THE IRRIGATION ORDINANCE, NO. 45 OF 1917.

Scheme for the Improvement of Village Irrigation Works.

SCHEME in accordance with the provisions of Chapter VI. of the Irrigation Ordinance, No. 45 of 1917, approved under section 12 (1) (b) at a meeting duly held on January 4, 1937, by the prescribed majority of the proprietors within the irrigable area of the Puhulpola-ela irrigation work in the Udukinda division, Province of Uva, and sanctioned by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 45 of the aforesaid Ordinance, and by Article 93 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931.

D. S. SENANAYAKE,
Minister for Agriculture and Lands.

Colombo, May 31, 1937.

1. Name and description of work: Puhulpola-ela, Dambawinipalata Kotala, Udukinda division, Badulla District, Province of Uva.

2. Extent and nature of lands irrigable under the scheme:—

Private lands under cultivation	..	19½ acres approximately
Private lands not under cultivation	..	—
Crown lands under cultivation	..	—
Crown lands not under cultivation	..	2 acres approximately

3. Terms agreed upon—

(1) The construction of the following items of the necessary work, namely, a partial anicut into Dolgolla-oya, retaining wall and head sluice with ancillary scour and low level silt gates up to the estimated cost of Rs. 1,300 is undertaken by the Government.

(2) In consideration of the aforesaid undertaking on the part of the Government, the proprietors on their part undertake to complete the following items of work free of all charges, namely, 70 cubes earthwork in improving channel bed and bund in addition to such work as is necessary to repair the retaining walls, all such work being in accordance with the specifications issued by the Divisional Irrigation Engineer and to the satisfaction of the Government Agent.

(3) The proprietors further agree to pay to the Government in full settlement of the cost, incurred by the Government in the construction of the items of work aforesaid, a construction rate of Rs. 3.45 per acre per annum for a period of five years from the date of completion of the irrigation work.

(4) The proprietors further agree to contribute, after the completion of the work, all labour required for its maintenance and repair, free of all charges.

(5) The proprietors further agree that in the event of any default on the part of any of them in contributing any uncommutable labour due under this scheme, the Government Agent may cause such labour to be performed by any other person and recover the cost thereof in the manner prescribed in Chapter VIII. of the Ordinance.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint Rev. R. S. de Saram to be a member of the Board of Education for a further period of three years with effect from May 18, 1937, in accordance with section 6 (2) of Ordinance No. 1 of 1920.

By His Excellency's command,

C. W. W. KANNANGARA,

The Ministry of Education, Minister for Education.
Colombo, May 29, 1937.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ORDINANCE,
NO. 11 OF 1920.

BY-LAW made by the Batticaloa Urban District Council under sections 164 and 168 of the Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920, approved by the Local Government Board and confirmed by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said section 164 and by Article 93 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931.

S. W. R. D. BANDARANAIKE,
Minister for Local Administration.

Colombo, June 1, 1937.

BY-LAW.

The by-laws published by Notification in Gazette No. 8,095 of December 14, 1934, as amended by Notification in Gazette No. 8,140 of August 16, 1935, are hereby further amended by the substitution, for the by-laws relating to hair-dressing saloons or barbers' shops, of the following new by-laws:—

HAIRDRESSING SALOONS OR BARBERS' SHOPS.

I.—Conditions of Issue of Licence.

No person shall be entitled to obtain a licence to keep a hairdressing saloon or barber's shop unless the building or part of the building to be used for the purpose, and the equipment of the saloon or shop, are in conformity with the following conditions and requirements:—

1. The building or part of the building—

- (a) must be substantially constructed, and must have a floor space of not less than 120 square feet: provided that the requirements of this paragraph shall not apply to any building in which a saloon or shop is carried on or kept at the date of the publication of this by-law in the Gazette; and
(b) must have its walls lime-plastered and lime-washed, its roof provided with a wooden or other similar ceiling painted white, its floor cemented, and the junction of the floor with the walls rounded off with cement; and
(c) must be well lighted and well ventilated; and
(d) must be provided with satisfactory drains, and with satisfactory latrine accommodation either within the building or on the premises.

2. If any part of the building is used or is intended to be used for residential purposes, that part must be in conformity with the requirements of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance, No. 19 of 1915.

3. The saloon or shop must be provided with—

- (a) a sufficient supply of water at all times during which the saloon or shop is open to customers; and
(b) means for securing an adequate supply either of boiling water or of disinfectants, for the purpose of washing or sterilizing the instruments or appliances in daily use;

- (c) facilities for the hairdressers or barbers to wash their hands during the course of their work ;
- (d) a sufficient number of receptacles for the disinfectants to be used for sterilizing instruments or appliances ;
- (e) a sufficient supply of towels and overalls for the use of the customers ;
- (f) a sufficient number of spittoons, kept by the side of the seats in such manner as to be readily available to customers and employees ; and
- (g) a covered and movable dust-bin made of galvanized iron or other impervious material, for the reception of hair-clippings and refuse.

II.—Regulations for Licensed Hairdressing Saloons or Barbers' Shops.

1. The licensee of a hairdressing saloon or barber's shop shall—

- (a) keep affixed, in a conspicuous position outside the saloon or shop, a board bearing the words "Licensed Hairdressing Saloon" or "Licensed Barber's Shop," as the case may be ; and
- (b) keep affixed, in a conspicuous position within the saloon or shop, a framed copy of these regulations in each of the languages, English, Sinhalese, and Tamil.

2. The licensee of a hairdressing saloon or barber's shop shall—

- (a) cause the walls of such saloon or shop to be limo-washed and the ceiling painted at least once in six months ; and
- (b) keep clean the floor, walls, ceiling, fixtures, furniture, and equipment of such saloon or shop.

3. The licensee of a hairdressing saloon or barber's shop shall cause every hairdresser or barber employed by him in such saloon or shop—

- (a) to keep his person and his wearing apparel clean ;
- (b) to keep his finger-nails short and free from dirt ; and
- (c) to wash his hands with soap and water immediately before attending to each customer.

4. The licensee of a hairdressing saloon or barber's shop shall—

- (a) cause every spittoon in such saloon or shop to be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition ;
- (b) cause every hair-brush or comb used in such saloon or shop to be washed or cleaned, and sterilized or disinfected, every day, and to be kept in a clean and sanitary condition at all times ;
- (c) cause every shaving mug or cup, shaving brush, clipper, razor, or other cutting instrument, used in such saloon or shop to be well rinsed and cleaned in hot water after each occasion on which it is used ; and
- (d) cause all hair-clippings and other refuse to be collected after each customer has been attended to, and to be deposited in the dust-bin provided for the purpose.

5. The licensee of a hairdressing saloon or barber's shop shall not use, or permit any hairdresser or barber employed by him in such saloon or shop to use, on any customer—

- (a) any styptic pencil, powder-puff or sponge ; or
- (b) any alum or other material for the purpose of stopping any bleeding, unless such alum or other material is in powder or liquid form.

6. The licensee of a hairdressing saloon or barber's shop shall not supply, for the use of any customer, any towel which is not fresh from the wash or any overall which is not clean.

TENDERS are hereby invited for the dieting of prisoners in Fiscal's custody at the Chilaw Jail for the period commencing from October 1, 1937, and terminating on September 30, 1938.

2. All tenders should be in duplicate and sealed under one cover, and should be addressed to the Chairman, Tender Board, General Treasury (P. O. Box 500), Colombo.

3. Tenders should either be deposited in the tender box, in the General Treasury (Room No. 223, 2nd floor, Galle Face, Secretariat), Colombo, or be sent through the post under registered cover.

4. Tenders should be marked "Tender for Dieting Remand Prisoners, Chilaw Jail," in the left hand top corner of the envelope, and should reach the General Treasury not later than midday on July 20, 1937.

5. The tenders are to be made upon forms which will be supplied upon application at the Office of the Deputy Fiscal, Chilaw, and no tender will be considered unless it is on the recognized form. Alterations and erasures must be initialled, otherwise the tenders may be treated as informal and rejected.

6. A cash deposit of Rs. 50 will be required to be made at any Kachcheri or at the Chilaw Treasury, and a receipt produced for the same before any form of tender is issued. Should any person decline or fail to enter into the contract and bond after he has tendered, or fail to furnish the approved security within ten days of receiving notice in writing of the acceptance of the tender, such deposit will be forfeited to the Crown, and the defaulter will render himself liable to be included in the list of defaulting contractors precluded from having any concern in a Government contract. All other deposits will be returned after signature of the contract. Notice of acceptance of the tender will be deemed to have been received by the tenderer if it has been sent by post addressed to or left at the address given by the tenderer.

7. Samples must be deposited, if required.

8. Each tender must be accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, whose addresses must be given, engaging to become security for the due fulfilment of the contract.

9. The successful tenderer will be required to furnish such security as may be determined by the Tender Board or the Head of the Department (as the case may be) and to sign a bond with two sureties for a like amount for the due fulfilment of the contract.

10. The contract may not be assigned or sublet without the authority of the Tender Board.

11. No contract shall be entered into with any person whose name is on the list of Crown defaulting contractors, nor shall the contractor employ any person to whom the Fiscal, North-Western Province, for reasons which appear to him sufficient, objects after giving due notice of his objection in writing. The contractor shall not issue power of attorney to any person whose name is on the list of Crown defaulting contractors for carrying on work under the contract.

12. No tender will be considered unless in respect of it all the conditions above laid down have been strictly fulfilled.

13. Particulars in regard to dieting are as follows:—

Three meals to be served per day as specified below at the hours stated—

- 6 A.M. : Morning meal—Tea with sugar. Hoppers, three.

- (d) To pay for any property or rights acquired by the Company, either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by any securities which the Company has power to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally on such terms as the Company may determine.
- (e) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire, protect, prolong, and renew any patents, patent rights, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, manufacture, develop or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights or information so acquired, and to expend money in experimenting upon and testing and in improving or seeking to improve any patents, inventions or rights which the Company may acquire or propose to acquire.
- (f) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to give any guarantees.

