THE PROVISIONS OF 23 GEO. 5, C. 6 APPLIED
WITH ADAPTATIONS AND MODIFICATIONS.

1.—(1) . . . . .

(2) The members of any French service court exercising jurisdiction by virtue of the Allied Forces Act, 1940, and witnesses appearing before any such court shall enjoy the like immunities and privileges as are enjoyed by a service court exercising jurisdiction by virtue of the Naval Discipline Act, the Army Act, or the Air Force Act, as the case may be, and by witnesses appearing before such a court.

(3) Where any sentence has, whether within or without the United Kingdom, been passed upon a member of a Free French Force by a French service court, then for the purposes of any legal proceedings within the United Kingdom the court shall be deemed to have been properly constituted, and its proceedings shall be deemed to have been regularly conducted, and the sentence shall be deemed to be within the jurisdiction of the court and in accordance with the French service code, and if executed according to the tenor thereof shall be deemed to have been lawfully executed, and any member of a Free French Force who is detained in custody in pursuance of any such sentence, or pending the determination by a French service court of a charge brought against him, shall for the purposes of any such proceedings as aforesaid be deemed to be in legal custody.

For the purposes of any such proceedings as aforesaid a certificate under the hand of the officer commanding a Free French Force that a member of that force is being detained for either of the causes aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the cause of his detention, but not of his being such a member and a certificate under the hand of such an officer that the persons specified in the certificate sat as a French service court shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.

(4) No proceedings in respect of the pay, terms of service or discharge of a member of a Free French Force shall be entertained by any court of the United Kingdom.

(5) For the purpose of enabling French service courts and French service authorities to exercise more effectively the powers conferred upon them by the Allied Forces Act, 1940, the Admiralty, Army Council, or Air Council, as the case may be, if so requested by the officer commanding a Free French Force, or by the French authority, may from time to time by general or special orders to any home force direct the members thereof to arrest members of the Free French Force alleged to have been guilty of offences against the French service code, and to hand over any person so arrested to the appropriate authorities of the Free French Force.

2.—(1) His Majesty may by Order in Council authorise any Government department, Minister of the Crown, or other person in the United Kingdom, to perform, at the request of such authority or officer as may be specified in the Order, but subject to such limitations as may be so specified, any function in relation to a Free French Force and members thereof which that department, Minister, or person performs or could perform in relation to a home force of like nature to the Free French Force, or in relation to members of such a force and, for the purpose of the exercise of any such function, any power exercisable by virtue of any enactment by the Minister, department or person in relation to a home force or members thereof shall be exercisable by him or them in relation to the Free French Force and members thereof;

c. 51.

Interpretation.

Relations of Free French Forces to the civil power and civilians.

Provided, that nothing in this subsection shall authorise any interference with the Free French Force in matters relating to discipline, or to the internal administration of the force.

For the purposes of this subsection, the Admiralty, the Army Council and the Air Council shall be deemed to be Government departments.

(2) If His Majesty by Order in Council so provides, members of a Free French Force if sentenced by a French service court to any form of imprisonment, or detention may, under the authority of a Secretary of State or the Admiralty, given at the request of the officer commanding the Free French Force, be temporarily detained in custody in prisons or detention barracks in the United Kingdom or may, under the like authority be imprisoned or detained during the whole or any part of the term of their sentences in prisons or detention barracks in the United Kingdom, and His Majesty may by the same, or a subsequent Order make provision with respect to any of the following matters, that is to say, the reception of such persons from, and their return to, the French service authorities concerned, their treatment while in such custody, or while so imprisoned or detained, the circumstances under which they are to be released, and the manner in which they are to be dealt with in the event of their unsoundness of mind while in such custody, or while so imprisoned or detained.

Any costs incurred in the maintenance and return of, or otherwise in connection with, any person dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this subsection shall be defrayed in such manner as may, with the consent of the Treasury, be agreed between the Secretary of State or the Admiralty and the French authority.

