DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 5 of 1891, intituled
 “ An Ordinance to incorporate the Public Service
 Mutual Provident Association.”

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Public Service Mutual Provident Association amendment Ordinance, No. of 1937.

Insertion of new section 13A in Ordinance No. 5 of 1891.

2 The following section shall be inserted immediately after section 13 of Ordinance No. 5 of 1891, intituled “ An Ordinance to incorporate the Public Service Mutual Provident Association ” (hereinafter referred to as the “ principal Ordinance ”) and shall have effect as section 13A of that Ordinance :—

Power to contribute to the Provident fund and to pay gratuities.

13A. Subject to and in accordance with Rules made under section 14, it shall be lawful for the corporation out of its moneys and funds to contribute to any provident fund duly established for the benefit of its employees and to pay gratuities to its employees upon their retirement and to the dependants of employees who have died while in the service of the corporation.

Amendment of section 14 of principal ordinance.

3 Section 14 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution for the words “ and otherwise ”, of the words “ for the establishment and regulation of a provident fund for the benefit of the employees of the corporation or any of them and for all matters incidental thereto, including the determination of the amounts from time to time to be paid into such provident fund, whether by such employees or by the corporation from its funds, on account of contributions, bonus, interest, or otherwise, and the manner and conditions of making payments from such provident fund, for the payment of gratuities from the funds of the corporation to specified employees of the corporation upon the retirement of such employees from the service of the corporation or for the benefit of the dependants of specified employees who have died while still in the service of the corporation and for all matters incidental thereto, including the method of calculation and the conditions of payment of such gratuities, and otherwise ”.

Insertion of new section at the end of principal Ordinance.

4 The following section shall be added at the end of the principal Ordinance and shall have effect as section 28 of that Ordinance :—

Saving of rights of the Crown.

28. Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect or be deemed to affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs and Successors, or of anybody politic or corporate, or of any other person, except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from, or under them.

Saving of rights of the Crown.

5 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect or be deemed to affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs and Successors, or of anybody politic or corporate, or of any other person, except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from or under them.

Objects and Reasons.

The Objects of this Bill are :—(1) to insert in Ordinance No. 5 of 1891 a new section 13A which will empower the Public Service Mutual Provident Association to contribute to a provident fund established for the benefit of its employees and to pay gratuities to such employees or their dependants ; (2) to amend section 14 so as to enable Rules to be made for the purpose of supplementing the powers conferred on the corporation by the new section.

COUNCIL OF LEGAL EDUCATION NOTICES.

"The Council of Legal Education Incorporation Ordinance, 1900."

RULES made by the Incorporated Council of Legal Education under section 7 of "The Council of Legal Education Incorporation Ordinance, 1900."

C. C. A. BRITO-MUTUNAYAGAM,
Registrar, Council of Legal Education.
Ceylon Law College,
Colombo, May 1, 1937.

RULES.

The rules made under "The Council of Legal Education Incorporation Ordinance, 1900", (as last amended by notification dated September 30, 1936, published in Gazette No. 8,249 of October 9, 1936), were further amended at a meeting of the Council held on April 26, 1937, as follows:—

1. For the words "Registrar", "Supervising Committee", "Committee", "First Examination in Law", "Second Examination in Law" and "Final Examination in Law", wherever they occur, the words "Principal of Board of Studies", "Board", "Preliminary Examination", "Intermediate Examination" and "Final Examination" are substituted respectively; and for the word "Secretary" the word "Registrar" is substituted in the first ten rules and Rule 47 and the word "Principal" in the others.

2. Between Rule 10 and Rule 11 the following Rule 10A is inserted:—

10A. Academic Year.

"10A. The academic year for the Ceylon Law College shall commence on the Monday of the week in which the first day of October falls every year, and shall consist of three terms each of which shall be of such duration (not exceeding twelve weeks) as will permit of the delivery in accordance with the prescribed time table of one-third of the number of lectures required to be delivered during the year; and during the month of June in each year there shall be notified in such manner as may seem desirable the dates on which the terms of the next academic year shall commence."

