5. (1) The degree of disablement caused to a person by a qualifying injury or by any two or more qualifying injuries shall be assessed and certified in accordance with the following provisions of this Article by a medical officer or board of medical officers appointed or recognised by the Financial Secretary for the purpose.

(2) The degree of disablement caused to a person by a qualifying injury or by any two or more qualifying injuries shall be assessed by making a comparison between the condition of disablement which has been caused to that person by that injury, or by the combined effect of those injuries, and the condition of a normal healthy person of the same age and sex without taking into account the earning capacity of the disabled person in his own or in any other specific trade or occupation, and so that the extent to which that condition of disablement has been aggravated by individual factors or extraneous circumstances shall not be included in the degree at which that disablement is assessed.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding provisions of this Article, whore a person whose degree of disablement falls to be assessed has been awarded a pension or other grant payable out of public funds (not being a pension awarded under this Scheme) in respect of another disablement suffered by him, that degree of disablement shall be assessed in accordance with any direction which may be given by the Financial Secretary for the purpose of securing that in the assessment thereof account shall be taken of that other disablement in such manner and to such extent as may be specified in the direction.

(4) The degree of disablement assessed under this Article shall be certified by way of a percentage, total disablement being represented by one hundred per centum and a lesser degree of disablement being represented by such lesser percentage as, being a multiple of ten, bears to one hundred per centum the same proportion as that lesser degree of disablement bears to total disablement.

PART II.

Injury Allowances.

- (1) The provisions of this Part of this Scheme shall have effect for the purpose of enabling the Financial Secretary to make, in accordance with such arrangements as may from time to time appear to him best suited for the purpose, temporary and provisional payments to or in respect of persons who have sustained qualifying injuries
- (2) No decision of the Financial Secretary upon an application made under this Part of this Scheme in respect of an injury shall be deemed to prejudice or affect any decision which he may have to make in respect of that injury under Part III of this Scheme.
- Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, where a qualifying injury has incapacitated a person for work for a period of not less than seven consecutive days, that person shall be entitled to be awarded in respect of that injury an allowance (hereinafter referred to as an "injury allowance") in accordance with the following provisions of this Part of this Scheme:

Provided that an injury allowance shall not be awarded in respect of an injury sustained by any person—

(c) regulation 27 of the regulations under section 10 (2) of the Naval Volunteer Ordinance, published in the Supplement to Gazette No. 8,332 of November 26, 1937, as amended by the regulation published in Gazette No. 8,668 of October 11, 1940.

Provision as to members of regular and volunteer forces.

Cap. 258.

Cap. 254.

25. (1) No pension or allowance under Part III and no grant under Part IV of this Scheme shall be awarded in respect of any injury sustained by any member of any of the armed forces of the Crown or any person employed in the nursing service or other auxiliary service of any of those forces who was required to give whole time service as such a member or as a person so employed.

(2) Where a person to or in respect of whom an award may be made under this Scheme was, at the date on which he sustained the injury in respect of which the award may be made, a member of the Ceylon Defence Force or of the Ceylon Naval Volunteer Force, and was required to give whole time service as such a member, no pension or allowance awarded under this Scheme in respect of that injury shall be paid-

(a) where the injury is causing him serious and prolonged disablement, in respect of any period during which he continues to be such a member; or

(b) where his death is the direct result of the injury, in respect of any period during which any allowances are paid
under any written law by reason of the fact that he was a member of the Ceylon Defence Force or of the Ceylon Naval Volunteer Force:

Provided that where the aggregate amount of any pension and allowances in respect of dependent children which might, but for the foregoing provisions of this Article, have been paid under this Scheme in respect of the period mentioned in paragraph (b) of this Article are in excess of the aggregate amount of those allowances, an amount equal to that excess may be paid.

Provision as to negligence or misconduct.

26. Where an injury, or where incapacity for work, disablement or death arising from an injury, is attributable to the serious negligence or misconduct of the person sustaining the injury, the Financial Secretary may withhold or cancel any award which may be or has been made under this Scheme in respect of that injury, or may reduce the amount thereof.

Injuries sustained outside Ceylon.

- 27. An award under this Scheme shall not be made in respect of an injury sustained outside Ceylon by
 - (a) a person ordinarily resident outside Ceylon; or
 - (b) a person ordinarily resident in Ceylon while absent from Ceylon for personal, domestic, or pleasure purposes

Provided that nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Article shall preclude the making of an award under this Scheme in respect of-

(i) a Class A injury; or

(ii) a war injury sustained by a person ordinarily resident in Ceylon while travelling by sea or by air between any place in Ceylon and any other place in Ceylon.

