Consequential amendment of the Medical Wants Ordinance, No. 9 of 1912.

17 Section 12 of the Medical Wants Ordinance, No. 9 of 1912, is hereby amended in paragraph (f) of sub-section (1) thereof by the substitution for all the words from "for one month after the birth of such child," to the end end of that paragraph, of the following :—

“for four weeks after the birth of such child ;”.

18 Subject as hereinafter provided, the provisions of this Ordinance shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of any other written law relating to the employment or remuneration of women or women workers and the conditions of such employment :

Application of
law.

Provided that a woman who is entitled to maternity benefit under this Ordinance shall not be entitled, as of right, to food and lodging under paragraph (f) of section 12 (1) of the Medical Wants Ordinance, No. 9 of 1912 ; nor shall it be the legal duty of the superintendent of an estate as defined in that Ordinance to provide food and lodging for any woman who is entitled to maternity benefit under this Ordinance.

19 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation.

“ Controller ” means the person appointed to be or to act as Controller of Labour under the Labour Ordinance, No. 1 of 1923, and includes the person appointed to be or to act as Deputy Controller of Labour under that Ordinance ;

“ employer ”—

(a) when used with reference to a shop, mine or factory, means the owner thereof and includes any duly accredited manager, managing agent or other person who for the time being is in charge of the shop, mine or factory ; and

(b) when used with reference to an estate, means the owner or lessee of the estate and includes the superintendent or other person for the time being in charge of the estate ;

“ employment ” with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions means, when used with reference to a woman or a woman worker, employment in a shop, mine, estate or factory ;

“ estate ” means any land on which all or any of the following are growing, namely tea, rubber, coffee, cacao, cardamoms or coconuts ;

“ Executive Committee ” means the Executive Committee of Labour, Industry and Commerce ;

“ factory ” means any premises, including the precincts thereof, in any part of which any manufacturing process is being carried on ;

“ maternity benefit ” means the amount of money payable under the provisions of this Ordinance to a woman worker ;

“ mine ” includes any undertaking, whether public or private, for the extraction of any substance from under the surface of the earth ;

“ prescribed ” means prescribed by this Ordinance or by regulation ;

“ regulation ” means a regulation made under this Ordinance by the Executive Committee ;

“ shop ” means any premises where any trade or business is carried on and includes a warehouse, hotel or restaurant ;

“ woman worker ” means a woman employed on wages in any shop, mine, factory or estate in which ten or more persons other than persons whose employment is of a casual nature are employed, whether such wages are calculated by time or by work done or otherwise and whether the contract of employment or service was made before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, and whether such contract is expressed or implied, oral or in writing, but does not include a person whose employment is of a casual nature.

1) Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to make legal provision for the payment of maternity benefits to women workers in any shop, mine, estate, or factory where at least ten persons are employed. No woman will be entitled to maternity benefit unless she has been employed for a period of at least nine months under the employer from whom she claims such benefit.

2. An employer is not permitted to give a woman worker employment at any time during the period of four weeks immediately following the date of her confinement (clause 2). During these four weeks, the employer must pay the woman worker maternity benefit at the rate of fifty cents a day. In addition, the employer must pay the woman worker fifty cents for each day during the period of two weeks immediately preceding the day of her confinement ; but if she works on any day during that period she loses all benefit for that part of that period which precedes that day. The maximum period for maternity benefit is six weeks, two weeks before and four weeks after confinement.

3. A woman worker is entitled to appoint a nominee to receive her maternity benefit in the event of her death. In default of the appointment of a nominee, the benefit must be paid to her heirs (Clause 8). An employer cannot avoid the obligation to pay maternity benefit by dismissing the woman (Clause 9); nor can he enter into an agreement to avoid the statute as such an agreement of "contracting-out" is declared to be null and void (Clause 16). Besides, an employer who contravenes any provision of the Ordinance is guilty of an offence punishable with a fine (Clause 13). Prosecutions, however, cannot be instituted except by the Controller of Labour or with his written sanction (Clause 14).

4. As the new law prohibits the employment of a woman worker at any time during the four weeks next following her confinement, it has been found necessary, as a consequential amendment, to omit the provision in section 12 (1) (f) of the Medical Wants Ordinance, No. 9 of 1912, which enables a woman worker to resume work before the expiry of a month if the District Medical Officer is prepared to certify that she is fit for work; but the obligation under that Ordinance to provide food and lodging for a female labourer who has been confined will no longer be a statutory duty in a case where such labourer will be entitled to maternity benefit under the new law.

5. The provisions of the Bill will be supplementary to other law relating to the employment and wages of women and such law will not be affected by the new obligation cast on an employer to provide maternity benefits.

Minister for Labour, Industry and Commerce.

Section 190 of the Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1910, empowers the Chairman of a Council to require the provision of privies or water closets for any house, building or land; but there is no such power in that section to require the provision of bathrooms.

2. The object of Clause 2 of this Bill is to amend section 190 so as to empower the Chairman to require the provision of bathrooms, and to enable him, in cases where such requisitions are not complied with, to exercise the further powers conferred by that section.
