L. D.—O 58/40

812/12 (P.D.)

Cap. 289.
Vol. VI., p. 289.

An Ordinance to authorise a sum of one hundred million rupees to be raised under the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance and to be lent to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom for the purposes of Imperial War expenditure.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the War Loan Ordinance, No. of 1941.

Authority to raise loan.

2. (1) The Governor is hereby authorised to raise by way of loan a sum not exceeding one hundred million rupees for the purpose of enabling the Government of Ceylon to lend such sum to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom for expenditure on the war in which His Majesty is at present engaged.

Cap. 289.

(2) The sum not exceeding one hundred million rupees referred to in sub-section (1) and every part of such sum shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be raised under the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance at such time or times as the Governor may, in his discretion, determine :

Provided that section 4 (e) and sections 27 to 33 (both inclusive) of the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance shall not be applicable in respect of any loan raised under the authority of this Ordinance.

Loans by Government of Ceylon to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom.

3. (1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the Governor is hereby authorised, on behalf of the Government of Ceylon, to lend to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom such sum not exceeding one hundred million rupees as may be raised under section 2, for the purposes of Imperial war expenditure :

Provided that the rate of interest at which any such sum may be so lent by the Governor and the date of repayment of that sum by His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom shall be the same as the rate of interest and the date of repayment, respectively, specified in the Order made under section 4 of the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance in respect of the raising of that sum by way of loan in Ceylon.

(2) The Governor is hereby further authorised, on behalf of the Government of Ceylon, to make all such arrangements as may be requisite, and to enter into such agreements as may be necessary with His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, for the purpose of exercising the powers conferred by sub-section (1) in accordance with the provisions of that sub-section.

Application of moneys received from the United Kingdom.

4. All moneys received from His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, whether by way of interest or principal, in respect of any sum lent under section 3 to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be appropriated and applied for the purpose of paying the interest or principal, as the case may be, on the corresponding loan raised in Ceylon under the authority of this Ordinance :

Provided that, where payment of any amount in respect of any such loan in Ceylon has been made out of the general revenue of the Island, an equivalent amount shall be paid to the general revenue out of any moneys received as aforesaid from His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom.

Exemption from taxes and duties.
Cap. 289.

5. The interest payable on any registered stock, promissory notes or bearer bonds issued by authority of this Ordinance under the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance and held by the Government of any part of His Majesty's dominions (including therein any British Protectorate or Protected State and any territory in respect of which a Mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Majesty), shall be exempt from all taxes and duties leviable or payable under any written law in force in Ceylon, notwithstanding anything in any such law to the contrary.

Expenses of raising loan to be a charge on revenue.

6. All expenses incurred in raising any sum by way of loan under the authority of this Ordinance are hereby charged upon and shall be payable out of the general revenue and assets of the Island.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to enable a sum not exceeding one hundred million rupees to be raised in Ceylon by the issue of securities under the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance (Chapter 289) so that the money so raised may be lent to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom for the purposes of Imperial war expenditure.

2. - As the loan will be raised under the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance, the payment of interest and principal will, by virtue of section 3 of that Ordinance, be charged upon the general revenue and assets of Ceylon. Furthermore, clause 4 of the Bill provides that sums paid to Ceylon by the Imperial Government in respect of the contemplated loan shall be applied to the service of the loan raised in Ceylon.

The Secretariat,
Colombo, January 18, 1941.

H. J. HUXHAM,
Financial Secretary.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

L. D.—O 58/40

812/12 (P. D.)

An Ordinance to enable money to be lent without interest to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, through the Government of Ceylon, for the purposes of Imperial War Expenditure.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Free Loans (War Purposes) Ordinance, No. of 1941. Short title.
2. Any person who desires to lend money without interest to the Government of Ceylon for expenditure on the war in which His Majesty is at present engaged shall, on the deposit of such money with the Deputy Financial Secretary, be entitled to a Treasury Certificate substantially in the form prescribed in the Schedule. Interest-free loans and issue of Treasury Certificates.
3. A Treasury Certificate shall entitle the person named therein to the payment without interest, out of the general revenue and assets of Ceylon, of the sum of money specified in the Certificate on the date therein provided. Rights conferred by Treasury Certificates.
4. Subject as hereinafter provided, a Treasury Certificate shall not be transferable :
Provided that nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall affect or be deemed or construed to affect any devolution of any rights to or in a Treasury Certificate or the moneys represented thereby on the death of the person named in the Certificate or otherwise by operation of law. Treasury Certificates to be non-transferable
5. The Governor, on behalf of the Government of Ceylon, is hereby authorised to lend without interest to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom moneys equivalent to the amount represented by the Treasury Certificates issued under section 2 and to make all such arrangements as may be necessary for the remittance of such moneys to the United Kingdom and for the repayment of such moneys to the Government of Ceylon. Interest-free loans to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom.
6. All moneys received in repayment of any loan to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom under section 5 shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be appropriated and applied for the purpose of re-paying the interest-free loans represented by the Treasury Certificates issued under this Ordinance :
Provided that, where payment of any amount in respect of any such interest-free loan in Ceylon has been made out of the general revenue of the Island prior to the receipt of such moneys from His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, an equivalent amount shall be paid out of such moneys to the general revenue before such moneys are appropriated and applied for the purpose mentioned in the preceding provisions of this section. Application of moneys received from the United Kingdom.
7. All expenses incurred in connexion with the issue of Treasury Certificates and the advertisement of the scheme relating to interest-free loans hereinbefore referred to, and all moneys required for the repayment of the principal sums represented by Treasury Certificates issued under this Ordinance are hereby charged upon and shall be payable out of the general revenue and assets of Ceylon. Expenses and repayment of loan to be a charge on revenue.
8. No Treasury Certificate and no right to or in a Treasury Certificate or the moneys represented thereby shall at any time be seized, attached or sequestered in execution of the decree or process of any court. Treasury Certificates, to be exempt from seizure.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

