INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES (CONCILIATION) ORDINANCE,
CHAPTER. 110.

THE report sent to the Controller of Labour under section 6 (3) of the above Ordinance by the Conciliation Board appointed to inquire into the dispute which had arisen between Messrs. C W Mackie & Company, Colombo, and C. W Mackie & Company Workers' Union and to endeavour to effect a settlement is hereby published in terms of section 7 of the above Ordinance

2. The representatives of the parties, namely, Mr C W Mackie (Junior), for Messrs C W Mackie & Company and Mr M G Mendis for C. W Mackie & Company Workers' Union, are required to state in writing, in terms of section 7 of the above Ordinance, to the Controller of Labour, within fourteen days after the date of publication of this notice, whether they accept or reject the recommendations made.

F C GIMSON,
Colombo, September 15, 1941. Controller of Labour

Report.

I was appointed Chairman of a Board in terms of section 4 (5) of the Industrial Disputes Conciliation Ordinance, Chapter 110, to inquire into and take early steps to effect a settlement of the dispute which had arisen between Messrs. C. W Mackie & Company and C. W. Mackie & Company Workers' Union.

The Union elected Mr M. G. Mendis to represent the workers. The Controller of Labour appointed Mr C W Mackie, Junior, to represent the firm at the inquiry owing to the refusal of Messrs C. W. Mackie & Company to nominate a representative. Mr C W. Mackie, Junior, was unable to accept the appointment as a representative for C. W. Mackie & Company, Limited, on the Board of Conciliation. In these circumstances, I had to function alone as the Board

2. It became clear at an early stage that Messrs. Mackie & Company contested the existence of any Industrial Dispute and sought information from me in regard to the dispute by their letter at page 14. I replied by my letter at page 20 indicating that the Board will inquire into matters referred to in the Controller of Labour's letter No. T 7 of June 7, 1941 (copy at page (18A)), and any other matters which may be raised by the parties to the dispute when the Board began its sittings

3 At the first meeting of the Board it became apparent that it was impossible to bring about a settlement as contemplated by section 6 of Chapter 110 and that a formal investigation had to be carried out

4. Mr Rowan of Messrs. Julius & Creasy, who appeared on behalf of C. W. Mackie & Company contended that he was not aware of any Industrial Dispute within the terms of the definition of an Industrial Dispute in section 2 of Chapter 110 and was anxious to have before him the actual matters which were claimed to arise necessitating conciliation.

5. Mr Proctor Coomaraswamy, who appeared for the Union on that day agreed to communicate to me before July 15, 1941, the matters which arose for conciliation. On July 14, 1941, Mr. Coomaraswamy wrote to me the letter at page 33 stating that he had had no instructions from his clients and that he was unable to comply with the undertaking to submit a statement on "the matters which it is claimed arise for conciliation" before the 15th instant. Mr. Mendis, however, as President of the Union, wrote me the letter at page 32 indicating that all the matters in dispute between C W Mackie & Company Workers' Union and C W Mackie & Company, Limited, arise from the non-observance of the agreement arrived at between these parties on October 24, 1940. I was in some doubt whether this letter referred to the undertaking of Mr. Coomaraswamy or whether it did not. I sent copies of both letters to Messrs Mackie & Company, Limited

6 At the next meeting of the Board on August 6, 1941, Mr. Advocate Nadarasa definitely gave the matters in dispute as—

- (1) the recognition of the Mackie & Company Workers' Union by Mackie & Company, Limited, and
- (2) The re-employment of Mr Chandran by Mackie & Company, Limited

7 Mr. Rowan raised the question whether the first issue concerning recognition comes within my terms of reference. After argument I made my Order at page 48, holding that the issue regarding recognition does fall within my terms of reference.

8. At the next hearing on August 14, 1941, Mr Rowan regretted that he could not concede, as a matter of principle, that the question of recognition is one which falls within the purview of the Board and that he did not propose to take part in any deliberations or lead any evidence in connection with the first issue which dealt with the recognition of the Union. By consent, issue No 2, that is "the re-employment of Mr Chandran by Mackie & Company, Limited" was taken up first. Mr Chandran and Mr. Nagendra gave evidence on this issue and after the addresses Mr Rowan withdrew from the proceedings.

9. In terms of section 6 (5) I nominated as a representative of the parties.

Mr. M. G. Mendis,
Ceylon Trade Union Federation,
211, Union place, Colombo.

to represent Mackie & Company Workers' Union and

Mr. C. W. Mackie, Junior, of Colombo

to represent Mackie & Company, Limited

10. Without Mr Rowan I then went on to deal with issue 1, i.e., the recognition of the Union and evidence was given by Mr. M. G. Mendis, thereafter Mr. Nadarasa addressed the Board.