3. Rule 11 is amended by inserting the words "(one of whom shall be a Proctor) and the Principal" between the word "Council" and the word "whose" in line 4.

4. (1) Rule 12 is numbered 12 (1) and amended as follows:—

(a) By substituting the words "The Council shall in the month of June appoint by resolution a sufficient number of properly qualified persons to deliver the lectures hereinafter provided for" for the first sentence.

(b) By substituting the words "and they shall perform such duties and" for the words "and shall" in line 7.

(c) By substituting the word "September" for the word "July" in line 12.

(d) By adding to the fourth sentence the words "provided that the term of office of the lecturers appointed in 1937 shall be for such periods (not exceeding three years) as will ensure that one-third of their number shall cease to hold office on August 31st in each of the three succeeding years".

(e) By deleting the last sentence.—

(2) The following is added as sub-section 12 (2):—

"(2) The lecturer in Trust Accounts and Book-keeping shall be a Chartered Accountant, and the lecturers in the other subjects shall be Advocates or Proctors admitted to the profession in Ceylon not less than three years previously and who are either full-time teachers of law at the College or are engaged in practising their profession. Provided however, that the lecturers in Jurisprudence, Roman Law and Constitutional Law need have been so admitted only one year previously, but must hold a law degree of a University in the British Empire which required them to pass in the subject in which they are to lecture, and the lecturer in Conveyancing, Office management and Notarial practice shall be a Proctor who was so admitted not less than ten years previously."

5. Rule 13 is amended by substituting the words "shall from time to time and not less than twice annually" for the words "may from time to time".

6. Rule 14 is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—

"14. Each lecturer shall in accordance with the approved time table deliver the lectures and hold the classes hereinafter prescribed for the subjects in respect of which he holds office."

7. Rule 15 is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—

"15. One lecturer shall be appointed in respect of and be responsible for each of the following subjects or groups of subjects, and he shall during each academic year deliver the lectures and hold the classes herein indicated, provided that on the report of the Board of Studies the Council may from time to time by resolution alter the number of lectures and classes allotted to each subject and divide or re-group the subjects in such manner as may seem desirable."

8. Rule 16 is amended by deleting the words "and time table" wherever they occur and substituting the word "September" for the word "June" in line 6.

9. Rule 17 is amended by adding at the end of the first sentence the words "including a list of the relevant Ordinances and cases".

10. Rule 20 is amended by substituting the word "Principal" for the words "Lecturer whose duty it is to grant such certificate".

11. Rule 21 is repealed as from September 1, 1937, and the following is substituted therefor :—

" 21. The Council shall in the month of October every year or so soon thereafter as may be convenient appoint a Board of Examiners for each of the examinations to be held during the current academic year, and may during such year appoint to such Boards an additional examiner or examiners. No person shall be eligible for appointment as an examiner unless he is qualified to be appointed as a lecturer; and the Council may at pleasure remove any examiner so appointed, and when an examiner is so removed or for any other cause ceases to act, appoint another in his place. In the case of the examinations for the admission of Advocates each Board shall consist of two Advocates one of whom shall be a lecturer, and in the case of the examinations for the admission of Proctors each Board shall consist of a lecturer, an Advocate and a Proctor. The Chairman of every Board so composed shall be the lecturer, and the Board shall in accordance with these rules conduct and report upon the examination in respect of which it has been appointed. The Council shall from time to time by resolution prescribe the duties of examiners and the remuneration to be paid to them."

11A. Rule 22 is amended as from September 1, 1939, by adding at the end the following proviso :—

" Provided further that a candidate who relies for admission as an advocate student on his having passed the Intermediate Examination in Arts or Science of the University of London, shall adduce proof that he has passed in English at the Intermediate Examination in Arts."

12. Rule 23 is amended to read as follows :—

" 23. Such admission shall be in the month of September each year; and every candidate who fulfils the requirements of Rule 22 may be registered as a student on paying to the Council the admission fee of Rs. 100. Provided that the Principal may, pending the publication of the results of any examination referred to in Rule 22, provisionally admit any person who, being a candidate for such examination, satisfies the other requirements of the said rule and pays the admission fee not more than three fourths of which may be refunded if he fails to pass such examination."

