PASSED ORDINANCES

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof

No. 49 of 1943.

L D — O 7/38

An Ordinance to provide for the prevention and punishment of bribery and corruption of and by members of local authorities

A CALDECOTT

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows —

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Public Bodies (Prevention of Corruption) Ordinance, No 49 of 1943

Short title

2 (1) Any person who corruptly gives, promises or offers to any member of a public body, whether for the benefit of such member or of another person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever as an inducement to or reward for such member doing or forbearing to do any official act, shall be guilty of an offence

Offer or giving of gratification to member of public body or to influence a member

(2) Any person who corruptly gives, promises or offers to any other person, whether for the benefit of that person or of another person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever, as an inducement to or reward for influencing any member of a public body to do or forbear to do any official act, shall be guilty of an offence

3. (1) Any member of a public body who corruptly solicits or receives or agrees to receive, for himself or for any other person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever as an inducement to or reward for such member doing or forbearing to do any official act, shall be guilty of an offence

Taking of gratification by member of public body or to influence a member

(2) Any person who corruptly solicits or receives or agrees to receive, for himself or for any other person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever as an inducement to or reward for influencing any member of a public body to do or forbear to do any official act, shall be guilty of an offence

4 (1) Any person who commits any offence under this Ordinance shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment

Penalties for and trial of offences under this Ordinance

(2) The court which convicts any person of any offence under this Ordinance may, in addition to the penalties prescribed in sub-section (1), order as a further penalty, that the whole or any part of the amount or value of any gift, loan, fee or reward received by that person shall be recovered from him in the same manner as a fine imposed by the court, and any sum so recovered shall be disposed of in such manner as the court may direct

Cap 16.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the Criminal Procedure Code, a District Court shall have jurisdiction to try, on indictment, any offence under this Ordinance and to impose any penalty prescribed in the preceding provisions of this section

(4) No prosecution for any offence under this Ordinance shall be instituted except by or with the written sanction of the Attorney-General

Vacation of seat and disqualification

5. (1) Any member of a public body who is convicted of an offence under section 3 shall vacate his seat or office with effect from the date of such conviction

(2) Any person who is convicted of an offence under section 3 committed during his membership of a public body shall, for a period of five years reckoned from the date of such conviction, be incapable of being registered as a voter or of voting at any election of members of any public body or of being elected, nominated or appointed, or of sitting or voting, as a member of any public body

(3) Where any person who is convicted of an offence under section 3 appeals against such conviction, the following provisions shall have effect —

(a) nothing in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall apply unless such conviction is affirmed in appeal,

(b) where the conviction is so affirmed, the provisions of those sub-sections shall apply as though the references therein to the date of his conviction were references to the date of the affirmation of his conviction in appeal, and

(c) if such person is, between the date of his conviction and the date of the affirmation of the conviction in appeal, elected, nominated or appointed as a member of any public body, that person shall, with effect from the date of the affirmation of the conviction, vacate his seat or office as a member of that public body

(4) Where any person, by reason of the operation of any of the preceding provisions, vacates his seat or office as a member of any public body, the provisions of the Ordinance by or under which that public body is constituted shall apply for the purpose of filling the vacancy so occurring in like manner as they would have applied if such member had resigned his seat or office

Interpretation

6 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

“advantage” includes—

(a) any office or dignity, and any forbearance to demand any money or money's worth or valuable thing, and

(b) any aid, vote, consent or influence, and

(c) any promise or procurement of or agreement or endeavour to procure, or the holding out of any expectation of, any gift, loan, fee, reward, or advantage as heretofore defined,

“official act”, when used with reference to any member of a public body, includes any act which that member is, by or under the provisions of any law for the time being in force relating to that public body, empowered, authorised, entitled or required to do or forbear to do in respect of any matter or transaction whatsoever, actual or proposed, in which the public body is concerned,

“public body” means any Municipal Council, Urban Council, Local Board, Sanitary Board or Village Committee, and includes any standing or select or other committee of any such Council, Board or Committee
