PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof.

No. 5 of 1939.

An Ordinance to provide for the maintenance of reserve stocks of commodities which would be essential for the vital needs of the community in the event of war or other public emergency; for the registration of importers of such commodities and for purposes incidental to or connected with the matters aforesaid.

A. CALDECOTT.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the "Essential Commodities Reserves Ordinance, No. 5 of 1939." It shall come into operation on such date as the Governor may appoint by Proclamation published in the Gazette on the advice of the Board of Ministers and shall continue in force until the Governor with like advice and by Proclamation published in the Gazette declare that it shall cease to be in operation.

Scheduled commodities.

2 (1) The Schedule describing the commodities which may be declared to be essential commodities for the purposes of this Ordinance may, by regulation, be amended or varied by the addition thereto of any specified commodity or class of commodities.

(2) Any commodity described or specified in the Schedule for the time being in force is hereinafter referred to as a scheduled commodity.

Essential commodities.

3 The Governor may, by Order published in the Gazette, declare that any scheduled commodity shall be an essential commodity for the purposes of this Ordinance, if he is satisfied that such commodity would be essential for the vital needs of the community in the event of war or other public emergency.

Provision of stocks and reserves of essential commodities.

4 Adequate stocks and reserves of essential commodities shall be provided and maintained for the supply of the needs of the community in the event of war or other public emergency; and it shall be the duty of the Director to make all such arrangements and to take all such steps as may be necessary to secure that such stocks and reserves shall be available in any such contingency.

Purchase of essential commodities by Government.

5 The Director is hereby authorised, in consultation with the Financial Secretary, and with the approval of the Minister, to make all such arrangements as may be necessary for the purchase of such quantities of any essential commodity as may be required in Ceylon at any time. Such purchases may be made either within or outside Ceylon as the Director in his discretion may decide; and payment therefor shall be made out of such moneys as may be provided for the purpose.

Registration of importers and stores.

6 (1) The Director shall keep a register of importers of every essential commodity.

(2) Where any scheduled commodity has been declared to be an essential commodity by Order under section 3, the Director shall cause to be published in the Gazette and in at least two newspapers circulating in Ceylon a notice requiring all importers of that commodity to register themselves and the premises, if any, at which their stocks are kept, before a date specified in such notice.

(3) Any person who at any time after the date specified in the notice published under sub-section (2) makes application to the Director in that behalf may be registered as an importer of an essential commodity.

(4) Every application for registration shall be made to the Director in the prescribed form. No charge shall be made for the registration of any importer or of the premises (hereinafter referred to as the "registered store") at which he keeps his stocks of the essential commodity which he imports.

(5) The Director may by order refuse to register any person who applies for registration as an importer and shall in such order state the reasons for such refusal. An appeal shall lie to the Minister from any such refusal and the decision of the Minister upon such appeal shall be final.

7 (1) The Director shall, upon the registration of any person as an importer of an essential commodity, issue to that person a permit to import that commodity. Every such permit shall be in force for the period specified therein.

Permits to import essential commodities.

(2) For the purpose of securing the provision of adequate stocks and reserves of any essential commodity, the Director may insert in any permit issued to any importer in respect of that commodity a condition that the importer—

- (a) shall import a specified quantity of that commodity within a specified period ; and
- (b) shall, at all times after a date specified in the permit, keep at his registered store a specified reserve of that commodity.

(3) The date and the quantities referred to in sub-section (2) may be specified by the Director in his discretion.

(4) The Director may also require as a condition precedent to the grant of a permit, that any importer shall furnish such security as the Director may approve to secure the due observance of the conditions on which the permit is issued.

(5) Regulations may be made for the issue of permits to import essential commodities in cases to which the provisions of this section do not apply.

8 No person shall, on or after the date specified in the notice published under section 6 (2) in respect of any essential commodity, import any quantity of that commodity unless he is the holder of a permit issued under this Ordinance authorising the importation of that commodity.

Permit necessary to authorise importation.

9 An importer to whom any permit has been issued under this Ordinance, authorising the importation of any essential commodity subject to conditions inserted in such permit, shall import within the time specified therein a quantity of that commodity which shall not be less than the quantity specified in the permit, and shall at all times after the date specified in the permit, while that permit is in force, keep at his registered store the specified reserve of that commodity :

Holder of permit to comply with conditions.

Provided that no person shall be deemed to have acted in contravention of the provisions of this section if his failure to comply therewith is proved to be attributable to causes beyond his control.

10 Every registered importer of any essential commodity shall keep and maintain such books or registers as may be prescribed and shall enter or cause to be entered therein the prescribed particulars with respect to his business as an importer of that commodity. Every such book or register shall be made available for inspection by the Director or any person authorised by him.

