THE DEFENCE FORCE ORDINANCE

RULES made by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 40 of the Defence Force Ordinance (Chapter 258).

By His Excellency's command,

G. S. WODEMAN,
Chief Secretary

Colombo August 22, 1941

RULES

1. These rules may be cited as the Male Europeans (Exemption from Enlistment) Rules, 1941.

2. In these rules—

- “Chairman” means the Chairman of the Committee,
“Committee” means any Committee appointed by the Governor under section 38 of the Ordinance,
“Ordinance” means the Defence Force Ordinance.

3. Every person who desires to be exempted from the application of Part IV of the Ordinance, shall within fourteen days from the date fixed by the Governor by Proclamation under section 35 (1) of the Ordinance, or in any case where that Part becomes applicable to such person subsequently to that date then within fourteen days from the date on which that Part becomes so applicable make a written claim in that behalf to the Chairman of the Committee having jurisdiction over the place where such person is resident.

4. In addition to the grounds specified in section 38 (1) of the Ordinance, a Committee may order the exemption of any person from the application of Part IV of the Ordinance if—

- (a) such person is in holy orders or is a minister of any religious denomination, or
(b) such person shows to the satisfaction of the Committee that the nature of his civil employment or the place at which his business is carried on or the loss of business as a result of enlistment renders compliance with the provisions of that Part impracticable.

5. Every person whose claim for exemption under these rules is based on the ground of ill-health or infirmity shall—

- (a) send with such claim a certificate in that behalf from a registered medical practitioner, and
(b) if the Committee so direct, submit himself to medical examination by a Military Medical Officer or a Government Medical Officer nominated by the Committee.

6. (1) The Chairman may, by written notice served on any person who has made a claim under rule 3, require such person to appear before and be orally examined by the Committee on such date and at such time and place as may be specified in the notice.
(2) Every person on whom a notice is served under paragraph (1) shall comply with the requirements of such notice.

7. In the event of any difference of opinion between the members of any Committee, the decision of the majority shall prevail.

8. Where a Committee decides to order the exemption of any person from the application of Part IV of the Ordinance the Chairman shall—

- (a) grant a certificate of exemption under his hand to such person, and

(b) forthwith report the grant of such certificates to the Chief Secretary.

9. Where the Committee refuses to exempt any person from the application of Part IV of the Ordinance, the Chairman shall by written notice served on that person forthwith inform that person of such refusal.

10. Any notice to be served on any person under rule 6 or rule 9 may be sent by post addressed to that person at his last known place of abode.

11. (1) Every petition of appeal under section 38 (2) of the Ordinance shall be sent in the first instance to the Chief Secretary.

(2) No petition of appeal which is received by the Chief Secretary after the expiry of a period of fourteen days from the date on which notice was given by the Chairman to the appellant under rule 9, shall be considered by the Governor. Provided, however, that the Governor may, in his discretion, entertain such petition if he is satisfied that the delay in sending the petition of appeal was due to accident, misfortune or other unavoidable cause.

THE DEFENCE FORCE ORDINANCE

REGULATIONS relating to persons to whom Part IV of the Defence Force Ordinance (Chapter 258) applies, made by the Officer Commanding the Troops, after consultation with the Commandant, by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 12 (read with section 36) of that Ordinance and approved by the Governor in pursuance of the powers vested in him by the said section 12.

By His Excellency's command,

G. S. WODEMAN,
Chief Secretary

Colombo August 22, 1941

REGULATIONS

1. These regulations may be cited as the Male Europeans (Training) Regulations, 1941, and shall come into force on the expiration of a period of forty days from the date of publication in the Gazette.

2. In these regulations—

“Defence Force Corps” means any Defence Force Corps formed under the Ordinance, but does not include the Ceylon Cadet Battalion,

“Ordinance” means the Defence Force Ordinance,
“person” means a person who has enrolled himself, under section 35 of the Ordinance, in any Defence Force Corps or in the reserve of any such corps.