- (g) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in or securities of any company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same.
- (h) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employes or ex employes of the Company or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurances, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition or for any public, general, or useful object.
- (i) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company.
- (j) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, rebuild or improve any real or inheritable immovable and personal or movable property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, concessions, farms, wharves, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade.
- (k) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, railways, branches, or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, buildings, residences, workmen's houses, electric works, telegraphs, shops, stores and other works, machinery and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof.
- (l) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities, including the purchase of immovable property, in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and to sell, vary or otherwise deal with the same.
- (m) To lend money to such persons and bodies and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to companies or firms in which the Company may be directly or indirectly interested, and to guarantee the performance of contracts or the due payment of any moneys, including principal, interest, and dividends of any shares, stocks, or securities, by any company or person.
- (n) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities.
- (o) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, deal in and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, drafts, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments.
- (p) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any country or place, and to obtain any Provisional Order or Act of Parliament, or any enactment, decree, or other legislative or executive act of any empire, kingdom, state, republic, colony, municipality, or other authority for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any alteration or modification of the Company's constitution.
- (q) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights, privileges, concessions, and easements of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, fully or partly paid, debentures or securities of any other Company.

- (r) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.
- (s) To adopt such means of making known the business and products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations.
- (t) To pay all or any part of the expenses of and incident to the formation and establishment of the Company, and to remunerate any person or Company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures, debenture stock or other securities of the Company, or in or about the conduct of the Company's business.
- (u) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the Shareholders.
- (v) To do all or any of the above things in the Island of Ceylon or in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, sub-contractors, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.
- (w) To do all such other things as the Company shall think may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them or otherwise likely in any respect to be advantageous to the Company and in case of doubt as to what shall be so necessary, incidental, conducive, convenient or advantageous as aforesaid, the decision of an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be conclusive.

It being hereby declared that in the foregoing paragraphs of this clause (unless a contrary intention appears) the word "person" includes any number of persons and a corporation, and that the word "company" except where used in reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled or incorporated in the Island of Ceylon or elsewhere, and that the "objects" specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. None of such paragraphs, or the objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred, shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first or any other paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in the Island of Ceylon or elsewhere, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first or any other paragraph of this clause.

4. The liability of the Shareholders is limited.

5. (a) The nominal capital of the Company is One Million rupees (Rs. 1,000,000) divided into 70,000 "A" ordinary shares of Ten rupees (Rs. 10) each, and 30,000 "B" ordinary shares of Ten rupees (Rs. 10) each with power to increase or reduce the capital, to consolidate or subdivide the shares into shares of larger or smaller amounts and to issue all or any part of the original or any increased capital with any special or preferential rights or privileges or subject to any special terms and conditions and either with or without any special designation and also from time to time to alter, modify, commute, abrogate or deal with any rights, privileges, terms, conditions or designations for the time being attached to any class of shares in accordance with the regulations for the time being of the Company.

(b) The said "A" ordinary shares and the said "B" ordinary shares shall rank pari passu in all respects as to dividends voting and otherwise except that in a winding up the assets available for distribution shall be applied first in paying off the capital paid up or credited as paid up on the said "A" ordinary shares in priority to the said "B" ordinary shares, secondly in paying off the capital paid up or credited as paid up on the said "B" ordinary shares and lastly the balance (if any) shall be divided between the holders of the said "A" ordinary shares and the said "B" ordinary shares rateably in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up thereon.

(c) The rights for the time being attached to the said "A" ordinary shares and "B" ordinary shares in the capital may be altered or dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association.

BUSINESS.

6. Commencement of Business.—The Company may proceed to carry out the objects for which it is established or any one or more of them and to employ and apply its capital as soon after the registration of the Company as the Directors in their discretion shall think fit; and notwithstanding that the whole of the shares shall not have been subscribed, applied for, or allotted, they shall do so as soon as in the judgment of the Directors a sufficient number of shares shall have been subscribed or applied for.

AGREEMENT.

7. Agreement.—The Company shall forthwith enter into with or without modification an agreement to be made between Rothmans (Ceylon), Limited, of the one part and this Company of the other part in terms of the draft a copy of which has for the purpose of identification been endorsed with the signature of Percival Stephen Martensz, a Proctor of the Supreme Court, and the Board shall forthwith carry the same into effect with full power, nevertheless from time to time to agree to any modification of the terms thereof either before or after the execution thereof. The basis on which the Company is established is that the Company shall carry the said agreement into effect, subject to such modification (if any) as aforesaid and accordingly no objection shall be made to the said agreement by this Company or by any shareholder, creditor, or liquidator thereof upon the ground that the promoters or other persons interested stand in a fiduciary position towards this Company or that there is in the circumstances no Independent Board of this Company and any Director of this Company, who is interested therein shall be entitled to retain and dispose of for his own use all benefits (if any) accruing to him directly or indirectly under or by virtue of the said agreement or of any other agreement in connection therewith or supplemental thereto and the said agreement when executed with or without modification shall not be liable to be set aside on any such grounds as aforesaid or upon any ground in any wise connected therewith and every Shareholder of the Company present and future shall be deemed to have full notice of the contents of the said agreement and to sanction the same and to agree to be bound thereby or by any such modification thereof as aforesaid and to join the Company on the basis aforesaid.

8. Business to be carried on by Directors.—The business of the Company shall be carried on by or under the management or direction of the Directors or of the Managing Director and subject only to the control of General Meetings in accordance with these presents.

CAPITAL.

9. Nominal Capital.—(a) The nominal capital of the Company is One Million rupees (Rs. 1,000,000) divided into 70,000 “A” ordinary shares of Rs. 10 each, and 30,000 “B” ordinary shares of Rs. 10 each.

(b) The said “A” ordinary shares and the said “B” ordinary shares shall rank pari passu in all respects as to dividends voting and otherwise except that in a winding up the assets available for distribution shall be applied first in paying off the capital paid up or credited as paid up on the said “A” ordinary shares in priority to the said “B” ordinary shares, secondly in paying off the capital paid up or credited as paid up on the said “B” ordinary shares, and lastly the balance (if any) shall be divided between the holders of the said “A” ordinary shares and the said “B” ordinary shares rateably in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up thereon.

(c) The rights for the time being attached to the said “A” ordinary shares and “B” ordinary shares in the capital may be altered or dealt with in accordance with these presents.

SHARES.

10. Issue and allotment.—The shares except where otherwise provided shall be allotted at the discretion of and by the Directors who may from time to time issue any unissued shares grant options and rights of pre-emption over the same and may add to such shares such an amount of premium as they may consider proper. The Directors may also at their discretion allot any unissued shares in payment for any property movable or immovable purchased or acquired by the Company or for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company and may make arrangements on an issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment of such calls.

11. Commission and Brokerage for placing shares, &c.—The Directors may at any time pay a commission to any person for subscribing or agreeing to subscribe (whether absolutely or conditionally) for any shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company or for procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions (whether absolute or conditional) for any share debentures or debenture stock of the Company. The Directors may also pay such brokerage as may be lawful. Such commission and/or brokerage may if thought fit be paid in cash or satisfied in fully paid shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company or partly in cash and partly in fully paid shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company. The Directors may also as further consideration grant an option or options to apply for and take up any of the shares of the Company.

12. Payment of amount of shares by instalments.—If by the conditions of allotment of any share the whole or part of the amount thereof shall be payable by instalments every such instalments shall when due be paid to the Company by the holder of the share.

13. Acceptance.—Every person taking any share in the Company shall testify his acceptance thereof by writing under his hand in such form as the Directors from time to time direct.

14. Payment.—Payment for shares shall be made in such manner as the Directors shall from time to time determine and direct.

15. Shares held by a firm.—Shares may be registered in the name of a firm, and any partner of the firm or agent duly authorized to sign the name of the firm shall be entitled to vote and to appoint proxies, but not more than one partner may vote at a time.

16. Shares held by two or more persons not in partnership.—Shares may be registered in the names of two or more persons not in partnership.

17. One of joint-holders other than a firm may give receipts; only one of joint-holders resident in Ceylon entitled to vote.—Any one of the joint-holders of a share other than a firm may give effectual receipts for any dividends payable in respect of such share; but only one of such joint-holders shall be entitled to the right of voting and of appointing proxies and exercising the other rights and powers conferred on a sole Shareholder and if the joint-holders cannot arrange amongst themselves as to who shall vote or appoint proxies and exercise such other rights and powers conferred on a sole Shareholder, the Shareholder whose name stands first on the register of shares in respect of such joint-holding shall vote or appoint proxies and exercise those rights and powers; provided, however, that in the event of such first registered Shareholder being absent from the Island the first registered Shareholder in respect of such joint-holding then resident in Ceylon shall vote or appoint proxies and exercise all such rights and powers as aforesaid.

18. Survivor of joint-holders, other than a firm, only recognized.—In case of the death of any one or more of the joint-holders other than a firm of any share the survivor shall be the only person recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in such share but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint-holder from any liability in respect of any share jointly held by him.

19. Liability of joint-holders.—The joint-holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of such share.

20. Trust or any interest in share other than that of registered holder or of any person under Article 40 not recognized.—The Company shall not be bound to recognize (even though having notice of) any contingent, future, partial, or equitable interest in the nature of a trust or otherwise in any share or any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right thereto in the person from time to time registered as the holder thereof and except also the right of any person under Article 40 to become a Shareholder in respect of any share.

INCREASE OF CAPITAL.

21. Increase of capital by creation of new shares.—The Company in General Meeting may by special resolution from time to time increase the capital by creation of new shares of such amount per share and in the aggregate and with such special preferential, deferred, qualified, or other rights, privileges, or conditions attached thereto as such resolution shall direct.

22. Issue of new shares.—The new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such preferential, deferred, qualified, special, or other rights, privileges, or conditions attached thereto, as the special resolution creating the same or in default the Board shall direct; and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets of the Company and with a special or without any right of voting. The Directors shall have power to add to such new shares such an amount of premium as they may consider proper.

23. How carried into effect.—Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the special resolution creating the increase of capital and subject to any prior option or right of pre-emption all new shares shall be allotted or otherwise disposed of to such persons and for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as the Board may determine and the Board may give to any person the call of any new shares either at par or at a premium and for such time and on such terms and conditions as the Board may think fit. The Directors may also at their discretion allot such new shares or any portion of them in payment for any property movable or immovable, purchased or acquired by the Company or for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company.

24. Same as original capital.—Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and instalments, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender, and otherwise.

REDUCTION OF CAPITAL AND SUBDIVISION OR CONSOLIDATION OF SHARES.

25. Reduction of capital and subdivision or consolidation of shares.—The Company in General Meeting may, by special resolution, reduce the capital in such manner as such special resolution shall direct, and may, by special resolution, subdivide or consolidate the shares of the Company or any of them.

SHARE CERTIFICATES.