Books, registers, &c.

11 The Director may at any time by order cancel the registration and the permit of any importer who has contravened any provision of this Ordinance or of any regulation. An appeal shall lie to the Minister against any order of cancellation made by the Registrar ; and the decision of the Minister upon any such appeal shall be final.

Cancellation of registration and permits.

12 The Director or any person authorised by him may at any reasonable time during the day enter any granary, warehouse, shop, store or other premises in which stocks or reserves of any essential commodity are kept or required under this Ordinance to be kept, and may make such examination therein as he may deem necessary. In this section, "examination" includes the weighing and measuring of any stocks or reserves.

Powers of entry and examination.

13 The Director may, by notice served on any trader or importer concerned with any scheduled commodity or essential commodity, require him to make periodical and other returns at such times and containing such particulars as may be specified in the notice, as to the stocks of the commodity from time to time held by him and as to the facilities available for storing and for utilising stocks of the commodity.

Power to obtain information.

14 (1) Any person who acts in contravention of the provisions of section 8 or section 9 shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction after summary trial before a Police Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Offences and penalties.

(2) The court which convicts any person of the offence of having imported any quantity of an essential commodity in contravention of the provisions of section 9 may, in addition to any other punishment which it may impose for that offence, order that the whole or any part of such quantity shall be forfeited to His Majesty.

(3) The court which convicts any registered importer of the offence of contravening the provisions of section 9 may, in addition to any other punishment which it may impose for that offence, make order cancelling the registration of that importer and the permit issued to him.

(4) Any person who—

- (a) fails or refuses to furnish any return required to be furnished under this Ordinance ; or
- (b) makes in any return or other document furnished under this Ordinance any statement which is false in any material particular ; or
- (c) resists or obstructs the Director or any other person in the exercise of the powers conferred or in the discharge of the duties imposed on the Director or such other person by or under this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Regulations.

15 (1) The Executive Committee may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the principles and provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), the Executive Committee may make regulations for or in respect of all or any of the following matters :—

(3) Every regulation made by the Executive Committee shall be published in the Gazette and shall come into operation upon such publication.

(4) Every regulation made by the Executive Committee shall, as soon as may be after the publication thereof, be brought before the State Council by a motion that such regulation be approved, and, if so approved, shall be submitted to the Governor for ratification.

(5) Any regulation which the State Council refuses to approve or which the Governor refuses to ratify shall be deemed to be rescinded with effect from the date of such refusal, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder. Notification of the date of such refusal shall be published in the Gazette.

(6) Every regulation which has been approved by the State Council and ratified by the Governor shall, upon notification in the Gazette of such approval and ratification, be as valid and effectual as though it were herein enacted.

References.

11 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation.

" Revised Edition " means the Revised Edition of the Legislative Enactments prepared in accordance with the Revised Edition of the Legislative Enactments Ordinance, No. 19 of 1937 ;

" subsidiary legislation " means any by-law, rule or regulation made under any Ordinance and includes any notification, notice, order, proclamation, resolution or scheme made or issued under any Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

The revised edition of the Legislative Enactments contains the law in force in Ceylon on the 30th June, 1938. Section 10 (2) of the Revised Edition of the Legislative Enactments Ordinance, No. 19 of 1937, provides that on the passing of a resolution of the State Council authorising him to do so, the Governor may, by Proclamation, order that the revised edition shall come into force from such date as he may think fit. Such a resolution was passed by the State Council on the 8th February, 1939. It is intended that the revised edition should be brought into force on the 1st April, 1939.

2. A considerable amount of legislation has been enacted after the 30th June, 1938, and it is therefore necessary that a supplement should be issued containing such legislation as has been enacted in the interval between that date and the date on which the revised edition will come into force. The revised edition has, following modern practice, been prepared on the Chapter and Title arrangement and the issue of cumulative annual supplements so arranged and edited as to fit in with the scheme of the revised edition has been found to be indispensable wherever the Chapter and Title system has been adopted.

3. This Bill provides for the issue of such annual supplements which, in the case of the supplement issued for the current year, will contain legislation enacted between the 30th June, 1938, and the 1st April, 1939.

Chambers, Hulftsdorp,
Colombo, March 1, 1939.

Legal Secretary.

(4) Where the price fixed under sub-section (3) is lower than the standard price, the holder of a coupon shall, at the time of issue to him of a delivery warrant in exchange for that coupon, be entitled to a refund of the amount by which the cost at the standard price of the quantity specified in such delivery warrant exceeds the cost of that quantity at the lower price so fixed.

