial Probates Act, 1892, under which probates and letters of administration granted by a British possession are re-sealed in the United Kingdom. It has accordingly been found to be unnecessary to reproduce the provisions of section 3 of the British and Colonial Probate Ordinance, No. 7 of 1921.

3. Power has been taken in clause 9 to enable the Judges of the Supreme Court to make rules to regulate the procedure and practice relating to applications for re-sealing probates or letters of administration. These rules will not have legislative effect until they have been laid before the State Council in accordance with the requirements of section 53 of the Courts Ordinance, 1889.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to make provision for the enforcement in Ceylon of judgments given in countries which accord reciprocal treatment to judgments given in Ceylon, for facilitating the enforcement in other countries of judgments given in Ceylon and for other purposes in connection with the matters aforesaid.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

and date of operation.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Ordinance, No. of 1936, and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall appoint by Proclamation in the Gazette.

PART I.

Registration of Foreign Judgments.

Power to extend Part I. to foreign countries giving reciprocal treatment.

2 (1) The Governor, if he is satisfied that, in the event of the benefits conferred by this Part being extended to judgments given in the superior courts of any foreign country, substantial reciprocity of treatment will be assured as respects the enforcement in that foreign country of judgments given in the superior courts of Ceylon, may by Proclamation published in the Gazette direct—

- (a) that this Part shall extend to that foreign country ; and
- (b) that such courts of that foreign country as are specified in the Proclamation shall be deemed to be superior courts of that country for the purposes of this Part.

(2) Any judgment of a superior court of a foreign country to which this Part extends, other than a judgment of such a court given on appeal from a court which is not a superior court, shall be a judgment to which this Part applies if—

- (a) it is final and conclusive as between the parties thereto ; and
- (b) there is payable thereunder a sum of money, not being a sum payable in respect of taxes or other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine or other penalty ; and
- (c) it is given after the coming into operation of the Proclamation directing that this Part shall extend to that foreign country.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a judgment shall be deemed to be final and conclusive notwithstanding that an appeal may be pending against it or that it may still be subject to appeal, in the courts of the country of the original court.

(4) The Governor may by a subsequent Proclamation vary or revoke any Proclamation previously made under this section.

3 (1) A person, being a judgment creditor under a judgment to which this Part applies, may apply to the registering court at any time within six years after the date of the judgment, or, where there have been proceedings by way of appeal against the judgment, after the date of the last judgment given in those proceedings, to have the judgment registered in the registering court and on any such application the court shall, subject to proof of the prescribed matters and to the other provisions of this Ordinance, order the judgment to be registered :

Application for, and effect of, registration of foreign judgment.

Provided that a judgment shall not be registered if at the date of the application—

- (a) it has been wholly satisfied ; or
- (b) it could not be enforced by execution in the country of the original court.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to the setting aside of registration—

- (a) a registered judgment shall, for the purposes of execution, be of the same force and effect ; and
- (b) proceedings may be taken on a registered judgment ; and
- (c) the sum for which a judgment is registered shall carry interest ; and
- (d) the registering court shall have the same control over the execution of a registered judgment ;

as if the judgment had been a judgment originally given in the registering court and entered on the date of registration :

Provided that execution shall not issue on the judgment so long as, under this Part and the Rules of Court made thereunder, it is competent for any party to make an application to have the registration of the judgment set aside, or, where an application is made, until after the application has been finally determined.

(3) Where the sum payable under a judgment which is to be registered is expressed in a currency other than the currency of Ceylon the judgment shall be registered as if it were a judgment for such sum in the currency of Ceylon as, on the basis of the rate of exchange prevailing at the date of the judgment of the original court, is equivalent to the sum so payable.

(4) If at the date of the application for registration the judgment of the original court has been partly satisfied, the judgment shall not be registered in respect of the whole sum payable under the judgment of the original court, but only in respect of the balance remaining payable at that date.

