2 Section 147 of the Criminal Procedure Code, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), is hereby amended, in paragraph (d) of sub-section (1) of that section, by the substitution for the words "under section 288" of the following :—

"under section 288 or section 290A".

Amendment of Second Schedule to the principal Ordinance.

3 The Second Schedule to the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the insertion, immediately after the item relating to section 290 of the Penal Code, of the item set out in the Schedule hereto.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

L. D.—O 90/38

Chapter 15
(Vol. I., p. 191).

An Ordinance to amend the Penal Code.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Penal Code (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1939.

Insertion of new section 290A in the Penal Code, (Chapter 15).

2 The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 290 of the Penal Code, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), and shall have effect as section 290A of that Code :—

Acts in relation to places of worship, &c., with intent to insult the religion of any class.

290A. Whoever does any act, in or upon, or in the vicinity of, any place of worship or any object which is held sacred or in veneration by any class of persons, with the intention of wounding the religious feelings of any class of persons or with the knowledge that any class of persons is likely to consider such act as an insult to their religion, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

3 Section 294 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution, for Exception 5 in that section, of the following :—

Amendment of section 294 of the principal Ordinance.

Exception 5.—Culpable homicide is not murder if the offender, being the mother of a child under the age of twelve months, causes its death whilst the balance of her mind is disturbed by reason of her not having fully recovered from the effect of giving birth to the child or by reason of the effect of lactation consequent upon the birth of the child.

Objects and Reasons.

Section 290 of the Penal Code makes punishable with two years' imprisonment or with fine, or with both imprisonment and fine, the destruction, damage or defilement of a place of worship or any object held sacred by any class of persons, where the destruction, damage or defilement is done with the intention or knowledge that the religious feelings of any class of persons will be wounded or insulted.

The object of Clause 2 of this Bill is to widen the scope of the law so as to penalise other acts which, while not being so grave as to involve actual destruction, damage or defilement, are nevertheless of such a nature as to insult or wound the religious feelings of any class of persons.

2. Exception 5 to section 294 of the Penal Code provides that culpable homicide is not murder if the offender, being the mother of a newly born child, causes its death while the balance of her mind is disturbed by reason of her not having fully recovered from the effect of giving birth to the child.

The recently passed Infanticide Act, 1938, of the Imperial Parliament amended the English law of infanticide, on which Exception 5 to section 294 of the Penal Code was based, in two particulars. It is no longer necessary in England that the child whose death has been caused should have been "newly born" in order to reduce the offence from murder to infanticide. The new provision is that the child should have been under twelve months old. Further, the fact that the balance of a woman's mind is disturbed at the time of the offence, by reason of the effect of lactation consequent on the birth of the child, has been added as a circumstance which will reduce the offence to one of infanticide.

The object of Clause 3 of this Bill is to incorporate in the Penal Code appropriate provisions designed to bring the Ceylon law into line with the English law relating to infanticide.

Legal Secretary.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Control of Prices Ordinance, No. of 1939.

Appointment of officers.

2 (1) The Governor may appoint—

- (a) any person, by name or by office, to be or to act as Controller of Prices ; and

Orders fixing prices and prescribing conditions of sale.

3 (1) If it appears to the Controller that there is, or is likely to arise, in any part of Ceylon, any shortage of any article or any unreasonable increase in the price of any article, the Controller may by Order—

- (a) fix the maximum price (both wholesale and retail) above which that article shall not be sold ; and
- (b) prescribe the conditions of the sale of that article, including conditions as to the time and place of the sale and the quantity and quality of the article to be sold.

(2) An Order may be limited in operation to any particular place or area in Ceylon and in duration for any specified time or period :

Provided that no Order made by a Deputy or an Assistant Controller of Prices shall be operative outside the area of his appointment.

(3) Every Order shall come into operation when such Order is made and signed by the Controller.

(4) After an Order has been signed by the Controller, public notice thereof shall forthwith be given—

(5) Every Order shall, as soon as may be after the date on which it comes into operation, be placed before the Executive Committee for consideration and the Executive Committee may thereupon approve or rescind the Order.

(6) Where an Order is rescinded by the Executive Committee under sub-section (5), notice of such rescission shall be published in the Gazette and the Order shall be deemed to be rescinded with effect from the date of such publication but without prejudice to anything done or suffered thereunder or any right, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred thereunder.

(12) Where an Order has been approved by the State Council and ratified by the Governor, notification of such approval and ratification shall be published in the Gazette; and, upon such notification, the Order shall be deemed to be as valid and effectual as though it were herein enacted.

4 (1) The Executive Committee may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the principles and provisions of this Ordinance.

Regulations.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), the Executive Committee may make regulations for or in respect of all or any of the following matters:—

- (a) the returns and information to be furnished for the purposes of this Ordinance;

- (c) the power to summon and examine witnesses or informants, to administer oaths, to require the production of, or to impound, documents, and to search and inspect premises;
- (d) the seizure, sale or destruction of articles sold in contravention of any Order, and the disposal of forfeited articles;
- (e) the prevention, during the operation of any Order under section 3 fixing the price of any article, of the hoarding of such articles;
- (f) the modes, other than the modes proscribed in section 3(4), in which public notice may be given of Orders made under this Ordinance;
- (g) any other matters incidental or consequential to any of the matters hereinbefore mentioned, or which may be necessary for the purpose of securing compliance with any Order which may be made under section 3.

(3) No regulation made by the Executive Committee shall have effect unless it has been approved by the State Council and ratified by the Governor. Notification of such approval and ratification shall be published in the Gazette.

(4) Every regulation made by the Executive Committee shall, upon the publication of the notification of the approval and ratification of that regulation, be as valid and effectual as though it were herein enacted.

Penalty for breach of Order or regulation.

5 Any person who acts in contravention of any Order or regulation made under this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment, and in the case of such offence being continued or repeated after such conviction, to an additional fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for each day on which such offence is continued or repeated, or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment; and the court may order the forfeiture of the article in respect of which the offence was committed.

Application of Ordinance.

6 The provisions of this Ordinance or of any Order or regulation shall have no application to any article imported, purchased or stored by or on behalf of the Naval, Military, Air Force or Civil Authorities for the use of His Majesty's Forces or the Civil Administration.

Interpretation.

7 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

- “ article ” means any article of food, drink or merchandise ;
- “ Controller ” means the Controller of Prices, appointed under section 2 ;
- “ Executive Committee ” means the Executive Committee of Labour, Industry and Commerce ;
- “ Minister ” means the Minister for Labour, Industry and Commerce ;
- “ Order ” means an Order made under section 3.

Objects and Reasons.

A Bill to provide for the regulation and control of the prices of commodities was passed by the State Council towards the end of 1937. That Bill was reserved for Royal Assent. A despatch was received from the Secretary of State who expressed the opinion that he did not feel able to advise His Majesty to assent to the Bill in the form in which it had been passed by the State Council. He was, however, prepared to give the matter further consideration if the Bill was amended, inter alia, so as to require submission to the Board of Ministers of Orders made under the powers conferred by the Bill.

2. After consideration of the views expressed by the Secretary of State, it was decided that it would be preferable to introduce a new Bill under which emergency Orders fixing prices will be referred to the Board of Ministers before they are submitted to the State Council for approval. Administrative machinery will be provided for by regulations made by the Executive Committee in accordance with the usual procedure for the enactment of subsidiary legislation. The power to make regulations will enable subsidiary legislation of a general character to be made in advance of the actual emergency which calls for the promulgation of an Order regulating the prices at which specified commodities may be sold.

G. C. S. COREA,

Minister for Labour, Industry and Commerce.