13. Rule 24 is repealed and the following is substituted therefor :—

" 24. Every student duly admitted as aforesaid may register to attend the various lectures provided for the Preliminary Examination by applying to the Principal in the month of September for admission to such lectures next due to commence, provided that where the admission is not provisional he shall have paid to the Council the lecture fee for the course, namely: Rs. 300 in the case of a Proctor student and Rs. 400 in the case of an Advocate student."

14. Rule 24A is repealed.

15. Rule 25 is repealed and the following is substituted therefor :—

" 25. Every student who has passed the Preliminary Examination may register to attend the various lectures provided for the corresponding Intermediate Examination by applying to the Principal in the month of September for admission to such lectures next due to commence, provided that he shall have paid to the Council the lecture fee for the course, namely: Rs. 300 in the case of a Proctor student and Rs. 400 in the case of an Advocate student."

16. Rule 25A is repealed and the following is substituted therefor :—

" 25A. Every student who has passed the Intermediate Examination may register to attend the various lectures provided for the corresponding Final Examination by applying to the Principal in the month of September for admission to such lectures next due to commence, provided that he shall have paid to the Council the lecture fee for the course, namely: Rs. 300 in the case of a Proctor student and Rs. 400 in the case of an Advocate student."

17. Rule 26 is repealed and the following is substituted therefor :—

" 26. There shall be three examinations for the admission of Proctors and three examinations for the admission of Advocates; and the subjects for examination in each case shall be as follows :—

A.—EXAMINATIONS FOR THE ADMISSION OF PROCTORS.

18. Rule 27 is repealed and the following is substituted therefor :—

" 27. The Board of Studies shall from time to time indicate the scope of each of the subjects for examination, prescribe the syllabus and recommend books for the purpose of study; but until so altered the scope of the subjects, syllabus and books shall be as indicated in Schedule I. No alteration after 1937 shall however have effect, unless not later than 12 months before the date on which it is to come into force it is notified in such manner as may seem desirable."

19. Rules 30, 31, 36, 38, 39, 43, 44 and 45 are repealed and Rules 28, 34 and 40 are repealed as from September 1, 1937.

20. Rule 29 is amended by substituting the words "the Preliminary Examination until three terms" for the words "such examination until twelve months" and by deleting the words "from the Lecturers" wherever they occur and the last sentence.

21. Rule 32 is amended by substituting the words "appropriate forms A, B, C, in Schedule I." for the words "form A" and by substituting the words "the Preliminary Examinations, the Intermediate Examinations and the Final Examinations, respectively" for the word "examination" at the end.

22. Rule 33 is amended by substituting the words "for any examination" for the words "or re-entered for the First Examination" wherever they occur, by inserting the words "pay to the Council a sum of Rs. 50" between the word "Examination" and word "apply" in sub-section 1 line 3, by re-numbering sub-section (4) as sub-section (3) and by re-numbering the rule as 63A.

23. Rule 35 is amended by substituting the words "the Intermediate Examination" for the words "such examination", by substituting the words "Preliminary Examination and until six terms" for the words "First Examination and until two years", by deleting the words "from the Lecturers" wherever they occur, and by re-numbering the rule as 29A.

24. Rule 37 is amended by inserting the words and figures "(3) Criminal Law and Procedure and (4) Civil Procedure and Pleadings" between the word "Torts" and the word "and" in line 3, and by re-numbering the rule as 29c.

25. Rule 41 is amended by substituting the words "the Final Examination" for the words "such examination", by substituting the words "Intermediate Examination and until nine terms" for the words "Second Examination and until three years", by deleting the words "from the Lecturers", by adding at the end the words "and in the case of Proctor students unless he produces a certificate or certificates proving that he has served as a clerk in the manner required by rule 46" and by re-numbering the rule as 29B.