(3) Subject as hereinafter provided, any enactment (whether contained in the Naval Discipline Act, the Army Act, the Air Force Act or any other statute) which—

- (a) exempts, or provides for the exemption of, any vessel, vehicle, aircraft, machine or apparatus of, or employed for the purposes of, the home forces or any of them from the operation of any enactment; or
- (b) in virtue of a connection with the home forces or any of them, confers a privilege or immunity on any person; or
- (c) in virtue of such a connection, excepts any property, trade or business, in whole or in part, from the operation of any enactment, or from any tax, rate, imposition, toll or charge; or
- (d) imposes upon any person or undertaking obligations in relation to the home forces, or any of them, or any member or service court thereof; or
- (e) penalises misconduct by any person in relation to the home forces or any of them, or any member or service court thereof.

shall, with any necessary modifications, apply in relation to a Free French Force as it would apply in relation to a home force of a like nature to the Free French Force:

Provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council direct that any such enactment either shall not apply or shall apply with such exceptions and subject to such adaptations or modifications as may be specified in the Order.

(4) An Order in Council under this section may apply either generally, or in relation to any particular Free French Force, or in relation to any particular place.

3.—(1) This section applies to the naval, military and air forces maintained by the French authority for service in association with His Majesty's forces, whether or not they are Free French Forces as defined in Article 2 of this Order.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, paragraphs (1) to (4) and paragraph (9) of section one hundred and fifty-four of the Army Act (which relates to the apprehension of deserters and absentees without leave from a home military force) shall within the United Kingdom apply in relation to a deserter, or absentee without leave, from any force to which this section applies, as they apply in relation to a deserter, or absentee without leave, from a home military force, but as if any reference in the said paragraphs to military custody included a reference to naval or air force custody:

Provided that the said paragraph (9) shall not apply by virtue of this subsection except in relation to a deserter or absentee without leave from a Free French Force.

(3) No person who is alleged to be a deserter from any such force as aforesaid shall be apprehended or dealt with under this section except in compliance with a specific request from the French authority, and a person so dealt with shall be handed over to the French service authorities at such place in the United Kingdom as may be agreed:

Provided that a person who is alleged to be a deserter or absentee without leave from a Free French Force may also be apprehended and dealt with under this section in compliance with a request, whether specific or general, from the officer commanding that force.

(4) For the purposes of any proceedings under this section—

- (i) a document purporting to be a certificate under the hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty, the Secretary of the Army Council or the Secretary of the Air Council, that a request has been made under subsection (3) of this section shall be admissible without proof as evidence of the making of such a request;
- (ii) a document purporting to be a certificate under the hand of the officer commanding a unit or detachment of any force to which this section applies that a named and described person was at the date of the certificate a deserter, or absentee without leave, from that force shall be admissible without proof as evidence of the facts so certified.

5.—(1) His Majesty may as regards any colony by Order in Council direct that the provisions of subsection (2) of section one of the Allied Forces Act, 1940, together with the provisions, as applied by this Order, of sections one to three of the Visiting Forces (British Commonwealth) Act, 1933, or such of those provisions as may be specified in the Order, shall, subject to such adaptations and modifications as may be so specified, apply in that colony in relation to forces maintained by the French authority and in relation to deserters and absentees without leave, as they apply in the United Kingdom.

An Order in Council under this subsection may apply any such provisions either generally, or in relation to any particular force.

(3) In this section the expression "colony" includes any territory which is under His Majesty's protection.

6. The last foregoing section shall apply in relation to any territory in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations is being exercised by His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom as if that territory were for the time being a colony.

Chapter 51.

AN ACT TO MAKE PROVISION WITH RESPECT TO THE DISCIPLINE AND INTERNAL ADMINISTRATION OF CERTAIN ALLIED AND ASSOCIATED FORCES, AND FOR THE APPLICATION IN RELATION TO THOSE FORCES OF THE VISITING FORCES (BRITISH COMMONWEALTH) ACT, 1933, THE NAVAL DISCIPLINE ACT, THE ARMY ACT AND THE AIR FORCE ACT.

[22nd August 1940.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) Where any naval, military or air forces of any foreign Power allied with His Majesty are for the time being present in the United Kingdom or on board any of His Majesty's ships or aircraft, the naval, military and air force courts and authorities of that Power may subject to the provisions of this Act, exercise within the United Kingdom or on board any such ship or aircraft in relation to members of those forces, in matters concerning discipline and internal administration, all such powers as are conferred upon them by the law of that Power.