26. Certificates how issued.—Every Shareholder shall be entitled without payment to one certificate for all the shares of each class registered in his name or to several certificates each for one or more of such shares. Every certificate shall specify the class and the distinctive number of the share in respect of which it is issued and the amount paid thereon, provided that in the case of shares registered in the names of two or more persons other than a firm the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate to all the joint-holders and delivery of such certificate to any one of them shall be sufficient delivery to all.

27. Certificates to be under seal of Company.—The certificates of shares shall be issued under the seal of the Company.

28. Renewal of certificate.—If any certificate be worn out or defaced then upon production thereof to the Directors they may order the same to be cancelled and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof; and if any certificate be lost or destroyed then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors and on such indemnity with or without security as the Directors deem adequate being given a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the person entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate. A sum of fifty cents, together with the amount of any costs and expenses which the Company has incurred in connection with the matter shall be payable for such new certificate.

TRANSFER OF SHARES.

29. Transfer of shares.—Subject to the restriction of these articles any Shareholder may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing.

30. (a) Notice.—The person proposing to transfer any share (hereinafter called "the proposing transferor") shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called "the transfer notice") to the Company that he desires to transfer the same. Such notice shall specify the sum he fixes as the fair value and shall constitute the Company his agent for the sale of the share at the prize so fixed or at the option of the purchaser at the fair value to be fixed by the auditors in accordance with these Articles. The transfer notice may include several shares and in such case shall operate as if it were a separate notice in respect of each. The transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the sanction of the Directors.

(b) How shares to be offered to Shareholders.—The Company may by extraordinary resolution make and from time to time by extraordinary resolution vary rules as to the mode in which any share specified in any transfer notice given to the Company as aforesaid shall be offered to the Shareholders and as to their rights in regard to the purchase thereof and in particular may give any Shareholder or class of Shareholders a preferential right to purchase the same. Until otherwise determined by extraordinary resolution of the Company the shares specified in the transfer notice given to the Company as aforesaid shall be offered by the Company in the first place to such person as may be selected by the Managing Director whom he may deem it desirable in the interests of the Company to admit to membership. Any shares not taken up by the person selected by the Managing Director as aforesaid within 30 days shall be offered by the Company to the Shareholders other than the proposing transferor as nearly as may be in proportion to the existing shares held by them respectively. The offer whether to a person selected as aforesaid or to a Shareholder shall in each case limit the time (not exceeding 30 days) within which the same if not accepted will be deemed to be declined and may notify to the Shareholders that any Shareholder who desires an allotment of shares in excess of his proportion should in his reply state how many excess shares he desires to have and if all the Shareholders do not claim their proportion the unclaimed shares shall be used at the discretion of the Managing Director for satisfying the claims in excess of any one or more Shareholders to the exclusion of the others. If any shares shall not be capable without fractions of being offered to the Shareholders in proportion to their existing holdings the same shall be offered to the Shareholders or some of them in such proportions or in such manner as may be determined by lots to be drawn under the direction of the Directors.

(c) Company's power.—If the Company shall within the time limited as aforesaid or within 60 days after being served with the transfer notice find a person selected as aforesaid or a Shareholder willing to purchase the share (hereinafter called "the purchasing Shareholder") and shall give notice thereof to the proposing transferor he shall be bound upon payment of the fair value to transfer the share to the purchasing Shareholder.

(d) Auditors certificate as to value.—In case any difference arises between the proposing transferor and the purchasing Shareholder as to the fair value of a share the auditors shall on the application of either party certify in writing the sum which in their opinion is the fair value and such sum shall be deemed to be the fair value and in so certifying the auditors shall be considered as acting as experts and not as arbitrators.

(e) Default by proposing transferor.—If in any case the proposing transferor after having become bound as aforesaid makes default in transferring the share the Company may receive the purchase money and shall thereupon cause the name of the purchasing Shareholder to be entered in the register as the holder of the share and shall hold the purchase-money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company for the purchase-money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing Shareholder and after his name has been entered in the register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

(f) Default by Company.—If the Company shall not within the time limited as aforesaid or within 60 days after being served with the transfer notice find a person selected as aforesaid or Shareholder willing to purchase the shares and give notice in manner aforesaid the proposing transferor shall at any time within 30 days afterwards be at liberty to sell and transfer the shares (or those not placed) to any person and at any price.

31. No transfer to minor or person of unsound mind.—No transfer of shares shall be made to a minor or person of unsound mind.

32. Register of transfers.—The Company shall keep a book or books to be called "The Register of Transfers" in which shall be entered the particulars of every transfer or transmission of any share.

33. Instrument of transfer.—The instrument of transfer of any share shall be in writing in the usual or common form and shall be signed both by the transferor and transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof. Shares of different classes shall not be transferred on the same instrument of transfer without the consent of the Board. With the consent of the Board allotments of shares may be renounced in favour of a nominee of the original allottee.

34. Board may decline to register transfers.—The Board may at their own absolute and uncontrolled discretion decline to register any transfer of shares by a Shareholder who is indebted to the Company.

35. Not bound to state reason.—In no case shall a Shareholder or proposed transferee be entitled to require the Directors to state the reason for their refusal to register but their declination shall be absolute.

36. Registration of transfer.—Every instrument of transfer must be left at the office to be registered accompanied by the certificate of the shares comprised therein and such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor and a fee of Rs. 2·50 or such other sum as the Directors shall from time to time determine must be paid; and thereupon the Directors subject to the powers vested in them by Articles 30, 34, 35, and 37 shall register the transferee as a Shareholder and retain the instrument of transfer. The Directors may waive the production of any certificate upon evidence satisfactory to them of its loss or destruction and on receipt of such indemnity (if any) as the Directors may require.

37. Directors may authorize registration of transferees.—The Directors may by such means as they shall deem expedient authorize the registration of transferees as Shareholders without the necessity of any meeting of the Directors for that purpose.

38. Directors not bound to inquire as to validity of transfer.—In no case shall the Directors be bound to inquire into the validity, legal effect, or genuineness of any instrument of transfer produced by a person claiming a transfer of any share in accordance with these Articles; and whether they abstain from so inquiring or do so inquire and are misled, the transferor shall have no claim whatsoever upon the Company in respect of the share except for the dividends previously declared in respect thereof, but if at all upon the transferee only.

39. Transfer books when to be closed.—The transfer books may be closed during the fourteen days immediately preceding every Ordinary General Meeting including the First Ordinary General Meeting; also when a dividend is declared for the three days next ensuing the meeting; also at such other times as the Directors may decide not exceeding in the whole twenty-one days in any one year.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

40. Title to shares of deceased holder.—Subject and without prejudice to the provisions of Article 20 hereof the executors or administrators or the heirs of a deceased Shareholder not being a joint-holder shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to shares of such Shareholder.

41. Registration of persons entitled to shares otherwise than by transfer.—Any curator of any minor Shareholder, any Committee of a lunatic Shareholder, or any person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or liquidation of any Shareholder or the marriage of any female Shareholder or in any other way than by transfer shall upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this article or of his title as may from time to time be required by the Directors be registered as a Shareholder in respect of such shares on payment of a fee Rs. 2·50; or may subject to the regulations as to transfers hereinbefore contained transfer the same to some other person.

42. Failing such registration, shares may be sold by the Company.—If any person who shall become entitled to be registered in respect of any share under Article 41 shall not from any cause whatever, within twelve calendar months after the event on the happening of which his title shall accrue be registered in respect of such share or if in the case of the death of any Shareholder no person shall within twelve calendar months after such death be registered as a Shareholder in respect of the shares of such deceased Shareholder the Board may sell the same and give a receipt for the purchase money and the purchaser shall be entitled to be registered in respect of such share and shall not be bound to inquire whether the events have happened which entitled the Board to sell the same; the nett proceeds of such sale after deducting all expenses and all moneys in respect of which the Company is entitled to a lien on the shares so sold shall be paid to the person entitled thereto. Provided, however, that upon any sale by the Board under the terms of this Article the provisions of these Articles as to transfer of shares shall apply mutatis mutandis as far as practicable, the Board performing all duties assigned to a proposing transferor.

43. Curator of minor, &c., when not entitled to vote.—The curator of a minor Shareholder, the Committee or other legal guardian of any lunatic Shareholder, the husband of any female Shareholder not entitled to her shares as separate estate, and the executor or administrator or heir of any deceased Shareholder shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend or vote at meetings of the Company or save as aforesaid and save as regards the receipt of such dividends as the Board shall not elect to retain to exercise any of the rights and privileges of a Shareholder unless and until he shall have been registered as the holder of the shares.

SURRENDER AND FORFEITURE OF SHARES.

44. The Directors may accept surrender of shares.—The Directors may accept in the name and for the benefit of the Company and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon a surrender of the shares of Shareholders who may be desirous of retiring from the Company.

45. If call or instalment not paid, notice to be given to Shareholder.—If any Shareholder fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid serve a notice on such Shareholder requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued at the rate of 9 per cent. per annum and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

46. Terms of notice.—The notice shall name a day (not being less than seven days from the date of the notice) on and a place or places at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid; the notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited. Should the Shareholders in respect of whose shares such call or instalment remains unpaid be in England or elsewhere abroad three months' notice shall be allowed him.

47. In default of payment, shares to be forfeited.—If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter before payment of calls or instalments with interest and expenses due in respect thereof be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

48. Shareholder still liable to pay money owing at time of forfeiture.—Any Shareholder whose shares have been so declared forfeited shall, notwithstanding be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of forfeiture, together with interest thereon at 9 per cent. per annum or at such less rate as may be fixed by the Directors from the time of forfeiture until payment, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

49. Surrendered or forfeited shares to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, &c.—Every share surrendered or so declared forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold, reallocated, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms as the Board shall think fit and in case of reallocation with or without any money paid thereon by the former holder being credited as paid up. Provided, however, that upon any sale by the Board under the terms of this Article the provisions of these Articles as to transfer of shares shall apply mutatis mutandis as far as practicable the Board performing all duties assigned to a proposing transferor.

50. Effect of surrender or forfeiture.—The surrender or forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof, and all other rights incident to the share except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

51. Certificates of surrender or forfeiture.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors that a share has been duly surrendered or forfeited stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture; such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company; such purchaser thereupon shall be deemed the holder of such share discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

52. Forfeiture may be remitted.—The Directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money by way of redemption money for the deficit as they shall think fit not being less than 9 per cent. per annum on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made but no share bona fide sold or reallocated or otherwise disposed of under Article 49 hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

53. Company's lien on shares.—The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares registered in the name of each Shareholder (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for his debts, liabilities, and engagements solely or jointly with any other person to or with the Company whether the period for the payment, fulfilment, or discharge thereof shall have actually arrived or not and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that Article 20 hereof is to have full effect and such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares and to all moneys paid in advance of calls thereon. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien (if any) on such shares.