3. Every person who, having attained the age of 18 but not having attained the age of 41, has enrolled himself in any Defence Force Corps other than the Colombo Town Guard shall attend the following drills and courses of instruction—

- (a) Fire the Annual Weapon Training Course as prescribed by the Brigadier Commanding Troops, and
(b) Either attend—

- (1) a ten consecutive days camp every alternative month or
(2) two evening parades of three hours duration per week, and one day parade of six hours duration per week, and

- (c) Attend all special parades as ordered by the General or other Officer Commanding the Troops.

4. Subject as hereinafter provided, every person who having attained the age of 41 but not having attained the age of 50, has enrolled himself as a member of the reserve of any Defence Force Corps shall attend the following drills and courses of instructions—

- (a) Fire the Annual Weapon Training Course as prescribed by the Brigadier Commanding Troops, and

(b) Either attend—

- (1) a six consecutive days camp every alternate month, or
(2) two evening parades of three hours duration per week, and

- (c) Attend all special parades as ordered by the General or other Officer Commanding the Troops.

Provided that every such person whose name appears on the list called the “Active List” maintained by the Brigadier Commanding Troops shall attend the drills and courses of instruction specified in regulation 3.

5. Every person who has enrolled himself in the Colombo Town Guard shall attend the following drills and courses of instruction—

- (a) Fire the Annual Weapon Training Course as prescribed by the Brigadier Commanding Troops, and

- (b) Attend each week two evening parades of not less than one hour's duration each, and

- (c) Attend all special parades as ordered by the General or other Officer Commanding the Troops.

THE following regulations, syllabus and form of application for the Ceylon Civil Service Examination to be held in 1941 or early 1942 are published for general information.

Chief Secretary's Office,
Colombo August 22, 1941

By His Excellency's command,

G. S. WODEMAN,
Chief Secretary.

CADETSHIPS IN THE CEYLON CIVIL SERVICE.

Open Competition of 1941.

1. An Open Competitive Examination for Cadetships in the Ceylon Civil Service will be held by the Indian Federal Public Service Commission in Colombo in 1941 or early 1942. The actual dates will be notified later. There will be no examination held in London for admission to the Ceylon Civil Service in 1941.

2. The number of vacancies will be four.

- 3 Candidates for this examination must be natural born male British subjects either of Ceylonese descent on both sides or of mixed European and Ceylonese descent. The Governor may, however, grant a candidate who is a natural born male British subject, normally resident in Ceylon and whose family connections and interests are in Ceylon, permission to sit for the examination. Candidates successful in the competition may be called upon to satisfy the Governor that they fulfil the above requirements as regards descent.
- 4 Candidates must have attained the age of 22 and must not have attained the age of 24 on August 1, 1941.
- 5 Candidates are required to obtain a written nomination from the Governor to sit for the Examination.
- 6 Candidates must satisfy the Governor that they are duly qualified in respect of health and character. They must be of sound constitution, possessed of good sight and physically qualified for service in tropical climates. Successful candidates will be called upon to undergo a strict medical examination to test these points.
- 7 A married candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a Ceylon Cadetship without the special consent of the Governor.
- 8 The fee for examination will be—

(a) Rs 100 for the competitive examination which should be paid to the Examination Fund (No 2) account of the Director of Education in the Bank of Ceylon. See note 4 of application form. The bank receipt should be attached to the application form.

(b) Rs 10 50 for the medical examination. Successful candidates will be notified later of the manner in which this fee is to be paid.

9 Nominations to candidates will be limited to those who have passed the Honours or Pass Degree Examination of the University of London or any other public examination which may be deemed to be of an equally high standard.

10. Candidates who possess the necessary qualifications and who propose to sit for the examination will on application to the Chief Secretary be supplied with copies of the Regulations, Syllabus, and Application Form.