L. D.—O 7/38

An Ordinance to provide for the prevention and punishment of bribery and corruption of and by members of the State Council or of local authorities.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Public Bodies (Prevention of Corruption) Ordinance, No. of 1941.

Offer or giving of gratification to member of public body or to influence a member.

2. (1) Any person who corruptly gives, promises or offers to any member of a public body, whether for the benefit of such member or of another person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever as an inducement to or reward for such member doing or forbearing to do any official act, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who corruptly gives, promises or offers to any other person, whether for the benefit of that person or of another person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever, as an inducement to or reward for influencing any member of a public body to do or forbear to do any official act, shall be guilty of an offence.

Taking of gratification by member of public body or to influence a member.

3. (1) Any member of a public body who corruptly solicits or receives or agrees to receive, for himself or for any other person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever as an inducement to or reward for such member doing or forbearing to do any official act, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who corruptly solicits or receives or agrees to receive, for himself or for any other person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever as an inducement to or reward for influencing any member of a public body to do or forbear to do any official act, shall be guilty of an offence.

4. (1) Any person who commits any offence under this Ordinance shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalties for and trial of offences under this Ordinance.

(2) The court which convicts any person of any offence under this Ordinance may, in addition to the penalties prescribed in sub-section (1), order as a further penalty, that the whole or any part of the amount or value of any gift, loan, fee or reward received by that person shall be recovered from him in the same manner as a fine imposed by the court; and any sum so recovered shall be disposed of in such manner as the court may direct.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the Criminal Procedure Code, a District Court shall have jurisdiction to try, on indictment, any offence under this Ordinance and to impose any penalty prescribed in the preceding provisions of this section.

Cap. 16.

5. No prosecution for any offence under this Ordinance shall be instituted except by or with the written sanction of the Attorney-General.

Restriction on prosecutions.

6. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation.

- (a) any office or dignity, and any forbearance to demand any money or money's worth or valuable thing, and
- (b) any aid, vote, consent or influence, and
- (c) any promise or procurement of or agreement or endeavour to procure, or the holding out of any expectation of, any gift, loan, fee, reward, or advantage as hereinbefore defined;

“official act”, when used with reference to any member of a public body, includes any act which that member is, by or under the provisions of any law for the time being in force relating to that public body, empowered, authorised, entitled or required to do or forbear to do in respect of any matter or transaction whatsoever, actual or proposed, in which the public body is concerned;

“public body” means the State Council of Ceylon, or any Municipal Council, Urban Council, Local Board, Sanitary Board or Village Committee, and includes any standing or select or other committee of any such Council, Board or Committee;

“State Council of Ceylon” includes the Board of Ministers and any executive, standing, select or other committee of the State Council.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill, which is modelled on the provisions of the Public Bodies Corrupt Practices Act, 1889, of the Imperial Parliament, is to penalise the offer of a bribe to a member of a public body, or the acceptance of a bribe by any such member, as a motive or reward for doing or forbearing to do any act in his capacity as a member of that public body. “Public body” is defined to include the State Council, any Municipal or Urban Council, and any Local Board, Sanitary Board or Village Committee.

Chambers, Hulftsdorp,
Colombo, January 22, 1941.

ROBERT H. DRAYTON,
Legal Secretary.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to enable companies formed and registered in Ceylon to make contributions to war funds and war charities.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Companies (War Contributions) Ordinance, No. of 1941.

Short title.

2. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any written law or instrument, the memorandum of every company shall be deemed to include and since the third day of September, 1939, to have included among the objects of the company the making of contributions to any war fund; and every company shall have power to ratify, allow and confirm any such contribution already made and to make or ratify any future contributions.

Power for companies to contribute to war funds.