(2) Where any foreign authority is recognised by His Majesty as competent to maintain naval, military or air forces for service in association with His Majesty's forces, the said authority may by order made with the concurrence of the Admiralty or a Secretary of State, as the case may be, confer, whether by reference to the present or former national law of the authority or otherwise, upon naval, military and air force courts and authorities constituted in accordance with the order all such powers as may be necessary to secure the discipline and internal administration of any forces so maintained which are for the time being present in the United Kingdom or on board any ship or aircraft serving in association with His Majesty's forces or on board any of His Majesty's ships or aircraft.

(3) His Majesty may by Order in Council provide for the application to any such naval, military and air forces as are mentioned in subsections (1) and (2) hereof, subject to such adaptations, modifications and exceptions as may be provided by the Order, of subsections (2) to (5) of section one, of sections two and three, of subsections (1) and (3) of section five, and of section six, of the Visiting Forces (British Commonwealth) Act, 1933, as amended by or under any enactment whether passed before or after this Act:

Provided that the reference in subsection (1) of the said section five (which provides for the extension of the Act to colonies) to sections one to three

Application of Act and of 3 & 4 Geo. 6, c. 51 to colonies.

Application to mandated territories.

Law applicable to allied and associated forces.

Provisions with respect to deserters from certain forces.

of the Act shall be construed, for the purposes of this section, as a reference to such of the provisions of the said sections one to three as are applied under this section and to subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

2.—(1) Nothing in the foregoing section shall affect the jurisdiction of any civil court of the United Kingdom, or of any colony or territory to which that section is extended, to try a member of any of the naval, military or air forces mentioned in that section for any act or omission constituting an offence against the law of the United Kingdom, or of that colony or territory, as the case may be.

(2) If a person sentenced by a court exercising jurisdiction by virtue of the foregoing section to punishment for an offence is afterwards tried by any such civil court as aforesaid in respect of any act or omission which constituted that offence, the civil court shall, in awarding punishment in respect of that act or omission, have regard to any punishment imposed on him by the said sentence.

(3) A court shall not have jurisdiction by virtue of the foregoing section to try any person for any act or omission constituting an offence for which he has been acquitted or convicted by any such civil court as aforesaid.

3.—(1) For the purpose of securing effective co-operation between His Majesty's forces and the forces of any such allied Power or foreign authority as is mentioned in section one of this Act, His Majesty may by Order in Council provide for the application of the Naval Discipline Act, the Army Act or the Air Force Act, as the case may be, to members of any of the forces of that Power or authority, subject to such adaptations, modifications and exceptions as may be provided by the Order, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the Order may modify the procedure for the trial and punishment under the said Acts of offences committed by members of the forces of the allied Power or foreign authority and may in particular provide for enabling courts-martial trying such offences to comprise officers of those forces as well as officers of His Majesty's forces.

(2) Any Order in Council made under this section may make provision for securing that—

(a) no member of the forces of the allied Power or foreign authority shall be punished both under the Naval Discipline Act, the Army Act or the Air Force Act, as the case may be, and by virtue of section one of this Act for the same offence; and

(b) in the case of offences which may be punished either under the Naval Discipline Act, the Army Act or the Air Force Act, as the case may be, or by virtue of the said section one, or in the case of such of those offences as may be specified in the Order, no proceedings shall be taken by virtue of the said section one without the consent of such authority as may be appointed by the Admiralty, the Army Council or the Air Council, as the case may be.

4.—(1) Any Order in Council or order made under this Act may be varied or revoked by a subsequent Order in Council or order made in like manner.

(2) Evidence of any order made under sub-section (2) of section one of this Act, or of any order varying or revoking such an order, may be given by the production of a copy of the order purporting to be printed by His Majesty's printer

5.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Allied Forces Act, 1940.

(2) This Act shall expire on such date as may be fixed by His Majesty by Order in Council, but any such Order may provide for the continuance of any provisions of this Act or of any Order in Council or order made under the foregoing provisions of this Act, in so far as they relate to offences committed before the said date.