(5) Where the price fixed under sub-section (3) is higher than the standard price, the holder of a coupon shall not be entitled to receive any delivery warrant in exchange for that coupon until he has paid to the Commissioner the amount by which the cost at such higher price of the quantity specified in any such delivery warrant exceeds the cost of that quantity reckoned at the standard price.

(6) Where the holder of a delivery warrant fails to take delivery of the quantity of the local product specified in that warrant before the expiry of a period of one month reckoned from the date of issue specified in that warrant, delivery of that quantity of the local product shall not be made except upon surrender of the delivery warrant and upon payment of warehouse charges at such rates as the Commissioner, in his discretion, may prescribe.

(7) No delivery of any quantity of any local product specified in any delivery warrant shall be made after the expiry of a period of two months reckoned from the date of issue specified in that warrant; and a quantity of the local product in the stocks of the Commissioner corresponding to the quantity of that local product specified in the delivery warrant may, after the expiry of that period, be sold at the risk of the person named in the delivery warrant as the holder of the coupon in exchange for which that warrant was issued. Such person is hereinafter in this section referred to as "the last holder".

(10) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the issue of a delivery warrant shall be deemed to constitute a contract between the last holder and the Crown.

13 (1) The Executive Committee may make regulations for the purposes of this Ordinance and such regulations may contain such incidental, consequential and supplementary provisions as may appear to the Executive Committee to be necessary or proper for giving full effect to this Ordinance.

Regulations.

(3) Upon the publication in the Gazette of a notification to the effect that a regulation made by the Executive Committee has been approved by the Council and ratified by the Governor, that regulation shall be as valid and effectual as if it were herein enacted.

“ Executive Committee ” means the Executive Committee of Agriculture and Lands ;

“ grade ”, when used with reference to any agricultural product, includes any quality, variety or description of that product ;

“ import licence ” means a licence to import a regulated product ;

“ local product ” means an agricultural product either grown in Ceylon or derived or manufactured from an agricultural product grown in Ceylon ;

“ Order ” means an Order made by the Executive Committee under section 5 ;

“ prescribed ” means prescribed by or under this Ordinance or by any regulation ;

“ regulation ” means a regulation made by the Executive Committee under section 13 ;

“ standard ”, when used with reference to any grade, place, price or ratio, means the grade, place, price or ratio prescribed in a notification published under section 6.

Construction of Ordinance.

16 The provisions of this Ordinance shall be in addition to and not in derogation or substitution of the provisions of any other written law relating to the marketing or sale or importation of agricultural products.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to facilitate and encourage the marketing and sale of the agricultural products of Ceylon by regulating the importation into the Island of identical or related products from abroad.

2. When the provisions of the Ordinance have been applied by Order of the Executive Committee to any agricultural product, that product becomes a “ regulated product ” which no person can import into Ceylon except on a licence issued by the Commissioner for Agricultural Marketing. No licence to import an agricultural product will be issued until the prospective importer has paid for a prescribed quantity of the related “ local product ”. The prescribed quantity to be purchased locally will be determined in accordance with a ratio, called the “ standard ratio ” which is fixed by notification published in the Gazette. That Order will also prescribe the standard price which will have to be paid for a standard grade of the local product when delivered at a prescribed place called the “ standard place ”.

3. The standard ratio will depend upon the quantity of the local product which is available for sale in Ceylon. It is proposed that the Commissioner for Agricultural Marketing should, on behalf of Government, purchase such quantities of local products as are available in Ceylon and from his stocks, which will be kept at various centres in the Island, sell such quantities to the importers who will be compelled to buy in order to obtain licences to import any regulated product from abroad.

4. On payment of the standard price for any quantity of any local product, the importer will receive a coupon for that quantity of the local product together with an import licence for the regulated product. A single coupon can be taken for the entire quantity of the local product purchased or such quantity can be made up in a number of coupons of smaller denominations.

5. Each coupon can be exchanged for a delivery warrant at any time while the coupon is in force and can be negotiated by endorsement. The delivery warrant will entitle the holder of that warrant to delivery of a specified grade of the local product at a specified place. Power has been taken to adjust the standard price where delivery has to be taken at a place other than the standard place or of any quantity of any local product of a grade other than the standard grade. Where the adjusted price is less than the standard price the importer will be entitled to a refund of the difference ; correspondingly any increase of the standard price will necessitate an additional payment in order to obtain delivery. The holder of a delivery warrant will further be entitled to have the goods despatched to him from the place of delivery to any railway station named by him on payment of the freight and charges for such conveyance.