54. Lien how made available and proceeds how applied.—For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Board may sell the shares subject thereto, but no sale shall be made until such time as the moneys are presently payable and notice in writing stating the amount due and giving notice of intention to sell in default, shall have been served on such Shareholder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares and default shall have been made for seven clear days after such notice. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities, and engagements aforesaid and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the Shareholder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares or who would be so entitled but for such sale. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, ninety days' notice shall be allowed him. Provided, however, that upon any sale by the Board under the terms of this Article the provisions of these Articles as to transfer of shares shall apply mutatis mutandis as far as practicable, the Board performing all duties assigned to a proposing transferor.

55. Certificate of sale.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors that the power of sale given by Article 54 has arisen, and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact therein stated.

56. Transfer on sale how executed.—Upon any such sale two of the Directors may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such share.

SHARES OF DIFFERENT CLASSES.

57. Preference and deferred shares.—Any shares from time to time to be issued or created may from time to time be issued with any such right of preference, whether in respect of dividend or of payment of capital, or both, or any such other special privilege or advantage over any shares previously issued or then about to be issued (other than the 70,000 "A" ordinary shares referred to in Article 9 hereof and any other shares issued with a preference), or with such deferred rights as compared with any shares previously issued or then about to be issued, or subject to any such conditions or provisions, and with any such right or without any right of voting, and generally on such terms as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine.

58. Modification of rights and consent thereto.—If at any time the capital is divided into shares of different classes—

- (1) the holders of any class of shares by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders may consent, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith, or having any priority thereto, or the abandonment of any preference or priority, or of any accrued dividend or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the class of shares.

- (2) all or any of the rights, privileges, and conditions attached to each class may be commuted, abrogated, abandoned, added to, or otherwise modified by a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting, provided the holders of any class of shares affected by any such commutation, abrogation, abandonment, addition, or other modification of such rights, privileges, and conditions consent thereto on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders.

Any extraordinary resolution passed under the provisions of this Article shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class, provided that this Article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent as aforesaid in any case in which but for this Article the object of the resolution could have been effected without it. The consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the shares of the class shall have the same effect as an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of the holders of shares of the class and any such consent in writing may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more of the holders of shares of the class.

59. Meeting affecting a particular class of shares.—Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding Article shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company; provided that no Shareholder, not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that at any such meeting a poll may be demanded by the Chairman or in writing by any two Shareholders present, and entitled to vote at the meeting. A Director although not a holder of shares of the class affected may act as proxy at any such meeting.

CALLS.

60. Directors may make calls.—The Directors may from time to time (subject to any terms upon which any shares may have been issued) make such calls as they think fit upon the Shareholders in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares, provided that ten days' notice at least be given of each call and that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal amount of a share or be made payable within two months after the last preceding call was payable. Each Shareholder shall be liable to pay the calls so made and any money payable on any share under the terms of allotment thereof to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Board. A call may be revoked or the time fixed for its payment postponed by the Board.

61. Calls time when made.—A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing the call was passed at a Board Meeting of the Directors or was signed in terms of Article 132.

62. Extension of time for payment of call.—The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof, on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension, except as a matter of grace or favour.

63. Interest on unpaid call.—If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment is not paid on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalment shall have been due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 9 per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the Directors may, when they think fit, remit altogether or in part any sum becoming payable for interest under this Article. Any sum whether payable on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium which by the terms of allotment of a share is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, and any instalment of a call or premium shall for all purposes of these presents be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment and in case of non-payment, the provisions of these presents as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, lien and the like, and all other the relevant provisions of these presents shall apply as if such sum, premium, or instalment were a call duly made and notified as hereby provided.

64. Payment in anticipation of calls.—The Directors may at their discretion receive from any Shareholder willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the amount due upon the shares held by him beyond the sum actually called up.

BORROWING POWERS.

65. Power to borrow.—(a) The Directors shall have power from time to time, at their discretion, to borrow or raise from the Directors or other persons any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount at any one time owing in respect of moneys so borrowed or raised, shall not without the sanction of a General Meeting exceed the sum of Ten thousand Rupees (Rs. 10,000). The Directors shall with the sanction of a General Meeting, be entitled to borrow or raise from the Directors or other persons such further sum or sums, and at such rate of interest as such meeting shall determine. Provided, however, that the Directors shall have power from time to time at their discretion, and without the sanction of a General Meeting, to borrow or raise for the purposes of the Company from Rothmans, Limited, a company registered in England under the Companies Acts and Rothmans (Ceylon), Limited, also a company registered in England under the Companies Act, 1929, or either of them any sum or sums of money at such rate of interest, and upon such terms and conditions as the Directors shall think fit.

(b) The Directors may for the purpose of securing the repayment of any such sum or sums of money so borrowed or raised create and issue any mortgages, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, property, and rights or assets of the Company (both present and future), including uncalled capital or unpaid calls or give, accept, or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange. Provided, that before the Directors execute any mortgage issue any debentures or create any debenture stock in favour of any person other than the said Rothmans, Limited, and Rothmans (Ceylon), Limited, or either of them they shall obtain the sanction thereto of the Company in General Meeting whether ordinary or extraordinary notice of the intention to obtain such sanction at such meeting having been duly given.

Any such securities may be issued either at par or at a premium or discount and may from time to time be cancelled or discharged, varied, or exchanged as the Directors may think fit, and may contain any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, or otherwise. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued. A declaration under the Company's seal contained in or endorsed upon any of the documents mentioned in this Article and subscribed by two or more of the Directors to the effect that the Directors have power to borrow the amount which such document may represent shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors, and no such document containing such declaration shall as regards the creditor be void on the ground of its being granted in excess of the aforesaid borrowing power, unless it shall be proved that such creditor was aware that it was so granted.

MEETINGS.

66. First General Meeting.—The First General Meeting of the Company shall be held at such time, not being more than twelve months after the registration of the Company, and at such place as the Directors may determine.

67. Subsequent General Meetings.—Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no time or place is prescribed at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors.

68. Ordinary and Extraordinary General Meetings.—The General Meetings mentioned in the two last preceding Articles shall be called Ordinary General Meetings; all other meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

69. When Extraordinary General Meeting to be called.—The Directors may, whenever they think fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting, and the Directors shall upon a requisition made in writing by one or more Shareholders holding not less than one-quarter of the issued capital and entitled to vote forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, and in case of such requisition the following provisions shall have effect:—

- (1) Any requisition so made shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called shall be addressed to the Directors and deposited at the office and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more of the requisitionists. Upon the receipt of such requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within seven days from the deposit of the requisition the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to be held at such place and at such time as the requisitionists convening the meeting may themselves fix, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after 3 months from the date of such deposit.

- (2) If at any such meeting a resolution requiring confirmation at another meeting is passed the Board shall forthwith convene a further Extraordinary General Meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution, and if thought fit, of confirming it as a special resolution; and if the Board do not convene the meeting within seven days from the date of the passing of the first resolution the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the meeting.

70. Postponement of General Meeting.—Any General Meeting (whether Ordinary or Extraordinary) convened by the Directors unless the time thereof shall have been fixed by the Company in General Meeting, or unless such General Meeting be convened in pursuance of such requisition as is in Article 69 hereof mentioned may be postponed by the Directors by notice in writing or by advertisement, and the meeting shall subject to any further postponement or adjournment be held at the postponed date for the purpose of transacting the business covered by the original notice.

71. Notice of resolution.—Any Shareholder may on giving not less than ten days' previous notice of any resolution dealing with any business submit the same to a meeting. Such notice shall be given by depositing a copy of the resolution at the office.

72. Business requiring and not requiring notification.—Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened or of the business to be transacted thereat to receive and consider the profit and loss account (if any), the balance sheet of the Company, the report of the Directors and Auditors, to elect Directors, Auditors, and other officers in place of those retiring, to fix the remuneration of the Auditors, to sanction and declare dividends, and to transact any business which under these presents ought to be transacted at any Ordinary General Meeting and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatever of which special mention shall have been made in the notice upon which the meeting was convened.

73. Period of notice of meeting to be given.—Subject as hereinafter provided twenty-one days' notice at least of every General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary and by whomsoever convened specifying the place, date, hour of meeting and the objects and business of the meeting shall be given either by advertisement in the Ceylon Government Gazette or by notice sent by post or otherwise served as hereinafter provided, but an accidental omission to give such notice to any Shareholder shall not invalidate the proceedings at any General Meeting. Provided, however, that holders of preference shares or shares of any particular class shall not be entitled to receive notice of any meeting at which by the conditions or provisions attached to such preference shares or shares of such particular class they shall not be entitled to attend or vote. Provided further that with the consent of all the Shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at any such meeting a meeting may be convened by a shorter notice and in any manner such Shareholders think fit. Provided also that any meeting for the purpose of confirming a resolution as a special resolution may be convened on seven days' notice.

74. Two meetings convened by one notice.—Where it is proposed to pass a special resolution the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the second meeting contingently on the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first meeting.

75. Quorum to be present.—No business shall be transacted at a General Meeting except the declaration of a dividend or the adjournment of the meeting, unless there shall be present in person at the commencement of the business two or more persons being Shareholders entitled to vote or persons being proxies or attorneys of Shareholders entitled to vote.

76. If quorum not present, meeting to be dissolved or adjourned; adjourned meeting to transact business.—If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of persons shall not be present at the meeting the meeting if convened by or upon the requisition of Shareholders shall be dissolved but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum be not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting those Shareholders who are present shall be deemed to be a quorum and may do all business which a full quorum might have done. No notice of such adjournment need be given.

77. Chairman of the Board or a Director to be Chairman of General Meeting in case of their absence or refusal, a Shareholder may act.—The Chairman of the Board shall be entitled to take the Chair at every General Meeting whether Ordinary or Extraordinary; but if there be no Chairman or if at any meeting he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting or if he shall refuse to take the Chair the Shareholders shall choose another Director as Chairman; and if no Directors be present or if all the Directors present decline to take the Chair then the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

78. Business confined to election of Chairman while Chair vacant.—No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting except the election of a Chairman whilst the Chair is vacant.

