- (b) to receive from the Postmaster-General the surrender value of any such certificate.

(3) Any new savings certificate issued and any payment made under this section by the Postmaster-General shall be and shall operate for all purposes as a complete discharge of the obligations of the Government and of the Postmaster-General in respect of any savings certificate issued to the deceased purchaser or of any money payable on the surrender of that certificate.

16 The person to whom and in whose name a new savings certificate is issued under section 12 or section 14 or section 15 by the Postmaster-General shall, for all the purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed to be the purchaser of that savings certificate.

Person named in new savings certificate deemed to be the purchaser thereof.

17 Where a new savings certificate is issued under section 12, or section 14, or section 15, the surrender value of the new savings certificate so issued shall be determined at any time as though such new certificate had been issued on the date on which the original savings certificate was issued to the purchaser thereof.

19 (1) Where the Postmaster-General is satisfied at any time that any savings certificate has been issued in error, or for an incorrect amount, or to the wrong person, or to a person not entitled thereto, he may, by written notice, addressed to the purchaser of that certificate or, if he is dead, to his executor or administrator or to any of his heirs-at-law, require the person noticed to deliver the certificate to the Postmaster-General at a time and place specified in such notice and may, on such delivery, cancel the certificate on payment to the person delivering it a sum equivalent to the purchase price, if any, paid at the time of the issue of such certificate; and such payment shall be and shall operate for all purposes as a complete discharge of the obligations of the Government and of the Postmaster-General in respect of that savings certificate and of any moneys payable on the surrender thereof:

Cancellation of savings certificate issued in error.

Provided, however, that the Postmaster-General may in his discretion pay the surrender value and not the purchase price of any savings certificate delivered as hereinbefore provided, if he is satisfied that such certificate was not issued in consequence of any fraud or wilful misrepresentation on the part of the purchaser.

(2) If any person called upon to deliver a savings certificate by the Postmaster-General under sub-section (1) refuses or fails to deliver the certificate at the time and place specified by the Postmaster-General or within such further period as may be allowed by the Postmaster-General on an application made in that behalf, the Postmaster-General may, by written notice addressed to that person, declare the certificate to be cancelled and the purchase price paid therefor shall be forfeited to the Crown:

Provided, however, that if within three months of the date of such notice of cancellation any person who has made default in delivering a savings certificate within the time fixed for such delivery by the Postmaster-General proves to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that his default was due to any reasonable cause or to any cause over which he had no control, the Postmaster-General may act under sub-section (1) as though no default had been made in the delivery of the certificate.

20 (1) Where any savings certificate is seized or sequestered in execution of a decree or order of any court, the Fiscal effecting the seizure or sequestration shall forward the savings certificate to the Postmaster-General who shall cancel such certificate and pay the surrender value thereof as on the date of seizure or sequestration to the credit of the action in which that decree was entered or order made.

- No. 2 of 1889. creditor to the purchaser as debtor; and the provisions of section 229 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, shall apply accordingly:

- Payment on surrender of savings certificates.
- 21 (1) On the surrender of a savings certificate in the prescribed manner and at a prescribed place, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive the surrender value of that certificate as at the time of such surrender.

- (2) Out of the balance of the Fund, the Trustees may from time to time grant loans of such amounts as may be approved by the Governor—

Repeal.
No. 20 of 1929.
No. 15 of 1932.

29 The Post Office Cash Certificates Ordinance, 1929, and the Post Office Cash Certificates (Amendment) Ordinance, 1932, are hereby repealed.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to repeal the Post Office Cash Certificates Ordinance, 1929, and to substitute in its place an Ordinance which will make provision for the issue of Ceylon Savings Certificates similar to National Savings Certificates issued in Great Britain under the powers conferred by section 59 of the Finance Act, 1920. (10 & 11 Geo. V., c. 18).

2. Savings certificates will be sold only to individuals resident in Ceylon and to Co-operative Societies, Central Co-operative Banks, and to Thrift, Benevolent and Provident Associations recognised as such by the Postmaster-General.

3. Savings certificates will be issued by the Postmaster-General in pursuance of a resolution of the State Council approved by the Governor and sanctioned by the Secretary of State authorising a specified sum to be raised by way of loan within the Island by the issue of such certificates (Clause 2).

4. Certificates will be available for purchase at local post offices. It is proposed to issue such certificates at a discount. The nominal value of the certificate will be its surrender value at the end of a specified period of years ; but a certificate may be surrendered at any time within that period for a cash payment which will vary with the period which has elapsed since the date of its issue. The surrender value will increase every six months and the rate of interest earned by a savings certificate will be sufficient to attract the smaller investors and to induce them to purchase certificates out of their savings. The principal object of the scheme is to promote thrift and to provide a safe investment which will enable cash to be realised without difficulty or delay in an emergency. The aggregate holding of an individual is limited to Rs. 3,000, but this limit is increased to Rs. 6,000 in the case of a recognised society or association (Clause 10).

5. The rights of the purchaser of a savings certificate cannot be sold, transferred or hypothecated (Clause 13), but provision has been made to permit a gift of such rights primarily to meet a case in which a parent desires to transfer his rights in a certificate for the benefit and advancement of his children (Clause 14). In every such case a new certificate will be issued in the name of the donee.

6. The amount outstanding on the certificates issued will be a charge on the general revenue of the Island. The money obtained by the issue of certificates will be credited to a Savings Certificates Fund which will be administered by the Deputy Chief Secretary and the Deputy Financial Secretary as Trustees. The Trustees are empowered to invest the Fund in trustee securities authorised by the Trusts Ordinance, No. 9 of 1917, and to grant loans to the central government for public works and to the Local Loans and Development Commissioners for the purposes of Ordinance No. 22 of 1916 (Clause 25). The accounts of the Fund will be audited annually by the Auditor-General (Clause 26).

7. As the Postmaster-General is responsible for the issue and payment of savings certificates and as his Department is under the control of the Executive Committee of Communications and Works, that Executive Committee has been entrusted with the power to make regulations necessary for the due administration of the Ordinance.
