PART I.

Importation of Calcium Carbide.

1. No calcium carbide shall be imported into Ceylon at any place other than the ports of Colombo, Galle, and Trincomalee, hereinafter referred to as approved ports.

2. No consignment of calcium carbide shall be discharged from any ship at any approved port unless the Collector of Customs of that port has issued a permit authorizing the discharge of such consignment.

3. The Collector of Customs of any approved port may refuse to issue a permit authorizing the discharge of any consignment of calcium carbide from any ship at that port—

- (1) unless the master, owner or agent of the owner of the ship has, before the ship enters within the limits of the port, given written notice to the Collector and to the Master Attendant of the nature of the cargo; and
- (2) unless the ship has been anchored or moored within the port in such berth or at such moorings as may have been specified for that ship by the Master Attendant, and, in the event of its becoming necessary for any reason to remove the ship from such berth or moorings before the discharge of the whole or any part of the calcium carbide, unless the ship has been so removed only with the written permission of the Master Attendant; and

(3) unless he is satisfied—

- (a) that the hold in which the calcium carbide is stowed is well ventilated;
- (b) that no vessel or package containing any part of the consignment of calcium carbide has been opened on board the ship;
- (c) that every part of the cargo of calcium carbide on that ship is contained in hermetically sealed vessels;
- (d) that every vessel used as a receptacle for the calcium carbide—
 - (i.) is of some metal other than copper and contains no copper or any amalgam of copper in any part of it,
 - (ii.) does not contain more than two hundred and twenty-four pounds of calcium carbide, and is of such strength and construction as not to be liable to be broken or to become defective or insecure during transit except in consequence of any act of gross negligence or any extraordinary accident,
 - (iii.) is distinctly labelled "CALCIUM CARBIDE DANGEROUS"; and

(4) unless the importer proves to the satisfaction of the Collector that he is the holder of a valid licence for the importation of that consignment and that adequate arrangements have been made for the landing and removal of that consignment from the customs premises and for its storage in a store specified in a licence issued under the provisions of Part II. of these Rules.

4. Notwithstanding the issue of a permit authorizing the discharge of any consignment of calcium carbide, the Collector of Customs, if upon any further evidence or after further inspection he has reason to believe that the arrangements made by the importer for the landing, removal, and storage of such calcium carbide are not or have ceased to be satisfactory, may, while that consignment is being discharged, by order in writing served on the master of the ship prohibit the further discharge of that consignment; and upon such order being served on him, the master of the ship shall not cause or permit the remainder of that consignment to be discharged until such order is withdrawn by a writing under the hand of the Collector of Customs.

5. The master of every ship from which a consignment of calcium carbide is to be discharged shall give to the officer in charge of the Police at such port not less than three hours' notice of the intention to discharge that consignment.

6. The master of any ship shall not cause or permit any consignment of calcium carbide to be discharged from that ship—

- (a) unless the importer has produced to him a permit under the hand of the Collector of Customs authorizing such discharge; and
- (b) unless the officer in charge of the Police at such port, or any other Police officer authorized by him, is present on the boat into which that consignment is to be discharged.

7. No consignment of calcium carbide shall be discharged from any ship—

- (a) after sunset and before sunrise;

- (a) such boat shall carry on its bows and on its stern a red flag not less than two feet square on a staff the top of which is not less than six feet above the gunwale;
- (b) the nature of the contents of the cargo shall be clearly described on the boat note and certified by the ship's officer;
- (c) no fire or light shall be lit, kindled or allowed to burn and no person shall smoke or be permitted to smoke while the calcium carbide is on the boat;
- (d) the tindal of the boat shall, so long as any calcium carbide remains on the boat, keep it under hatches or covered with double tarpaulins, except during the process of loading and unloading, and shall take every reasonable precaution to prevent any contact of water or moisture with the calcium carbide.

9. (1) Calcium carbide, when it is landed from the boat into which it is discharged from any ship, shall not be deposited or stacked in any place within the limits of the port or in the Customs premises, but shall immediately be removed by the importer to the store specified in the licence to possess such calcium carbide, issued to the importer in accordance with the provisions of Part II. of these Rules.

(2) Where the whole or any part of any calcium carbide discharged into any boat on any day is not landed from that boat before sunset on that day—

- (a) that boat shall be removed at sunset to such mooring as may be specially appointed by the Master Attendant, and shall be moored fore and aft by chains;
- (b) all the calcium carbide on that boat shall be landed on the following day at such time and place as the Collector of Customs may appoint.

10. The owner, master, or agent of the owner of any ship entering or remaining in any port with a cargo of calcium carbide on board shall, when so required by the Collector or other authorized officer of the Customs, or by the Master Attendant, or by any Police Officer of or above the rank of Sub-Inspector, permit that officer to inspect the cargo of calcium carbide and shall give that officer all such facilities, assistance or information as may be necessary for the purposes of the inspection.

NOTIFICATIONS UNDER "THE PATENTS ORDINANCE, 1906."

THE following Specification has been accepted:—

No. 3,052 of September 2, 1938 (Date applied for under Section 50 of the Ordinance, September 3, 1937).

Societe D'Etudes Pour La Construction Et La Reparation Des Ouvrages Metalliques (Secrom).

Improvements in or relating to the butt-welding of bars for concrete work.

Abstract.—The applicants state that it is not possible to butt-weld bars for concrete work as this involves a relatively costly equipment; on the other hand, both the arc welding and acetylene welding processes require a preliminary bevelling operation which is both lengthy and costly.

They propose a method of butt-welding bars which consists in placing the bars so that the ends are separated by a distance at least large enough for a metallic rod (for instance an electrode) to be introduced between, placing a mould of metallic or refractory material to partly surround the bars and forming the joint by a layerwise deposition of fused metal.

Preferably the mould is provided with a cavity facing the gap between the bars and extending a further distance from the end face of each bar so that a thin reinforcing bead is formed at the periphery of the welded joint.

There are four claims and one sheet of drawings.
