(5) No motion to rescind any resolution which has been passed within the preceding six months, nor any motion to the same effect as a motion which has been negatived within the preceding six months, shall be in order, unless notice thereof has been given and specified in the agenda and unless the notice bears, in addition to the signature of the member who proposes the motion, the signatures of five other members and when such motion has been disposed of, it shall not be competent for any member to propose any similar motion within the period of six months next following.

(6) No motion shall be deemed to have been submitted for debate until it has been proposed and seconded.

(7) Any member may formally second a motion or amendment without prejudice to his right to speak at a later period of the debate.

(8) Before any motion of which previous notice has not been given is moved, it shall be reduced to writing, signed by the mover, and handed to the Clerk.

(4) No amendment shall be discussed or put to the Committee until it has been seconded.

(5) A member who has seconded an amendment in a formal manner shall be permitted afterwards to speak upon it.

(6) Whenever an amendment to any motion under discussion has been moved and seconded, no second or subsequent amendment shall be moved until the first amendment has been disposed of.

If an amendment to a motion is carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion, and shall become the question to which any further amendment may be moved.

Debate ceases when question is fully put

13. No member shall speak on any question after the same has been fully put by the chairman of the meeting. A question is fully put when the voting has been taken thereon.

Voting and recording of votes

14. (1) The question shall be put by the chairman of the meeting, and the votes shall be taken by a show of hands, or by a secret ballot, as the Committee decides, and the result shall be declared by the chairman of the meeting. In any case where the votes are taken otherwise than by secret ballot, any member may call for a division, and in that event the votes shall be taken by the Clerk asking each member separately, according to the order of precedence, how he desires to vote, and recording the votes accordingly.