26. Rule 42 is amended by substituting the words "and shall include as supplementary to the written examination an oral examination (at which not more than 10 per cent. of the maximum number of marks may be awarded in each subject) in the case of every candidate who obtains 40 per cent. of the maximum marks in each subject, but fails to obtain 50 per cent. of the aggregate of the maximum marks in all the subjects, and in the case of every candidate who obtains 50 per cent. of such aggregate of the maximum marks, but fails to obtain 40 per cent. of the maximum marks in one subject," for the words "unless otherwise ordered by the Council or the Supervising Committee."

27. Rule 46 is amended by substituting the words "After passing the Intermediate Examination for the admission of Proctors, a Proctor student shall in accordance with the regulations in Schedule II. serve for a period of two years as a clerk under a Proctor of the Supreme Court of ten years standing approved by the Council, and prepare and submit to the lecturer in Conveyancing during the first of such years at least two different deeds a week; and an Advocate student shall after passing the Final Examination for the admission of Advocates attend for a period of" for the first four lines.

28. Rule 61 is amended by inserting the words "and prizes" between the word "Scholarships" and the word "shall" in line one.

29. Rule 62 is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—

"62. (1) No student shall be eligible for a scholarship awarded on the results of any examination (a) unless he obtains not less than 60 per cent. of the aggregate maximum number of marks in all the subjects for that examination and not less than 45 per cent. of the maximum number of marks in each of the subjects for that examination, and (b) unless in the case of scholarships awarded in respect of the Preliminary Examination, the Intermediate Examination and the Final Examination he was not more than 24, 25, and 27 years of age, respectively on the first day of such examinations.

(2) No student shall be eligible for a prize awarded for any subject, unless he obtains not less than 75 per cent. of the maximum number of marks for that subject and passes the examination of which that subject is a part."

30. Rule 63 is repealed as from September 1, 1937, and the following is substituted therefor:—

"63. The examinations shall be held twice annually commencing in the months of December and July on such dates as the Council may appoint; but until so altered the Preliminary Examinations shall commence in December on the Monday falling in the eleventh week of the academic year, and in July on the fifteenth day of that month being a Monday and otherwise on the first Monday after such fifteenth day. The Intermediate Examinations and the Final Examinations shall not commence later than one week and two weeks respectively after the Preliminary Examinations, on dates to be notified in such manner as may seem desirable."

31. Immediately after Rule 63A the following shall be inserted as Rules 63B, 63C.

"63B. If through change of name, migration, or otherwise, the identity of a candidate offering himself for any examination shall not be prima facie evident, the Principal may require such further evidence of identity as he may deem necessary.

63C. At every examination the papers of each candidate shall be distinguished not by name, but by the examination number assigned to him by the Principal."

32. Rules 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, and 69 are re-numbered as Rules 66, 69, 67, 68, 64, and 65, respectively.

33. Between Rules 64 and 65 the following Rule 64A is inserted:—

"64A. A candidate who fails to appear at the time and place appointed for his oral examination shall be excluded from the examination that time."

34. Between Rules 65 and 66 the following Rules 65A, 65B, 65C, 65D are inserted:—

"65A. Only one candidate at a time shall be examined orally in any examination."

65B. No person shall be appointed as an examiner for the same examination in two successive years, and no lecturer shall examine in the subjects in which he lectures; provided that this rule shall not apply in the case of persons appointed to examine in subjects in which the number of competent examiners is so small as to make it undesirable in the opinion of the Council that the rule should be enforced strictly.

65C. The papers set in every subject shall be such as a candidate of decided ability well prepared in the subject can reasonably be expected to answer during the time allotted.

65D. The papers proposed for every examination in writing shall be previously submitted to all the members of the Board conducting that examination, and the Board shall meet and revise them, and may alter such papers and consult and frame a uniform system of allotting of the marks."

35. Between Rules 66 and 67 the following Rules 66A, 66B, 66C, 66D, 66E, 66F are inserted:—

"66A. All questions arising among examiners as to the framing of questions or any other matter shall be determined by a majority of votes, the Chairman having a second or casting vote, when the votes are equally divided.

"66B. If the Board conducting any examination is divided in opinion as to the merit of any candidate, his case shall be decided by the votes of the majority; and if in voting the members are equally divided, the Principal shall at the request of the Board nominate a member of a Board appointed to conduct one of the other examinations to assist in the examination; and in such event the assisting examiner shall be remunerated for such assistance at same rate as the other examiners.

