THE EMERGENCY POWERS (DEFENCE) ACTS, 1939. AND 1940.

F.S.O.—351/10 (CY)

DEFENCE regulation made by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Emergency Powers (Defence) Acts, 1939 and 1940, of the Imperial Parliament, as adapted, modified and extended to Ceylon by the Emergency Powers (Colonial Defence) Order in Council, 1939, and the Emergency Powers (Colonial Defence) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1940.

By His Excellency's command,
C. H. HARTWELL,
Secretary to the Governor.

Colombo, June 24, 1942.

Regulation.

The Defence (Coin and Currency Notes) Regulations, published in Gazette Extraordinary No. 8,835 of December 22, 1941, as amended by any subsequent defence regulation, are hereby further amended by the insertion, immediately after regulation 6 thereof, of the following new regulation :—

Cap. 41. 6A. The Ceylon Coinage Ordinance shall, so long as these regulations are in force, have effect as though in sub-section (1) of section 3 of that Ordinance, for the words " any gold or silver coin ", there were substituted the words " any coin ".

10. In these regulations—

“Government institution” means any hospital, clinic or other establishment maintained by the Government for the free treatment of venereal diseases;

“instruction card” means a card provided by the proper authority for distribution by medical practitioners and officers of Government institutions to women suffering from gonorrhoea, with a view to instructing them as to the precautions and other measures that should be taken for ensuring a cure and for preventing the spread of the disease;

Cap. 90.

“medical practitioner” means a person registered as such under the Medical Ordinance, whether such person is in private practice or is holding office in the Department of Medical and Sanitary Services;

“proper authority” means the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services, or in relation to any particular area, means the Government medical officer appointed by him to be the proper authority for that area;

“woman” includes a girl over fourteen years of age.