79. Chairman may adjourn meeting.—The Chairman may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by one or more person or persons being a Shareholder or Shareholders entitled to vote or a person or persons being proxy or proxies or attorney or attorneys of Shareholders entitled to vote and holding or representing in the aggregate not less than 25 per cent. of the shares in respect of which votes may be tendered at the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time (not exceeding an interval of 30 days in any case) and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place unless due notice shall be given. Any directions calling for an adjournment as aforesaid may be given by letter or cablegram addressed to the Company and delivered at the office at any time before the meeting and/or may be given by writing to the Chairman at the meeting.

80. Minutes of General Meeting.—Minutes of the proceedings of every General Meeting whether Ordinary or Extraordinary shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose and shall when so entered be signed as soon as practicable by the Chairman of the same meeting or by the Chairman of the succeeding meeting and the same when so entered and signed shall be evidence of all such proceedings and of the proper election of the Chairman.

VOTING AT MEETINGS.

81. Votes.—At any meeting every resolution shall in the first instance be decided by a show of hands. In case there shall be an equality of votes the Chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and unless a poll be immediately demanded by the Chairman or in writing by some Shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or lost and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number and validity of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

82. Poll.—If at any meeting a poll be demanded by the Chairman or by a notice in writing signed by some Shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote which notice shall be delivered during the meeting to the Chairman the meeting shall if necessary be adjourned and the poll shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the Chairman shall direct and in such case every Shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting at which such poll shall have been taken shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy and attorney and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such meeting.

83. Poll on question of adjournment.—Any poll demanded on a question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting and without adjournment. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

84. Voting in person or by proxy or attorney.—Votes may be given either personally or by proxy or by attorney duly authorized.

85. Number of votes to which Shareholder entitled.—Subject to any special terms as to voting upon which any shares may be issued or may for the time being be held every Shareholder present in person or who is represented by an attorney or every proxy not being himself a Shareholder or not being a Shareholder entitled to vote shall have one vote on a show of hands and upon a poll every Shareholder present in person or by proxy or attorney shall have one vote for every share held by him.

86. Who may act as proxy and attorney.—A proxy or an attorney of a Shareholder even though not himself a Shareholder of the Company may represent and vote for his principal at any meeting of the Company or of any class of Shareholders of the Company.

87. No Shareholder in arrear to exercise rights and no Shareholder in arrear or not registered at least three months previous to the meeting to vote.—No person shall exercise any rights of a Shareholder until his name shall have been entered in the register of Shareholders, and he shall have paid all calls and other moneys for the time being payable on every share in the Company held by him and no Shareholder shall be entitled to vote or speak at any General Meeting unless all calls due from him on his shares or any of them shall have been paid; and no Shareholder other than the curator of a minor Shareholder, the Committee of a lunatic Shareholder, or the person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or liquidation of any Shareholder or the marriage of any female Shareholder shall be entitled to vote or speak at any meeting held after the expiration of three months from the registration of the Company in respect of or as the holder of any share which he has acquired by transfer, unless he has been at least three months previous to the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote or speak duly registered as the holder of the share in respect of which he claims to vote or speak.

88. Instrument of proxy to be in writing.—Every instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorized in writing or if such appointor is a corporation under the common seal or under the hand of some attorney of such corporation duly authorized in writing in that behalf.

89. When instrument of proxy to be deposited.—The instrument appointing a proxy with the letter or power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed shall be deposited at the office at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote; otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution.

90. When power of attorney to be deposited.—The power of attorney under which a person proposes to vote shall be deposited at the office for registration in the books of the Company at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be at which the person named in such power of attorney proposes to vote; otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

91. Form of instrument of proxy.—Every instrument of proxy whether for a specified meeting or otherwise shall as nearly as circumstances will admit be in the form or to the effect following:—

Rothmans Ceylon Agencies, Limited.

I, _____ of _____, being a Shareholder of Rothmans Ceylon Agencies, Limited, hereby appoint _____, of _____, or failing him _____, of _____, or failing him _____, of _____, as my proxy to vote for me and on my behalf at the (Ordinary or Extraordinary, as the case may be), General Meeting of the Company to be held on the _____ day of _____, and at any adjournment thereof.

As witness my hand this _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____.

92. Objection to validity of vote to be made at the meeting or poll.—No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) except at the meeting or poll at which such vote shall be tendered and every vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) to which no objection shall be made at such meeting or poll shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such meeting or poll whatsoever.

93. No Shareholder to be prevented from voting by being personally interested in result.—No Shareholder shall be prevented from voting by reason of his being personally interested in the result of the voting.

DIRECTORS.

94. Number of Directors.—Until otherwise determined by a General Meeting the number of Directors shall never be less than three nor more than seven. In the event of the number of Directors in Ceylon ever being reduced to less than three the remaining Directors or Director shall immediately cause to be convened an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders for the purpose of filling up one or more of the vacancies; but in the event of a quorum of Shareholders not attending such meeting (which shall not be adjourned for the purpose of enabling a quorum to be present) the remaining Directors or Director shall themselves or himself appoint a Director or Directors to fill one or more of the vacancies. Any Director or Directors so appointed shall hold office until the next Ordinary General Meeting of the Company. Until such appointment the remaining Directors or Director shall not act except for the purpose of appointing another or others and if necessary enabling him or them to be placed on the register of Shareholders.

95. Qualification of Directors.—The qualification of a Director shall be the holding of 50 shares of the Company of the nominal value of rupees ten (Rs. 10) each of any class whether fully paid or partly paid and upon which in the case of a partly paid up share all calls for the time being shall have been paid. A Director may act before acquiring his qualification but shall in any case acquire the same within two months from his appointment or election.

96. Remuneration of Directors.—Each of the Directors other than the Managing Director shall be paid out of the funds of the Company by way of remuneration for his services a sum calculated at the rate of fifty rupees (Rs. 50) monthly. The Directors' remuneration shall be deemed to accrue de die in diem.

97. Remuneration for special services.—If any Director being willing shall render or be called upon to perform extra or special services of any kind or to travel or to go or reside abroad for any business or purposes of the Company he shall be entitled to receive such sum as the Board may think fit for expenses and also such remuneration as the Board think fit either as a fixed sum or as a percentage of profits or otherwise, and such remuneration may as the Board shall determine be either in addition to or in substitution for any other remuneration he may be entitled to receive and the same shall be charged as part of the ordinary working expenses.

98. Directors holding other office under Company.—A Director may hold any other office or position under the Company in conjunction with his Directorship (other than that of Auditor) and on such terms with respect to remuneration and otherwise as the Directors shall determine; and a Director may by himself or his firm act in any professional capacity (other than that of Auditor) for the Company and shall be entitled to remuneration accordingly as if he were not a Director.

99. Appointment of first Directors.—The first Directors shall be Peter Wilberforce Robinson, Leslie George Byatt, Edward Becket Creasy, Soma Sundaram, and Herbert Sri Nissanka, all of Colombo.

100. Company may increase number of Directors.—The Company may subject to the consent of the Board from time to time in General Meeting but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed as above increase the number of Directors then in office and upon passing any resolution for an increase may appoint the additional Director or Directors necessary to carry the same into effect.

101. Retirement of Directors.—Subject to the provisions herein contained with respect to a Managing Director all the Directors for the time being shall retire at every Ordinary General Meeting of the Company but shall be eligible for re-election. The retiring Directors shall act as Directors throughout the meeting at which they retire.

102. Appointment of successors.—The Company may at every Ordinary General Meeting fill up the vacated office of each Director by electing a person thereto. And if at any such meeting the place of any retiring Director is not filled up such retiring Director shall be deemed to have been re-elected unless on due notice a resolution reducing the number of Directors is passed at the same meeting.

103. Power of Directors to appoint additional Directors.—The Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any other person as a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board, but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed. 140. Copy of balance sheet to be sent to Shareholders.—A printed copy of such balance sheet shall at least seven days previous to such meeting be delivered at or posted to the registered address of every Shareholder.

DIVIDENDS, BONUS, AND RESERVE FUND.

141. Where any asset is bought by the Company as from a past date (whether such date be before or after the incorporation of the Company) upon the terms that the Company shall as from that date take the profits and bear the losses thereof, such profits or losses, as the case may be, shall at the discretion of the Directors be credited or debited wholly or in part to revenue account and in that case the amount so credited or debited shall, for the purpose of ascertaining the fund available for dividend, be treated as a profit or loss arising from the business of the Company.

142. Division of profits.—Subject to the rights of holders of shares issued upon special conditions and to any arrangement that may be made by the Company to the contrary and subject as to shares not fully paid-up to any special arrangement made as regards money paid in advance of calls and subject to the provisions of these presents as to reserve fund the profits of the Company shall be divisible among the Shareholders in proportion to the capital paid or credited as paid on the shares held by them respectively.

143. Declaration of dividends.—The Company in General Meeting may declare a dividend to be paid to the Shareholders according to their rights and interests in the profits and may fix the time for payment. Provided always that if shares shall have been issued during the course of a financial year the holder thereof shall subject to any arrangement made by the Directors to the contrary only be entitled to have paid to him in respect of dividends on such shares a proportionate part of the dividends for such financial year calculated on the proportionate part of the year from the date on which such shares were allotted treating such dividends as earned rateably over the whole year. No dividend shall be payable out of the capital of the Company and the declaration of the Board as to the amount available for dividend shall be conclusive. No dividend shall exceed the amount recommended from time to time by the Board, but the Company in General Meeting may declare a smaller dividend.

144. Payment of dividend in specie, &c.—Any General Meeting may direct payment of any dividend declared at such meeting or of any interim dividend which may subsequently be declared by the Directors wholly or in part in sterling by means of drafts or cheques on London or by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company or of any other company or in any other form of specie or in any one or more of such ways and the Directors shall give effect to such direction; and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution they may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof, and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Shareholder upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Board.

145. Interim dividend.—The Directors may also if they think fit from time to time and at any time without the sanction of a General Meeting determine on and declare an interim dividend to be paid and (or) pay a bonus to the Shareholders on account and in anticipation of the dividend for the then current year.