66C. A candidate at any examination who takes all the subjects prescribed therefor on one and the same occasion, but who fails to reach the minimum standard in one subject only may be "referred", i.e., he may be permitted on the recommendation of the examiners to present himself in that subject alone on one occasion only at either of the next two examinations. Referred candidates who do not obtain 50 per cent. of the maximum number of marks in their referred subject within the above stated limit, will be required when re-entering to offer all the subjects, for examination again. The examiners may recommend that a candidate be referred, only if his failure in one subject is not serious and if his performance in the remaining subjects is reasonably good.

66D. A candidate who has completed any examination after having been referred in one subject will be deemed for all purposes to have passed the examination in question on the date of such completion.

66E. (a) Candidates who pass at the same time in all subjects for any examination and obtain not less than 60 per cent. of the aggregate of the maximum marks for that examination shall be declared to have obtained honours, and their names will be arranged in the pass list in order of merit.

(b) Candidates who pass at the same time in all subjects for any examination, and obtain not less than 50 per cent. of the maximum marks for that examination but not 60 per cent. or more of such marks, shall be declared to have passed the examination, and their names shall be arranged in the pass list in alphabetical order.

(c) Candidates who obtain not less than 50 per cent. of the maximum marks in any subject having been previously referred in that subject, shall be declared to have passed the examination and their names shall be arranged in a separate pass list in alphabetical order.

66F. The Board shall be responsible for the verbal accuracy of the papers as issued to the candidates."

36. Between Rule 69 and 70 the following Rule 69A is inserted:—

"69A. A candidate for the Preliminary Examination who has passed an examination in Jurisprudence or in Roman Law as part of an examination qualifying for a degree of a University in the British Empire may be exempted from examination in these subjects.

37. Rule 71 is amended by substituting the word "subject" for the word "course".

SCHEDULE II.—REGULATIONS CONCERNING APPRENTICESHIP.

1. No person shall be admitted to the Final Examination for the admission of Proctors (a) unless he has been bound by articles to serve as a clerk under a practising proctor approved by the Council for a period of not less than two years commencing after the date of his passing the Intermediate Examination for the admission of proctors; and (b) unless he has obtained from such proctor and produces a certificate to the effect that he has served such period of clerkship in accordance with these regulations.

2. All articles shall be produced to the Principal who shall on being satisfied (a) that they have been duly executed, and (b) that the Proctor party thereto is not already similarly bound by articles to more than one other person, record the names and address of the parties thereto, the date thereof and the date of the making of the entry in his register of articles.

3. If the articles of any clerk are not produced to the Principal for registration within one month from the date thereof, the services of the clerk shall be reckoned as commencing only upon the date of such production.

4. Services by an articed clerk whilst a proctor has ceased to practice shall not be deemed to be good services by the clerk under his articles.

5. Every articed clerk shall during the entire term of his articles be actually employed by the proctor to whom he is articed in the proper business practice and employment of a proctor.

6. No person shall be refused admission to the Final Examination for the admission of Proctors by reason only of any proctor whom he has served for any part of the terms of articed service, having neglected or omitted to take out his annual licence to practice, or by reason only of any proctor whom he has served for any period having after the termination of that period been removed from or struck off the roll.

7. Where an articed clerk has not served under his articles in strict accordance with the provisions of these rules, but has after the execution of his articles bona fide served (either continuously or not) one or more proctors as an articed clerk for a period equal in their aggregate to the full term for which he was originally articed and has complied with the other requirements of these rules, the Council may if satisfied that the irregularity in the services was occasioned by accident, mistake, or sufficient cause, and that the services though irregular was substantially equivalent to services in accordance with the provisions of these rules direct that the services of such clerk be treated as if they had been regular service.

8. Where before the expiration of the term for which a clerk is articed the proctor to whom he is articed ceases to practice as a proctor or dies, or where the articles are cancelled by mutual consent, the clerk may be bound by fresh articles to another practicing proctor for the residue of the said term, and service under such fresh articles in accordance with the provisions of these rules shall be good service.