11 Nominations for the examination will be considered on the receipt of the forms of application which must be filled in by the applicants in their own handwriting and must reach the Chief Secretary's Office on or before September 25, 1941.

12 No allegation that an application form or a letter respecting such form has been lost or delayed in the post can be considered. Candidates who delay their applications until the last days will do so at their own risk.

13 Acknowledgments of application forms are sent and any candidate who has filled up and returned the printed application form but has not received an acknowledgment of it within a reasonable time should at once write to the Chief Secretary, Colombo. Failure to comply with this provision will deprive the candidate of any claim to consideration.

14 Candidates will be notified as soon as possible of the dates and place fixed for their visa voce test, the time table of the written part of the examination will be sent to the address given on the form of application and will contain instructions as to the time and place at which candidates are to attend.

Note —Information as to the salary and general conditions of service on which these appointments will be made can be obtained on application to the Chief Secretary.

APPLICATION FORM.

For the use of candidates seeking admission to the Competitive Examination to be held in Colombo in 1941 or early 1942 for appointment to Cadetships in the Ceylon Civil Service.

Note 1 —This form is to be filled up and returned to the Chief Secretary, Colombo in time for delivery on or before September 25, 1941. No application form received after that date will be accepted.

A candidate who fills up and returns this application form and does not receive an acknowledgment of it within a reasonable time should inform the Chief Secretary.

Note 2 —Candidates should, by consulting the regulations, make certain that they are eligible to compete and that their selection of subjects conforms with the regulations. No scrutiny of the information which is given on this sheet is made by the Chief Secretary or the Indian Federal Public Service Commissioners before the examination.

Note 3 —Should any of the particulars furnished by candidates be found to be false within their knowledge they will, if appointed, be liable to be dismissed, and, if otherwise entitled to superannuation allowance they will forfeit all claim thereto. The wilful suppression of any material fact will be similarly penalized.

Note 4 —The fee for the examination will be Rs 100 which should be paid to the Examination Fund (No 2) account of the Director of Education in the Bank of Ceylon. A form for this purpose is annexed. The Bank receipt should be annexed to the application form. The full fee is returned to candidates who are not granted nominations to sit for the examination. No refund of the whole or a portion of the fee will be made if a candidate withdraws or absents himself from the examination for any reason whatsoever.

5 The Civilization (subjects 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, and 23) associated with a language can be taken only by candidates who also offer the language itself. Candidates offering subjects 12 and 14 may take either subject 13 or subject 15 but not both.

6. In English Literature (subjects 16 to 20 inclusive) a candidate may not offer subjects carrying a total of more than four hundred marks. Thus a candidate who offers English Literature (General) (subject 16) may not offer more than two periods of English Literature (subjects 17 to 20).

7. Candidates who offer a natural science subject (subjects 49 to 60) must produce a certificate of laboratory training in an institution of University rank. The certificate must be signed by the head of the institution.

8. Candidates who offer Geography (subjects 61 and 62) must produce a certificate of practical training in that subject in an institution of University rank. The certificate must be signed by the head of the institution.

9. Candidates who offer Astronomy (subject 63) must satisfy the Chief Secretary that they have been trained in an Astronomical Observatory for a period of at least three months or have had other experience of the use of the Astronomical instruments.

10. From the marks assigned to candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Examiners may consider necessary in order to secure that no credit is allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

11. If a candidate's handwriting is not easily legible a deduction which may be of considerable amount will be made on this account from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.

12. Credit will be given for good English, including orderly, effective and exact expressions, combined with due economy of words in all the subjects of the examination and not only in subjects 1 and 2 which are specially devoted to the English language.

13. Candidates must be prepared to sit for more than one paper in subjects carrying a total of 200 marks.

SYLLABUSES.

1. Essay—An essay to be written in English on one of several specified subjects.

2. English—Questions to test the understanding of, and the power to write, English.

3. General Knowledge—Including knowledge of current events and of matters of everyday observation and experience in their scientific aspects as may be expected of an educated man who has not made a special study of any scientific subject.