- 28. The Financial Secretary may withhold cancel an award of an injury allowance, pension, allowance or grant under this Scheme if he is satisfied that the person to or in respect of whom the injury allowance, pension, allowance or grant may be or has been awarded is or has become ordinarily resident outside Ceylon.
- 29. Where on an application for the award of a pension or allowance under Part III of this Scheme the death of a person is claimed to be the direct result of an injury, no award shall be made on that application in respect of that injury if it was sustained more than seven years before the date of the death of that person.
- 30. (*) Where a person to or m respect of whom an injury allowance, pension or allowance may be or her been awarded under this Scheme in respect of an injury has received or respect of that injury, or has been paid any sum in settlement or composition of his claim to any such damages, the Financial Secretary may take the monthly value of the whole or such part as the Financial Secretary may think fit of those damages or of that sum into account against the amount of that injury allowance, pension or allowance, and may, for the purpose of securing that only the excess, if any, of that amount over that value shall be or shall have been paid to or in respect of that person, withhold or cancel the award of that injury allowance pension or allowance or reduce the amount thereof.

(2) Where a person-

- (a) refuses or neglects to claim or to take or prosecute proceedings to recover, damages in respect of an injury in respect of which an award of an injury allowance; pension or allowance may be or has been made to or in respect of that person; or
- (b) continues proceedings to recover any such damages; or
- (c) accepts any sum in settlement or composition of his claim to any such damages;

and the Financial Secretary considers that such refusal, neglect, continuance or acceptance is unreasonable, the Financial Secretary may withhold or cancel the award of that injury allowance, pension or allowance or reduce the amount thereof.

- 31. Where it is certified by a medical officer or board of medical officers appointed or recognised by the Financial Secretary for the purpose that a person who has sustained a qualifying injury should in his own interests undergo medical treatment for that injury, and that person refuses or neglects to undergo that treatment, the Financial Secretary may, if he considers that such refusal or neglect is unreasonable, withhold or cancel any award of any injury allowance, pension or allowance which may be or has been made under this Scheme in respect of that injury, or may reduce the amount of any such award.
- 32. Where the Financal Secretary is satisfied in the case of any person to whom a pension or allowance may be or has been awarded under Part III of this Scheme that the payment of a lump sum in lieu of that pension or allowance is justified by the circumstances of the case, the Financial Secretary may award to that person such a lump sum as aforesaid.
- 33. Any pension or allowance under Part III. of this Scheme may be awarded provisionally or upon any other basis, and for such period as the Financial Secretary may think fit, and may be paid monthly in advance.
- 34. The Financial Secretary may at any time roviow any award made by him under this Scheme and, if it appears to him that by reason of any mistake of fact, any change in the condition or circumstances of the person to whom the award was made, or for any other reason whatsoever, it is expedient so to do, he may increase or reduce the rate of any pension or allowance awarded, cancel an award, or make a fresh award, so, however, that no pension or allowance shall be increased to a rate exceeding the appropriate rate specified in the Article under which it was awarded.

(a) No officer shall be deemed to have an absolute right to any 1. pension, gratuity, or allowance under these rules, and the Board reserves to itself the power to dismiss an officer without

(b) No pension, gratuity or retiring allowance shall be granted on retirement to any officer without the authority of the Governor, in order to obtain which a certificate of good conduct from the Chairman setting out the length of service, age and ground of retirement must be forwarded, together with the application for pension, gratuity or retiring allowance, and the computation thereof, through the Commissioner of Local Government to the Controller of Establishments.

Establishments.

2. (1) Subject to the provisions and exceptions hereinafter contained, every officer holding a permanent office in the service of the Board and drawing a salary of 12th less than Rs. 400 per annum may be granted a pension calculated at the rate of 1/720th of the salary of the office or offices held by him at retirement for each month of service counting for pension, provided that he has completed not less than 120 months' gross service, and provided further that no pension awarded under these rules shall exceed 480/720ths of the salary upon which the pension is computed.

(2) If such an officer retires on account of illness or age before completing 120 months' gross service, he may receive a gratuity calculated at the rate of 1/12th of a month's salary of the office or offices held by him at retirement for each month of service.

3. Any officer may be required to retire from the service of the

3. Any officer may be required to reture from the service of the Board on or after attaining the age of fifty-five years; but retirement shall be compulsory on his attaining the age of sixty years, unless the Governor decides that his services shall be retained.

No pension shall be granted to an officer returng before he

4. No pension shall be granted to an officer returng before he attains the age of fifty-five years unless a Medical Board, consisting of two Medical Practitioners nominated by the Chairman, certifies that the officer is unfit to discharge the duties of his office owing to infirmity either of mind or body, and unless he shall have theretofore discharged such duties to the satisfaction of the Chairman.