6. It is believed that this scheme will not merely ensure a market for the agricultural products of Ceylon but will provide an incentive for improving the quality of such products and, in certain cases, for demonstrating their superiority over the corresponding imported products.

7. An Agricultural Products Regulation Board will be established with the Commissioner for Agricultural Marketing as Chairman and not more than five other members, all of whom will be appointed by the Governor on the recommendation of the Minister for Agriculture and Lands. The chief function of the Board will be to act as an advisory body to the Executive Committee.

D. S. SENANAYAKE,

Colombo, March 8, 1939. Minister for Agriculture and Lands.

30 All rules made or deemed to have been made under the principal Ordinance, and in force by virtue of any written law at the date on which this Ordinance comes into operation, shall be deemed for all purposes to be rules made under the principal Ordinance as amended by this Ordinance, and may be amended, rescinded or replaced accordingly.

Repeal of Ordinance No. 24 of 1890.

31 The Prisons Amendment Ordinance, 1890, is hereby repealed.

Objects and Reasons.

The principal object of this Bill is to make some additional amendments which have been found to be necessary in the Prisons Ordinance after the date of the enactment of the amending Ordinance, No. 50 of 1935. The opportunity is also taken to introduce some formal or verbal changes designed to clarify the legal position and to facilitate the administration of the Ordinance.

Clause 2.—It is no longer necessary to give the Superintendent of a prison the power to transfer prisoners from one prison to another within the same Province. Section 7 of the Ordinance is to be amended accordingly by the omission of the words relating to this power.

Clauses 3 and 21.—As the Prisons Amendment Ordinance, 1890, is retained in the statute book merely for the sake of two of its sections, namely section 3 and section 9, it has been decided that the Ordinance should be repealed and that these sections should be revised and inserted in the appropriate context in the principal Ordinance. The latter section, recast and amplified, is to be set out as section 7A in the principal Ordinance (Clause 3), and the former as section 62 (Clause 21).

Clauses 4 and 5.—Sections 10 and 11 of the principal Ordinance, which relate to appointments to the prison staff, are to be replaced by two new sections which will make provision for the staff necessary under present conditions and will also be more in keeping with the requirements of the new Constitution as to the manner in which appointments are to be made.

Clauses 6 and 22.—These Clauses contain respectively the new sections 12B and 63 which it is proposed to insert in the principal Ordinance in order to set out clearly the law relating to the use of weapons by prison officers. Apart from the general provisions of the Penal Code as to the right of private defence of person or property, the provisions applicable to prison officers are to be found at present only in the prison rules; and they are far from complete. The new sections are based on the corresponding law of the Straits Settlements and of Tanganyika.

Clauses 7 and 10.—The new sections 13A and 20A, set out in these two Clauses, indicate the general duties of the prison staff and the medical officers in relation to the administration of the prison, and the means that may be adopted by prison officers in order to enforce obedience to the lawful directions issued by them.

Clause 9.—The new section 18A set out in this Clause is intended to enable the medical officer of a prison to take measures for the compulsory feeding of prisoners who malingering or go on hunger-strike and for the artificial feeding of those who become incapable of taking food.

Clauses 11 and 12.—Sections 32 to 32c which were inserted in the principal Ordinance by the amending Ordinance, No. 50 of 1935, have since been found to fall short of some of the recommendations of the Prison Inquiry Commission (Sessional Paper I. of 1932). In the new sections which are now to be substituted for those sections, the provisions have been amplified, and rearranged where necessary.

Clause 13.—The power to take photographs, finger-prints, foot-prints and other measurements of prisoners, which has not hitherto been expressly provided for and which is essential for custodial and identification purposes, is now to be taken, by means of the new section 35A set out in this clause, as is done in the law of other countries like the Straits Settlements, and Tanganyika.

Clause 14.—A section which will similarly lay down specifically all the main provisions as to the discharge of prisoners appears to be necessary, and the insertion of a new section 37A is accordingly proposed in this Clause. The new section will also enable the prison authorities to provide discharged prisoners with railway warrants and money for travelling expenses.

Clauses 15, 17 and 18.—The object of the new sections in these Clauses is to provide the formal authority for the rules which may hereafter be framed on the various subjects enumerated in those sections.

Clause 25.—It is proposed in this Clause to substitute for the existing section 69, which is rather involved and archaic, a revised section which will also be consistent with the requirements of the new Constitution as to the method of dealing with prison officers who are guilty of misconduct in the discharge of their duties.

Clause 28.—In the new section 76 contained in this Clause, the various matters or purposes for which rules may be made are set out in greater detail.