4. Viva Voce—The candidate will be interviewed by a Board who will have before them a record of his career. He will be asked questions on matters of general interest. The object of the interview is to assess his suitability for the Service for which he is entered, and in framing their assessment the Board will attach particular importance to his intelligence and alertness, his vigour and strength of character and his potential qualities of leadership.

5. Sinhalese Language and Literature.—Candidates are expected to show a knowledge of the language in its various phases of development and of the literature from the earliest times. Passages may be set for translation from and into English.

6. Tamil Language and Literature.—Translation from Tamil into English and from English into Tamil, an essay and questions on grammar, Tamil Literature from the Sangam age to the end of the 19th century.

7. Dravidian Civilization.—The history of Dravidian civilization from the earliest times to the end of the 19th century with special reference to the Tamils.

8-15 and 21-23. Languages and Civilizations.—Candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of the language and its literature. The papers on civilization will test the knowledge of geography, history, and social, political and religious evolution and developments. Questions may be set which require an acquaintance with archaeological discoveries.

8. Arabic Language.—Translation from Arabic into English and from English into Arabic and composition in Arabic on one or more specified subjects. The classical language must be used.

9. Arabic Civilization.—History and literature of the Arabs and Muslim Philosophy with special reference to the period from the middle of the 6th Century A.D. to the middle of the 13th Century A.D. Candidates offering this subject are expected to show a familiarity with the whole subject and not to restrict themselves to the special period.

10. Persian Language.—Translation from Persian into English and from English into Persian and composition in Persian on one or more specified subjects. The classical language must be used.

11. Persian Civilization.—Persian history and literature with special reference to the period 1000 A.D. to 1500 A.D. Candidates offering this subject are expected to show a familiarity with the whole subject and not to restrict themselves to the special period.

12. Sanskrit Language.—Translation from Sanskrit into English and from English into Sanskrit and composition in Sanskrit on one or more specified subjects.

Questions may be set on Vedic Grammar relating to grammatical forms occurring in the passages set for translation or to general grammatical questions suggested by them. Both Vedic and Classical Sanskrit passages may be set for translation. Composition will be required in classical Sanskrit alone. A knowledge of the Prakrit used in plays will be expected. The Devanagari script must be used.

13. Sanskrit Civilization.—The history of the Civilization, Philosophy and thought of India from the Vedic period to 1200 A.D.

14. Pali Language.—Translation from Pali into English and from English into Pali and composition in Pali on one or more specified subjects.

15. Pali Civilization.—The history of Buddhist Civilization in India from the time of Buddha to 1000 A.D.

16. English Literature—General.—Candidates will be expected to show a general knowledge of the history of English Literature from the time of Chaucer to the end of the reign of Queen Victoria and to give evidence of wide reading in English Literature.

17-20. English Literature—Periods 1 to 4.—Special attention should be paid to the authors named and a candidate will be expected to be familiar with some of their works.

A candidate will also be expected to have studied the literary history of this period, and to have done some independent reading outside the authors named. In marking the paper importance will be attached to evidence of wide reading and independent judgment.

Period 1, 1580 to 1680.—Spencer, Shakespeare, Milton, Bacon, Bunyan.

Period 2, 1680 to 1780.—Dryden, Pope, Gray, Addison, Swift, Fielding, Johnson, Sheridan, Burke.

Period 3, 1780 to 1832.—Scott, Wordsworth, Lamb, Keats, Shelley, Byron, Jane Austen.

Period 4, 1832 to 1901.—Macaulay, Carlyle, Dickens, Thackeray, the Brontës, Tennyson, Robert Browning, Matthew Arnold, R. L. Stevenson, Thomas Hardy.

