DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to make provision for the regulation and control of the prices of commodities.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Control of Prices Ordinance, No.        of 1936.

Power of Executive Committee to make regulations.

2 (1) If it appears to the Executive Committee that there is, or is likely to arise, in this Island or in any part thereof, any shortage of or any unreasonable increase in the price of any article, the Executive Committee may make such regulations as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of remedying or preventing that shortage or increase in price.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by the foregoing provision, regulations made by the Executive Committee may—

- (a) prescribe the maximum price (both wholesale and retail) above which any article shall not be sold in the Island or in any part thereof and the conditions of such sale, including conditions as to the time and place of the sale and the quantity and quality of the article to be sold ;
- (b) provide for the appointment, constitution and functions of a general advisory board and of one or more local advisory boards and confer on such board or boards the power to advise as to the prices at which and the conditions subject to which any article may be sold ;
- (c) include provision for preventing the hoarding of articles, for requiring returns and information, for the summoning of witnesses or informants, for the administration of oaths, for the production or impounding of documents, for the search and inspection of premises, for the seizure, sale and destruction of articles and the disposal of forfeited articles ;
- (d) contain such incidental or consequential provisions as appear to the Executive Committee to be necessary or expedient for securing the effective exercise and discharge of the powers and duties of the Executive Committee under this Ordinance and of any powers or duties conferred or imposed on any board appointed or constituted for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(3) Regulations made by the Executive Committee under this section may be limited in operation to any particular place or part of the Island and in duration for any prescribed time or period.

(4) Every regulation made by the Executive Committee under this section shall be published in the Gazette and shall come into operation upon such publication.

(5) Every regulation made by the Executive Committee shall be brought before the State Council as soon as may be after the publication thereof by a motion that such regulation shall be approved and, if so approved, shall be submitted to the Governor for ratification.

(6) Any regulation which the State Council refuses to approve or which the Governor refuses to ratify shall be deemed to be rescinded, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder or to the making of any new regulation. The date on which a regulation shall be deemed to be so rescinded shall be the date on which the State Council refuses to approve or the Governor refuses to ratify the regulation, as the case may be.

(7) Notification of the date on which any regulation made by the Executive Committee is deemed to be so rescinded shall be published in the Gazette.

(8) Any regulation made by the Executive Committee shall, when approved by the State Council and ratified by the Governor, be as valid and effectual as if it were herein enacted. Notification of such approval and ratification shall be published in the Gazette.

3 Any person who commits a breach of any regulation made by the Executive Committee under this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction after summary trial before a Police Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment, and, in the case of such an offence being continued or repeated after such conviction, to an additional fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for each day on which such offence is continued or repeated, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment; and the Court may order the forfeiture of the article in respect of which the offence was committed.

Penalty for breach of regulations.

4 The provisions of this Ordinance or of any regulation made thereunder shall have no application to any article imported, purchased or stored by or on behalf of the Naval, Military or Civil Authorities for the use of His Majesty's Forces or the Civil Administration.

Application of Ordinance.

5 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—
“ article ” means any article of food, drink, or merchandise ;
“ Executive Committee ” means the Executive Committee of Labour, Industry and Commerce.

Interpretation.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to take power to enable the Executive Committee of Labour, Industry and Commerce to make regulations to prevent or remedy any shortage in, or unreasonable increase in the price of, any article of food, drink, or merchandise.

2: The Bill is modelled on the Foodstuffs (Prevention of Exploitation) Act, 1931, and reproduces the essential provisions of the Prices Regulation Ordinance, No. 36 of 1917, which is no longer in operation in the Island.

G. C. S. COREA,

Minister for Labour, Industry and Commerce.
