1. Before proceeding with the business on the agenda the Chairman addressed the Council as follows :—

"Gentlemen, you are all aware that we no longer have as our King the one to whom we expressed our loyalty and allegiance in January last. It is not for me to refer to the circumstances which have rendered necessary the loss of a sovereign whom the people of Galle as the people of the whole Empire love and respect so greatly. I know that I express the feelings of this Council when I say that we have the same loyalty and devotion to his dear brother and successor who will to-day be proclaimed King George VI. As the Proclamation of the new King's accession has not yet been made in England or in Ceylon I do not propose that any resolution should be passed at this meeting of the Council."