(5) If, on an application for the registration of a judgment, it appears to the registering court that the judgment is in respect of different matters and that some, but not all, of the provisions of the judgment are such that if those provisions had been contained in separate judgments those judgments could properly have been registered, the judgment may be registered in respect of the provisions aforesaid but not in respect of any other provisions contained therein.

(6) In addition to the sum of money payable under the judgment of the original court, including any interest which by the law of the country of the original court becomes due under the judgment up to the time of registration, the judgment shall be registered for the reasonable costs of and incidental to registration, including the costs of obtaining a certified copy of the judgment from the original court.

4 (1) The power to make rules of court under section 53 of the Courts Ordinance, 1889, shall, subject to the provisions of this section, include power to make rules for the following purposes :—

Rules of court.
1 of 1889.

- (a) for making provision with respect to the giving of security for costs by persons applying for the registration of judgments ;
- (b) for prescribing the matters to be proved on an application for the registration of a judgment and for regulating the mode of proving those matters ;

- (c) for providing for the service on the judgment debtor of notice of the registration of a judgment ;
- (d) for making provision with respect to the fixing of the period within which an application may be made to have the registration of the judgment set aside and with respect to the extension of the period so fixed ;
- (e) for prescribing the method by which any question arising under this Ordinance whether a foreign judgment can be enforced by execution in the country of the original court or what interest is payable under a foreign judgment under the law of the original court, is to be determined ;
- (f) for prescribing any matter which under this Part is to be prescribed.

(2) Rules made for the purposes of this Part shall be expressed to have, and shall have, effect subject to any such provisions contained in Proclamations made under section 2 as are declared by the said Proclamations to be necessary for giving effect to agreements made between His Majesty and foreign countries in relation to matters with respect to which there is power to make rules of court for the purposes of this Part.

Cases in which registered judgments must, or may, be set aside.

5 (1) On an application in that behalf duly made by any party against whom a registered judgment may be enforced, the registration of the judgment—

- (a) shall be set aside if the registering court is satisfied—
  - (i) that the judgment is not a judgment to which this Part applies or was registered in contravention of the foregoing provisions of this Ordinance ;
  - or
  - (ii) that the courts of the country of the original court had no jurisdiction in the circumstances of the case ; or
  - (iii) that the judgment debtor, being the defendant in the proceedings in the original court, did not (notwithstanding that process may have been duly served on him in accordance with the law of the country of the original court) receive notice of those proceedings in sufficient time to enable him to defend the proceedings and did not appear ; or
  - (iv) that the judgment was obtained by fraud ; or
  - (v) that the enforcement of the judgment would be contrary to public policy in the country of the registering court ; or
  - (vi) that the rights under the judgment are not vested in the person by whom the application for registration was made ;

(b) may be set aside if the registering court is satisfied that the matter in dispute in the proceedings in the original court had previously to the date of the judgment in the original court been the subject of a final and conclusive judgment by a court having jurisdiction in the matter.

(2) For the purposes of this section the courts of the country of the original court shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), be deemed to have had jurisdiction—

- (a) in the case of a judgment given in an action in personam—
  - (i) if the judgment debtor, being a defendant in the original court, submitted to the jurisdiction of that court by voluntarily appearing in the proceedings otherwise than for the purpose of protecting, or obtaining the release of, property seized, or threatened with seizure, in the proceedings or of contesting the jurisdiction of that court ; or
  - (ii) if the judgment debtor was plaintiff in, or counter-claimed in, the proceedings in the original court ; or
  - (iii) if the judgment debtor, being a defendant in the original court, had before the commencement of the proceedings agreed, in respect of the subject matter of the proceedings, to submit to the jurisdiction of that court or of the courts of the country of that court ; or

- (iv) if the judgment debtor, being a defendant in the original court, was at the time when the proceedings were instituted resident in, or being a body corporate had its principal place of business in, the country of that court ; or
- (v) if the judgment debtor, being a defendant in the original court, had an office or place of business in the country of that court and the proceedings in that court were in respect of a transaction effected through or at that office or place ;

