An Ordinance to amend the Heavy Oil Motor Vehicles Taxation Ordinance, No. 56 of 1935.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Heavy Oil Motor Vehicles Taxation (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1937, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1938.

Short title and date of operation.

2 The First Schedule to the Heavy Oil Motor Vehicles Taxation Ordinance, No. 56 of 1935, is hereby repealed and the following Schedule is substituted therefor :—

Repeal of First Schedule to Ordinance No. 56 of 1935 and substitution of a new Schedule therefor.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

(Section 2.)

Tax payable in respect of heavy oil motor vehicles.

Description of Vehicle.	Tax
	(monthly rate), Rs. c.
Where the tare of the heavy oil motor vehicle—

(b) exceeds 1 ton but does not exceed 1½ tons ..	69 0

(h) ,, 4 ,, ,, 4½ ,, ..	115 0
(i) ,, 4½ ,, ,, 5 ,, ..	126 50
(j) ,, 5 tons ..	138 0

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to repeal the First Schedule to the Heavy Oil Motor Vehicles Taxation Ordinance, No. 56 of 1935, and to substitute in its place a new Schedule containing revised rates of tax on diesel-engined vehicles.

2. The tax on diesel-engined vehicles was imposed in order to re-imburse the Government to the extent of the amount estimated to be lost to revenue by reason of the fact that such vehicles do not use petrol but gas oil and other oil on which no import duty is paid.

3. The increase in the import duty on petrol has necessitated a corresponding increase in the rates of tax set out in the First Schedule to the Ordinance in order to equalize the incidence of taxation. The revised rates set out in the proposed new Schedule represent an increase of 15 per cent. on the existing rates, an increase slightly less than the increase in the import duty on petrol from 65 cents to 75 cents a gallon.

An Ordinance to amend the Dog Registration Ordinance, 1901.

No. 25 of 1901.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Dog Registration Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1937.

Amendment of section 5 of Ordinance No. 25 of 1901.

2 Section 5 of the Dog Registration Ordinance, 1901, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), is hereby amended as follows:—

- (1) by the substitution for the words "one rupee and fifty cents" of the words "five rupees"; and
- (2) by the substitution, for all the words from "Provided further" to the end of the section, of the words "Provided further that within the limits of the Colombo Municipality the proper authority may charge an annual registration fee not exceeding seven rupees and fifty cents in the case of female dogs".

Amendment of section 14 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 14 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution for all the words from "the said Board," to the end of the section of the words "the said Board."

Objects and Reasons.

1. The object of this Bill is to amend the Dog Registration Ordinance, 1901, so as to enable an increased annual registration fee to be imposed in respect of dogs kept in towns and other heavily populated areas. It is thought that an increase in the registration fee will effect a reduction in the number of dogs kept within such areas and thus incidentally check the spread of rabies in the Island.

2. Under section 5 of the principal Ordinance, the annual registration fee which may be charged on each dog (whether male or female) kept within the limits of a town wherein a Municipal Council, District Council, or Local Board of Health and Improvement is established and within the limits of a town or village brought under the operation of the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892, cannot exceed one rupee and fifty cents. Two exceptions are made by the Ordinance: in the town of Nuwara Eliya the fee may be five rupees for each dog (whether male or female), and within the Municipality of Colombo the fee may extend to five rupees in the case of each male dog and seven rupees and fifty cents in the case of each female dog.

3. The purpose of Clause 2 of this Bill is to amend section 5 of the principal Ordinance so as to increase to five rupees the maximum registration fee which may be charged annually in respect of every dog (whether male or female) kept within the limits of all towns administered by Municipal Councils or District Councils and all towns or villages brought within the operation of the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892. The question of the exact fee to be charged by each local authority will be left for determination by the local authority in accordance with local conditions. As there is now an Urban District Council in Nuwara Eliya and as all Municipalities will be allowed to charge a fee of five rupees in the case of all dogs (both male and female), the further proviso to section 5 of the principal Ordinance is necessary only to provide for the imposition of a fee of seven rupees and fifty cents in the case of female dogs within the Municipality of Colombo.

4. The Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement Ordinance, 1896, was repealed with effect from the 1st January, 1933, on which date an Urban District Council was established for Nuwara Eliya. The reference in section 14 of the principal Ordinance to the Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement is therefore no longer necessary and is repealed by Clause 3 of the Bill.