146. Capitalization of reserve.—The Company in General Meeting may at any time and from time to time pass a resolution that any sum not required for the payment or provision of any fixed preferential dividend and (a) for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve fund or reserve account of the Company, including premiums received on the issue of any shares or debentures of the Company or any sum arising from any operation creating an excess of assets on capital account or (b) being undivided net profits in the hands of the Company be capitalized and that such sum be set free for distribution and be appropriated as capital to and amongst the Shareholders or amongst the members of any class of Shareholders in accordance with their rights and in the shares and proportions in which they would have been entitled thereto if the same had been distributed by way of dividend on the shares and in such manner as the resolution may direct and such resolution shall be effective provided that such powers shall not be exercised unless recommended by the Board and the Directors shall in accordance with such resolution apply such sum in paying up in full (or with the consent of the Shareholders aforesaid in part) any unissued shares or debentures or other obligations of the Company on behalf of the Shareholders aforesaid and appropriate such shares or debentures or other obligations and distribute the same credited as fully paid up (or as the case may be partly paid up) amongst the Shareholders aforesaid in the proportions aforesaid in satisfaction of their shares and interests in the said capitalized sum or shall apply such sum or any part thereof on behalf of the Shareholders aforesaid in paying up the whole or part of any uncalled balance which shall for the time being be unpaid in respect of any issued shares held by the Shareholders aforesaid or otherwise deal with such sum as directed by such resolution. Where any difficulty arises in respect of any such distribution the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular they may issue fractional certificates fix the value for distribution of any shares or debentures, debenture stock or other obligations make cash payments to any Shareholders on the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust rights and vest any such shares or debentures or other obligations in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to share in the appropriation and distribution as may seem just and expedient to the Directors.

147. Unpaid interest or dividend not to bear interest.—No unpaid interest or dividend shall ever bear interest against the Company.

148. No Shareholder to receive dividend while debt due to Company.—No Shareholder shall be entitled to receive payment of any dividend or bonus in respect of his share or shares whilst any moneys may be due or owing from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company in respect of such share or shares or otherwise howsoever.

149. Directors may deduct debt from the dividends.—The Directors may deduct from the dividend payable to any Shareholder all sums of money due from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company and notwithstanding such sums shall not be payable until after the date when such dividend is payable.

150. Dividends may be paid by cheque or warrant and sent through the post.—Unless otherwise directed any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the Shareholder entitled thereto or in the case of joint-holders to the registered address of that one whose name stands first on the register in respect of the joint-holding; but the Company shall not be liable or responsible for the loss of any such cheque or dividend warrant sent through the post.

151. Notice of dividend; forfeiture of unclaimed dividend.—Notice of all dividends to become payable shall be given to each Shareholder entitled thereto; and all dividends unclaimed by any Shareholder for three years after notice thereof is given may be forfeited by a resolution of the Board of Directors for the benefit of the Company and if the Directors think fit may be applied in augmentation of the reserve fund. For the purposes of this Article any cheques, drafts, or warrants which may be issued for dividends and may not be presented at the Company's bankers for payment within 3 years shall rank as unclaimed dividends.

152. Shares held by a firm.—Every dividend payable in respect of any share held by a firm may be paid to and an effectual receipt given by any partner of such firm or agent duly authorized to sign the name of the firm.

153. Joint-holders other than a firm.—Every dividend payable in respect of any share held by several persons jointly other than a firm may be paid to and an effectual receipt given by any one of such persons.

AUDIT.

154. Accounts to be audited.—The accounts of the Company shall from time to time be examined, and the correctness of the profit and loss account and balance sheet ascertained by one or more auditor or auditors.

155. Qualification of Auditors.—No person shall be eligible as an Auditor who is interested otherwise than as a Shareholder in any transaction of the Company but an Auditor shall not be debarred from acting as a professional accountant in doing any special work for the Company which the Directors may deem necessary. It shall not be a necessary qualification for an Auditor that he be a Shareholder of the Company and no Director or officer of the Company shall during his continuance in office be eligible as an Auditor.

156. Appointment and retirement of Auditors.—The Directors shall appoint the first Auditor or Auditors of the Company and fix his or their remuneration; all future Auditors except as is hereinafter mentioned shall be appointed at the Ordinary General Meeting of the Company in each year by the Shareholders present thereat and shall hold their office only until the next Ordinary General Meeting after their respective appointments or until otherwise ordered by a General Meeting.

157. Retiring Auditors eligible for re-election.—Retiring Auditors shall be eligible for re-election.

158. Remuneration of Auditors.—The remuneration of the Auditors other than the first shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting and this remuneration may from time to time be varied by a General Meeting.

159. Vacancy in Office of Auditors how filled up.—If any vacancy that may occur in the office of Auditor shall not be supplied at any Ordinary General Meeting or if any casual vacancy shall occur the Directors shall (subject to the approval of the next Ordinary General Meeting) fill up the vacancy by the appointment of a person who shall hold the office until such meeting.

160. Duty of Auditor.—Every Auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the profit and loss account and balance sheet intended to be laid before the next Ordinary General Meeting and it shall be his duty to examine the same with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and to report thereon to the meeting generally or specially as he may think fit.

161. Company's accounts to be open to Auditors for audit.—All accounts, books, and documents whatsoever of the Company shall at all times be open to the Auditors for the purpose of audit.

NOTICES.

162. Notices how authenticated.—Notices from the Company may be authenticated by the signature (printed or written) of the person appointed by the Board to do so.

163. Shareholders to register address.—Every Shareholder shall furnish the Company with an address which shall be deemed to be his place of abode, and shall be registered as such in the books of the Company. A Shareholder may in addition to his own address furnish the Company with the address of his attorney in Ceylon and the address of the attorney shall be registered as such in the books of the Company.

164. Service of notices.—(a) A notice may be served by the Company upon any Shareholder either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such Shareholder at his registered address, wherever it may be, and in the case of a Shareholder whose registered address shall be in the United Kingdom, such notice shall be sent in manner aforesaid by the air mail and any notice so served shall be deemed to be well served for all purposes notwithstanding that the Shareholder to whom such notice is addressed be dead unless his executors or administrators shall have given to the Directors their own or some other address. (b) In the case of any Shareholder who has registered the address of his attorney as well as his own a copy of any notice served upon such Shareholder in manner aforesaid shall also be served upon such attorney either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such Shareholder at the address of such attorney and a copy of such notice so served shall be deemed to be well served for all purposes notwithstanding that such Shareholder or the said attorney be dead, unless the executors or administrators of such Shareholder shall have given to the Directors instructions varying or cancelling the registration of the address of such attorney.

165. Notice to joint-holders of shares other than a firm.—All notices directed to be given to Shareholders shall with respect to any share to which persons other than a firm are jointly entitled be sufficient if given to any one of such persons and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such shares.

166. Date and proof of service.—Any notice sent by post shall be deemed to have been served on the day on which the letter envelope or wrapper containing the same is posted, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter envelope or wrapper containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post-office. A certificate in writing signed by any Manager, Secretary, or other officer of the Company that the letter envelope or wrapper containing the notice was so addressed and posted shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

167. All notices required to be given by advertisement shall be published in the Ceylon Government Gazette.

ARBITRATION.

168. Directors may refer disputes to arbitration.—Whenever any question or other matter whatsoever arises in dispute between the Company and any other Company or person the same may be referred by the Directors to arbitration pursuant to and so as with regard to the mode and consequence of the reference and in all other respects to conform to the provisions in that behalf contained in the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, and/or The Arbitration Ordinance, 1866, or any then subsisting statutory modification thereof.

EVIDENCE.

169. Evidence in action by Company against Shareholders.—On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought or instituted by the Company against any Shareholder or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was when the claim arose on the register of Shareholders of the Company as a holder of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company; and it shall not be necessary to prove the registration of the Company nor the appointment of the Directors who made any call nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted nor any other matter whatsoever but the proof aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

PROVISIONS RELATIVE TO WINDING UP OR DISSOLUTION OF THE COMPANY.

170. Purchase of Company's property by Shareholders.—Any Shareholder whether a Director or not or whether alone or jointly with any other Shareholder or Director and any person not a Shareholder may become the purchaser of the property of the Company or any part thereof in the event of a winding up or a dissolution or at any other time when a sale of the Company's property or effects or any part thereof shall be made by the Directors under the powers hereby or under the Ordinance conferred upon them.

171. Distribution.—If the Company shall be wound up and there shall be any surplus assets after payment of all debts and satisfaction of all liabilities of the Company, such surplus assets shall be applied first in repaying to the holders of the shares issued with a preference (if any) the amounts that may be due to them, whether by way of capital only or by way of capital and dividend or arrears of dividend or otherwise in accordance with the rights, privileges, and conditions attached thereto and the balance in repaying to the holders of the ordinary shares the amounts paid up or reckoned as paid up on such ordinary shares. If after such payments there shall remain any surplus assets such surplus assets shall be divided among the ordinary Shareholders in proportion to the capital paid up or reckoned as paid up on the shares which are held by them respectively at the commencement of the winding up, unless the conditions attached to the preference shares or shares issued with a preference expressly entitle such shares to participate in such surplus assets.

172. Payments in specie, and vesting in trustees, rights contributory to dissent, &c.—If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator whether voluntary or official may with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution divide among the contributories in specie any part of the assets of the Company and may with their sanction vest any part of the assets of the Company in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator with like sanction shall think fit, and if thought expedient, any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the Shareholders of the Company and in particular any class may be given preferential or special rights or may be excluded altogether or in part and the liquidator shall be entitled to sell all or any of the assets of the Company in consideration of or in exchange for shares ordinary, fully paid, part paid, or preference in the purchasing Company, but in case any division otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories shall be determined on or any sale made of any or all of the assets of the Company in exchange for shares in the purchasing company either ordinary, fully paid, or part paid or preference any contributory who would be prejudiced thereby shall have right to dissent as if such determination were a special resolution passed pursuant to section 234 of the Companies Act of 1929, in England, but for the purposes of an arbitration as in sub-section (6) of the said section, provided the provisions of the Ceylon Arbitration Ordinance, 1866, and/or of the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, shall apply in place of the English and Scottish Acts referred to in the said sub-section (6) of section 234 of the aforesaid Companies Act, and the said section 234 save as herein excepted shall be deemed to be part and parcel of these present Articles.

THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THANAVIRTHI NITHI, LIMITED.

1. The regulations contained in Schedule C of Ordinance No. 4 of 1861, except Rules 66 to 86 inclusive, shall not apply to the Company.

2. The nominal capital of the Nithi is Rs. 10,000, divided into 1,000 shares of Rs. 10 each, payable in twenty monthly instalments of 50 cents per share, and could be withdrawn with interest at 6 per cent. per annum accruing thereon from the date of completion of payment.