11. In regard to the facts.

The evidence connected with the present dispute began with document A 2, which is an agreement between Mackie & Company Workers' Union and Mackie & Company, Limited. The immediately relevant clauses in this agreement A 2 are —

(2) Recognition of the Union,

(3) "Re-employ C. B. Chandran as a Collector as soon as the lorries are ready for work. If these do not arrive within one month from this date, the question of giving suitable work will be reviewed; and

(4) Not to victimize labourers for being members of the Union."

The reference to "slacking" of work is also relevant. This agreement was signed by Mr. Youngson (of Mackie & Company, Ltd.) by Mr. Mendis, by Mr. Chandran and several others. Re-employment of Mr. Chandran:

12. As was done in the proceedings I take issue 2 first, namely, the re-employment of C. B. Chandran. The agreement A 2 prescribes two methods by which Chandran was to be re-employed —

(a) As a Collector as soon as the lorries are ready for work assuming that the lorries will arrive within one month from that date, or

(b) any other suitable work if the lorries did not arrive

It is admitted in evidence that the lorries did not arrive within one month from that date (they appear to have arrived in May, 1941), and the only question left is in regard to the giving to Chandran of other suitable work. It is also admitted that in April, 1941, Chandran was offered work as a watcher at Rosehaugh Stores. The only issue for decision is whether this work was suitable work. Two points are in doubt—

First—whether Nagendra told Chandran that the pay was rupee one a day (against his previous pay of 90 cents, reduced to 75 cents) and Second—whether Nagendra told Chandran on his first visit to Annesley Stores that the job at Rosehaugh Stores was that of watcher and not of checker.

Both questions are not of outstanding importance because Chandran did not consider the post of watcher at Rosehaugh Stores a suitable post for him and refused this employment

Mr. Chandran's reasons for rejecting the employment were —

- (i.) that the post of watcher was not an intellectual one,
- (ii.) that he assumed that the post of watcher involved the possibility of fighting, standing in the sun all day, and possibly helping in the loading; and
- (iii.) was in the nature of a "demotion".

It would appear as if Chandran was also influenced by the fact that at Rosehaugh Stores he was isolated from large number of workers in Annesley Stores

It is admitted that all three posts, viz, checker, collector, and watcher do not call for skilled labour, I accept Mr. Nagendra's evidence that the post of watcher at Rosehaugh Stores was peculiar in that the watcher did other duties than those of a mere watcher.

Mr. Nagendra explained how it came about that this post was offered to Chandran and how Chandran's former post was not available because loading at Annesley Stores was reduced to work at one door instead of two, owing to watch of shipping. In all the circumstances of the case I cannot consider that the work of watcher at Rosehaugh Stores offered to Chandran was unsuitable. The question as to whether this action of Mackie & Company, Limited, in offering Chandran work as a watcher and not as a checker amounts to a breach of the agreement A 2 is not of immediate consequence, because the transactions relating to the offer to Chandran of employment did not take place till April, 1941, and the agreement had already been repudiated by Mackie & Company, Limited, by their letter A 3 dated December 11, 1940.

Recognition:—

13. I now pass on to a consideration of the question of recognition as stated in issue 1 as one of the matters in dispute.

Clause 2 of the agreement A 2 states clearly that Mackie & Company, Limited, recognized the labour Union formed by the workers and this particular Union is the one referred to. The agreement was signed on October 24, 1940, then appear to have followed allegations of slack work and the intervention of the Employers' Federation, and the next act I can trace is that the management of Mackie & Company, Limited, sent letter A 3 on December 11, 1940.

There then appears to have been a letter dated December 19 (and referred to in A 9 dated December 20)—imposing conditions of recognition.

The "recent events" mentioned in A 3 is explained at paragraph 2 of A 10 and A 11 where a fall-off in the standard of efficiency is referred to. The same paragraph also infers that the withdrawal of the recognition of the Union was not based on the ground that the agreement A 2 has been violated, and paragraph 3 appears to indicate that the Employers' Federation had intervened and prescribed certain conditions as pre-requisites to the recognition of this registered Trade Union, Z 8 also has a reference to the Employers' Federation. In the course of the proceedings Mr. Rowan stated that the reference in correspondence to a decision of the Employers' Federation was incorrect and should have read "recommendations."

In this finding on the issue of recognition I should wish to refer again to my Order at page 48 on the preliminary issue raised by Mr. Rowan, in which I held that the question of recognition is covered by the term Industrial Dispute. In regard to the phrase "the term of the employment or the conditions of labour" in the definition of "Industrial Dispute" the only decision shown me is the decision in Moscrop V London Passenger Transport Board reported at page 281 of All England Law Reports, 1940, Volume 4. Section 6 of the Trade Disputes and Trade Union's Act, 1927, refers to "a condition of the employment of any person" and in the judgment just referred to this condition of employment has been held to cover other conditions than contractual conditions, and 'condition' has been defined as "a bundle of rights and liabilities, powers and disabilities, advantages and disadvantages, attaching to the particular status (condition) in question."