(b) in the case of a judgment given in an action of which the subject matter was immovable property or in an action in rem of which the subject matter was movable property, if the property in question was at the time of the proceedings in the original court situate in the country of that court ;

(c) in the case of a judgment given in an action other than any such action as is mentioned in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this sub-section, if the jurisdiction of the original court is recognised by the law of the registering court.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (2) of this section, the courts of the country of the original court shall not be deemed to have had jurisdiction—

(a) if the subject matter of the proceedings was immovable property outside the country of the original court ; or

(b) except in the cases mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i), (ii), and (iii) of paragraph (a) and in paragraph (c) of sub-section (2), if the bringing of the proceedings in the original court was contrary to an agreement under which the dispute in question was to be settled otherwise than by proceedings in the courts of the country of that court ; or

(c) if the judgment debtor, being a defendant in the original proceedings, was a person who under the rules of public international law was entitled to immunity from the jurisdiction of the courts of the country of the original court and did not submit to the jurisdiction of that court.

6 (1) If, on an application to set aside the registration of a judgment, the applicant satisfies the registering court either that an appeal is pending, or that he is entitled and intends to appeal, against the judgment, the court, if it thinks fit, may, on such terms as it may think just, either set aside the registration or adjourn the application to set aside the registration until after the expiration of such period as appears to the court to be reasonably sufficient to enable the applicant to take the necessary steps to have the appeal disposed of by the competent tribunal.

Powers of registering court on application to set aside registration.

(2) Where the registration of a judgment is set aside under the last foregoing sub-section, or solely for the reason that the judgment was not at the date of the application for registration enforceable by execution in the country of the original court, the setting aside of the registration shall not prejudice a further application to register the judgment when the appeal has been disposed of or if and when the judgment becomes enforceable by execution in that country, as the case may be.

(3) Where the registration of a judgment is set aside solely for the reason that the judgment, notwithstanding that it had at the date of the application for registration been partly satisfied, was registered for the whole sum payable thereunder, the registering court shall, on the application of the judgment creditor, order judgment to be registered for the balance remaining payable at that date.

7 No proceedings for the recovery of a sum payable under a foreign judgment, being a judgment to which this Part applies, other than proceedings by way of registration of the judgment, shall be entertained by any court in Ceylon.

Foreign judgments which can be registered not to be enforceable otherwise.

8 (1) This Part shall apply to His Majesty's dominions outside Ceylon and to judgments obtained in the courts of the said dominions as it applies to foreign countries and judgments obtained in the courts of foreign countries ; and, on and after the date on which this Ordinance is brought into operation by Proclamation under section 1, the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgment Ordinance, No. 41 of 1921, shall cease to have effect except in relation to those parts of the said dominions to which it extends on that date.

Application of Part I to H. M.'s dominions outside Ceylon.

(2) If a Proclamation is made under section 2 extending this Part to any part of His Majesty's dominions to which the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgment Ordinance, No. 41 of 1921, extends as aforesaid, the said Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgment Ordinance, No. 41 of 1921, shall cease to have effect in relation to that part of His Majesty's dominions.

(3) References in this section to His Majesty's dominions shall be construed as including references to any territories which are under His Majesty's protection and to any territories in respect of which a mandate under the League of Nations has been accepted by His Majesty.

PART II.

Miscellaneous and General.

General effect of certain foreign judgments.

9 (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a judgment to which Part I applies or would have applied if a sum of money had been payable thereunder, whether it can be registered or not, and whether, if it can be registered, it is registered or not, shall be recognised in any court in Ceylon as conclusive between the parties thereto in all proceedings founded on the same cause of action and may be relied on by way of defence or counterclaim in any such proceedings.

(2) This section shall not apply in the case of any judgment—

(a) where the judgment has been registered and the registration thereof has been set aside on some ground other than—

- (i) that a sum of money was not payable under the judgment; or
- (ii) that the judgment has been wholly or partly satisfied; or
- (iii) that at the date of the application the judgment could not be enforced by execution in the country of the original court; or

(b) where the judgment has not been registered, it is shown (whether it could have been registered or not) that if it had been registered the registration thereof would have been set aside on an application for that purpose on some ground other than one of the grounds specified in paragraph (a) of this sub-section.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prevent any court in Ceylon recognising any judgment as conclusive of any matter of law or fact decided therein if that judgment would have been so recognised before the date on which this Ordinance is brought into operation by Proclamation under section 1.