5. The Chairman may call upon an officer, who is below the limit of age for retirement on pension, to retire from the service on the ground of his mability to discharge efficiently the duties of his office. In such a case the Board may by special resolution, subject to the approval of the Governor, grant such retiring allowance or gratuity as is considered just and proper, but in no case exceeding the amount for which the length of service of the officer would qualify him. qualify him.

6. In the case of the abolition of any pensionable office, the pension or gratuity payable to the officer holding such office will be that which would have been payable to him, had he retired on grounds of ill-health.

7. No pension or gratuity granted under these rules shall be assignable or transferable.

8. (1) The service to be reckoned for pension shall be calculated from the date on which the officer commences to draw salary in respect of his first permanent appointment, whether pensionable or not. Acting service in an office carrying claims to pensions shall, when contracts with permanent employment, count as service for not. Acting service in an office carrying claims to pensions small, when continuous with permanent employment, count as service for pension, provided no other officer was earning pension for the same period in respect of the same office. The service of an officer under sixteen years of age shall not in any case count for pension.

(2) An officer is entitled to reckon as service for pension the whole period of absence on leave with half salary. Absence without salary will not count as service for pension.

9. (1) The pension or gratuity awarded to an officer shall be computed upon the salary drawn by him, at the time of his retirement, in respect of the permanent office or offices then held by him, provided that he shall have held such office or offices, to which the provided that he shall have field such office of offices, to which the same fixed salary or incremental scale of salary is attached for at least three years, otherwise the pension or gratuity shall be calculated upon the average of the salaries attached to the permanent offices held by such officer during the three years next preceding the date of his retirement.

(2) For the purposes of these rules salary will include, in addition to the salary of the permanent office or offices held by him, any allowance voted to him by resolution of the Board as a pensionable allowance, but no other emolument whatsoever.

allowance, but no other emolument whatsoever.

10. The rates of pension, retiring allowance, and gratuity set forth in these rules shall be granted only in cases of faithful and meritorious service. Where the testimony as to good conduct is in any way defective, a deduction may be made from the pension or gratuity, and where the misconduct of an officer has been of a serious nature the pension or gratuity may be entirely withheld.

11. The service in respect of which pensions or gratuities are granted ought in all cases to have been continuous unless interrupted by abolition of office or but empossing a granted or property and the service in the service of t granted ought in all cases to have been continuous unless interrupted by abolition of office or by temporary suspension of employment not arising from misconduct or voluntary resignation. Service prior to a break of service may, however, be allowed to count for pension together with service subsequent to such break, if the whole of the intervening period has been spent in some employment under government or under another statutory Local Authority.

12. If any retired officer in receipt of a pension or returning allowance is convicted of any offence in any Court in the Island and sentenced to death or to any term of rigorous imprisonment exceeding six months, the payment of such pension or allowance shall be forthwith discontinued unless such retired officer shall within three months of such conviction receive an unconditional pardon, or unless the

of such conviction receive an unconditional pardon, or unless the Board with the approval of the Governor in any case for special reasons otherwise decides.

13. If any retried officer to whom a pension, annuity, or allowance has been granted under these rules becomes a bankrupt, such pension, annuity, or allowance shall forthwith cease; but it shall be lawful for the Board with the approval of the Governor, from time to time during the remainder of such retried officer's life or during such shorter period or periods, whether continuous or otherwise as may be necessary, to pay all or any part of such pension, annuity, or allowance to, or to apply the same for the maintenance and personal support or benefit of such retired officer and his wife and children jointly or any one or more of them exclusively, as may in the circumstances of each case be necessary or expedient.

14. (1) Eway officer who is transferred to a post under Government or under another statutory Local Authority with the approval of the Board, shall be entitled on ultimate retirement to pension for the sorvices rendered to the Board provided that he retires from the latter service in circumstances which would entitle him to pension under those rules. In all such cases the amount contributed by the Board by way of pension shall be based only on the service under the Board and the final salary drawn from the Board.

(2) An officer who has been transferred to the service of the Board from some other employment under Government or under another statutory Local Authority may if he retires from the service of the Board after completing ten years' public service in all, but before completing ten years' service under the Board, be awarded, in lieu of a gratuity, an annuity based on service and salary under the Board calculated in the manner press. bed by rule 2 (1).

15. No retired officer may at any time draw from the funds of the Board an amount of pension which, when added to the amount of any pension or pensions drawn in respect of other public service exceeds two-thirds of the highest pensionable emoluments drawn by such retired officer at any time in the course of his service under the Board or in such other public service

16 If any retired officer in receipt of a pension or retiring allowance from the Board returns to the service of the Board, ho may be allowed to retain his pension or retiring allowance during the period of his re-employment in which case he shall receive on his ultimate retirement no award whatever under those rules; or he may be required to forego the pension or retiring allowance then drawn by him, in which case he shall receive on his ultimate retirement. ment a pension or retiring allowance based on his aggregate service and the highest salary drawn by him at any time during that service. The Chairman shall have the power to decide according to the circumstances of each case the terms on which a retired officer of the Board may be re-employed.