It will produce unusual results if the recognition of a Trade Union were held not to be covered by the term Industrial Dispute. Following the terms of the definition of "Industrial Dispute" there is no doubt that in the present case the recognition of the Union is a "dispute or difference between employers and workmen", the only issue left is whether this dispute is "connected with the terms of employment or with the conditions of labour," the trend of the decision mentioned in the previous paragraph is to give a wide interpretation to the conditions of labour and not to limit these conditions to contractual conditions or to "exclude any condition which might be advantageous to an employee." I am of opinion that it is so connected and hold on this issue that the recognition of the Union by Mackie & Company, Limited, is an Industrial Dispute within the terms of the Ordinance No 3 of 1931.

The Union had once been recognized by Mackie & Company, Limited, as shown on A 2. The question of the withdrawal of this recognition with reasons therefor does not appear to have been discussed with the other party to the agreement A 2 and the Union appears to fear that there will be no finality if Mackie & Company, Limited are allowed at any time to cancel recognition and insist on further conditions as prerequisites to recognition. The only intervening factors I can find are the alleged falling off in efficiency and the intervention of the Employers' Federation. On the material now before me I cannot hold that the withdrawal of that recognition was justified and I accordingly find that the withdrawal of the recognition was not in order.

14. I have had the advantage of reading parts of the Report of the Royal Commission on Labour in India where at pages 323 to 326 the controversy regarding recognition and the implications of recognition are dealt with.

15. The recommendations of the Board of the two matters in dispute are that Mackie & Company, Limited, should recognize Mackie & Company Workers' Union and that Mackie & Company, Limited, should not be compelled to offer Mr. C. B. Chandran the work he insists on having, namely, that of a checker or of a collector.

Control of all fellings and the areas in which fellings shall take place shall be at the discretion of the Divisional Forest Officer.

(d) Should the contractor or any of his agents or workmen be responsible for the felling or damaging of any trees of whatever girth of accepted timber species or for causing any damage to trees not marked for felling which in the opinion of the Divisional Forest Officer is avoidable, the contractor shall be liable to a fine not exceeding double royalty for each tree so felled or damaged.

Rejected material will not be paid for but will lapse to Government. In the event of a dispute arising owing to deduction for bad stacking, &c, the wood is liable to be restacked by the contractor and the measurement made after such restack shall be considered as final for purposes of payment. No payment or certificate shall protect or be deemed to protect the contractor in the case of any overpayment.

(k) Nothing in this contract shall preclude the Divisional Forest Officer from taking action in accordance with the provisions of the Forest Ordinance, Cap 311, against the contractor for felling or allowing labourers to fell any tree outside his area of contract which should not be felled in accordance with the conditions of the said contract or without the necessary permit prescribed by the said Ordinance.

Mr D S Goonesekera moved as an amendment that Miss G Monian and Mrs D V M Thomas be appointed as acting Public Health Nurses with effect from August 1, 1941, on the initial salary attached to the post plus the other allowances Mr Thomas Amarasuriya seconded. The Mayor opposed the amendment. The amendment was then put to the meeting and declared lost by the Mayor's casting vote Mr D. S. 4 At this stage, with the permission of Council Mr T W Roberts asked the following questions which the Mayor answered —
 Q—(1) How many buildings has the Medical Officer of Health reported unfit for habitation during the last 3½ years? A—67, including tenements

Q—(2) How many of these have been closed and how many remain inhabited? A—6 of these buildings have since been demolished. 15 are vacant, and 46 are occupied. In 12 cases the buildings were occupied after the necessary improvements had been effected.

Q—(3) In view of the complaints that the recently painted benches on the ramparts, in spite of being dry, leave paint marks on the clothes of persons sitting on them, will the Mayor investigate whether the paint used was of good quality? A—The benches were painted in February, 1941, and the Works Engineer reports that the paint used was of a very good quality. As these complaints were apparently made only after the advent of the S-W Monsoon, the Engineer considers that the monsoon winds might possibly have adversely affected the paint.

Arising out of the reply to question (1) the following supplementary questions were asked and answered by the Mayor —
 Mr P Dahanayake —Out of the 67 houses, how many are rented out and how many are occupied by the owners? Mayor I need notice of the question

Mr T W Roberts —Is any further action intended to be taken against the houses that continue to be inhabited without the necessary improvements being effected? Mayor The Sanitation and Markets Committee was asked to report on a motion on houses unfit for human habitation, but the report is not yet ready

Arising out of the reply to question (3) Mr T W Roberts asked the following supplementary question which the Mayor answered —
 Will the Mayor verify the brand of the paint used and also the report of the Works Engineer, by consulting the Executive Engineer? Mayor I shall make further investigations