- (2) A company may resolve to make, or ratify the making of, a contribution to any war fund by an ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting of the company of which not less than seven days' prior notice shall have been given.
- Indemnity. 3. No president, chairman, director, secretary, treasurer, auditor or other officer of any company shall be or be held to be personally liable, either alone or jointly with others, to account for or to repay or otherwise be liable for or in respect of any contribution made prior to the commencement of this Ordinance by the company to any war fund.
- Interpretation. 4. (1) In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—
 “ company ” and “ memorandum ” have, respectively, the same meaning as in the Companies Ordinance, No. 51 of 1938 ;
 “ war fund ” means any fund, charity or organisation created, established or maintained for the efficient prosecution of any war in which His Majesty may be engaged or for any other purpose whatsoever relating to or connected with any such war.
- (2) For the purposes of this Ordinance, contributions sent to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom for war purposes shall be deemed to be contributions to a war fund.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to enable companies formed and registered in Ceylon to contribute to war funds and war charities. Provision has already been made in the Local Authorities (War Contributions) Ordinance, No. 32 of 1940, to enable local authorities to make similar contributions.

G. C. S. COREA,

Minister for Labour, Industry and Commerce.
Colombo, January 22, 1941.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to incorporate the Society known as the Moratuwa Social Service Society.

WHEREAS a Society called and known as the Moratuwa Social Service Society has heretofore been established for the purpose of rendering social service and promoting social service work in the town of Moratuwa, according to the Rules agreed to by its members :

And whereas the said Society has become seized and possessed of certain lands and buildings, with the appurtenances thereof, both movable and immovable, called and known as the Moratuwa Home for the Aged, and also a sum of money amounting to a total of Rs. 20,000, of which sum of money only the interest is to be utilized by the said Society for the use and maintenance of the said Home for the Aged only :

And whereas the above mentioned lands, buildings and money are to be held in perpetuity, for the use and maintenance of the said Home :

And whereas the said Society has applied to be incorporated and it will be for the public advantage to grant such application for incorporation.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

- Short title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Moratuwa Social Service Society Incorporation Ordinance, No. of 1940.
- Incorporation. 2. From and after the date of the commencement of this Ordinance, the members for the time being of the Moratuwa Social Service Society (hereinafter referred to as the Society) and such and so many persons as shall after that date be members of the Society shall be and become a body corporate with perpetual succession under the name and style of “ The Moratuwa Social Service Society ” and by that name may sue and be sued in all courts.
- General objects. 3. The general objects for which the Society is constituted are the rendering of social service and the promotion of the social service work in the town of Moratuwa by the provision of facilities for the relief of poverty, distress, sickness, unemployment and illiteracy, and by the establishment and maintenance of homes for the aged and destitute and schools and by such other measures as may be necessary for the purposes of the Society.

4. (i.) It shall be lawful for the Society from time to time at any general meeting of the members and by the votes of at least two-thirds of the members present at such meeting to make rules for any of the following purposes :—

Rules.

- (a) the admission, withdrawal or expulsion of members ;
- (b) the powers, conduct, duties and functions of the various officers, agents and servants of the Society ;
- (c) the procedure to be observed at meetings and in convening meetings and in the transaction of the business of the Society ;
- (d) the administration and management of the property of the Society ;
- (e) fixing the subscription payable by members and the collection of such subscription ;
- (f) the imposition of penalties and forfeitures of breaches of the rules ; and
- (g) generally the management of the affairs and the accomplishment of the objects of the Society.

(ii.) All members of the Society shall at all times be subject to the rules for the time being of the Society.

5. No rule made by the Society at a general meeting shall be altered, amended or revoked except by the votes of at least two-thirds of the members present at any subsequent general meeting, provided that no such rule or regulation shall however be made to convert the property of the Home for the Aged or monies earmarked for the said Home for any other purpose.

Alteration of rules.

6. The Corporation shall be able and capable in law to receive and to hold property, both movable and immovable, which may be vested in it by virtue of any purchase, grant, gift, testamentary disposition or otherwise ; and all such property shall be held by the Corporation for the purposes of this Ordinance and subject to the rules for the time being of the said Corporation with full power (subject to any trust attaching to such property and to the law regulating such trusts) to sell, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of the same.

Power of corporation to hold property.

7. From and after the date of the commencement of this Ordinance all property of the Society, both movable and immovable, whether held in the name of the Society or in the name of any person or persons in trust for the Society, shall be and is hereby vested in the Corporation, and such property together with all after-acquired property both movable and immovable, and all subscriptions, donations, loans and other moneys received or to be received shall be held by the said Corporation for the purposes of this Ordinance and subject to the rules for the time being of the Society.

Vesting of property.

8. (i.) It shall be competent for the Corporation to have and to use a seal and to change and alter its seal from time to time.

Seal of Corporation.

(ii.) The seal of the Corporation shall not be affixed to any instrument whatsoever except in the presence of three Members of the Board of Trustees, who shall sign their names on the instrument in token of their presence, and such signing shall be independent of the signing of any person as a witness.

9. Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect or be deemed to affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs and Successors, or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other persons except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from or under them.

Saving of rights of the Crown.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to incorporate the Moratuwa Social Service Society, so as to enable the Society more effectively to administer its affairs, and to hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable, as a body corporate with perpetual succession.

W. A. DE SILVA, M.S.C.

Moratuwa.
