DEFENCE regulations made by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Emergency Powers (Defence) Acts, 1939 and 1940, of the Imperial Parliament, as adapted, modified and extended to Ceylon by the Emergency Powers (Colonial Defence) Order in Council, 1939, and the Emergency Powers (Colonial Defence) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1940

By His Excellency's command,

C. H. HARTWELL,

Colombo, March 29, 1942.

Regulations

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Defence (Detention of Aliens) Regulations, 1942.

2. The Governor may, by Order, direct the detention of any alien with respect to whom the Governor is satisfied that the alien has been brought or sent to Ceylon by order of a competent naval, military or air force authority if, in the opinion of the Governor, the detention of the alien is necessary or expedient for securing the public safety, the defence of the Island, the maintenance of public order, or the efficient prosecution of any war in which His Majesty may be engaged.

3. For the purposes of these Regulations, an alien shall be deemed to have been brought or sent to Ceylon by order of a competent naval, military or air force authority if it is certified by the appropriate authority that the alien has been so brought or sent by the orders of an officer of—

- (a) any of His Majesty's naval, military or air forces ;
- (b) any naval, military or air forces of any foreign power engaged, in alliance with His Majesty, in any war in which His Majesty is also engaged ; or
- (c) any naval, military or air forces maintained by any foreign authority recognized by His Majesty as competent to maintain such forces for service in association with His Majesty's forces, and that that officer was competent to give such order as aforesaid ; and for the purpose of giving such a certificate the appropriate authority shall be, in the case of an officer of His Majesty's forces, the Commander-in-Chief, East Indies, the General Officer Commanding the Troops in Ceylon, or the Air Officer Commanding, Ceylon, and, in the case of an officer of the forces of any foreign power or authority, the Government of that power or authority.
