An Ordinance to make provision for the payment of maternity benefits to women workers and for other matters incidental to the employment of such women before and after their confinement.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title and date of operation.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Maternity Benefits Ordinance, No. 32 of 1939, and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor may appoint by Proclamation published in the Gazette.

Woman worker not to be employed for four weeks after her confinement.

2 No employer shall knowingly employ a woman worker at any time during the period of four weeks immediately following her confinement.

Period for which maternity benefit must be paid.

3 (1) The maximum period for which any woman shall be entitled to the payment of maternity benefit shall be six weeks, that is to say, two weeks up to and including the day of her confinement and four weeks immediately following that day.

(2) If a woman dies during the period of six weeks mentioned in sub-section (1), the maternity benefit shall be payable only for the days up to and including the day of her death.

Qualifying period of employment for maternity benefit.

4 No woman shall be entitled to maternity benefit unless she has been employed under the employer from whom she claims such benefit for a period of not less than nine months immediately preceding the date on which she gives notice under section 6.

Liability of employer and rate of maternity benefit.

5 (1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the employer of a woman worker shall pay to that woman worker maternity benefit at the rate of fifty cents a day during the period of two weeks immediately preceding her confinement and for the entirety of the period of four weeks immediately following her confinement:

Provided that a woman worker who has worked in her employment on any day during the period of two weeks immediately preceding her confinement shall not be entitled to any maternity benefit for that day or for that part of that period which precedes that day.

Provided, further, that an employer shall be exempt from the obligation to pay such maternity benefit to a woman worker in the following circumstances :—

- (a) if the woman worker is a female labourer resident upon an estate and entitled as such to the benefits prescribed in paragraph (f) of section 12 (1) of the Medical Wants Ordinance, and
- (b) if such employer is certified by the Controller to be an employer who has provided such alternative maternity benefits for female labourers resident upon estates as shall be prescribed and has made arrangements to the satisfaction of the Controller to give effect to such conditions as may be prescribed.

Cap. 176.

In this sub-section, "day" includes a Sunday and any holiday.

(2) Where the alternative maternity benefits referred to in sub-section (1) and prescribed for the purposes of that sub-section include the payment to a woman worker of money in cash, the amount of the payments so prescribed shall not, in the aggregate, exceed a sum of twelve rupees.

6 (1) A woman worker may, prior to her confinement, give notice to her employer that she expects to be confined within a month from the date of such notice.

Notice to employer of confinement or expected confinement.

(2) A woman worker who has been confined shall, within one week of her confinement, give notice to her employer of the date on which she was confined.

(3) A woman worker who gives notice under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) may in such notice nominate some other person to whom her maternity benefit may be paid on her behalf; and any payment of any maternity benefit made to the person so nominated shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed to be payment to the woman worker who nominated such person.

(4) The employer shall, on receipt of a notice from a woman worker under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), permit that woman worker to absent herself from employment until the expiry of four weeks after the day of her confinement.

(5) If a woman works in any employment after she has been permitted by her employer to absent herself under sub-section (4), she shall forfeit her claim to the payment of maternity benefit to which she is entitled.

7 The amount of maternity benefit for the period up to and including the day of confinement shall be paid by the employer to the woman within forty-eight hours of the production of such proof of confinement as may be prescribed. The amount due for the subsequent period shall be paid to the woman in two instalments at the end of the second and the fourth week, respectively, after her confinement.

Payment of maternity benefit.

8 If a woman worker entitled to maternity benefit under the provisions of this Ordinance dies during the period for which she is entitled to such benefit, the employer shall pay the amount of maternity benefit due to the person nominated in the notice given under section 6 (3) or, if there is no such person, to her heirs-at-law.

Payment of maternity benefit accrued due before death of woman.

9 When a woman worker absents herself from work in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, it shall not be lawful for her employer to give her notice of dismissal during such absence or on such a day that the notice will expire during such absence.

Woman worker not to be given notice of dismissal during authorised absence from employment.

10 (1) No notice of dismissal given without sufficient cause by an employer to a woman worker within a period of three months before her confinement shall have the effect of depriving her of any maternity benefit to which but for such notice she would have been, or would on or before the date of her confinement have become, entitled under this Ordinance.

Right to maternity benefit unaffected by notice of dismissal in specified circumstances.

(2) If any question arises as to whether any notice of dismissal given under sub-section (1) was or was not given for sufficient cause, it shall be referred to the Controller whose decision shall be final.

11 The Governor may appoint such inspectors, officers or servants as may from time to time be required for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Appointment of officers, &c.

12 (1) Any inspector may at any time during the day enter any factory, estate, mine or shop where women are employed for the purposes of inspection and of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Ordinance have been complied with or contravened; and, for such purposes, any such inspector may make all such inquiries as he may deem necessary and it shall be the duty of the employer of such women to furnish the inspector with all such information as he may require.

Inspectors and inspection.

Cap. 15. (2) Every inspector shall be a public servant within the meaning of the Penal Code.

Cap. III (3) In this section, "inspector" means an inspector appointed under this Ordinance or an inspector of labour appointed under the Indian Immigrant Labour Ordinance and includes any person authorised by the Controller in writing to perform the duties and exercise the powers of an inspector under this Ordinance.

Regulations. 13 (1) The Executive Committee may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the principles and provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), the Executive Committee may make regulations for or in respect of all or any of the following matters:—

(a) any matter required by or stated in this Ordinance to be prescribed;

(b) the preparation, maintenance and inspection of registers of women workers and the particulars to be entered in such registers;

(c) the inspection of factories, estates, mines, and shops;

(d) the manner of giving and serving notices under this Ordinance and the maintenance of notice boards and notice books;

(e) the method of payment of maternity benefit in so far as provision has not been made therefor in this Ordinance;

(f) the alternative maternity benefits required to be prescribed for the purposes of the exemption referred to in the second proviso to section 5;

(g) the duties and powers of inspectors, officers and servants under this Ordinance;

(h) other matters incidental to or connected with the matters hereinbefore enumerated.

(3) No regulation shall have effect unless it has been approved by the State Council and ratified by the Governor. Notification of such approval and ratification shall be published in the Gazette.

(4) Every regulation shall, on publication of the notification of the approval and ratification of that regulation under sub-section (3), be as valid and effectual as if it were herein enacted.

Offences and penalties.

14 Any employer who acts in contravention of any provision of this Ordinance or of any regulation made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Prosecutions not to be instituted except with sanction of Controller.

15 No prosecution for any offence against this Ordinance or any regulation made thereunder shall be instituted except by the Controller or with his written sanction.

Prosecutions to be instituted within six months of date of offence.

16 No court shall take cognizance of, or convict a person for, any offence against this Ordinance or any regulation made thereunder unless complaint thereof has been made within six months of the date on which the offence was committed. In computing the period of six months aforesaid, the time, if any, taken for the purpose of obtaining the previous sanction of the Controller shall be excluded.

Contracting out.

17 Any contract or agreement, whether made before or after the date appointed by the Governor under section 1 whereby a woman relinquishes any right under this Ordinance shall be null and void in so far as it purports to deprive her of that right or to remove or reduce the liability of any person to pay maternity benefit under this Ordinance.

Application of other written law.

18 The provisions of this Ordinance shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of any other written law relating to the employment or remuneration of women or women workers and the conditions of such employment.

19 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.