Power to make foreign judgments
unenforceable in Ceylon if no reciprocity.

10 (1) If it appears to the Governor that the treatment in respect of recognition and enforcement accorded by the courts of any foreign country to judgments given in the superior courts of Ceylon is substantially less favourable than that accorded by the courts of Ceylon to judgments of the superior courts of that country, the Governor may by Proclamation published in the Gazette apply this section to that country.

(2) Except in so far as the Governor may by Proclamation under this section otherwise direct, no proceedings shall be entertained in any court in Ceylon for the recovery of any sum alleged to be payable under a judgment given in a court of a country to which this section applies.

(3) The Governor may by subsequent Proclamation vary or revoke any Proclamation made under this section.

Issue of certificates of judgments
obtained in Ceylon.

11 Where a judgment under which a sum of money is payable, not being a sum payable in respect of taxes or other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine or other penalty, has been entered in a superior court in Ceylon against any person and the judgment creditor is desirous of enforcing the judgment in a foreign country to which Part I applies, the court shall, on an application made by the judgment creditor and on payment of the prescribed fee, issue to the judgment creditor a certified copy of the judgment, together with a certificate containing such particulars with respect to the action, including the causes of action, and the rate of interest, if any, payable on the sum payable under the judgment, as may be prescribed:

Provided that, where execution of a judgment is stayed for any period pending an appeal or for any other reason, an application shall not be made under this section with respect to the judgment until the expiration of that period.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to make provision for the enforcement in Ceylon of judgments given in foreign countries which accord reciprocal treatment to judgments of Ceylon courts.

2. Part II of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, of the Imperial Parliament made provision for the enforcement in the United Kingdom of judgments given by courts in other parts of His Majesty's dominions. The Act further provided for the issue of an Order in Council declaring that the provisions of Part II of the Act shall apply to any British possession if His Majesty was satisfied that reciprocal provision had been made by the legislature of that possession for the recognition and enforcement of judgments given by courts in the United Kingdom. Accordingly, after the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgment Ordinance, No. 41 of 1921, was enacted in Ceylon, an Order in Council (No. 125 of 1922) was made extending Part II of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, to the Island.

3. In 1933, the Imperial Parliament passed the Foreign Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) Act, which made provision for the recognition in the United Kingdom of judgments given in foreign countries which accord reciprocal treatment to judgments of the courts of the United Kingdom. Section 7 of that Act empowers His Majesty by Order in Council to direct that Part I of the Act shall apply to His Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom and to judgments obtained in the courts of those dominions in like manner as it applies to foreign countries and judgments obtained in the courts of foreign countries. That section further provides that on the issue of such an order in Council the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, shall cease to have effect, subject to the provisions of the Act, in any part of His Majesty's dominions to which the Order in Council relates. By the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments (General Application to His Majesty's Dominions) Order in Council, 1933, Part I of the Foreign Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) Act, 1933, was applied to all His Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom, including Ceylon.

4. The Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgment Ordinance, No. 41 of 1921, provides for the enforcement in Ceylon of judgments given by British courts. The principal object of the Bill is to provide for the enforcement of judgments given by foreign courts. As it is desirable that the law relating to the enforcement of British judgments should be the same as that relating to the enforcement of foreign judgments, Clause 8 of the Bill provides for the extension of the new law to judgments given by British courts, and prescribes the circumstances in which Ordinance No. 41 of 1921 will cease to be operative in Ceylon.

5. The other Clauses of the Bill are modelled on the relevant provisions of the Foreign Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) Act, 1933. The District Court of Colombo will, however, continue, as under the existing law, to be the only court vested with jurisdiction for the purpose of registering and enforcing British and foreign judgments.