The Shareholders shall have power, by resolution passed at a Meeting of the Shareholders convened for the purpose, to authorize the Board of Directors to increase the capital.

SHARES.

3. Any person desirous of taking any share in the Company shall apply to the Managing Director of the Company.

4. If any Shareholder fails to pay any instalment due on account of his share or shares on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, such share or shares will be forfeited and become the property of the Company. The Directors may sell or otherwise dispose of same in such manner as they think fit.

TRANSFER OF SHARES.

5. No Shareholder shall transfer his share or shares except with the previous approval of the Board of Directors. The instrument of transfer shall be in writing and signed by the transferor and transferee.

BORROWING POWERS.

6. The Directors may from time to time, if and when necessary and desirable, borrow, for the purposes of the Company, any sum or sums of money and they may secure the moneys so borrowed by mortgages, bonds, or other instruments of charge upon the whole or any part or parts of the Company's property or assets.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

7. The first General Meeting shall be held at such time not being more than twelve months after the incorporation of the Company, and at such place as the Directors may determine.

8. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and, if no other time or place is prescribed, a General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors.

9. The above-mentioned General Meetings shall be called Ordinary Meetings: all other General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary.

10. The Directors may whenever they think fit, and they shall, upon a requisition made in writing by any number of Shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than one-fifth part of the shares of the Company, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting.

11. Seven days' notice at the least, specifying the place and the hour of Meeting and the purpose for which any General Meeting is to be held, shall be given by advertisement, or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company.

12. Any Shareholder may, on giving not less than three days' previous notice of any resolution, submit the same to a Meeting.

13. No business shall be transacted at any Meeting except the declaration of a dividend, unless a quorum of Shareholders is present at the commencement of such business.

The quorum shall be half the number of existing Shareholders, with the limitation that it shall never exceed 30.

14. Every Shareholder shall have one vote for every share up to ten: he shall have an additional vote for every five shares beyond the first ten shares.

15. No Shareholder shall be entitled to vote at any Meeting unless all calls due from him have been paid.

DIRECTORS.

16. The number of the Directors and the names of the first Directors shall be determined by the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association.

17. Until Directors are appointed the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association shall, for all purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed to be Directors.

QUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS.

18. The qualification of a Director shall be that he shall hold at least five shares of the Company.

POWERS OF DIRECTORS.

19. The management of the business of the Company shall be vested in the Directors.

MANAGING DIRECTOR.

20. The Directors shall appoint one of their body to be Managing Director, who shall be permanent (while the other Directors only shall retire from office at the Ordinary Meeting).

The said Managing Director shall have power to perform for and on behalf of the Board of Directors, all acts that may be deemed by him to be necessary to promote the objects of the Company, provided he does not act contrary to the Articles of Association and to any law in force for the time being in this Island.

He shall also have power to appoint, for and on behalf of the Board of Directors, all employees of the Company.

The other Directors shall not question his acts or interfere with his management unless he does anything contrary to the Articles of Association and to any law in force for the time being in this Island.

REMUNERATION TO MANAGING DIRECTOR.

21. As remuneration for his services the Managing Director shall be paid a salary or an allowance, which shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

CHAIRMAN AND SECRETARY.

22. The Board of Directors shall elect among themselves a Chairman and Secretary of the Board. Such Chairman and Secretary of the Board shall be the Chairman and Secretary of the Company.

ELECTION OF SUBSEQUENT DIRECTORS.

23. At the first Ordinary Meeting after the incorporation of the Company, all the Directors—except the permanent Managing Director—shall retire from office and the Meeting shall elect the Board of Directors.

A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

MEETING OF DIRECTORS.

24. A Director may at any time summon a Meeting of the Directors, who may determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business.

Signature and Address.

Surveying and Levelling Examination.

THE examination for the Surveyor-General's licence in surveying and levelling (Ordinance No. 26 of 1909), will be held in two parts, written and practical. The written examination will begin on October 18, and the practical examination on November 15, 1937.

2. The examination will be held in Colombo only.

3. To enter for the above examination application must be made on the forms prescribed by the regulations. These forms can be obtained from the Surveyor-General.

(i.) Applicants to sit for this examination should produce proof that they have passed the Cambridge Senior Examination or any other equivalent or higher examination. Applicants who are unable to produce such proof must forward a certificate from the Principal of the Ceylon Technical College or the Head of any other recognized educational Institution to show that they have studied English, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry and Trigonometry up to the standard specified in paragraph 5 (i.) to (iii.), in the syllabus given below.

(ii.) Each applicant must also produce a certificate to show that he has studied Surveying and/or Levelling and Draughtsmanship under a fully qualified Surveyor and/or Leveller and Draughtsman, or at the Technical College or at a recognized Survey Training School, for at least one year before the Examination.

4. Candidates must pay the following fees to the Surveyor-General before the date of closing of entries, viz., September 17, 1937:—

	Rs.
For an examination in surveying only ..	30
For an examination in levelling only ..	20
For an examination in surveying and levelling	50

5. The subjects of the written examination will be as follows:—

(i.) English.—one paper.—[An exercise in composition and question set to test the candidate's knowledge and command of English.]

(ii.) Arithmetic and Algebra.—one paper.—[Arithmetic.—The principles and process of arithmetic applied to whole numbers and vulgar and decimal fractions. The metric system. Approximations to a specified degree of accuracy. Contracted methods of multiplication and division of decimals. Ratio and proportion; percentage. Averages. Practical applications of arithmetic.
Algebra.—Symbolical expression of general results in arithmetic algebraic laws and their applications. Factors of simple binomial or quadratic expressions; Equations of the first or second degree, and problems leading thereto. Square root. Graphs of simple rational integral algebraic functions. Arithmetical and harmonical progression. Geometrical progression. Theory of indices. Logarithms and the use of logarithmic tables. Binomial theorem for a positive integral index.]

(iii.) Geometry and Trigonometry.—one paper.
[Geometry.—The subjects of Euclid I.—IV., with simple deductions, including easy loci and the areas of triangles and parallelograms, of which the bases and altitudes are given commensurable lengths. (All proofs of geometrical theorems must be geometrical. Euclid's proofs will not be insisted upon.) Similar figures. Mensuration of the circle. Mensuration of the simpler solid bodies, namely, the cube, the rectangular block, the tetrahedron, the sphere, the cylinder, the wedge, the pyramid, and the cone.
Trigonometry.—Up to and including the solution of triangles, together with the practical solutions of triangles and applications, and numerical examples involving the use of logarithmic and other tables.]

(iv.) Surveying.—one paper.—[Chain surveying. The transit and cradle theodolites, their use and their adjustments. Theodolite and compass traverses. Curve ranging. Substense methods and tacheometry. Plane table surveying. Plane triangulation. The determination of azimuth.]

(v.) Levelling.—one paper.—[The dumpy, Y and Cooke's reversible levels, their use and their adjustments. The practice and theory of levelling. Computation of earthwork. Road and railway surveys and setting out. Surveys for water supply works. Contours and the calculation of contents therefrom.]

The percentages of marks required for a pass will be: in papers (i.), (ii.), and (iii.) 40 per cent. in each paper and 50 per cent. in aggregate; in papers (iv.) and (v.) 60 per cent.

6. Candidates in surveying only will be required to pass in papers (i.)–(iv.) inclusive; and candidates in levelling only in paper (v.).

7. Candidates who fail in the written examination will not be required to present themselves for the practical examination.

8. Candidates who pass the written examination will be duly notified of the time and place of the practical examination, which will be sent on the syllabuses in surveying and levelling of the written examination.

9. Candidates will work in the field between hours fixed by the Examiner, and must produce instruments in good order. Defects in instruments will not be accepted as an excuse for bad work. Candidates found to be in communication with anyone during examination hour will be disqualified.

10. All candidates must provide their own instruments, poles, pickets, drawing boards, drawing materials, stationery, labourers, &c., and no assistance in providing requirements will be given in any way.

11. No application will be accepted after September 17, 1937.

12. All communications should be addressed to the Surveyor-General and not to me personally.

GALLE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.Minutes of Proceedings of a General Meeting of the Municipal Council of Galle, held at the Municipal Office on Wednesday, March 17, 1937, at 2 p.m., pursuant to notice dated March 11, 1937.

Present:—Mr. C. Harrison-Jones, Chairman; Mr. K. T. S. Gurusingha, Assistant Chairman; Mr. F. Magdon Ismail; Mr. Thomas Amarasuriya; Mr. E. M. Karunaratna; Mr. A. C. Mohammedo; Mr. W. Dahanayaka; Mr. A. I. H. A. Wahab; Mr. A. Kahaduwa; and Mr. J. C. Cooper.

1. The Minutes of the Meeting held on February 20, 1937, a copy thereof having been furnished to each member were taken as read and confirmed.

2. To consider an estimate of Rs. 750 for improvements, &c., to the Esplanade Pavilion before leasing it to the Galle Cricket Club.

The Chairman moved Council into Committee to consider this item.

Council in Committee—

After discussion, Mr. E. M. Karunaratna, moved that the proposed improvements, viz., the provision of suitable tatts round the upstairs portion of the Pavilion and the construction of two portable dressing rooms on the ground floor, be carried out at a reduced cost of Rs. 500 that a supplemental vote of this amount be sanctioned, and that the work be done on tender. Mr. Thomas Amarasuriya seconded—Carried.

Council resumed, and the Chairman moved that the above resolution of the Council in Committee be adopted.—Carried.

3. The following extracts from the minutes of the Standing Committees were laid before the Council:—

(a) Extracts from the Minutes of the Standing Committee on Municipal Works of March 2, 1937.

(2) Considered applications for water service to the following premises:—(1) 188, Dangedera.—Recommended that the application be allowed for one tap only; (2) 35, Pettigalawatta.—Recommended that the application be allowed for three taps; (3) 845, Halls road.—Recommended that the application be refused; (4) 201, Wakwella road.—Recommended that the application be allowed for one tap; (5) 20 to 225, Richmond Hill road.—Recommended that the application be allowed for one tap; (6) Improved building on Wakwella road belonging to L. Sahabandu.—Recommended that the application be allowed for three taps only; (8) 650B, Kong Tree road.—Recommended that the extension applied for be allowed.

(3) Considered applications for the introduction of the water carriage system to the following premises:—(1) New building on Kumbalwella road belonging to Mrs. M. Sahabandu; (2) new building on Closenber road belonging to Mr. B. Marshall; and (3) 28, Church street.—Recommended that the applications be allowed with 2-gallon cisterns.