17. In the event of any officer (whether in a pensionable or nonper anable office or on daily pay) dying while in the service of the Board, it shall be competent to the Board, subject to the approval of the Governor, to grant to such person as the Board may approve for the benefit of the widow or next-of-kin of such officer, a gratuity not exceeding three months' pay and an additional gratuity equivalent to one month's pay for each or child.

18. If any case not confident in the award of a pension, retiring allowance, or gratuity, a report sotting out the circumstances of such case together with the recommendation of the Board, shall be forwarded through the Commissioner of Local Government and the Controller of Establishments, General Treasury, to the Governor for his decision as to the nature and the amount of compensation, if any,
that may be awarded.

A.—At a Conference held at the Town Hall on January 3, 1942, eloven members of Council were selected as A. R. P. Wardens. In view of the regulations published in the Government Gazette No. 8,843 of January 7, 1942, those selected have not been able to act without an order from the Civil Defence Commissioner. Q.—(2) What steps have so far been taken to expedite Civil Defence Measures and to give necessary instruction to Air Raid Wardens and others associated with them? A —In reply to certain inquiries made by the Municipal Commissioner the Civil Defence Commissioner states that Kendy is not an area indicated as requiring intensive Air Raid Precautions and it is not considered necessary to establish an A. R. P. Service in Kandy. He proposes, however to forward soon a simple A. R. P. Scheme suitable for Kandy. Q.—(3) Does the Mayor intend to arrange loctures and get leaflets published in Sinhalese, Tamil, and English dealing with explicit instructions relating to precautionary measures? A.—Leaflets for general distribution were applied for. I am awaiting the simple Air Raid Precautions Scheme reforred to above. Q.—(4) Have any steps been taken so far to dig trenches in suitable places in the town? A.—Instructions have been given to the Works Engineer to dig slit trenches at the Town Hall premises and Market square to serve as the models to be copied by members of the public. Q.—(5) Have any proposals been made by the Central Government for the construction of shelters or trenches in this town? A.—No, not so far as I am awaro. Q.—(6) In what parts of the town is it proposed to establish First Aid Posts? A.—The Divisional Medical Superintendent, Kandy, is classified to the construction of shelters or trenches in this town? A.—No, not so far as I am awaro. Q.—(5) Have any steps to establish 16 First Aid Posts at the following places —Main Central Station,

STATUTORY RULES AND ORDERS

1941 No. 2136 REPRISALS

Japan

Order in Council applying Orders in Council for restricting the Commerce of Japan.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1941.

Present,

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

Whereas, by reason of her unprovoked aggression, His Majesty has been compelled to proclaim the existence of a state of war with Japan:

And whereas Japan has carried out attacks against British, United States and other territory without previous warning, either in the form of a declaration of war or of an ultimatum with a conditional declaration of war, in flagrant violation of international law and particularly of Article 1 of the Third Hague Convention relative to the opening of hostilities, to which both Japan and the United Kingdom are parties. United Kingdom are parties:
And whereas, after the outbreak of the present war, Japan signed

And whereas, after the outbreak of the present war, Japan signed a Treaty of Co-operation and Mutual Assistance with Germany and Italy. dated the 27th day of September, 1940, and has from time to time by her actions and declarations manifested the clear intention of affording Germany and Italy support and assistance in the prosecution of their hostilities against His Majesty

And whereas, on the 11th day of December, 1941, the said Treaty was supplemented by a Treaty of Military Alliance between the three powers, and Japan is accordingly now allied with Germany and Italy in the present war:

And whereas these facts give to His Majesty an unquestionable right of retaliation by applying to the commerce of Japan measures similar to those taken against that of Germany and Italy:

And whereas by Orders in Council dated the 27th day of November, 1939(a), the 11th day of June, 1940(b), and the 17th and 31st days of July, 1940(c), His Majesty was pleased to direct certain measures to be taken against German and Italian commerce as an act of retaliation against the illegal acts referred to in the said Orders.

New therefore, His Majesty is pleased by any with the advance.

Orders.

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows.—Subject to the substitution of the 7th day of December, 1941 for the 4th day of December, 1939, in articles 1 and 2 of the Order in Council dated the 27th day of November, 1939, the said Order and the Orders in Council dated the 17th and 31st days of July, 1940, shall apply for restricting the commerce of Japan in the same manner as they apply for restricting that of Germany and Italy.
