Sale of Mining Lease for Plumbago—Hambantota.

THE Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota, will put up for sale by public auction the lease for a period of 5 years of the right to mine for plumbago in the Crown lots, described in the schedule below, at the Tangalla Resthouse on November 6, 1942, at 3 p.m. on the following conditions—

(1) The leases shall be sold to the highest bidder provided that the sum offered shall at the least amount to the upset premium of Rs. 500 per acre

(2) The officer conducting the sale may, before accepting any bid at the sale, satisfy himself as to the bona fides of the bidder, and in the event of his not being satisfied, may refuse to accept such bid and may continue the sale as if no such bid had been made

(3) The person declared to be the highest bidder shall immediately on such declaration pay to the Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota, a deposit of 10 per cent of the purchase amount and also sign these conditions of sale. Should such person fail either to pay the said sum of money or to sign these conditions of sale his bid shall stand cancelled, and the Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota, shall be at liberty to resell the lease in the same manner as in the original instance provided that no bid shall be accepted from the defaulting purchaser.

(4) On payment to the Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota, within the time specified, of the purchase amount in full, the purchaser will be let into possession of the land and will receive an indenture of lease entitling him to mine for plumbago therein subject to the following conditions, inter alia—

(a) The term of the lease shall be five years with an option to the lessee to renew the lease for a further term of five years upon such conditions as the Assistant Government Agent may consider suitable. Provided that the lessee may terminate the lease by six months' notice to the lessor in writing.

(b) The lessee shall utilise any non-scheduled timber on the land which may be required by him for operations incidental to the purpose of the lease. He shall, however, not remove any timber whatsoever from the land without the permission of the Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota, or otherwise than in accordance with such permission

(c) The lessee shall have no right to mine for or remove any minerals other than plumbago, which may be discovered in or upon the land.

(d) The lessee shall deposit with the Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota, a sum of Rs. 100 per acre as security for the due fulfilment of the conditions of the lease.

(e) The lessee shall, in respect of every year of the term of the lease, pay to the Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota—

(i) a sum calculated at the rate of 5 per cent. of the estimated value of all plumbago put out from the land during that year, or

(ii) a sum calculated at the rate of Rs. 100 per acre or portion of an acre of the leased land, whichever amount is greater.

(5) If at any time after the sale of the lease, but before the issue of the indenture of lease it appears to the Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota, that the putting up for sale of the said lease was due to some mistake or oversight, but for which the same would not have been offered or put up for sale, or that there is pressing need for the retention of the said land by the Crown, the Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota, may declare the said sale cancelled and thereupon the purchaser shall be entitled to a refund of any deposit made by him, but to no compensation or any other relief whatsoever

(6) Should the purchaser or an attorney sufficiently authorised by him for the purpose fail or neglect for any reason whatsoever to sign the indenture of lease within ten days of its being presented to him for signature, or of a notice in writing to present himself at a place and time to be specified therein to sign the said indenture, the Assistant Government Agent, Hambantota, shall have the right to declare the said sale cancelled and to forfeit as liquidated damages and not as penalty for failure to sign the indenture of lease, any sum of money which the purchaser may have paid and the purchaser shall not be entitled to any refund of any sum so forfeited, nor to compensation for improvements or damages sustained, nor shall he have a claim to any other relief whatsoever.

(7) The purchaser of the lease shall allow any existing right of way through the lots, described in the schedule, to the mines that are on either side of these lots and the owners of these mines shall be in undisturbed possession of the right of way across the lots in this schedule.