(5) Considered Audit query No. 88/I. M. of February 17, 1937, regarding the payment made to R. K. Mohammedo on vouchers Nos. 877, 878, and 879 for scraping water mains.—Recommended that the assignment of the work to Contractor R. K. Mohammedo be sanctioned.

(6) Considered an estimate of Rs. 500 for constructing a temporary pound for seized cattle on the site approved of i.e., at the northern end of the Police barracks between the Dutch cemetery and the Municipal cattle pound.—Recommended that the estimate be passed and that tenders be called for. Recommended, further, that a supplemental vote of Rs. 500 be sanctioned for the purpose.

(7) Considered tenders for constructing stone paved sloping drains on Small Cross street, Fort.—Recommended the acceptance of the tender of R. W. H. Robert for the sum of Rs. 350.

(8) Considered the following estimates:—(a) Rs. 3,450 for extensive patching on Hirimbura road from Main street to Sarenthukade junction; (b) Rs. 3,900 for extensive patching on Wakwella road from the Minuwangoda Level Crossing to Sebestepool junction.—Recommended that the estimates be passed and that the work be carried out departmentally.

(10) Considered together with the Standing Committee on Finance and Assessment, Mr. Dahanayaka's motion at the meeting of the Council on November 21, 1936, viz.:—“That unemployment relief work amounting to labour costs of Rs. 3,000 be undertaken in 1937, and that Government be asked for a grant of one-third this amount”.—Recommended (1) that if unemployment relief work amounting to labour costs of Rs. 3,000 be undertaken it should be on the filling and levelling of the portion of the Galle Esplanade lying between the Sun and the Moon Bastions; (2) that payment to each labourer should be at a rate not exceeding 50 cents a day; (3) that tools be purchased to the value of Rs. 200 and two kankanies employed to supervise the work at a cost of approximately Rs. 300; (4) that a culvert be constructed across Esplanade road, as approved by the Municipal Engineer, at a cost of Rs. 500.

Resolution.

With regard to item (3) it was resolved that the applications be allowed, but that a joint report be obtained from the Municipal Engineer and the Medical Officer of Health on the working of the water carriage systems in the town especially with regard to the following points:—(1) The amount of water available for distribution; (2) the quantity consumed by the water carriage system; and (3) the success or failure of the various installations which have already been allowed.

With regard to item (10) Mr. E. M. Karunaratna moved that the recommendations of the Standing Committee be adopted. Mr. W. Dahanayaka seconded—Carried.

Arising out of this item Mr. W. Dahanayaka moved that the proposed scheme be submitted to Government with a request for a grant to carry out the work. Mr. E. M. Karunaratna seconded—Carried.

The recommendations of the Standing Committee with regard to the remaining items were adopted.

(b) Extracts from the Minutes of the Standing Committee on Finance and Assessment of March 2, 1937.

(2) Considered together with the Standing Committee on Municipal Works, Mr. W. Dahanayaka's motion at the meeting of Council on November 21, 1936, viz. :—“That unemployment relief work amounting to labour costs of Rs. 3,000 be undertaken in 1937, and that Government be asked for a grant of one-third of this amount”.—Recommended (1) that if unemployment relief work amounting to labour cost of Rs. 3,000 be undertaken it should be on the filling and levelling of that portion of the Esplanade lying between the Sun and the Moon Bastions; (2) that payment to each labourer should be at a rate not exceeding 50 cents a day; (3) that tools be purchased to the value of Rs. 200 and two kangamies employed to supervise the work at a cost of approximately Rs. 300; (4) that a culvert be constructed across Esplanade road, as proposed by the Municipal Engineer, at a cost of Rs. 500.

(3) List of demolished buildings in Ward 3.—Recommended that the rates be struck off.

(4) Application from Inspector George for a loan of Rs. 100 to purchase a bicycle.—Recommended the grant of a loan of Rs. 100 to be repayable in ten equal monthly instalments and with interest at 2½ per cent. per annum on the balance outstanding.

(5) Application from Mr. T. L. S. Wijesinghe, Storekeeper, Electricity Department for extra remuneration for collecting monies from prepayment meters.—Recommended that, with effect from January 1, 1937, he be given a remuneration of 3 per cent. of the total collections for each month.

Resolution.

With regard to item (2) Mr. E. M. Karunaratna moved that the recommendations of the Standing Committee be adopted. Mr. W. Dahanayaka seconded—Carried.

Arising out of this item Mr. W. Dahanayaka moved that the proposed scheme be submitted to Government with a request for a grant to carry out the work. Mr. E. M. Karunaratna seconded—Carried.

With regard to item (5) it was resolved that the recommendation of the Standing Committee be adopted with the following addition :—“Provided that the total collections do not exceed Rs. 1,000”.

The recommendations of the Standing Committee with regard to the remaining items were adopted.

(c) Extracts from the Minutes of the Standing Committee on Markets and Sanitation of March 13, 1937.

(2) Considered a draft by-law regarding the prohibition of fishing in sewage polluted waters.—Recommended that the following draft by-law be approved :—“No person shall catch or attempt to catch by any means whatever any fish in any of the following sewage polluted areas situated within the Municipal limits of Galle, or in any other piece of water declared by the Chairman as polluted by refuse or sewage during such period as may be named by him : The Parana-ela, the Pettigala-ela, the Keppu-ela between Mahamodera lake and the sea, and the Moragoda-ela below the Athoya bridge.

Resolution.

With regard to this item Mr. Wahab moved as an amendment that the matter be deferred pending a full report from the Medical Officer of Health. Mr. W. Dahanayaka seconded. The amendment was first put to the meeting and declared lost, 3 voting for and 6 against. The recommendation of the Standing Committee was then put to the meeting and carried by 6 votes to 3. Mr. W. Dahanayaka called for a division which resulted as follows :—For : Messrs. J. E. Perera, F. Magdon Ismail, Thomas Amarasuriya, A. C. Mohammedo, E. M. Karunaratna, and J. C. Cooper. Against : Messrs. A. I. H. A. Wahab, W. Dahanayaka, and A. Kahaduwa.

It was further resolved that the word “sewage” in line 2 of the draft by-law be deleted.

4. To elect, by ballot, a member of the Standing Committee on Markets and Sanitation to fill a vacancy.—Resolved that this matter be deferred for the next meeting.

The Chairman, at this stage, moved a vote of appreciation of the valuable services rendered to the Council and to the town by Dr. H. E. Ekanayaka during his tenure of office as Provincial Surgeon, Southern Province. Mr. J. E. Perera seconded—Carried unanimously.

5. To consider what actions should be taken to give effect to the resolution passed on October 10, 1936, regarding the site for a Town Hall.

The Chairman moved Council in to Committee to consider this item.

Council in Committee—

After discussion, Mr. J. E. Perera moved that a deputation of the Council do wait on the Hon. the Minister of Local Administration, and the Hon. the Minister for Home Affairs to make representations in support of the selected site. Mr. W. Dahanayaka seconded—(1) Carried; (2) Resolved that the deputation do consist of Messrs. J. E. Perera, E. M. Karunaratna, and Thomas Amarasuriya.

Council resumed, and the Chairman moved that the above resolutions of Council in Committee be adopted.—Carried.

6. To consider the seven selected applications for the post of Accountant.

The Chairman moved Council into Committee to consider the applications.

Council in Committee—

After discussion, it was agreed that the following additional names should be included in the list of the selected candidates :—Mr. I. M. Paul Pillai (suggested by Mr. J. E. Perera), Mr. C. P. Dias Bandaranaike (suggested by Mr. Thomas Amarasuriya), and Messrs. W. A. Goonetilleka and E. V. Goonetillaka (suggested by Mr. A. Kahaduwa). The number of selected applications was thus increased from seven to eleven.

Council in Committee first balloted for three out of the eleven candidates. At this ballot Mr. S. M. Haniffa received 6 votes, Mr. W. J. Silva 5 votes, and Messrs. T. D. Abeywardena, and I. M. Paul Pillai 4 votes each.

A ballot was then taken between Mr. Abeywardena and Mr. Paul Pillai and resulted in each receiving 5 votes. The Chairman thereupon gave his casting vote in favour of Mr. Abeywardena. At the final ballot Mr. Haniffa received 5 votes, Mr. Silva 3 votes, and Mr. Abeywardena 2 votes, but as Mr. Haniffa had no clear majority over the other two candidates, yet another ballot was taken between Mr. Haniffa and Mr. Silva and resulted in Mr. Haniffa receiving 7 votes and Mr. Silva 3 votes.

The Chairman then moved that Mr. S. M. Haniffa be appointed to the post of Accountant on one year's probation with effect from May 1, 1937. Mr. A. C. Mohammedo seconded—Carried.

Council resumed, and the Chairman moved that the above resolution of the Council, in Committee be adopted.—Carried.

7. To fix a date for the next General Meeting of the Council. Agreed that the next General Meeting be held on Friday, April 23, 1937, at 3 P.M.

8. The following documents were laid on the table :—

Sale of Toddy Rents, Puttalam and Chilaw Districts, 1937-38.

TENDERS will be received by the Assistant Government Agent, Puttalam and Chilaw Districts, on Thursday, July 8, 1937, at the Chilaw Kachcheri for the purchase of the exclusive privilege of selling fermented toddy by retail in the under-mentioned localities for the period of 12 months from October 1, 1937 to September 30, 1938, subject to the Toddy Rent Sale Conditions published in the Government Gazette No. 8,288 of May 7, 1937, the General Conditions applicable to all Excise licences embodied in Excise Notification No. 316 of May 21, 1937, and Excise Notification No. 317 published in Government Gazette No. 8,288 of May 7, 1937. The tenders in respect of each individual tavern or group of taverns will be received at the hour indicated against the name of the tavern or group in the schedule below.

2. The privileges in respect of the taverns grouped together will be granted either for the area of each individual tavern or for the area of a group of taverns as shown thereunder at the discretion of the Assistant Government Agent, and tenders for these taverns are therefore invited both singly and in groups.

3. Every tender shall be made on the prescribed form obtainable at this Kachcheri, the Chilaw Treasury, and the Kachcheries at Colombo, Kurunegala, and Anuradhapura, as well as at the General Treasury, the Excise Head Office, and the Excise Assistant Commissioners' and Superintendents' Offices, and must be made by the tenderer in his own name. No tender will be accepted if made through an agent.

4. A separate tender shall be made for each tavern or for each group of taverns; and no person shall send in more than one tender for any one tavern or group of taverns.