21. Latin Language.—Papers will be set on Composition and Translation. The paper on Latin Composition will be so arranged that candidates may confine themselves to prose composition or to verse composition or may attempt both verse and prose.

22. Greek Language.—Papers will be set on Composition and Translation. The paper on Greek Composition will be so arranged that candidates may confine themselves to prose composition or to verse composition or may attempt both verse and prose.

23. Greek and Roman Civilization.—Papers will be set on Greek and Latin Literature and Greek and Roman History. On both papers special credit will be given for knowledge of original authorities. In Greek History the main stress will be laid on the period from 510 B.C. to 323 B.C.. In Roman History on the period from 133 B.C. to 117 A.D.

HISTORY Subjects 24 to 32.—Candidates in these subjects should be acquainted with geography in its relation to history and be prepared to draw sketch maps. When a fixed date is given for the beginning of a period candidates will be expected to know in general outline how the initial position was reached. Questions may be asked to test the candidate's knowledge of original sources.

24. Ceylon History.—This subject covers the whole period of Ceylon History and is not confined to any special period. Questions may also be set on Ceylon Geography as affecting the history.

25. Indian History—Period 1.—India from the first Aryan immigration to the end of the 12th century. Questions may also be set on the history of Buddhism outside of India.

26. Indian History—Period 2.—India from the beginning of the 11th century to 1748 (death of the Mogul Muhammad Shah). Questions may also be set on the contemporary history of the principal Moslem powers outside of India.

27. Indian History—Period 3.—India during the British period from 1600 to 1919 together with the contemporary history of the British Empire.

28 and 29. Modern European History—

Period 1, 1453-1740.

Period 2, 1740-1920.

Questions may be asked on the history of countries outside Europe so far as a knowledge of that history is necessary to the understanding of European History.

