Saving of rights, powers and privileges of the Council.

Objects and Reasons.

The principal objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to secure freedom of speech in the State Council ;
- (b) to provide for the production of documents and the attendance of witnesses before the Council ; and
- (c) to regulate the admittance of ‘ strangers ’ to the State Council Chamber.

2. The Council will not function as a Court of Law and will not exercise punitive powers over persons guilty of acts which would ordinarily be regarded as ‘ contempts ’ of its authority. Such ‘ contempts ’ are, however, declared to be offences punishable by fine on conviction of the offender after summary trial before a Magistrate (Clause 16).

3. Clause 2 declares that there shall be freedom of speech in the State Council. This is the only ‘ privilege ’ which has been expressly defined in the Bill in the exercise of the powers conferred by Article 73 of the Order in Council which provides that a law may be enacted defining the privileges, immunities and powers to be held, enjoyed and exercised by the Council and its members.

4. Clauses 4 to 11 provide for the production of documents and the attendance of witnesses before the Council. A committee of the Council can also summon witnesses to give evidence and to produce documents if such committee is specially authorised by the Council to exercise such powers (Clause 4). A witness can plead the same privilege before the Council as before a Court of Law (Clause 9).

5. Clauses 12 to 14 provide for the regulation of the admittance of ‘ strangers ’ to the Council Chamber. A ‘ stranger ’ is defined in Clause 32 to be a person other than a member or an Officer of the Council.

6. Clauses 22 to 31 deal with miscellaneous matters incidental to or connected with the principal objects of the Bill.

Leader of the State Council.