30. British History—Period 1, 1485-1714.

31. British History—Period 2, 1714-1815.

32. British History—Period 3, 1815-present day.

33. General Economics—Candidates will be expected to have a knowledge of economic theory and should be prepared both to illustrate the theory by the facts and to analyse the facts by the help of the theory. Questions may be set on the history of economic thought.
34. Economic History—Candidates will be expected to have a knowledge of both British and Indian economic history with special reference to the economic development of India during the British period, such knowledge will be expected of conditions in other countries as is necessary for the understanding of the subject.
35. Public Economics—A knowledge will be expected of the main forms of State action, central and local in the economic sphere, and of public finance.
36. Political Theory—Candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of political theory and its history, political theory being understood to mean not only the theory of legislation, but also the general history of the State and its connection with kindred studies such as Jurisprudence, Public International Law and Economics. A knowledge of original authorities is required.
37. Political Organization.—Constitutional Forms (Representative Government, Federalism, &c.), and Public Administration, central and local. Candidates will be expected to understand the origin and development of existing institutions.
38. Moral Philosophy—The subject covers the history and the theory of Ethics, Eastern and Western and includes moral standards and their application, the problems of moral order and progress of Society and the State, and theories of punishment.
39. Metaphysics—The subject covers the history of Western Philosophy and should be studied with special reference to the problems of space, time and causality, evolution and value, the nature of God.
40. Logic.—Formal logic, scientific method, epistemology in its bearing, on logical problems and the history of logic. Questions may be set on the logic of mathematics, symbolic logic and the logic of probability.
41. Private Law—Contracts and torts. This subject is confined to English Law.
42. Constitutional Law—The constitutional law of the United Kingdom, including the relations between the United Kingdom and other parts of the British Empire.
43. Jurisprudence—Theories as to the nature of law, including the theory of sovereignty. The sources of law and its development with particular reference to English and Roman law. The character and classification of rights and duties (legal and equitable). The analysis of the leading conceptions employed in law.
44. Roman Law—Roman private law and its history studied in connexion with the Institutes of Gaius and Justinian, including the history of the legislative and judicial process. Passages will be set for translation and comment, but credit will not be given merely for capacity to translate the texts.
- 45 and 46. Lower Mathematics, Pure and Applied—Logarithms, numerical equations, graphs, approximation, infinite series, complex numbers, solution of triangles. Geometry in two and three dimensions according to the method of Euclid. Analytical geometry in two dimensions (method of Descartes). The construction of plans, elevations and sections of solid bodies (method of Monge). The method of vectors, including scalar and vector products with applications to the other parts of Lower Mathematics. Differential co-efficients, maxima and minima, integrals, the application of the infinitesimal calculus to curves. Projectiles, harmonic motion, momentum, energy, power, Equilibrium of rigid bodies in two dimensions, link polygons, virtual work, simple machines, e.g., tackle cranes, engine governors, brakes. Fluid pressure expansion of a perfect gas, air pump.
47. Higher Mathematics, Pure.—
Lower Pure Mathematics together with—
The Geometry of Curves and Surfaces, Elementary analysis, including simple functions of a complex variable and contour integration. Differential equation in one independent variable, elementary treatment of partial differential equations with special reference to the differential equations of mathematical physics. Existence theorems are excluded.
Calculus of Finite Differences including Numerical Integration and summation of Linear Differential Equations.
48. Higher Mathematics, Applied.—
Lower Applied Mathematics together with Statics (Advanced) including graphical treatment. Dynamics to the Equations of Euler and Lagrange and including the theory of the vibration of strings and other simple systems.
Hydrodynamics including the elementary theory of the motion of solids through a liquid, and surface waves.
Electricity and Magnetism.
Thermodynamics, Kinetic theory of gases, radiation.
- NATURAL SCIENCE. Subjects 49 to 60
49. Lower Chemistry.
50. Higher Chemistry.
51. Lower Physics.
52. Higher Physics.
- 53 and 54. Lower and Higher Botany.—Botany includes vegetable physiology.
- 55 and 56. Lower and Higher Geology.—Geology includes mineralogy.
57. Lower Physiology.
58. Higher Physiology.
59. Lower Zoology.
60. Higher Zoology.
- 61 and 62. Geography and Higher Geography.—Geography as understood in universities, not excluding topics which concern geography jointly with other subjects such as economics, history, physics, botany and geology. There will be a practical test which will necessitate a knowledge of cartographical methods and notations, and for this test drawing instruments may be required.
63. Astronomy—Celestial co-ordinate, spherical triangles. Astronomical instruments. Time, longitude, latitude, Orbital motion of the earth, aberration. Precession, nutation, libration, parallax. Celestial mechanics solar system, Eclipses. Atmospheric refraction.
The stars and constellations. Nautical Almanac. Descriptive discussion of sun, moon, planets. Descriptive discussion of double stars, nebulae, clusters, variable stars, comets. Star magnitudes and distances. Stellar movements.
Application of spectroscopy to astronomy. Solar spectrum. Star spectra and classification.
The temperature's absolute magnitudes and diameters of stars.
64. Statistics.—(1) Frequency distributions, averages, percentiles, and simple methods of measuring dispersion, graphic methods, treatment of qualitative data, e.g., investigation of association by comparison of ratios, the practice of graphic and algebraic methods of interpolation.
(2) Practical methods used in the analysis and interpretation of statistics of prices, wages and incomes, trade, transport, production and consumption, education, &c., methods of dealing with population and vital statistics, miscellaneous methods used in handling statistics of experiments or observations.
(3) Elements of modern mathematical theory of statistics frequency curves and the mathematical representation of groups generally, accuracy of sampling as affecting averages, percentages, the standard deviation, significance of observed differences between averages of groups, &c., the theory of correlation for two variables.
65. Psychology (including Experimental Psychology).—Questions on Experimental Psychology and on the History of Psychology may be set.
66. Social Anthropology.—The subject should be studied with special, but not exclusive, reference to peoples of rude culture and to prehistoric civilization.
